

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PROVINCIAL MEDICAL AND SURGICAL JOURNAL.

SIR,

I beg to direct your attention to the following advertisement which appeared in the Liverpool Mercury for Friday, April 2nd. It surely behoves the College authorities to notice the mode in which some of its members fulfil the obligations imposed on them.

Your obedient servant,

A MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION.

Liverpool, April 6th.

"College of Medicine and Surgery for treating patients on the principles so long and successfully practised at Whitworth, and Oldfield Lane, Manchester, conducted by Mr. ———, M.R.C.S., and L.A.C., prizeman of St. Bartholomew's Hospital, London, in the Session 1843-44, &c., &c., who may be consulted on all cases appertaining to his profession daily from nine to three, and from six to nine, and on Sundays from ten to two, at the College, 46, ———, near the corner of ——— Street. An assistant in continual attendance for any cases of emergency."

[We suppress the name and address, as we have no wish to contribute towards the object which this prizeman of St. Bartholomew's would seem to have in view, but they are at the service of either of the corporate bodies to which the advertiser professes to belong.—Ed.]
