

Compensation for Injury

The Royal Commission on Civil Liability and Compensation for Personal Injury, who began by inviting evidence on injuries suffered in the course of employment and road transport injuries, are now extending their invitation to the remaining areas of their remit. These are: death or personal injury "through the manufacture, supply or use of goods or services; on premises belonging to or occupied by another; or otherwise through the act or omission of another where compensation under the present law is recoverable only on proof of fault or under the rules of strict liability."

Organizations or individuals wishing to submit evidence should send this to the Secretary, The Royal Commission on Civil Liability and Compensation for Personal Injury, 22 Kingsway, London WC2B 6LE. (Tel. 01-242 6828, Ext. 509.)

Corrections

Haemophilus influenzae

We regret that owing to a printing error the letter from Drs. K. Cartwright and D. C. Turk (27 April, p. 225) was given an incomplete heading. This should have read "Haemophilus influenzae Cellulitis."

Studies on Gastrointestinal Cells

The Handbook and Atlas of Gastrointestinal Exfoliative Cytology by João Carlos Prolla and Joseph B. Kirsner (6 April, p. 64) is published by the University of Chicago Press, and not by the M.I.T. Press as stated.
