

"Clinical Endocrinology"

Nineteen articles on different aspects of this expanding specialty were published in the B.M.J. at the beginning of 1972. They have now been revised by their authors and published as a paperback, price £1.25 (including postage). The book is obtainable from the Publishing Department, B.M.A. House, Tavistock Square, London WC1H 9JR.

Hamilton Bailey Prize

A travelling scholarship worth £750 open to consultants or senior registrars in surgery, radiology, anaesthetics, or pathology, is offered by the British Section of the International College of Surgeons. Applications for this third Hamilton Bailey Prize should be sent to the Secretary of the British Section, Royal Northern Hospital, Holloway Road, London N.7, not later than 31 May 1973.

D.G.A.M.S.

Major-General J. P. Baird, late R.A.M.C., has been appointed Director General of Army Medical Services and has been granted the acting rank of Lieutenant-General.

European Union of Medical Specialists

The three draft directives supported by the Council of the European Union of Medical Specialists were published in Appendix II of the Annual Report of Council (Supplement, 10 March, p. 79). These directives were approved by the Permanent Committee of Doctors of the Common Market but shelved by the Council of Ministers in December, in response to criticisms from several countries. The last sentence of our report on the meeting of the Council of the European Union of Medical Specialists (14 April, p. 127) should have read "This action was deplored [shelved by the Council of Ministers] by the Permanent Committee . . ." and not "developed" as printed.

Committee of Inquiry into the G.M.C.

The committee of inquiry into the regulation of the medical profession is inviting evidence relative to its terms of reference (see B.M.J., 24 February, p. 499) from organizations concerned with medicine, and from minority groups within the medical community. Written evidence should be sent to the Secretary, B. Bridges, 80-94 Newington Causeway, London S.E.1.
