

New association for prevention of child abuse

The British Association for the Study and Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect held its inaugural meeting in London on 23 June. Membership will be drawn from paediatricians, lawyers, social workers, psychiatrists, psychologists, and others interested in the health and welfare of children. An international congress will be held in London in September. Details from Dr A White Franklin, 149 Harley Street, London W1N 4DE (01-935 4444).

New society for study of gambling

Although gambling is widespread in the community, little is known about its impact, except that when carried to excess it may lead to dependence. The Society for the Study of Gambling has been formed to promote scientific study of the psychological, psychiatric, social, and economic aspects and to inform the public. Membership ranges from psychiatrists who treat compulsive gamblers to members of the gambling industry, and there are regular meetings for lectures and discussion. Details from Dr E Moran, Department of Psychiatry, Enfield District Hospital, Enfield, Middlesex (01-366 6600).

Society for Research in Rehabilitation

At the inaugural meeting of the Society for Research in Rehabilitation on 21-22 June the following office holders were elected—Professor V Wright (president); Dr P J R Nichols (president elect); Professor R C B Aitken (honorary secretary); Professor H Glanville (honorary treasurer); Dr J Hunter (junior honorary secretary); Lady Mildred Blaxter, Miss L Dyer, Dr R Goble, Dr R L Hewer, Miss L Hockey, Professor R M Kenedi, Professor S Miller, Professor M Warren (ordinary members). Information about the society can be obtained from Professor Cairns Aitken, Rehabilitation Studies Unit, Princess Margaret Rose Hospital, Fairmilehead, Edinburgh EH10 7ED.

Cancer Research Campaign

Articles on environmental factors and cancer and on cancer immunology research at Nottingham are included in the 1977 annual report of the Cancer Research Campaign. There is also a tribute to Professor Sir Theo Crawford (who has retired this year as chairman of the campaign's scientific committee), followed by an article by Sir Theo on the committee's work during 25 years. The report gives details of all research projects being supported in 1978, and of publications by the supported workers. The income from legacies and donations was nearly £7m in 1977, a small increase in real terms over the previous year.

Institute of Basic Medical Sciences

Details of research programmes and publications in anatomy, biochemistry, pathology, applied physiology and surgical sciences, medical physics, and pharmacology are given in the report of the Institute of Basic Medical Sciences for 1977. The institute provides postgraduate training for two classes of students—those doing research in one of its departments for a higher degree and those needing a course in the basic medical sciences for a higher degree or diploma. The report may be obtained from the institute, Royal College of Surgeons of England, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London WC2A 3PN.

Instructions to authors

The following are the minimum requirements for manuscripts submitted for publication.

(1) Typing should be on one side of the paper, with double or triple spacing between the lines and 5-cm margins at the top and left-hand side of the sheet.

(2) Two copies (or preferably three) should be submitted.

(3) Spelling should conform to that of Chambers Twentieth Century Dictionary.

(4) References must be set out in the style used in the BMJ, and their accuracy verified before the manuscript is submitted.

(5) SI units are used for scientific measurements. In the text they should be followed by traditional units in parentheses. In tables and illustrations values are given only in SI units, but a conversion factor must be supplied. For general guidance on the International System of Units, and some useful conversion factors, see The SI for the Health Professions (WHO, 1977).

(6) Authors should give their names and initials, their current appointments, and not more than two degrees or diplomas. Each author must sign the covering letter as evidence of consent to publication.

(7) Acknowledgments will not be sent unless a stamped addressed envelope or an international reply coupon is enclosed.

(8) Detailed instructions are given in the BMJ dated 7 January (p 6).
