

ASSOCIATION INTELLIGENCE.

COMMITTEE OF COUNCIL: NOTICE OF MEETING.

A MEETING of the Committee of Council will be held at the offices of the Association, 161A, Strand, London, on Wednesday, the 14th day of January next, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

FRANCIS FOWKE, General Secretary.

161A, Strand, London, December 19th, 1879.

STAFFORDSHIRE BRANCH: ANNUAL MEETING.

THE sixth annual meeting of this Branch was held on Thursday, October 30th, 1879, at the George Hotel, Walsall; twenty-three members being present.

Dr. Millington, in the absence of the President, introduced the President-elect, Dr. J. H. TYLECOTE, who then took the chair.

Vote of Thanks.—Dr. TOTHERICK proposed that the best thanks of this meeting be given to the retiring President, Mr. F. E. Weston, for his services during the past year. This was seconded by Mr. FOLKER, and carried unanimously.

New Members.—The following gentlemen were elected members of the Branch: Mr. W. Wilson, Birmingham; Dr. James Gordon, Walsall; Dr. Carter, Birmingham; Mr. B. H. Herbert, Uttoxeter; Mr. H. Langley Webb, Cheadle.

President's Address.—The President delivered an address "On the Geographical Distribution of Disease".

Dr. MILLINGTON proposed that a cordial vote of thanks be given to Dr. Tylecote for the admirable and instructive address which he had just read. It was carried with applause.

Report of Council.—Mr. VINCENT JACKSON read the annual report, as follows.

"Your Council has to report that during the year which has passed three ordinary meetings of the Staffordshire Branch have been held. At Stoke, éclat was given to the meeting by the reading of valuable papers, and the exhibition of Dr. Bigelow's instruments for crushing and removing, by one operation, stone from the bladder; also by an exhibit of very valuable surgical and other instruments. At Stafford, a discussion upon the general question of Branch representatives in the Committee of Council resulted in the following resolution being unanimously passed: 'That this meeting is of opinion that it is expedient that representatives of Branches in the Committee of Council should afford due information to their Branches of the proceedings of the Committee of Council, and that it is injurious to the Association at large that the minutes of the Committee of Council furnished to each member should be directed to be held as private and confidential.' To this important resolution, no reply has been received from the Committee of Council. At Wolverhampton, the meeting, which will always be regarded as an historical one, and to which the members of the Shropshire and Mid-Wales Branch had been invited to attend, was commemorative of the gift of the Bell Medical Library and a sum of one thousand pounds, the interest of which is to be yearly expended in the purchase of valuable medical and surgical books of reference for the use of the medical profession of the town and district. The demonstration of the application of the plaster-of-Paris jacket, and of Cocking's poroplastic corset, by Dr. T. J. Walker of Peterborough and Mr. Coxeter, surgical instrument maker, of London, was valuable and much appreciated. Your Council consider that the combined meetings of Branches—two or more—is a movement which should be encouraged, for whilst it must add much to their stability, usefulness, and popularity, it must also tend to awaken a renewal of personal energy, and to excite a spirit of healthy rivalry. It is satisfactory to your Council to observe that this plan has lately been adopted by other Branches.

"The names of the contributors to the work of the year are the following: Mr. J. Alcock, Mr. Reginald Harrison (Liverpool), Mr. J. Hartill, Mr. R. Garner, Dr. Joseph Hunt, Mr. Spanton, Mr. Wolfenden, Mr. L. Tait, Dr. Fernie, Mr. Folker, Dr. Millington, Mr. Vincent Jackson, Dr. Walker (Peterborough), and Mr. Coxeter (London); and the thanks of your Council are accorded to these gentlemen.

"The number of members is one hundred and twenty-four, eleven new ones having joined since the last annual gathering. The prosperity of the Branch is unabated, and from a financial, professional, and scientific point of view it is a credit to the Association and the county."

The adoption of the report was moved by Dr. JOSEPH HUNT, seconded by Mr. G. SHARP, and carried.

Mr. LAWSON TAIT proposed, and Mr. FOLKER seconded, that the attention of the Committee of Council of the Association be respectfully drawn to the resolution referred to in the report, and which was unanimously passed at the ordinary meeting of the Branch held at Stafford last February, and to which no answer has been received.

Financial Statement.—Mr. J. G. U. WEST read the statement of accounts for the past year, which showed a balance of £13 5s. 6d.

Next Annual Meeting.—Mr. GRAY proposed that the next annual meeting be held at Stoke. This was seconded by Dr. G. LOWE, and agreed to.

Election of Officers for 1879-80.—The following were elected. President-elect: W. H. Folker, Esq. Vice-Presidents: J. T. Arlidge, M.D.; E. F. Weston, Esq. Honorary Secretaries: Vincent Jackson, Esq.; J. G. U. West, Esq. Council: Henry Day, M.D.; E. Fernie, M.D.; J. Gailey, M.D.; F. J. Gray, Esq.; J. T. Hartill, Esq.; Joseph Hunt, M.D.; H. H. Morgan, Esq.; C. Orton, Esq.; G. G. Sharp, Esq.; J. Y. Totherick, M.D.; J. W. Wolfenden, Esq.; J. K. Wynne, Esq. Representatives in the Council of the Association: J. Alcock, Esq.; H. Day, M.D.; W. H. Folker, Esq.; W. G. Lowe, M.D.; W. Millington, M.D.; D. H. Monckton, M.D.; W. D. Spanton, Esq.; Moses Taylor, Esq.

Invitations to Annual Dinners.—Dr. TOTHERICK proposed: "That when the funds of the Branch will allow, the President, with the approval of the Council, shall be empowered to invite the chief magistrate and any other prominent individuals residing in the town where the annual meeting is to be held, to the dinner." This was seconded by Mr. J. HARTILL, and carried unanimously.

Votes of Thanks were passed to the secretaries and auditor.

Dinner.—The members dined together at the close of the meeting.

SOUTH OF IRELAND BRANCH: ANNUAL MEETING.

THE fourth annual meeting of this Branch was held at the Royal Cork Institute on Saturday, November 8th, at 4 P.M.

President.—The chair was taken by the President, Dr. EAMES, who delivered an address, and then vacated the chair in favour of Dr. D. B. O'FLYNN, who has been appointed President for the ensuing year.

Vote of Thanks.—A warm vote of thanks, proposed by Dr. O'Connor, President of the British Medical Association, seconded by Dr. O'Reilly of Lismore, and carried unanimously, was tendered to Dr. Eames for his dignified conduct in the chair during the past year.

The Annual Report of Council was read.

Meetings of the Branch.—It was resolved that the meetings of the Branch be held monthly instead of quarterly as heretofore.

New Members.—Seven new members were proposed.

Election of Officers.—The following were elected. President: D. B. O'Flynn, M.D. President-elect: N. J. Hobart, M.D. Vice-Presidents: R. O'Reilly, L.K.Q.C.P., Lismore; J. A. Eames, M.D. Council: Ringrose Atkins, M.D.; R. Burke, M.D.; H. Corby, M.D.; W. J. Cummins, M.D.; J. G. Curtis, L.R.C.P.Ed.; D. Donovan, M.D.; J. A. Eames, M.D.; N. Grattan, L.R.C.P.Ed.; C. A. Harvey, M.D.; J. R. Hayes, M.D.; N. J. Hobart, M.D.; H. M. Jones, M.D.; A. O'Connor, M.D.; R. O'Reilly, L.K.Q.C.P.; J. O'N. Sisk, M.D.

METROPOLITAN COUNTIES BRANCH: EAST LONDON AND SOUTH ESSEX DISTRICT.

A MEETING of this District was held at the Bow and Bromley Institute on November 20th; MARK LONG, M.D., in the Chair.

Communications.—The following communications were made.

1. A Case of Perforation of Bowel and Wall of the Body by a Spike of Grass. The patient, a boy, was exhibited by Mr. R. H. S. CARPENTER. On September 1st, 1879, he had been amusing himself putting ears of grass into his mouth, when all at once one slipped down. Five or six days afterwards, he complained of pain in the left side, and of inability to raise his left arm to a horizontal position. The pain continued; and on September 14th there was found, between the ninth and tenth ribs on the left side, near the angles, an abscess with the stem-end of the ear of grass just protruding. It was extracted the same evening, fourteen days after having been swallowed. There had been no constitutional disturbance.

2. Mr. R. W. PARKER gave a brief description of the Treatment of Spinal Disease by Plaster-of-Paris, and then put up two cases, one a case of cervical disease requiring the use of the jury-mast.

3. Dr. H. G. ORLEBAR read a paper on the Treatment of Phthisis, the discussion of which was postponed till next meeting.

The following gentlemen, having obtained the qualifying number of marks, have also been accepted.

THE METEOROLOGICAL SOCIETY.—The usual monthly meeting of this Society was held at the Institution of Civil Engineers; Mr. C. Greaves, President, in the chair. A paper on a Sand-Storm at Aden, July 16th, 1878, was read by Lieutenant Herbert H. Russell (8th Regiment); one on a new form of Hygrometer, by Mr. G. Dines. This is a modification of the hygrometer which was first described at the British Association meeting in 1872. The outside dimensions of the instrument, inclusive of the wood-casing, are about ten inches in length, three inches in breadth, and two inches in depth. The upper part consists of a vessel of thin metal, six inches long, two inches and a half broad, and one inch and a quarter deep. Beneath this, and detached from it, but connected by a pipe, is a small chamber, two inches and a quarter long and one inch and a quarter deep from back to front, standing about half an inch more forward than the vessel above, and with a piece of thin black glass in front. Inside this chamber, parallel to the front, is a division which separates it into two parts. This division does not extend quite to the top of the chamber, and is slightly turned over towards the front, so as to allow water to pass over it, and to induce the latter to flow more directly to the centre of the front of the chamber. The upper vessel is connected with the bottom and back part of this chamber by a small pipe, with a tap to it, which is turned from the outside. The front of the chamber has a pipe attached to the bottom, passing upward in an inclined direction, and terminating at the outside in a small lip or spout. A thermometer, with the bulb inside and over the front of the chamber, passes through an India-rubber collar at the top of it, and is protected by a groove sunk in the face of the wooden case. The action of the instrument is as follows. Water, of a lower temperature than the dew-point, is poured in the upper vessel, and, on the tap being turned, flows into the back of the small chamber, and thence, passing over the top of the middle division, flows downwards, cooling in its passage the thermometer and black glass, and eventually escapes by the small spout on the right side of the instrument. As soon as dew appears on the glass, the flow of the water is stopped beyond by means of the tap, and the temperature is read off by the thermometer. When ether is used, it is poured into the small spout, passes down the inclined pipe, and remains in the front part of the chamber. A piece of metal tube, ground so as to fit tightly the inclined pipe, and with an aspirator attached, is then inserted, and the dew-point is ascertained in the same way as by Regnault's hygrometer. A paper on the Diurnal Range of Atmospheric Pressure was read by Mr. R. Strachan. The author had compiled a table of constants, from thirty places in various parts of the globe, which support Sir John Herschel's remark that "the diurnal oscillation of the barometer is a phenomenon which invariably makes its appearance in every part of the world where the alternation of day and night exists; and that, within the Arctic Circle, the diurnal dies out, or rather merges in, the annual oscillation". A note on a curious fracture of a Solar Radiation Thermometer was read by Mr. G. M. Whipple. Mr. R. H. Scott, F.R.S., exhibited and described a new form of Sunshine Recorder, which is to be used during the coming year at a considerable number of stations distributed over England.

SAYRE'S APPARATUS TO THE SPINE.

SIR,—At the Samaritan Hospital for Women and Children, I constantly apply Sayre's plaster-of-Paris bandages in the recumbent position. I have the patient's legs and buttocks placed upon one table, the head and neck on another, a space being left between for the trunk. One nurse makes extension by the legs, another by the arms. In this position, the plaster-of-Paris bandages can be applied quite as readily and as effectually as when the patient is suspended, and with less terror to the patient.—Yours truly,
A. WYNN WILLIAMS, M.D.

DR. DIAMOND (Nuthill).—The certificate you quote is valueless, and ought to have no weight against you. He must be a bold man who, on being called to a case such as you describe, will undertake to say that no diphtheria has been present within fourteen days.

CORRESPONDENTS are particularly requested by the Editor to observe that communications relating to advertisements, changes of address, and other business matters, should be addressed to Mr. FRANCIS FOWKE, General Secretary and Manager, at the Journal Office, 161, Strand, London, and not to the Editor.

A TOUCHING APPEAL.

SIR,—Dr. Heywood Smith has kindly inserted in your valuable paper an appeal on my behalf. May I ask you to peruse the following statement, and then, perhaps, you will kindly use your great influence for me? I am seventy-four years of age, and for some years have suffered from disease of the bladder and cancer. I was last year for four months in St. George's Hospital, and was operated on by Mr. Pollock, who removed the penis; but the abscesses still continue to discharge, and my strength is gradually giving way. I am quite unable to do anything in my profession from the prostration of system, and have not done so for some years. All my means are gone, and I am really almost destitute; and where I am staying I shall be obliged to leave, from inability to pay the poor people (it is a small place, where the proprietor breeds poultry). I knew them some years ago. Do, sir, I entreat of you, interest yourself for an old fellow medical. I can refer you to Mr. Pollock, Dr. Heywood Smith, Dr. Cooper Rose of Hampstead, and Dr. Cooper of Hampstead. These gentlemen well know what my sufferings are. You will, I am sure, excuse the liberty I am taking; but my great age and severe sufferings compel me to thus address you, and entreat your kind response to my painful application.—I remain, dear sir, yours respectfully,

FRANCIS B. DALTON, M.R.C.S.E., 1831; L.A.C., 1829.

Weston Turville, near Tring, December 18th, 1879.

. Any subscriptions forwarded to the editor or to the JOURNAL office will be acknowledged in these columns and applied for Mr. Dalton's benefit.

SIR,—As the result of your kind insertion of my letter, I have received about £27 for poor Mr. Dalton, some of which I have forwarded to him, and with some I have enabled his wife to purchase stock for the shop, and Mr. Dalton has approved of the way I have laid out the money. A little more would still be very acceptable, to enable them to pay their way. I have acknowledged the receipt of each donation as it has come in, with the exception of one (anonymously) from Southampton.—Yours faithfully,
HEYWOOD SMITH.

Portugal Street, W., December 22nd, 1879.

A CASE OF HYDROPHOBIA.

SIR,—A young man, aged 25, died near here of hydrophobia on December 17th. He was bitten very slightly on both lips by a mad dog on the 3rd of January last. He did nothing to the wounds in the way of cauterisation, and suffered from no symptoms of the disease until the morning of December 8th, when he found a great difficulty in swallowing his tea at breakfast. That night his breathing became oppressed—so much so, that his friends thought he would be suffocated. The next day he seemed a little easier, but complained of a feeling of constriction about the throat, and of a difficulty in swallowing. Now and again he said he saw cats and dogs about the room. On the 10th, he could not swallow at all, and was quite delirious; on the 11th, he could swallow a little, but was pulseless, and gradually became weaker, and died quietly that afternoon.—Yours faithfully,
FRAMPTON-ON-SEVERN, Gloucester, Dec. 15th, 1879. R. E. BURGESS, M.D.

ON THE TREATMENT OF LATERAL CURVATURE OF THE SPINE.

SIR,—I shall feel much obliged if you will kindly allow me space for the insertion of some remarks which I the other evening made at the Medical Society of London.

"In very mild cases of lordosis, I am perfectly of opinion that suitable gymnastic exercises, together with cold bathing and frictions, are generally sufficient; but, in the severer forms of rotary lateral curvature, the spine being spirally twisted like a corkscrew, extension is necessary in order to untwist it; having accomplished which, the cuirass should be applied in order to permanently secure thus much gained. Then, by daily gentle suspension, the straightening process is continued, the cuirass preventing its relapsing into its original condition; and so soon as it no longer forms a firm support, another must be applied, and so on till the cure is effected.

"The ordinary spinal appliances, having a pelvic band, and lateral supports with arm-crutches, and pads to press upon the cuirass laterally, I object to, for the following reasons: 1. The pelvic band very frequently excoriates the patient, besides feeling otherwise uncomfortable. 2. The lateral supports are useless as a means of extension, for the reason that the scapula, having no bony attachments to the spine, the shoulders may be pushed up to the ears without any extension of the spinal column; and the arm-crutches, from pressure upon the brachial plexus and blood-vessels, produce a disagreeable numbness, tingling, and swelling in the fingers, arms, and hands. Lastly, the lateral pads are incapable of straightening out the spinal curves. Suppose we take a piece of straight steel spring, and place it perpendicularly, with a sufficient weight on the top to cause it to curve in one direction, then a force acting against this horizontally, without first of all extending it or removing the weight, can only substitute a curve in the opposite direction, for the already existing one.

"With regard to the poroplastic jacket, heat and moisture are used to soften it for the purpose of adjustment, and, therefore, while worn, especially in the summer, the heat and perspiration from the body causes it to soften and give way to the deformity. From practical experience, I therefore give preference to the plaster-of-Paris cuirass for all forms of spinal curvature, if properly applied, no further exercise beyond daily extension being necessary."—Truly yours,

GEORGE CHARLES COLES.

TEMPERAMENTS.

SIR,—Would any of your correspondents kindly inform me in what book I could gain information respecting different temperaments? I believe Professor Laycock has written on the subject, but I do not know in what work or publication to seek for it. Any assistance would confer a favour on yours truly,
G. H.

A SUGGESTION.

We desire to call the attention of those of our members who enjoyed the hospitality of the Irish people at the recent meeting at Cork, that the Duchess of Marlborough has appealed to the English people in the columns of the Times for donations for the relief of the starving poor in Ireland.

minister who had been a druggist, and he had paid, I believe, £20 for it. In the list of ministers of the denomination to which he belongs, the letters M.D. are placed after his name.

Shortly after this, the correspondence between the American Consul in London and the University was published, and the charter cancelled. These degrees can still be procured from an agent in Jersey, who has a large stock by him. If continental degrees had been for sale, as some infer, these men would have had them, as one of them was a graduate of a German university which afterwards struck him off their roll.—Yours, etc.,
W. EASBY, M.D.

March, Camb., November 17th, 1879.

SIR,—Under Mr. R. H. S. Carpenter's auspices, the question of foreign degrees seems to be drifting into a discussion concerning honorary diplomas generally. Mr. Carpenter attacks the London and Edinburgh Colleges of Surgeons for conferring their Fellowship as an honorary distinction. Mr. Carpenter appears to forget, or be ignorant of the fact, that such Fellowships are given only to those already possessing a registrable surgical qualification. I think that a Fellowship is a distinction which may well be bestowed by election, and not only necessarily after examination; it is not given to unqualified persons, thereby enabling them to get on the Register; but is granted only as a higher surgical distinction to those known to be worthy of it. It seems to me that a distinction may be drawn between diplomas through which a man gets on the Register, and which certainly should be granted only after searching examination, and honorary distinctions and degrees, as Fellowships and foreign M.D.s (genuine), conferred on those already possessing registrable qualifications.

With regard to foreign degrees, it would be interesting to learn from what Universities the diplomas purported to come, which were offered to "M.R.C.S. and L.S.A." at from £3 to £13 each. Mr. Nelson Hardy, who seems, according to Mr. Carpenter, to have made some remarks on the Edinburgh College of Surgeons for "selling" its Fellowships, is, according to the Medical Directory, himself one of the purchasers of the distinction. I suppose he considered it of value, or why did he purchase it? I cannot but think the sooner all this profitless correspondence is discontinued, and the pages of the JOURNAL given up to more valuable matter, the better.—Yours, etc.,
F.R.C.S. EDIN.

MEDICAL ETIQUETTE.

MR. JOSEPH WELSH has clearly, according to his own showing, acted in defiance of the plainest rules of medical etiquette. Such rules must not be set aside because of personal differences; indeed, where the relations between two medical men are strained, there is the more need to be careful in matters of etiquette. Dr. Davis appears to have shown unnecessary zeal in pointing out to the guardians that Mr. E. S. Lane had no registrable medical qualification; but this was no reason why Mr. Welsh (Mr. Lane's senior partner) should act as he did, and furnish no excuse for his conduct.

SIR,—In reply to Dr. Blackie's letter in the BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL of last Saturday, headed "Medical Etiquette," I beg to state that I much regret having caused him any annoyance in seeing and reporting on his patient without having previously consulted him in the matter. I certainly presumed on the very friendly terms which had previously existed between us, and consequently did not hesitate to ask—not insist—the patient to remove the dressing and show me the wound, when I found it was impossible for me to form an opinion without doing so. I am glad to apologise for any want of courtesy which, in your judgment or in that of others, may have been in the transaction.—Believe me, yours faithfully,
Thrapstone, December 15th, 1879.

WM. H. MASTERS.

ELECTRICITY IN CANCER.

DR. ANDREW ALLISON writes to the Yorkshire Post the following extraordinary letter.

"SIR,—As the following case is one of public interest, I beg to draw the attention of your readers to the effects of lightning upon cancer, and as I am not aware that the records of the healing art furnish a parallel case, I venture to solicit its insertion in your excellent journal. Many years ago, I heard the late Dr. Golding Bird say that electrical sparks drawn from a cancerous structure were the only means of cure which he could endorse. In confirmation of this theory, I beg to submit an instance of the therapeutical freaks of atmospheric electricity in cancer. Some years ago, I attended a farm labourer for cancer of the lip, who was about to undergo an operation for its removal. In the meantime he undertook a day's ploughing, when he was struck down by lightning, and taken home in a state of insensibility. Both of the horses were killed, and the wooden beam of the plough reduced to fragments. My patient emitted a strong odour of ozone, indicating great condensation of the adherent oxygen. A healing process was set up in the lip soon after the accident. The cancer gradually lessened, and in a few weeks every trace of the disease disappeared, and for years he enjoyed complete freedom from his former sufferings, thus leaving the inference unaffected that the electricity secured for my patient an extension of life, and many years' relief from the usual consequences of cancer. In my opinion, frictional electricity is one of the most reliable agents we possess in the cure of cancer. In proof of the cancerous character of my old patient's lip, I may state that his granddaughter, now residing at Driffield, lately became the subject of a cancerous tumour over the larynx, which, assisted by Dr. Eames, I removed successfully, and under special after-treatment the cure seems to be satisfactory. I shall not venture to give any theory of the specific action of electricity in carcinoma, as I shall reserve that phase of the subject for one of our medical periodicals, destined for professional use.—I am, etc.,
A. ALLISON, M.D.

"Bridlington, November 25th, 1879."

Dr. Allison appears, from the Medical Directory, to be a practitioner possessing the M.D. of St. Andrew's, as well as the diploma of the Apothecaries' Society, London, and the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow. It is, therefore, incomprehensible that he should have thought fit to address this surprising communication to a daily paper. If Dr. Allison really means to say that he thinks he heard the late Dr. Golding Bird say that "electrical sparks drawn from a cancerous structure were the only means of cure which he could endorse," we can only say that this is a statement which we find it impossible to believe as representing the actual opinion of Dr. Golding Bird, and can only assume that Dr. Allison is labouring under a misapprehension of a very serious kind. Nothing in Dr. Golding Bird's works or acts, or in his known good sense, could justify so absurd a statement. Further, if Dr. Allison has any reason whatever for believing in what he calls a theory of the specific action of electricity in carcinoma, he should certainly produce definite facts accurately stated; and it is much to be regretted that he should discredit his belief by first announcing it in a provincial newspaper instead of submitting it to the trained judgment of the members of his profession, who alone, and not the general public, are capable of forming a reasonable decision on the opinions which he puts forth.

NOTICES of Births, Marriages, Deaths, and Appointments, intended for insertion in the BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL, should arrive at the Office not later than 10 A.M. on Thursday.

UNIVERSITY DEGREES.

SIR,—To see, as one has done lately, a contrast drawn between the M.D. of London and that of Edinburgh, is supremely ludicrous, and it might be readily proved that the average M.R.C.S. England is, in regard to every professional test, quite its equal. When we come to the social comparison, I think Englishmen may be thankful that they are not blessed with the prefix Dr.

I am practising in a county far north, where M.D.s luxuriate, and the universal question is, how do these men pass; how is it that their social qualifications are nil? With us, as a rule, they rank with the middle class tradesmen of the district, and are born and marry amongst them, and certainly derive all their ethics from the same quarter. Hence M.D.s consider a shilling fee ample compensation for a visit and advice (I may remark by the way that my veterinary surgeon is not satisfied with less than one shilling and sixpence). Their education has in most cases, I find, been acquired at the various village grammar schools. And yet these men, returning from Edinburgh and Glasgow, flourishing on M.D., are actually permitted to consider themselves graduates of an university, and by the country's laws take precedence of us. It is a gross injustice. We should resent it collectively as Englishmen, and, as only a matter of right, should insist upon a national conjoint scheme, which would at least place them upon a guaranteed professional equality with us.—I am, etc.,
M.R.C.S.
