

HOUSE OF COMMONS: THE MEDICAL BILLS.

The bill for regulating the practice of Physic and Surgery was read a second time on Friday night, and appointed to go into committee on Wednesday, May 7th. The bill for empowering her Majesty to grant Charters to certain Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons was also read a second time.

BIRMINGHAM POOR-LAW UNION.

At a late meeting of the Birmingham Board of Guardians, a statement is reported to have been made respecting the condition of the Birmingham Workhouse, that "there were 120 men in two rooms," and that "such was the infamous character of the ventilation 'the children in the one room were dying by inches. There was no gaol to be compared with it.'" This statement, if correct, calls for immediate attention, and no time should be lost by the medical officers of the Union in making a representation on the subject to the Poor-Law Commissioners.
