With 12 Engravings, 8vo, 14s.

J. & A. CHURCHILL.

"There are few recent books more important, there are none more interesting to the surgeon and the general practitioner than Mr. Butlin's new edition of his work on the Operative Treatment of Malignant Disease. Every practitioner in the country should consider it his duty (one can answer for it that it will certainly be his pleasure) to read, to study, to remember, to act upon, the teaching conveyed in this work."—BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL.

"Comparatively few treatises dealing with this very important subject (tumours) exist, and the two which he before us are merely re-editions of works which had previously gained an enviable reputation. Mr. Butlin's book on the Operative Surgery of Malignant Disease reappears after an interval of twelve years, and the changes which have occurred in that period are so great that he has been forced to ask the collaboration of several other surgeons to undertake the representation of special organs."—PRACTITIONER.

"The work, taken as a whole, is good, and the advice given is derived from actual experience and observation, the book differing materially in this respect from a number of contemporary works in which conclusions are drawn from a collation derived from numerous works. The book will be found most useful and instructive and well worth adding to one's library."—NEW YORK MEDICAL JOURNAL.

SQUIRE'S POCKET COMPANION To the British Pharmacopœia.

Comprising those portions, Official and Not Official, of the well-known "Companion" which are of special interest to the Prescriber and Dispenser, including full and comprehensive information about the newer remedies, more particularly those recently introduced into medicine.

The prescriber may regard the "Pocket Companion" as the larger book amplified and brought up to date. The omission of the portions relating to Botanical descriptions and the extensive analytical notes, has permitted the inclusion of practically all the new remedies and copious prescribing notes, whilst keeping the size of the book within that of a handy and compact manual.

The book is arranged like the older "Companion" on strictly alphabetical lines, so that any substance can be readily referred to in its proper place without a previous reference to the index; this saves time, and it is supplemented by a list of all the Official and Not Official preparations appearing under each substance immediately following the dose, so that a prescriber can see at a glance the various forms in which any medicament can be given. The doses are given in both Imperial and Metric systems, to facilitate a comparison with the doses given in Continental Pharmacopœias, which are also included in this work. A chapter on therapeutic agents of Microbial origin has been specially written for the book by Dr. Tanner Hewlett, and gives the practitioner a clear idea of the present condition of this department of medicine. A précis of the chapter on Mineral Waters is also included, with the quantities of the principal ingredients of each Spring. The book also includes a therapeutical index brought up to date.

NOTHNAGEL'S PRACTICE.

ENGLISH EDITION.

It is universally acknowledged that the Germans lead the world in Internal Medicine; and of all the German works on this subject, Nothnagel's "Specielle Pathologie und Therapie" is conceded by Scholars to be without question the best System of Medicine in existence. So necessary is it in the study of Internal Medicine that it comes largely to this country in the original German. In view of these facts, Messrs. SAUNDERS & COMPANY are now issuing an authorized English Edition of this great Encyclopædia.

NATURAL MINERAL WATER

(A PALATABLE CATHARTIC).

"Arabella" Water is rapidly acquiring favour in Great Britain by large numbers of the Medical Profession, many of whom have made detailed reports such as highly eulogise the therapeutical value of "Arabella" Water as a means of stimulating the glandular system of the alimentary canal and clearing the circulation of waste products, upon which the various conditions known as "gouty," "rheumatic," acidity, and chronic derangement of the liver depend.

"Arabella" Water owes its pleasant taste and agreeable action to the natural adjustment of the purgative salts held in solution.

LANCET.—"A curious point about this water is that in spite of its wealth of saline it is not bitter to the taste."

THE MEDICAL PROFESSION are invited to make a Trial, and, on application, will be supplied with sample bottle

THE LANCET, writing of the comparative merits of Invalid Bovril and of a good home-made beef-tea, remarks that : "All things being equal, the Invalid Bovril yielded, according to the analysis from THE LANCET Laboratory, a much higher proportion of nutrient substance than the ordinary beef-tea."

BRAX BREAD

is the pure product of selected English Wheat and Malt without any admixture. The flour from which it is made is carefully prepared by such method as insures the retention of the wheat germ and also of the valuable phosphates and soluble nitrogenous bodies of malted barley, without any of its starch. At the same time all husk is eliminated from the flour. BRAX BREAD is consequently a highly nutritious, easily digested and assimilated, non-irritant bread which forms a valuable food for children and invalids, besides appealing to the palate generally through its excellent flavour and entire absence of mawkishness.

LYMPHÆMIA. ANÆMIA. DYSMENORRHŒA. PULMONARY AFFECTIONS.

77 grain (0.05 gm.) of Iodine and 1.54 grain (0.10 g.m.) of Tannin per tablespoonful.
 Children—One to two teaspoonfuls. Adults—One tablespoonful. To be taken at meals twice a day.

THE LANCET of January 6th, 1894, in its Analytical Report, states:—"The above preparation, therefore, which contains no free iodine, but which yields it in full quantity on the slightest provocation, is calculated to lead to more extended application. It certainly deserves trial."

THE BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL of August 29th, 1896, in its Analytical Report, states:—"The wine contains no free iodine. It is very pleasant to the taste, and no doubt would be very effective in cases where iodine and iodides are indicated."

The use of any kind of wine being sometimes contra-indicated, we have accordingly prepared

which is exactly the same as Nourry's Iodinated Wine, presents the same chemical reactions, and is employed in the same cases and in the same doses.

NOURRY'S IODINATED WINE and SYRUP are not advertised to the public. They owe their success entirely to the Medical Profession.

EMOL (TRADE MARK.) KELEET

A Remarkable Discovery for Skin Treatment.

EMOL-KELEET is a purified, natural emollient, absorbent dusting powder, of impalpable texture, as soft as down to the touch. It in no way resembles the ordinary and unstable compound astringent or starchy absorbent powders.

Emol-Keleet was brought specially to the attention of the profession at the meeting of the British Medical Association, at Newcastle-on-Tyne, when an exceedingly interesting paper was read during the session of the Dermatological section by the President. The interest aroused by the therapeutic notes given in his paper by this distinguished authority on skin diseases brought Emol-Keleet prominently into view, and a brief recapitulation of the points of the paper referred to may be useful.

It was shown that as dusting powder Emol-Keleet is therapeutically superior to any previously known. When placed upon the tongue—one of the simplest and yet most severe tests as to utter impalpability—there was an entire absence of any sensation of grittiness.

It was noticed also, that when a teaspoonful or so, was added to a basinful of hard water it effected an immediate softening influence. Used in this manner with warm water, Emol-Keleet acts as a natural soap, cleansing the skin and leaving it soft and smooth. This suggested the idea of incorporating it with a pure neutral soap. EMOL-KELEET soap is prepared under the highest medical and chemical supervision. It is especially good for children and those with sensitive skins.

Used as a dusting powder, Emol-Keleet was found to possess anti-pruritic properties, and relieved very markedly any itching of the skin. The absorbent qualities of Emol-Keleet, with its mild astringent tendency, stamp it as a perfectly harmless and absolutely unequalled dusting powder.

It is also incorporated with Soap as a Shaving Stick.

DIURETIC, TONIC, DIGESTIBLE — BEFORE AND AT MEALS
GOUT, GRAVEL, ARTHRITISM

The Contrexéville Mineral Water (Pavillon SPRING) is a diuretic and laxative, a tonic, a stimulant, and aid to digestion. — It acts upon the secret mechanism of nutrition, as is proved by its influence in checking the production of uric acid and glucose: it favourably modifies those morbid processus of biological chemistry which result in the accumulation of uric acid in the blood, inducing the phenomena of gout. — It facilitates the elimination of urinary deposits, by contracting the ducts containing them and increasing the quantity of liquid by which these vessels are flushed. — It assists the cicatrization of the inflamed mucus of the urinary organs, and helps to restore the normal acidity of the urine; facilitates the flow of the bile, by causing contraction of the biliary ducts and the expulsion of calculi; and is invaluable in the treatment of congestion of the liver.

PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTS.

(Seventeen International Prize Medals Awarded for General Excellence.)

In the treatment of all diseases caused by an excessive secretion of uric acid in the blood—uricemia, lithemia, etc., the arthritic deposits of gout and rheumatism, calcareous deposits in the kidneys or bladder, and in other conditions directly due to or closely allied to any of the above diseases—Lithia will be prescribed with great service.

Lithia is also used to advantage in Bright's Disease and Diabetes. Its superior alkalisising properties in these latter maladies make it a much prescribed remedy at the hands of physicians. Such authorities as Garrod and Bartholow will at once commend Lithia to the profession.

The indefinite, varying amount of Lithia in natural lithia water induced us to present this valuable remedy in 3 and 5 grain effervescing tablets, so that the prescribed dose will always be the same. The superiority of this form of taking lithia in preference to natural lithia water is so apparent that further comment is unnecessary.

To make fresh, sparkling lithia water of KNOWN strength, dissolve one of W. R. WARNER & CO.'S LITHIA WATER TABLETS in a glass of water.

The tablets contain three or five grains Citrate of Lithia, so that a definite quantity of soluble Lithia is administered in a pleasant form, besides having fresh water with each dose, presenting a therapeutic value of higher standard than the various Lithia spring waters. This is a scientific preparation of the highest standard.

Take no substitutes. Supplied by all Druggists or by mail.

Per bottle of 5-grain Tablets, 1s. 6d., post free.

THESE TABLETS ARE ORIGINAL WITH AND MADE ONLY BY

BROMO-SODA (Registered).—Bromide of Sodium with Caffeine, in the granular form. Very carefully and evenly made. Invaluable in Brain Fatigue arising from Overwork, &c. THE LANCET (August 6th, 1887, p. 265) states that "the sodium compound does, in fact, agree better (than the potassium salt) with some stomachs." Per Bottle, 3s. 6d.

"I have used Effervescing Bromo-Soda very extensively, and can cheerfully recommend it to my professional brethren. The addition of the grain of Caffeine Hydrobromate to the thirty grains of Sodium Bromide I think a most happy idea. I recommend your Bromo-Soda because I have used Sodium Bromide for years, instead of the Potassium Bromide. Sodium Bromide is not a foreign salt in the system, is much less depressant, can be used where the heart is extremely weak, and does not impair the integrity of the muscular tissue; does not cause bad breath, neither does it cause acne, nor impair pharyngeal sensibility. It is much more palatable, and has the happy faculty of agreeing with the stomach, where the corresponding Potassium Salt often gives us so much trouble. I find Effervescing Bromo-Soda very valuable in cases superinduced by overwork of a mental kind; in fact, at times, when overworked, I have refreshed myself with a little water."—J. K. B.—, M.D., LL.D.

A 'Kapsol' consists of a particularly soft, homogeneous, and hence easily absorbed pill mass, enclosed in a thin jujube coating which is soft and readily soluble. Although the jujube envelope is quickly soluble, yet it is of such a nature as to indefinitely preserve the contents, and 'Kapsols' that have been made over two years are as moist, active, and soluble as on the first day they were made.

'Kapsols' are particularly recommended where prompt action of the drug is required, or where the action is desired to take place in the stomach as with Pepsin, Bismuth, &c. This cannot be guaranteed when hard pearl-coated pills are employed, for these mostly pass through into the intestines before disintegration takes place.

Any pill formula may be had in 'Kapsol' form. A price list of 'Kapsols' will be sent to Medical Men on request.

Bynin Amara.

COMPOSITION.

Quinine Phosphate ...	1½ grains.
Iron Phosphate ...	2 "
Strychnine Phosphate ...	7½ "
Bynin, liquid malt ...	1 ounce.

DOSE FOR ADULTS.—One tablespoonful suitably diluted.

BYNIN-AMARA is an analogue of Easton's Syrup, in which the sugar is replaced by an active Malt Extract. This affords a far better vehicle than syrup, as it is actively digestive and nutritious, and there is not the likelihood of the sugar crystallizing out, and carrying down in the crystal the alkaloidal principle.

As a digestive tonic therefore BYNIN-AMARA is not only safer to take than Easton's Syrup, but is of greater value both in aiding and strengthening the powers of assimilation.

It has been found very effective in neuralgia and similar nerve troubles.

For Infants.

The "Allenburys" Foods provide a progressive dietary adapted to the growing capacity of the Infant digestion. They are free from deleterious organisms or the harmful acid products due to bacterial growth. Wide experience proves that young Infants fed on the "Allenburys" Foods thrive and sleep well and are contented and happy, being saved from the disorders and digestive troubles common to those fed on farinaceous foods, condensed milk, or even cow's milk.

For Invalids.

The "Allenburys" Foods supply an ideal form of nourishment when the digestive organs are enfeebled after long illness or in old age. They can be digested and assimilated when the ordinary milk and starchy foods cannot be taken. The Malted Food No. 3 is much more nourishing than the usual farinaceous foods, arrowroot, or cornflour.

A raw egg may be beaten up and added to the Malted Food if desired; or custards, puddings, &c., may be made with it, as with cornflour.

FERMANGLOBIN

FERRO-MANGANESE PEPTONATE
AND

HÆMOGLOBIN
(SQUIRE)

An excellent method of exhibiting iron so that it can be borne by the most delicate stomach, even where other foods cannot be tolerated. The Iron and Manganese in this preparation are in the form of neutral peptonised albuminates, and are combined with pure Hæmoglobin. It is very easily assimilated, and being in the form of an elixir is easily taken. It is an excellent reconstructive for convalescents, and as it increases nutrition, it is indicated in all weakened conditions of the system, very quickly producing a feeling of well-being in the patient. Under the use of Fermanglobin, the system's resistance to anæmic diseases is greatly increased.

Recommended in Anæmia, Chlorosis, &c., &c. Will not constipate or affect the teeth.

Dose.—A dessertspoonful to a tablespoonful three or four times a day.

SQUIRE & SONS, 413, OXFORD STREET, W.

KASAK ELIXIR

(SQUIRE).

The active ingredient in this preparation is recognised to be the simplest and most efficient Laxative known.

It exhibits also a marked Tonic effect, and its use is not followed by the constipating reaction which characterises most other aperients.

This ELIXIR has been made specially to suit children and delicate persons, more particularly as regards its strength and flavour.

Dose—For Children, One or Two Teaspoonfuls, according to the age, at bedtime.

Adults, One Tablespoonful.

SQUIRE & SONS, 413, OXFORD STREET, W.

SENNINE.

SYRUP OF SENNA.
(SQUIRE).

The steadily increasing demand for this Syrup warrants the calling of further attention to its value, as this increase (without the stimulus of advertising) has been due entirely to its recognition as a reliable laxative aperient for delicate patients and children.

This palatable Syrup is made from a very fine quality of picked Senna, which is specially treated so as to modify the griping principle without impairing the aperient power of the drug. It may be used either to obtain a mild laxative action or a decided purgative effect according to the dose in which it is given.

Dose—Half to two Teaspoonfuls.

SQUIRE & SONS, 413, OXFORD STREET, W.

KASENA.

SENNA & CASCARA.

An Aromatic Elixir, representing in their natural condition the active constituents of carefully selected Cascara with Senna.

This palatable preparation is the outcome of a demand for a reliable laxative aperient, which would combine the advantages of Cascara with Senna. It is a combination of New Syrup of Senna (Squire) with Kasak Elixir, which itself has earned a world-wide repute.

Dose—For Children, One Teaspoonful.

Adults, One Dessertspoonful.

A Surgeon of the XVII century opening a vein under the tongue

The veins under the tongue were opened by surgeons in the XVII century in cases of quinsy, and in treatment of various throat ailments. A contemporary writer states: "The two veins under the tongue are cutte for the passions of the throat, and chiefly for the quinsie to purge the matter congregate. It seemeth convenient to cut the veins the second or third day of the sickness, but it is better to remove the sores than to let out much blood at once."

"The strong thing is the just thing."

Carlyle.

"Tabloid" marks the work of Burroughs Wellcome and Company.

The use of the word is to enable the physician, chemist and patient to get the right thing with one short word, instead of the firm's long name.

If another maker applies the word to his product, the act is unlawful. "Tabloid" is our registered trade-mark.

If a vendor disregards it, in dispensing or selling, the act is unlawful—for the same reason.

We prosecute both offenders rigorously, in the interest of physicians, chemists, patients and ourselves.

Please inform us of any instance of either offence.

MANDRAGORA

FROM A WOODCUT OF THE XVI CENTURY

This representation of the mandrake aptly illustrates the transitory period in botanical science that commenced in the early part of the XVI century. From about this time the mandragora was depicted in a manner less closely resembling the human figure, though the belief in its traditions and mysterious properties still continued. The poets of the period were familiar with the properties of the plant, as instanced in Shakespeare, who makes Cleopatra call for mandragora that she might "sleep out this great gap of time."

Benger's Food

GOLD MEDAL AWARDED Health Exhibition, London.

NOTICE TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

BENGER'S FOOD consists of a specially finely ground, nitrogenous, wheaten meal, cooked and impregnated with a suitable proportion of the fresh, natural digestive principles of the pancreas. When mixed with warm new milk or milk and water, as directed on each tin, these digestive principles not only render the farinaceous elements of the Food soluble (as in malted foods), but further, reduce the casein of the milk to a condition similar to that in which it exists in human milk, so that hard indigestible masses of curd cannot be formed in the stomach. BENGER'S FOOD forms a delicate and delicious cream, rich in all the elements necessary to maintain vigorous health. It is enjoyed by Infants, Invalids, Convalescents, and the Aged.

The Lancet describes it as "Mr. Benger's admirable preparation."

The London Medical Record says:—"It is retained when all other foods are rejected. It is invaluable."

The British Medical Journal says:—"Benger's Food has by its excellence established a reputation of its own."

The Illustrated Medical News says:—"Infants do remarkably well on it. There is certainly a great future before it."

A Government Medical Officer writes:—"I began using your food when my son was only a fortnight old, and now (five months) he is as fine a boy as you could wish to see."

From an eminent Surgeon:—"After a lengthened experience of Foods, both at home and in India, I consider Benger's Food incomparably superior to any I have ever prescribed."

BENGER'S FOOD may be obtained in various sized Tins of leading Chemists &c., everywhere wholesale of all Wholesale Houses, or of Represents the Best Attainable in Malt Extracts. It is absolutely Pure, most active in the Diastasic conversion of Starch, and while its Semi-Liquid Consistence is of great convenience and is liked by patients, it is also rich in the assimilable carbohydrate, proteid, and phosphatic derivatives of malt.

"'Maltine' exhibits in an eminent degree the starch-dissolving power of diastase."—THE LANCET.

"The nitrogenous substances which it contains are considerably richer than in any other extract of malt. Phosphoric acid and potash are also present in larger quantity."—Dr. A. STUTZER, Director of the Imperial Agricultural Chemical Laboratory for Rhenish Prussia.

"MALTINE" WITH PHOSPHATE OF IRON, QUINIA AND STRYCHNIA.

(Each Fluid Ounce contains Phosph. Iron, 4 grains; Quinia, 1 grain; Strychnia, $\frac{1}{8}$ grain.)

The Tonic Principles of Phosphate of Iron, Quinia, and Strychnia are administered in this combination in a nutritive and digestion-stimulating medium, and herein "MALTINE" possesses distinct advantages over syrups of cane sugar as a menstruum. "MALTINE," by reason of its Palatability, is a specially appropriate vehicle for the exhibition of drugs of a disagreeable, acrid nature. In "MALTINE" WITH PHOSPHATE OF IRON, QUINIA, AND STRYCHNIA the sweet flavour of the "MALTINE" forms a natural corrective to that of the bitter principles, and this combination is a Palatable and highly effective therapeutic agent, and constitutes a safer and more reliable method of administering Strychnia than by means of pills, Easton's syrup, &c.

Dose.—For adults, from a dessertspoonful to a tablespoonful three times a day directly after meals.

Euonymised
Cocoa

What is it?

A delicious Beverage, taking the place of Tea, Cocoa, or Coffee.

Why take it?

Its use is attended with a marked increase of appetite and rapidity of digestion; all feelings of heaviness after meals disappear; the complexion improves, and an increase of the natural flow of bile takes place. It is not aperient, except in repeated doses, but the increased activity of the liver is valuable in removing constipation. It is used in stomach or liver disorders, alcoholism, slow digestion, overwork, depression, loss of appetite, in cases where tea and coffee are not desirable, sedentary habit of life, gout, rheumatism, and biliousness.

Euonymised Cocoa can be freely taken by those unable to take ordinary Cocos.

The Euonymia, which is the most valuable liver stimulant yielded by the vegetable kingdom, is taken in the form of a hot infusion in a delicious beverage. Its action in this form is incomparably more direct and powerful than when taken in any other form. The most fastidious person takes this preparation with zest, and the stimulating effect on the liver and digestion is immediate and marked.

In uterine cases a piece of rubber tubing may be drawn over the holder.

SPIRAL ELASTIC STOCKINGS.

There are few members of the Medical Profession who have not experienced the disappointment so often resulting from the use of elastic stockings by their patients. They are usually ill-adapted to the particular case; being taken out of stock they fit only in the event of the patient's leg corresponding with one of the graduated sizes kept, and as very common materials are mostly used in their manufacture they are at first unyielding, causing pain if a little tight in any part, but quickly give way and afford no pressure, and the stockings remaining apparently good are worn when quite useless. With us every order is expressly made to measure and with due regard to the case in the selection of the material used, thereby securing those necessary factors to a properly efficient stocking—correctness of fit with uniform and suitable pressure.

Circumference at a, b, c, d, e. Length a to d.

Extension upward as required.

KNEE TRUSSES

for Dislocated Internal or External Semilunar Cartilage for chronic dislocations of the patella, and relaxed internal or lateral ligaments. The best results are obtained by fitting the side plates to the patient's knee, but if this be impracticable send circumference of joint over patella only. State which knee, and short description of the case.
Price £2 2 0.

Used by professional footballers, tennis players, &c. The truss does not interfere with the free action of the knee, on flexion or extension. Has recently been improved to avoid pressure on the ham tendons.

FRACTURED PATELLA

A walking splint for use after union of the upper and lower fragments. The steel joints at the sides are so made that the degree of bending at the knee-joint can be gradually increased. In case of a slip the knee cannot bend more than is allowed by this adjustable stop, and thus prevents over-stretching of the newly-formed ligament. To assist extension of the limb a strong elastic band joins the upper and lower part of the splint. This also is adjustable, and greatly assists the weakened quadriceps muscles in walking, as used at Guy's, the Middlesex, and St. Bartholomew's Hospitals. In the usual form, for twelve months' use, the splint is about 12 inches long, but for permanent disablement it is better to carry a light support to the heel of the foot.

£3 3s. to £5 5s.

Directions for measurement forwarded on application.

FRACTURED PATELLA.—Surgeon-Major Johnston's (I.M.S.) Splint.—Hitherto the splint used during the treatment of fractured patella has rendered horse exercise almost impossible, and especially hunting. The new splint in no way covers the knee, so that the is felt as if no The hinge of the inner side of the grip on the saddle splint were worn. The hinge of the splint is at the back of the knee, and has a central rivet, so as to permit, without strain, of the alteration in the plane of the leg during extension or flexion. On each side of the joint are two brass checks which limit flexion, and by the use of a file may be altered to allow of complete flexion. It is found advisable not to allow the possibility of the patient being able to alter the adjustment, hence the preference to fitting the stops rather than adjusting by a screw. As the apparent length of the under surface of the thigh becomes shorter in flexion the thigh-plate slides upon the hinged support at the back through a flattened sleeve. In this wooden the knee is semiflexed, but as the checks are adjusted the joint can be bent to a right angle. The weight of this splint is a little over a pound. Made to order only.

Price £4 4 0.

THE BEST MILK STERILIZER.

The "AYMARD" Patent Sterilizer.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES:—

1. The product is in the strict sense of the words a sterilized milk, both pathogenic and non-pathogenic organisms being destroyed at the temperature employed.
2. There is no separation of fat, sterilization being accomplished by the action of moist steam passing over the surface of the milk and round the milk chamber; evaporation is therefore reduced to a minimum and the product is not "condensed" but ready for instant use.
3. Milk sterilized by the AYMARD process is easily digested, requiring two hours; although the lactalbumin is coagulated by the temperature employed its digestibility is unaffected and an important change is produced in the Caseinogen, which results in the formation of a very fine Casein clot on the addition of Rennet, very readily acted on by gastric juice. When sterilized milk is used in infant and invalid feeding there is therefore an absence of any gastric irritation such as is produced by uncooked milk.

OF COURSE

You have satisfied yourself that the horse as an aid to the profession is antiquated, slow, troublesome and expensive, and that its time has passed. You have also satisfied yourself that for the use of the busy medical man a power carriage is now a necessity. That goes without saying. If you have not, or if you are still uncertain as to the kind to select, write for a copy of a little book of much value and interest which we have just published. We will send it you free on application. And remember that are essentials in all good cars, especially the latter. Now

"TIME-SAVERS FOR MEDICAL MEN,"

SPEED, HILL-CLIMBING, and RELIABILITY

DURYEA POWER CARRIAGES

have proved themselves superior in Automobile Club trials, both in point of speed and hill-climbing capacity, to cars of the best known makes at 4 times their price and with 3 times their power, whilst we adduce the following in proof of their

RELIABILITY.

On Thursday, June 16th, one of our Standard

12 H.P. DURYEA DOCTOR'S PHÆTONS was driven from Coventry, via Bristol, Exeter, Launceston and Truro to Lands End, a distance of 303 miles, over the hilliest roads in the United Kingdom, reaching its destination before 8 o'clock in the evening. The same vehicle, at noon next day, started back again, and travelling via Liskeard and Plymouth, and by a circuitous route reached Coventry at 4.30 p.m. on Saturday, and covered no less than 667 miles inside the space of three days.
