Wade, Dr. Edward Waters, and Dr. E. Wilkinson.

Read letters of apology for non-attendance from Dr. Matthews Duncan, Dr. Eyton Jones, Dr. Sibson, F.R.S., Dr. Waters (Liverpool), and Mr. Wheelhouse.

Resolved: That referring to a letter of Dr. Dyce Brown, complaining of the refusal of the General Secretary and Manager to insert in the JOURNAL a certain advertisement, the action taken by the General Secretary be approved.

Resolved: That the 127 gentlemen whose names appear in the circular convening the meeting be, and they are hereby, elected members of the British Medical Association.

Resolved: That the By-Laws be approved, and the Glasgow and West of Scotland Branch be, and it is hereby recognised as, a Branch of the British Medical Association.

Resolved: That the Committee of Council of the British Medical Association desire to offer their cordial congratulations to their fellow members of Glasgow and district, upon the successful formation of a Branch, and express their conviction that it will be the means of increasing the friendly intercourse of English and Scotch members of the British Medical Association, and co-operation in advancing the interests of the medical profession. The thanks of the Association are due to Dr. Joseph Coats and others for their labours in the formation of the Branch.

Read Report and proposed By-Laws of the formation of one Branch, in place of the two Shropshire Branches; viz., the Shropshire Ethical Resolved: That the best thanks of the Committee of Council be given to Mr. Favell, Mr. Jackson, and Mr. Knight, for their attendance this day, and for their very cordial and unanimous invitation.

Read letter from Dr. Taaffe, reporting the death of Sir Cordy Burrows, the President-elect.

Read resolution of the Council of the South-Eastern Branch.

"That, in consequence of the lamented decease of the Presidentelect, Sir Cordy Burrows, and in respect to his memory, and further, in deference to the generally expressed feeling of the profession in Brighton, the Council of this Branch would suggest to the Committee of Council that it is inexpedient in the interests of the Association to hold the approaching Annual meeting in Brighton, or in the South-Eastern Branch.'

Resolved: That the lamented decease of the President-Elect so increases the difficulty of insuring a successful meeting at Brighton, it be recommended to a special general meeting that the meeting should be held at Sheffield.

W. D. HUSBAND, Treasurer, April 15th, 1876.

We have examined the above accounts for the year 1875, with the ooks and vouchers of the Association, and find the same to be correct.

PRICE, WATERHOUSE, & Co., 13, Gresham Street, E.C.,
March 23rd, 1876.

* The "losses on advertisements", amounting to between £600 and £700, are this year reported much larger than usual, as the accounts due for advertisements, which had been accumulating for years (principally because before being registered the Association could not legally sue), have been carefully investigated, and those not recoverable written off. None other than debts likely to be recovered are inserted as assets in this Financial Statement.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MR. BRANWELL ON THE BRIGHTON PROCEEDINGS.

SIR,-In replying to my letter in the JOURNAL of the 8th instant, Mr. Branwell has so misrepresented its object and its nature, that it is necessary for me to repeat that it was only written with a view to enter my protest against the manner in which the South-Eastern Branch and its Council had been drawn into the dispute with regard to the meeting proposed to have been held in Brighton in August next.

I totally deny that I made any charges against the "Brighton men"; the reasons that I stated as influencing some in their opposition have been definitely given by Brighton men themselves; and I do not think it can be denied that both had their effect.

Mr. Branwell's statement, that "these assertions have been constantly denied and repudiated at the various debates of the Branch Council, at which Dr. Lanchester has assisted", is simply inaccurate and calculated to mislead. In the first place, there have been altogether but two meetings of the Branch Council at which this subject has been discussed, and at which I have been present; and next, of these, only one has been held since the difficulty with regard to the readership of addresses has occurred; and, so far from this being generally denied and repudiated as a ground of offence, it was distinctly given by more than one speaker as the reason of his support to the resolution of which I complain.

I am ready to confess that I had not forgotten to have heard it stated by one speaker, that all opposition had really sprung from a belief in the existence of grave faults in the organisation, management, and policy of the Association itself; nor, though a natural modesty has led him to omit mention of it, has it escaped my recollection that this speaker was Mr. Branwell himself. I know not whether it was that the vague grandeur of this view so puzzled the minds of those present,

- PARISH NURSES.

  Fig.—In reply to Mr. Briscoe, I beg leave to say charity cannot be better applied than in providing parish nurses for the sick poor. By a poor person is meant one who, by the force of surrounding circumstances, cannot provide for himself. I am sure the hearty goodwill and co-operation of all medical men towards civil. obliging nurses, can be gladly accorded. We warmly appreciate the value of good nurses, ready and willing to obey and carry out instructions. Nurses must not be confounded with midwives. As a rule, there is much jealousy, and justly so, towards midwires; although we admit there is always need for their useful services. A parish nurse should not be a midwife. In the employment of nurses, discretion and prudence are needful on all sides: moreover, nurses should not profess or teach any sectarian differences in religion, whatever their private convictions may be. For my part, I say welcome parish nurses.—I am, sir, yours obediently,

  SAFFRON WALDEN UNION.

  We have been asked to give an opinion on the subject of the matters at issue between Mr. Stear and Mr. Harley, with respect to the appointment of medical officer to the Saffron Walden Union. We are loth to do so, however. The course taken by either party in such a case must be rather a matter of feeling than of rights. The only person clearly in the wrong in the matter is the clerk; and while Mr. Harley has good reason to complain of having been misled, his right to call upon Mr. Stear to resign is open to a great deal of discussion. It is really a matter for amicable discussion, if for any at all, and it might advisably be referred to the Council of the Branch if the matter is to go any further. We may say that we have received from correspondents diametrically opposite views as to the proper course of conduct of the parties concerned, and as to their respective right.

- bustion. Testimonial to Dr. Maurice Corr.

  Thirty years ago, when the position and emcluments of dispensary medical officers in Ireland were miserable, Dr. Corr devoted himself, at the request of the Council of the Royal College of Surgeons, to the task of securing from Parliament such legal enactments as would raise their status. As the delegate of the College, and subsequently as Assistant Poor-law Commissioner, he successfully pressed on parliamentary committees and successive governments the need of a complete reorganisation of the medical charities; and, in fact, originated the reform which has raised so highly the position of dispensary physician, and quadrupled their incomes. His devotion to this work withdrew him from remunerative professional occupation. The position thus lost he was never able to regain, and he is now, at the close of a long life, in most straitened circumstances. His claims to the sympathy and assistance of his brethren was felt by the Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons to be so strong that, at the annual meeting in May 1875, it was unanimously resolved: "That it is the opinion of this College that the faithful and very important services rendered by Dr. Corr to the College and to its Fellows and Licentiates holding Poor-law medical appointments throughout Ireland are hereby recommended to the Council for favourable consideration, with the view to remunerate him for those services, and for the serious sacrifices incurred by him in his endeavours to benefit his professional brethren." To this resolution, however, the Council found that they could only give effect by appointing him to a temporary office at a small salary, in consequence of the legal obligations of their charter. The Royal Medical Benevolent Society has also contributed. A committee has been formed for the purpose of collecting from the members of the profession—especially the se connected with the Poor-law service—a sum to supplement Dr. Corr's income, at present most precarious, and internemental profession in t
  - sufficient for giving him and his family the necessaries of life, inasmuch as the sums just mentioned were at once absorbed for debts previously incurred, and the renewal of such grants cannot be ensured.

    The following gentlemen have kindly agreed to act on the committee and receive subscriptions:—Dr. C. Benson, 42.
