BRAND'S ESSENCE is a first-class protein of animal origin. Being partly hydrolyzed, it is capable of easy ingestion, digestion and absorption. It is extremely palatable, and may be taken either as a jelly or as a liquid. It helps to support convalescence and assists in restoring a positive nitrogen balance.

The major indications for the administration of Brand's Essence are loss of appetite during fatigue, acute infections, and dysphagia or digestive disturbances due to organic or bacterial lesions of the mouth, oesophagus and alimentary tract, and after surgical procedures.

The addition of Brand's Essence to low residue and weight-reducing diets is especially appreciated by the patient.

The proof of the pudding...

Evidence exists to show that some sulphonamides are better alone than in combination, and evidence also exists to the contrary. Figures, graphs, etc. can become tiresome.

After all the "proof of the pudding" is in the eating. Over more than 10 years 'Sulphamezathine' has proved itself to be safe, potent against a wide range of infections, and reliable.

FOR ANTICOAGULANT THERAPY

(P H E N Y L I N D A N E D I O N E)

Evans introduce into this country for the first time, a synthetic anticoagulant which has marked advantages over the coumarin derivatives at present in use.

PRELIMINARY clinical trials carried out in this country confirm the results with phenylindanedione reported from France, Canada and America.

DINDEVAN (phenylindanedione) is a synthetic anticoagulant which, like the coumarin derivatives, effectively lowers the prothrombin content of the blood when given orally. It thus prolongs the prothrombin time of the blood.

DINDEVAN possesses advantages over dicoumarol and other coumarin derivatives in that it is excreted and inactivated sufficiently rapidly to reduce the danger of cumulative effects yet not so rapidly as to cause difficulty in maintaining a therapeutic prothrombin level.

DINDEVAN produces its therapeutic effect in 24-36 hours after the initial dose. 36 hours after stopping the drug there is a marked fall of the prothrombin time to near normal, even where the blood prothrombin has been maintained at a therapeutic level for some weeks.

PRESENTATION : Scored tablets each containing 50 mgm.
of phenylindanedione. Containers of 25 and 100 tablets

Now you can prescribe symptomatic relief that offers many chronic asthmatics the return to a happy, useful life. With NORISODRINE, a quick-acting bronchodilator, the asthmatic has effective relief as near as pocket or purse. Administration is easy and inconspicuous. The patient uses the compact little AEROHALOR, Abbott's convenient inhaler. When a bronchospasm is impending, the asthmatic simply takes three or four inhalations of the powder and the attack usually subsides at once. Similar in action to adrenaline—but more effective—NORISODRINE is indicated in both mild and severe asthma. It has relatively low toxicity. With proper administration, side-effects are few and usually minor. There is little evidence of "fastness." NORISODRINE has proved effective in many asthmatic patients who are "adrenaline fast" and in those who could not obtain relief from such drugs as theophylline, iodides, or ephedrine. Before prescribing quick-acting NORISODRINE, however, please be very familiar with certain techniques and precautions discussed in available literature. May we send you a copy?

A perfect source of Vitamin C

RIBENA (Syrupus Ribis Nigri B.P.C.)

HIGH CONCENTRATION OF VITAMIN C—REMARKABLE STABILITY

Four characteristics of Ribena make it a perfect source of Vitamin C:

- 1 It contains a high concentration of Vitamin C – and it is very stable.
- 2 The vitamin is in its natural state.*
- 3 Ribena is very well tolerated even by sensitive stomachs. It is completely free from all cellular structure. It is suitable for infants almost from birth, for peptic ulcer cases, and for women suffering from “morning sickness”; they can take it when almost everything else increases discomfort.
- 4 In addition to its therapeutic values, it is delicious in its own right as sweet blackcurrant syrup.

* Following reports of unsatisfactory response to the therapeutic use of synthetic ascorbic acid in peptic ulcer cases, controlled tests using Ribena were instituted at various large British hospitals, with striking results.

Clinical experience has also shown that in ulcerative gingivitis, the routine use of Ribena as an adjunct to local therapy has given more satisfactory results than that of the synthetic vitamin.

The superiority is presumably due to the presence of other factors of the Vitamin-C complex, possibly the Vitamin P, as well as mineral elements.

Therapeutic uses

Ribena is recommended for all conditions requiring Vitamin-C implementation: namely, as a natural and rapid restorative from fatigue; for increasing resistance to local infection and colds; for expectant and nursing mothers; for infants from birth; for children and adolescents; in many dental conditions; in peptic ulcer cases; in fractures and wounds; in blood dyscrasias and hæmorrhagic states; in infections and fevers; and in many skin disorders.

Reports for doctors overseas

The makers of Ribena co-operated extensively with the Ministries of Food and Health during the war, a co-operation which still goes on to some extent even now. The Royal Forest Factory has attached to it a series of very fine laboratories where research into fruit juices and vitamins is conducted to an academic level, under the direction of an expert, lately in charge of the Fruit Products Section of the University of Bristol Agricultural Research Station. Reports of much of the work done are available, on application, to doctors and scientists overseas. These are likely to be of particular interest now that Ribena is being extensively exported.

Send for further information. A booklet entitled “Blackcurrant Juice in Modern Therapy: Natural Vitamin C” will be forwarded to you with pleasure; also details of a number of controlled tests made on the use of Vitamin C, if you will write to:—

CLOCKWORK REGULARITY.

Normal bowel action is a fine thing to possess. It is, perhaps, the most sought after talisman against ill-health in the world. No wonder, then, if its temporary suspension leads from a mild despondency even to black despair. But in such a crisis panic measures are to be avoided—the taking of harsh purgatives eschewed.

Success in the restoration of the much-cherished habit lies in the regular persuasive stimulus of soft bulk—such as is provided by 'PETROLAGAR.' Gently and unobtrusively, 'PETROLAGAR' arranges for normal physiological evacuations and secures the return of 'clockwork regularity.'

'TERCIN'

FOR MILD FORMS OF PAIN

"Aspirin and phenacetin are effective and useful, and a sedative effect is obtainable if a barbiturate is combined with them. . . . The reputation of codeine as a pharmacologically useful drug is at present waning, for the analgesic effect of the compound tablet of codeine B.P. is probably due more to its content of aspirin and phenacetin than to the $\frac{1}{4}$ gr. (8 mg.) of codeine present. It is a weak analgesic even when given in full doses." (Brit.Med.J. 1952 (Oct. 25th) ii, p.928)

Tercin combines aspirin and phenacetin with a barbiturate. It is intended for the relief of all those mild forms of pain for which tablets of Aspirin, Phenacetin and Codeine have hitherto been prescribed.

Its cost to the National Health Service is no greater than that of

Tab. Codein. Co. B.P.

Tercin is available in tablets containing aspirin 5 grains, phenacetin 3 grains and butobarbitone $\frac{1}{2}$ grain.

For dispensing only, in bottles of 200 at 4/10, and 1000 at 24/- (Prices to pharmacists in Great Britain).

Overweight, even borderline overweight, is a threat to health and even life itself and is a legitimate medical problem.

It is now well established that only those who eat less lose weight, but the difficulty has been in ensuring faithful adherence to a reducing diet. It therefore finds valuable application in the emergency treatment of malignant hypertension, encephalopathy, eclampsia and hypertensive states accompanying cerebral vascular disease. After initial control of blood pressure has been achieved by Veriloid Intravenous Solution treatment may be continued by the use of Veriloid Intramuscular Solution or by oral administration of Veriloid Tablets.

Veriloid Intravenous Solution contains 0.4 mg. of Veriloid brand alkaloids of Veratrum viride in each c.c. and is biologically assayed to ensure uniform hypertensive potency. It is a very potent agent, and should not be used before the instructions for use have been carefully studied.

Urolucosil^{*}

A SULPHONAMIDE

FREE FROM SIDE-EFFECTS

One of the most valuable characteristics of Urolucosil is the remarkable absence of side-effects noted with this sulphonamide. Such conditions as cyanosis, vomiting, acidosis, hypersensitivity, have yet to be reported; it is most uncommon for there to be any upset of the blood picture or disturbance of the intestinal flora with Urolucosil. Because Urolucosil is a compound with the high solubility of 98% at a pH of 7, it is unlikely that any blockage of the urinary passage by crystalline deposits will be caused; no diminishing of urinary output caused by such blockage has in fact been reported since Urolucosil was introduced to the medical profession in Great Britain. Finally, depression, which so often militates against the well-being of a patient, is virtually absent when Urolucosil is prescribed. Urolucosil is especially indicated in uncomplicated infections due to B. coli and other organisms of the coliform group: acute cystitis, acute pyelitis, pyelitis of pregnancy: urinary tract infections in children: neurogenic bladder.

Urolucosil is a P.I., S.I., S.IV poison, not subject to purchase tax, and can only be used on prescription. Urolucosil is supplied to the chemist in bottles containing 25 and 250 tablets, price of the bottle of 250 to the chemist being 21s. 8d. net.

Safer salicylate therapy

The possibility of toxic reactions from large or continuous doses of salicylates is now more widely recognised. The modern approach to salicylate therapy—using EKAMMON—overcomes these serious sequelae.

Containing aspirin (0.33 gm.), vitamin K (0.33 mgm.) and vitamin C (20 mgm.), EKAMMON has special virtues as an analgesic and anti-rheumatic. Vitamin K counteracts the prothrombin-reducing action of aspirin—preventing haemorrhagic tendencies. The addition of vitamin C compensates both the increased excretion of the vitamin during salicylate medication and the ascorbic acid deficiency usually associated with rheumatic patients.

EKAMMON is now regarded as the most modern form of salicylate therapy, of unique value in rheumatism, arthritis, fibrositis and dysmenorrhoea. Intensive dosage can be used without the risk of systemic reactions and the depression produced by salicylates alone.

50, 100, 500 & 1,000 tablets.

Outward signs of nervous stress are frequently encountered in present-day practice, and the value of symptomatic treatment with a sedative dose of barbiturate is now accepted. 'Amytal' and 'Sodium Amytal' can be relied upon to relieve nervous tension without irritability or loss of alertness. In nervous dyspepsia, gastric ulcer, etc., the administration of Tablets 'Amytal' gr. $\frac{1}{2}$ t.d.s. is usually satisfactory.

In neurotics the rather deeper action of the sodium salt is generally preferred. Treatment with 'Pulvules' 'Sodium Amytal' gr. 1 t.d.s. is most beneficial in depressive and anxiety states.

Infantile Scurvy and Sub-Scurvy

THE INFLUENCE OF VITAMIN C DEFICIENCY

In the case of a baby which is pale and fretful; not feeding or thriving well; showing low resistance to infection and slow healing in the event of wounds, it is often advisable to examine the possibility of a lack of Vitamin C as the basic cause.

If the child is BREAST FED it is probable that the mother is not eating a sufficiency of fresh fruit and vegetables or is in poor health with anorexia, anaemia and fatigue. She may indeed be suffering from sub-scurvy herself, yet wishes to continue breast feeding.

If the child is BOTTLE FED, the mother may have omitted to give some fresh fruit juice, possibly because the baby may be sick on such additions. It is well to remember also that cow's milk has less than one third of the Vitamin C content of human milk and that this is further reduced by pasteurisation.

In order to remedy Vitamin C deficiency and so restore the devitalised health which may otherwise end in symptoms of scurvy with its painful muscular haemorrhages and rapid heart failure, the use of Delrosa Rose Hip Syrup is confidently recommended. Delrosa is the richest natural source of Vitamin C, is very palatable and quickly absorbed. It provides all the Vitamin C necessary for positive health, the development of new tissue (such as red blood cells, new bone and teeth cells) and for cementing the walls of blood vessels and other tissues. Because of its high Vitamin C content (57 mgms. per fluid oz.), Delrosa plays a part in helping to increase resistance to bacterial infections.

Deferment of recruitment for fully registered "R" practitioners (i.e., fully registered practitioners liable for call-up under the National Service Acts) is granted at the discretion of the Central Medical Recruitment Committee and (in Scotland) the Scottish Central Medical Recruitment Committee. The Committees normally allow a fully registered "R" practitioner to hold a First House Officer post (N.H.S. salary £350 per annum) provided that it commences within three months of the end of his deferment by the Ministry of Labour and National Service as a whole-time medical student; and a Second House Officer post (N.H.S. salary £400 per annum) provided that it is secured before the end of his First House Officer post and commences within one month thereafter.

An "R" practitioner requires the special written permission of the C.M.R.C. or (in Scotland) the Scottish C.M.R.C. to proceed to any further post.

The position of provisionally registered "R" practitioners has been made clear in a notice sent to them by the University Joint Recruiting Boards.

Private rooms with special nurses, male or female, in Hospital or in one of the numerous villas in grounds of the various branches can be provided.

WANTAGE HOUSE.—This is a Reception Hospital in detached grounds with a separate entrance to which patients can be admitted. It is equipped with all the apparatus for the complete investigation and treatment of Mental and Nervous Disorders by the most modern methods; insulin treatment is available for suitable cases. It contains special departments for hydrotherapy by various methods, including Turkish and Russian baths, the prolonged immersion bath, Plombières treatment, etc. There is an Operating Theatre, a Dental Surgery, an X-ray Room, an Ultra-Violet Apparatus, and a Department for Diathermy and High-frequency Treatment. MOULTON PARK.—Two miles from the main Hospital there are several branch establishments and villas situated in a park and farm of 650 acres. Milk, meat, fruit, and vegetables are supplied to the Hospital from the farm, gardens and orchards of Moulton Park. Occupational therapy is a feature of this branch, and patients are given every facility for occupying themselves in farming, gardening and fruit-growing.

BRYN-Y-NEUADD HALL.—The seaside house of St. Andrew's Hospital is beautifully situated in a Park of 330 acres at Llanfairfechan amidst the finest scenery in North Wales. On the North-West side of the Estate, a mile of sea-coast forms the boundary. Patients may visit this branch for a short seaside change or for longer periods. The hospital has its own private bathing house on the seashore. There is trout-fishing in the park.

At all the branches of the Hospital there are cricket grounds, football and hockey grounds, lawn tennis courts (grass and hard courts), croquet grounds, golf courses, and bowling greens.
