Abounds in information supplied in a thoroughly systematic manner."—The Lancet.

Peptonising Pellets.

These Pellets will be found the most convenient, portable, inexpensive, and efficacious peptonising agent that can be procured.

British Medical Journal, March 13 and April 3, 1886.—"We find Messrs. Savory & Moore's Pellets, as might safely be inferred, possess the advantages claimed for them. They are very active and do not require a large excess of alkali, which we consider a feature of much importance, especially in infant feeding. The milk peptonised by the pellets is of very fine flavour."

The Lancet, June 5, 1886.—"The Peptonising Pellets issued by Messrs. Savory & Moore are excellent, and will be found useful for peptonising milk."

Re COCA WINE (Armbrecht.)

"Several preparations of Coca Wine have been placed before the public, but we unhesitatingly accord to the above the first place. Their Coca Wine is more suited to the English palate than some of the continental preparations, which are too sweet to be palatable, and which destroy their otherwise tonic and invigorating qualities by deranging the digestive system or creating nausea. The value of Coca Wine in conditions of debility is too well recognised to require comment, and we need do no more than say that after a very careful trial of Messrs. ARMBRECHT, NELSON & Co.'s Wine, we can speak most highly of it as a sound and invigorating tonic, and can recommend it most unhesitatingly."—Journal of Laryngology and Rhinology.

CASCARA SAGRADA CAPSULES.

Each Capsule equal to $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{2}$ or 1 teaspoonful of Fluid Extract of Cascara Sagrada. They can also be had in combination with $\frac{1}{2}$ or 1 grain of EUONYMIN.

BLAUD'S PILL (Fr. Pharm.) CAPSULES.

In 3 Sizes, equivalent respectively to 1, 2 or 3 Blaud's Pills.

These Capsules differ from all others, and have advantages which no others possess. They are made from Pure Unoxidised Carbonate of Iron by a special process. They are so prepared, that while they retain indefinitely the full efficacy of fresh Blaud's Pills, they have no tendency to become hard and insoluble by keeping, as the pills often do. They are small in size. Owing to the special process adopted by D., F. & Co., the 3 pill Capsule is hardly larger than a single Blaud's Pill. They are soft and flexible, and much more easily swallowed than pills. They can be had in combination with Arsenic, Nux Vomica, &c.

ACIDIFIED PERCHLORIDE OF MERCURY PELLETS.

FOR USE IN SURGERY AND OBSTETRIC PRACTICE.

See British Medical Journal of January 21st, 1888. As suggested by Dr. FOULIS.

Perchloride of Mercury in combination with Tartaric Acid. The Pellets are of three strengths—Nos. 1, 2, and 3. One of No. 2 dissolved in the same quantity of water forms an Acidified Solution of 1 in 1500, and No. 3 a solution of 1 in 1000.

Dr. FOULIS writes:—"The new pellets of Mercuric Chloride are, I think, perfect in every respect." The British Medical Journal says:—"Their special convenience to practitioners with a large obstetric practice will be readily appreciated, and they are very convenient for the purpose they are intended for, namely to prepare at a moment's notice an Acidified Solution of Perchloride of Mercury of definite strength."

THE BEST AND PUREST

AËRATED WATERS

ARE THOSE OF

Wm. SUMMERS & Co., BRISTOL

ESTABLISHED NEARLY 60 YEARS.

SODA, SELTZER, POTASS WATERS, LITHIA WATER (Ph.B.), LITHIA AND POTASS WATERS, LEMONADE, GINGER ALE.

Also plain Aërated Water superior to all so-called Foreign Natural Waters. To be obtained of all Chemists, Wine Merchants and at all Hotels and Restaurants.

Professor J. A. WANKLYN writes:—"Water found to be unusually pure. The Aërated Waters I examined are of excellent quality. I can most strongly recommend them."

Dr. J. CAMPBELL BROWN:—"Water of excellent quality, being absolutely free from any objectionable matter. I have found the soda-water made from it superior to some waters which have a high reputation."

Professor W. W. STODDART:—"Your Aërated Waters are the most wholesome beverages anyone can use. I find all are really pure."

Professor E. W. T. JONES:—"Soda and potass water of most excellent quality."

THE USE OF APOMORPHINE As an Emetic.

In the "BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL" of March 23rd, 1889, Mr. JNO. R. PHILPOTS, L.R.C.P. and S. Edin. (Parkstone, Dorset), writing on Apomorphine, says:—

"There can be no doubt that for a speedy emetic, in 19 cases out of 20, nothing can compare with this valuable drug. Many object to the tabloids on account of the time they take to dissolve, and the necessary manipulation, which is a great consideration, to say nothing of the cleaning of both syringe and vehicle, and the objection to its use in the form of a solution of known strength being the tendency to decompose. Pills would be precluded from general use on account of its being so often necessary to use them for children, and in adults the coated pills take a long time to dissolve in the stomach.

"I have never found any inconvenience from this drug when given by the mouth, so had some Chocolate Tablets made by Messrs. FERRIS & Co., of Bristol, containing a quarter of a grain of Apomorphine. One is enough for an adult, and half is sufficient for a child. The advantage of their use is the quickness with which they dissolve, the taste being approved of by the young, and the certainty and speed (say about ten minutes) in getting the looked-for result. A few can be carried in the hypodermic case without taking up much room, the size being a quarter of an inch square and one-eighth of an inch thick. They are certainly well worth trying."

We are now preparing the CHOCOLATE TABLETS of APOMORPHINE, as suggested by Mr. Philpots, in three strengths containing $\frac{1}{4}$ th grain, $\frac{1}{8}$ th grain, and $\frac{1}{16}$ th grain respectively of Hydrochlorate of Apomorphine.

They are sent out in small metal boxes, for the pocket, price 2s. per box.

CARLSBAD NATURAL MINERAL WATERS & SALTS.

From the celebrated Springs at the famous Health Resort of CARLSBAD

Are used in the treatment of CHRONIC GASTRIC CATARRH, HYPERÆMIA of the LIVER, GALLSTONES, CHRONIC CONSTIPATION, DIABETES, RENAL CALCULI, GOUT, and DISEASES of the SPLEEN.

The NATURAL CARLSBAD SPRUDEL-SALT

Is alkaline, and readily soluble in water. In small and frequent doses it is an efficient diuretic, but as an aperient it should be taken, before breakfast, in doses of from 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls, dissolved in water, preferably warm. To increase the aperient action of the Natural Carlsbad Mineral Water, a teaspoonful of the Salt, previously dissolved in a little hot water, should be added.

ISO-BUTYL NITRITE.

For Use in ANGINA PECTORIS, ASTHMA, and Similar Complaints, by Inhalation.

The recent important investigations of the chemistry and pharmacology of the organic nitrites conducted by Professors Dunstan and Cash and by Dr. Lauder Brunton are of great practical value to the physician. By these investigations it is shown beyond doubt that the official amyl nitrite varies considerably in its composition and therapeutic effect; that it is, in fact, a mixture of several substances (other than amyl nitrite) in indefinite proportions, and amounting to nearly 50 per cent. including about 10 per cent. of iso-butyl nitrite. These different substances have been isolated in the pure state, and the physiological action of each has been determined. Iso-butyl nitrite appears to act more promptly than the official preparation of Amyl Nitrite, and it is probable that the therapeutic action of the latter is due in no small degree to the presence of iso-butyl nitrite.—Pharmaceutical Journal, December 22nd, 1888.

Pure Iso-butyl Nitrite, of our own manufacture, is supplied in $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. and 1 oz. Stoppered Bottles.

Price to the Medical Profession 1/3 and 2/3; by post 1/6 and 2/6.

SOL. ÆTHYL NITRITIS.

Containing 3 PER CENT. of PURE NITRITE of ETHYL, in absolute Alcohol and Glycerine.

A solution of this character is strongly advocated by Dr. Leech, Professor of Therapeutics, Victoria University, in an article to the Manchester Medical Chronicle, December, 1888; its advantages over the Spiritus Ætheris Nitrosi being that it is of definite strength, stable, and less disagreeable. As to its pharmacological properties Dr. Leech observes that they are of the "highest therapeutic value." "Like other nitrites," he says, "it causes dilatation of the vessels, and decreases arterial tension. In cases of dyspnœa, where with high tension the hearts' power is beginning to fail, nitrite of ethyl often acts like a charm, and this is especially the case if, as not unfrequently happens, bronchial spasm complicates the cardiac condition."

DOSE:—20 to 80 minims, added to water immediately before administration.

It is important to bear this in mind, as solution of nitrite of ethyl decomposes quickly when in contact with water, and should not, therefore, be dispensed mixed with water, but separately.

Supplied in 2 oz. and 4 oz. Stoppered Bottles. Price to the Medical Profession, 1/3 and 2/-; by post 1/6 and 2/3.

LIQUOR CASCARÆ SUAVIS.

(Registered.)

An agreeable aromatic fluid extract of Cascara Sagrada, possessing the full laxative and aperient properties of the bark, minus the nauseous bitter which has hitherto formed the objectionable feature in the administration of this important drug. The Liquor Cascaræ Suavis forms an excellent adjunct and corrective where prescribing constipating drugs. In habitual constipation of hepatic origin, especially so in chlorotic girls, the use of Cascara has been attended by the best results.

DOSE:—1 to 3 drachms.

Supplied in $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 1 lb., and 2 lb. Bottles. Price to the Medical Profession, 1/8, 3/2 and 6/3; by post 2/-, 3/6 and 6/6.

"One of the certainties in Medicine, and in this respect LACTOPEPTINE ranks with quinine."—Prof. YANDELL.

LACTOPEPTINE,

For Diseases of the Stomach.

The most important remedy ever introduced to the Medical Profession for Dyspepsia and kindred Diseases.

It is conclusively ascertained that LACTOPEPTINE will bring about the Digestion of food in a manner perfectly identical to that obtained under the influence of the natural gastric juice.

From "RETROSPECT OF PRACTICAL MEDICINE AND SURGERY," July, 1877.

"A glance at the formula of LACTOPEPTINE would convince even the most sceptical of the valuable results that must ensue through its administration. It is a combination of all the digestive agents, consequently can never be administered without giving the utmost satisfaction."

The extended use and adoption of LACTOPEPTINE by the MEDICAL PROFESSION affords indisputable evidence that its therapeutic value has been thoroughly established in cases of Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Impoverished Blood, General Debility, Intestinal and Wasting Diseases of Children, Chronic Diarrhoea, Constipation, Vomiting in Pregnancy, Headache, Nausea, and all Diseases arising from Imperfect nutrition.

Lactopeptine is always uniform, its effects are specific, and no one has ever been able to imitate its digestive value. If you do not obtain positive results when you prescribe Lactopeptine, you can be sure that some substitution has been made, and in such cases it may be necessary for the physician to prescribe Lactopeptine in the original ounce package to ensure certainty of obtaining the genuine article. We can confidently make this assertion, knowing the scrupulous uniformity in digestive value of every ounce of Lactopeptine.

FREE FAT VERSUS FREE ALKALIES IN SOAPS.

The whitening effect of a "shampoo" with an ordinary soap is enough to point out that such a soap is not the one for the hair; the drying effects of a soap of this kind upon the finger-ends should alone condemn it for the skin. To apply the ordinary (alkaline) soaps to the skin of little children, to delicate complexions, and diseased cutaneous surfaces is a procedure frowned upon by all dermatologists, and very rightly so. All authorities state that a soap with free alkalies in it is a wretched corrosive detergent, unfit for the skin of man, or woman, or child; while a perfectly neutral soap containing free fat is a balm and a boon to the skin. "Vinolia" soap is the choicest and blandest of soaps, without free alkalies, and made with an excess of neutralising, plastic emollient matter. Such a product is the soap of the 19th century.

ECZEMA, PILES, AND ALL FORMS OF EXTERNAL IRRITATION.

As a pleasing, grateful emollient, "Vinolia" is all that could be asked. Itching, insect bites, inflammatory skin troubles, and piles are relieved by it quickly, and in chronic cases, where something stimulating is required, any additions desired may be made to it.

FOR INFANTS, CHILDREN, AND INVALIDS.

"Mr. Benger's admirable preparations." — THE LANCET, March 25th, 1882.

"Deserving of the highest praise, and only require to be made known to the profession to ensure their extensive employment." — THE PRACTITIONER, February, 1883.

"Few modern improvements in Pharmacy have done so much as Benger's Preparations to assist the Physician in his treatment of the sick." — THE MEDICAL PRESS, June 13th, 1883.

"Benger's Preparations have deservedly a very high reputation, and are all largely used." — THE MEDICAL TIMES AND GAZETTE, September 8th, 1883.

"Undoubtedly a great advance on any previous attempt in this direction. It is palatable and excellent in every way. We have given it in very many cases with the most marked benefit, patients frequently retaining it after every other food had been rejected. For children who throw up their food in curdled masses it is invaluable." — THE LONDON MEDICAL RECORD, March 15th, 1882.

NOTICE TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

BENGER'S FOOD consists of a specially finely ground nitrogenous wheaten meal, cooked, and impregnated with a suitable proportion of the natural digestive principles of the pancreas. When mixed with warm milk or milk and water, as directed on each tin, these digestive principles not only render the starchy matter soluble (as in malted foods), but, further, reduce the casein of the milk to the same digestible condition in which it exists in human milk, so that hard indigestible masses of curd cannot be formed in the stomach. In no other food has this result been attained. It forms a delicate cream entirely free from rough and irritating particles, but rich in all the elements necessary to maintain vigorous health. It can be taken when other Foods disagree.

"5, ALLEN TERRACE, SUNDERLAND, Nov. 19th, 1887.

"DEAR SIRS,—A patient recently consulted me for debility: he was very weak, losing flesh rapidly, but there was no disease perceptible. I prescribed nothing but Benger's Food. In one week he had gained 3½ lb. in weight and looked well in comparison with his previous appearance. In less than a fortnight he resumed work. The case was so good an example of the benefit to be derived from your food in proper cases, that I feel compelled to write to you.

Yours, etc.,

H. DRINKWATER, M.D."

EXTRACTS FROM PRIVATE LETTERS.

"The infant was very delicate; our medical adviser ordered your food. The result in a short time was wonderful; the little fellow grew strong and fat, and is now in a thriving condition—in fact, the 'flower of the flock.'"

"I am pleased to say that when every form of diet failed we were able to give BENGER'S FOOD, and to see our children gain rapidly and permanently."

BENGER'S FOOD may be obtained in tins at 1s. 6d., 2s. 6d., and 5s. each of Chemists, etc., everywhere, or by Parcel Post direct from the Manufacturers,

Allen & Hanburys INFANTS' FOOD.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The MALTED FARINACEOUS FOOD (Patented), manufactured by ALLEN & HANBURYS, is the result of a PRACTICAL application of the advice of LIEBIG, and the benefits accruing from its use verify in a remarkable manner his predictions of the value and efficacy of such a Food.

It is PARTIALLY predigested, having as a basis a carefully cooked wheaten flour, especially rich in gluten, to which are added the active and nutritive constituents of pure Malt IN A SOLUBLE FORM. It thus contains all that is VALUABLE in Malt, whilst all that is irritating and indigestible is rejected.

When this Food is prepared for use, by mixing with warm milk or milk-and-water, as indicated in the directions, the diastasic action on the already broken starch granules is very rapid, whilst the milk is prevented from forming indigestible masses of curd in the stomach, partly by the mechanical action of the Malted Food, as described in a leading article in THE LANCET of Nov. 20th, 1886, and partly by the power of Malt Extract to prevent the aggregation of the caseine.

This Food is not so entirely predigested as to leave nothing for the infant's stomach to perform, and it is believed that the excellent practical results obtained are largely due to the special proportion maintained between the predigested and the unaltered portions.

NOTE.—Where Medical Men have an opportunity of making comparative experiments with this food, as in crèches, children's hospitals, &c., ALLEN & HANBURYS will gladly supply a reasonable quantity for such purposes, free of charge.

Sold only in Tins, at 6d., 1s., 2s., 5s., and 10s. each.

SOUTHALLS' "STANDARD TINCTURES."

"The British Medical Journal" says:

"The method of treatment by alkaloids, etc., is not entirely satisfactory. Every practical physician knows, for instance, that quinine and morphine do not represent in physiological action the corresponding amount of cinchona and opium, given in the form of tincture or infusion. Under these circumstances, and bearing in mind the principles, Messrs. Southall Bros. and Barclay, of Birmingham, have prepared a series of 'Standard Tinctures' of fixed alkaloidal value.

"The completeness of the series may be judged when we state that such tinctures as cubebs and green hellebore are standardised to a definite amount of active principles.

"Messrs. Southall Bros. and Barclay also prepare standardised tinctures in the concentrated form (four times the Pharmacopœial strength), which will prove of great advantage to hospitals, dispensaries, and other public institutions, the dose being only one-fourth that of the ordinary tinctures, thereby effecting a great saving in spirit. We have examined these concentrated preparations, and find that when diluted with three times their volume of the menstruum, they fully represent the Pharmacopœial tincture in every respect."

"The Lancet" says:

"As the amount of alkaloid or other active ingredient is liable to considerable variation, and the Tinctures prepared by the orthodox method are by no means of constant strength or efficacy, the resulting uncertainty cannot always be met by the employment of the pure alkaloids, &c., since, in some cases, the crude drug possesses desirable qualities which are absent or reduced in using the chief active ingredient.

"These difficulties have been largely overcome by the process of 'Standardising' employed by Messrs. Southall Bros. and Barclay, Birmingham, every Tincture being adjusted to the same strength after preparation, by the use of a larger proportion of drug or menstruum according to ascertained requirements.

"At present between 50 and 60 official Tinctures are supplied Standardised, the label in every case indicating the percentage composition."

SOUTHALLS' "STANDARD TINCTURES" (CONCENTRATED).

By the use of SOUTHALLS' "STANDARD TINCTURES," Hospitals, Dispensaries, &c., may not only ensure uniformity of therapeutic value, but effect a saving of about 50 per cent. in the cost.

The Concentrated Tinctures are Standardised, and guaranteed to contain FOUR TIMES the quantity of the active principles contained in the B.P. Tinctures, so that only ONE FOURTH THE DOSE is necessary.

PROFESSIONAL OPINIONS ON CREAM OF MALT (Oppenheimer's).

From M.R.C.S., L.S.A., Dudley, says:—"For some years past I have been on the look-out to find some really palatable form of Cod Liver Oil, and have tried the numerous emulsions with which the medical papers swarm, hitherto without success. I have tried your Cream of Malt with Cod Liver Oil, Hypophosphites of Lime, &c., with the greatest success, and find that it answers all the requirements of the best Cod Liver Oil, with this important difference, that it causes no nausea and disgust to the most delicate stomach."

From L.R.C.P., L.M., L.R.C.S., Fell. Brit. Gyna. Soc., Devonport, writes:—"I gave your Cream of Malt to a very delicate girl whose appetite had completely failed, and found that her stomach retained it easily and her languished and low-spirited disposition gave way to a brighter countenance and more cheerful disposition. She continued taking it for some time, and is now able to take meat food and walk out a little. I attribute this speedy improvement in the activity of the digestive organs to the stimulating and feeding effect of the Cream. The Cream is a great improvement on the simple mixtures of Malt with Cod Liver Oil, which are glutinous, and therefore swallowed with difficulty and nausea, and when mixed with the liquid allows the Oil to separate in globules."

From M.D., M.R.C.S.:—"Your Cream of Malt and Cod Liver Oil supplies a standing want. I prescribed it in a very severe case of eczema in a young child with best results, the mother saying he took it greedily. Also in the case of a young man, in a case of pleuro-pneumonia, who could never take Cod Liver Oil in any form before now. He says yours has done him so much good, he would not be without it on any account."

From M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., &c., writes:—"I gave your Cream of Malt to a patient of mine, who has hitherto been unable to take Cod Liver Oil in any form whatever. I am happy to say she has been able to take your preparation without the slightest inconvenience."

From M.D., M.R.C.S., Kilmarnock:—"I have used your Cream of Malt with marked success, it being pleasant to take and more easily assimilated than any other preparation I have seen."

From M.D., Minehead, Somerset, writes:—"I gave your Cream of Malt with Hypophosphites to a phthisical case, and I consider it a beautiful sample of pharmacy."

From M.R.C.S., Plymouth:—"I have formed a very favourable opinion of your Cod Liver Oil Cream. Patients seem to take it better than all similar preparations in the market."

From M.D., Maidstone:—"I have used your Cream of Malt with great success, my patient being able to take it without the least nausea or digestive derangement. Although he cannot take ordinary Cod Liver Oil preparations, he has very much improved under its use."

From M.R.C.S., &c., Dudley:—"Since writing you I have used your Cream of Malt and Cod Liver Oil in a case of recovery from pleurisy with effusion. The patient was greatly emaciated and had a consumptive tendency. The ordinary Cod Liver Oil could not be kept down. Other compounds of Cod Liver Oil and Malt were tried, together with different emulsions, but with like result. Your Cream was tried and was found to be easily digested and assimilated, very palatable, and gave perfect satisfaction, the patient gaining weight rapidly, which is the true test as regards its efficiency. I shall prescribe no other."

From M.B. M.D., L.R.C.S., &c., Bournemouth:—"I have given your Cream of Malt in my own nursery with good effect, and the younger children take it readily. Its composition is invaluable as containing the phosphites in intimate combination with Cod Liver Oil and Malt."

From M.R.C.S., L.S.A., Turner's Hill, Sussex, writes:—"I consider your Cream of Malt very valuable, as it leaves no nausea or unpleasant taste, showing that it is easily assimilated. It is a great advantage that it should form such a perfect emulsion with water."

From M.D., L.R.C.P., &c., Midhurst:—"I have tried your Cream of Malt in a case of chronic dyspepsia at 56. The man's distaste for food and intolerance for solids kept him in a state of inanition. He took your preparation in divided doses at first, and after three days one tablespoonful twice a day. The sickness was soon overcome and he returned to his occupation. The Cream of Malt has effected what no other medical condiment or diet had hitherto accomplished, and will prove of great value in cases where the powers of assimilation have become either temporarily or chronically impaired."

From L.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., Uttoxeter, writes:—"I gave your Cream of Malt to a little girl aged nine, who was suffering from acute inflammation of the brain, and found it to be of great benefit."

From M.D., L.R.C.P., Folkestone, writes:—"I am convinced your Cream is a very valuable preparation, and I can say generally that I have found all your preparations to be most excellent."

From L.R.C.P., L.R.C.S., Worcester:—"I believe your preparation to be of very great value. I gave it to several patients and found they gained rapidly in weight, with the accompanying general improvement. I may add it is unusually palatable and pleasant to take."

From M.B., C.M., M.D., Harrogate:—"Your Cream of Malt is an excellent preparation. It is at once palatable and easily digested and it is sure to become much used."

From M.D., M.B., C.M., L.S.A., Liverpool:—"I used your Cream of Malt in a case of chronic bronchitis in a lady of 70, when the growing general debility and wasting seemed due to a case of bronchitis; after taking about one pound of your Cream of Malt, the lady's strength increased, and the wasting ceased."

From M.D., M.R.C.S., L.M., &c., Plymouth:—"Your Cream of Malt has done much good as a restorative in the case of a patient exhausted by night watching and bronchial irritation."

From L.R.C.P., L.R.C.S., L.M., &c., Harras:—"You have succeeded in giving the Profession a very elegant and valuable preparation of Cod Liver Oil and Malt. I have tried it in cases of long exhaustive illnesses with excellent effect. I consider your Cream of Malt a first-rate preparation."

From L.R.C.P., M.D., &c., St. Leonard's, writes:—"I gave your Cream of Malt to a weakly child recovering from porrigio, with considerable success. The child took it well and has since become quite convalescent."

From F.R.C.S., &c., Rothes, Elgin, N.B.:—"I have formed a very favourable impression of your Cream of Malt and Cod Liver Oil. I tried it in a case of wasting in a child, and one bottle had considerable effect. The child liked it and even cried for it. I shall use it extensively in future."

ANTISEPSIS.

The two principles to be observed in the practice of Surgery and Disinfection are as follows:

- (1) SEPSIS must be removed if present;
- (2) ANTISEPSIS must be maintained.

Many Chemical Reagents are available for maintaining Antisepsis, but only Oxidising Agents are known to be reliable for the removal of Sepsis.

The most perfect Combinations of this ideal character are—

“KINGZETT'S BACTERICIDES.”

In which Peroxide of Hydrogen is associated with any Antiseptic Agent, such as Corrosive Sublimate, Calcic Iodate, &c., as may be preferred by each Medical Practitioner.

2s. Pint Bottles and 10s. per Gallon.

We recommend, however, as absolutely reliable for all purposes, and the best Antiseptic for practical use,

“SANITAS FLUID,”

A Colourless, Non-poisonous Solution containing Peroxide of Hydrogen (2 volumes strength), Thymol, Camphoric Acid, Soluble Camphor ($C_{10}H_{16}O_2$), &c.

Its Antiseptic Strength is equal to one-half the same volume of a 5 per cent. solution of Corrosive Sublimate.

If “SANITAS FLUID” be properly used, it cannot fail to remove Sepsis, and wounds cannot possibly become again septic in character; while for Disinfecting Purposes it is simply a Perfect Preparation.

For ordinary employment “SANITAS FLUID” should be diluted with four parts of water.

In 1s. Pint Bottles and 5s. per Gallon.

Of all Chemists.

SANTHA.

A Digestive EXTRACT OF TEA, made instantly in Cup or Teapot.

The injurious action of tea upon the digestion is due to the tannin it contains; and as this dissolves instantly in hot water, no method of infusion can keep it out. Santha is the only form of tea that has no action upon either food or membranes; and it is not bilious, like cocoa and coffee.

The LANCET of May 4th, 1889, says:—"The aroma and the caffeine are preserved, and the tannin is neutralised and rendered innocuous."

The LONDON MEDICAL RECORDER of Feb. 20th, 1889, says:—"Santha possesses the aromatic and stimulating qualities of the crude leaf, minus its astringency."

Santha is the only Tea suitable for Weak Digestions. Of CHEMISTS. Price 1s. and 2s. 6d. Sample Bottles 6d. each.

A NEW SPLINT FOR USE AFTER TARSALECTOMY.

Suggested by Mr. R. C. HOLT, L.R.C.S., of Burnley.

The advantages claimed for this Splint are:

1. That the Foot and Leg are easily observed.
2. That the Foot may be secured without in any way interfering with the wound.
3. The tension is continuous and may be regulated.
4. The movements of the patient in no way interfere with its use.

METHOD OF USE.

For Varus.—After the operation is performed, the ring is passed up the leg and fitted round the upper epiphysis of tibia. The foot is then securely bandaged to the footpiece, and tension applied by hooking the chains on to the hooks at the side of the footpiece.

For Equinus.—Take out the movable pins from the hinges, and fit the up-rights to the heel part of the footpiece. Then proceed as before, finally hooking the chains on to the hooks in front.

Price 18s. 6d. each, or with Two Foot Plates, 21s.

Improved Enemas,

Made of Pure English Rubber, and Warranted Not to Split.

LYNCH & CO. have long recognised the imperfect nature of the Valves hitherto employed in the construction of Enemas, and their liability to destruction from contact with greasy matter, from clogging, and even in some cases actually rusting in the Valvular Chamber. In the employment of Glass they have secured a material not only free from the foregoing defects, but combining all the essentials of incorrodibility, cleanliness, and perfect continuous action. The Valves are so situated, being placed at the extremity of both inlet and delivery tubes, as to admit of their ready removal and replacement, if desirable; and being WITHIN the india-rubber, are perfectly protected from any possibility of breakage. The simplicity of the Apparatus, the entire absence of complication, and the extremely moderate price warrant the Inventors in hoping for its universal adoption.

Listerian System of Surgery.

OUR LISTERIAN DRESSINGS were the first in the Market, and were prepared under the guidance of Professor Sir JOSEPH LISTER, and according to his Special Formulae, which have since been published. These Dressings are now known and used wherever the Antiseptic method is employed in Surgical Practice. The demand which followed their introduction, and which has since continued steadily to increase, warrants us in believing that the accuracy with which for the last sixteen years they have been prepared, has secured the confidence of the Profession.

This is an invaluable Invention and useful appliance at the BEDSIDE, suitable for Invalids, and particularly for Parents whose Infants require feeding during the night. The Tray is adapted for use in connexion with Clarke's "Pyramid" Food Warmer, and when not required can be turned to the wall in such a manner as to shade the Person in Bed from the Rays of the Light.

Invalids will find it a Great Comfort, for any book, plate, basin, &c., can be placed thereon ready for use, and obtained without altering the position in bed. By means of a Slide the Tray can be pulled forwards to the position or length required. It is highly recommended by the Medical Profession, and can be obtained from most dealers in Clarke's "Pyramid" and "Fairy" Lamps.

Dear Sirs,

The Bedsteads you constructed for me with by far the very best I have ever seen for Hospital

use. They have now been in use for over six years, and have not given way in the least; the Springs have never broken, nor do they get rusted. They are in every way satisfactory.

PUMILINE BATHS.

THE PINE-GROWN PINE TREES.

Messrs. G. & G. STERN beg to call the attention of the Medical Profession to the facilities afforded by their preparations for carrying out the Pine Treatment by Baths at home. They prepare a Pumiline Extract obtained from a special species of Pine Tree—the Pinus Pumilio—which retains all the qualities and curative powers which have made famous certain home and foreign Hydropathic Resorts, such as the Faraboro' Pine Therapeutic Establishment, the Mont Dore Baths at Bournemouth, and Woodhall Spa, &c., as well as at Alexandersbad, Homburg, Ischl, Reichenhall, and many others abroad, the ever-increasing popularity of which is the best indication of the success of the treatment.

The Pumiline Extract is now prepared on a scale which permits of its being sold at so moderate a price as to be within the reach of all. The Extract is prepared with water from the local saline springs, and the mineral salts contained therein obviate any tendency to undergo decomposition.

The Pumiline Baths are prepared by dissolving the contents of a bottle of the Pumiline Extract in hot water. These baths exercise a powerful stimulating and sedative effect on the skin, which proves exceedingly beneficial in many forms of subacute and chronic Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, and in Gout. Moreover the functional activity of the skin being a desideratum in many pulmonary and cardiac affections, the baths also form an important item in their treatment.

The effect of Pumiline Baths on the skin is such as to render it peculiarly valuable in the treatment of acute and chronic affections of that structure. The intolerable itching of Eczema, Herpes, Urticaria, and Psoriasis, is promptly relieved by the use of the Pumiline Baths.

The natural whiteness and smoothness of the skin is enhanced, and a markedly soothing and curative effect is produced in irritable and irritated conditions of the skin generally. The suave and agreeable odour of the preparation is a minor but noteworthy feature.

The Pumiline Extract, in common with other preparations derived from the Pinus Pumilio, possesses powerful antiseptic and deodorizing properties which adapt it for children and others recovering from the exanthemata. It can also be strongly recommended as a detergent and prophylactic for children's use when in health. It is, moreover, of the highest value for Anæmic and Convalescent Women.

To avoid inferior preparations ask for STERN'S PUMILINE.

Copies of Analytical Reports, Pamphlet, and SAMPLES of Pumiline Essence, Extracts, Jujubes, Soap, and a Pneumatic Spray for Deodorizing, sent FREE to Medical Men on application to
