Acute sinusitis and flare-ups of chronic sinusitis respond well to local treatment with penicillin, for unlike the sulphonamides penicillin is not inhibited by the presence of pus. 'Pendex' has a marked penetrative action and reaches all parts of the nasal cavity. ## The replaceable barrel means great economies in the long run

The glass barrel is protected by a metal casing and breakage risk is thereby reduced to a minimum. If the glass barrel is broken only the glass barrel and piston need be renewed.

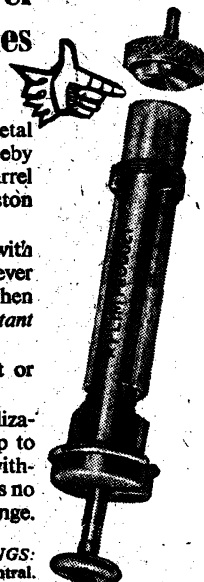

Spare barrels are supplied complete with individually fitted pistons. Users however are advised to order a spare barrel when they buy the syringe; this permits instant replacement.

All components can be taken apart or assembled in a few seconds.

No cement or solder is used and sterilization can be done at temperatures up to 200° C. The metal piston must be withdrawn during sterilization but there is no need to dismantle the rest of the syringe.

New peptic ulcer treatment comparable to drip therapy

Whole milk and alkaline constituents combine to produce increased buffering action

NULACIN TABLETS have been evolved to meet a very real need in the treatment of gastric and duodenal ulcers.

All the literature on the treatment of peptic ulcers emphasizes the proven value of diminishing the acidity of the gastric juice. Many large and otherwise intractable ulcers can be healed by a continuous, intra-gastric drip of milk or alkali.

Drip therapy, is, however, not always available, nor is it practicable to use it in many instances. Nulacin offers a satisfactory alternative.

CONTINUOUS NEUTRALIZATION

NULACIN TABLETS, allowed to dissolve slowly in the mouth, have been shown clinically to provide a continuous neutralization comparable with that of drip therapy. (B.M.J., 1952, 2, 180.)

NULACIN TABLETS contain nutrient in a most acceptable form to the peptic ulcer patient. Nulacin tablets obviate the necessity of taking frequent feeds, and so lessen the tendency to obesity which must occur in those who are following a dietary regime of food at frequent intervals.

During ulcer activity the suggested dosage is 3 tablets to be sucked each hour, and for follow-up treatment 2 tablets should be sucked between meals, beginning half an hour after a meal.

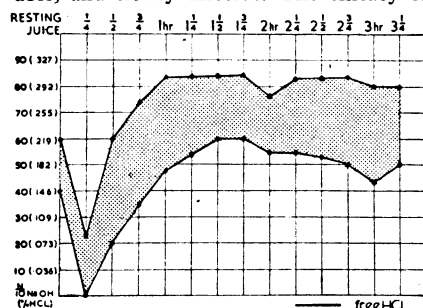

The tablet is of a suitable size, and of a consistency and hardness so that, when it is sucked, the result is a constant and prolonged neutralization of the gastric juice.

NULACIN TABLETS are extremely palatable and during extensive clinical tests their taste has proved to be particularly acceptable to patients.

The patient should be instructed to place the tablet between the gum of the upper jaw and the cheek. Here it will be comfortable, and slowly dissolve. The efficacy of the tablet is greatly diminished if it is chewed and swallowed.

NULACIN TABLETS are not advertised to the public. There is no B.P. equivalent to this tablet. The dispensing pack of 25 tablets is free of Purchase Tax. Price to pharmacists 2/-.

The new PENICILLIN COMPOUND

'PENIDURAL' is the new ready-for-use fluid oral penicillin, containing 300,000 units to each large teaspoon (5 c.c.). It will retain its full potency in aqueous suspension for eighteen months at room temperature, and is thus ideal for treatment both in hospital and home.

*Extract from Editorial of the British Medical Journal, dated

"A standard dose of 300,000 units (of 'Penidural') was given, and after a single dose a therapeutic blood concentration was invariably found after 3 hours. When the dose was repeated at six-hour intervals a cumulative effect was observed, with continuous maintenance of a therapeutic concentration".

Below is a diagram based upon recent work as reported in the British Medical Journal, April 11th, 1953, pp. 805 and 823.

118 Patients (101 children and 17 adults) were given, irrespective of age and weight, 300,000 units of 'PENIDURAL'. No less than 100% showed therapeutic blood levels after 3 hours.

The introduction of this pleasantly flavoured liquid penicillin banishes the need for any tedious mixing by the patient, who now merely has to pour out the specified dose.

Most cases of asthma respond excellently to 'Neo-Epinine'. More effective than adrenaline or ephedrine as a bronchodilator, it has the further advantage that it is relatively free from side-effects. Rapid relief follows the use of 'Neo-Epinine' No. 1 Spray Solution, a plain 1 per cent aqueous preparation. 'Neo-Epinine' sublingual products, 20 mgm., act within 5-10 minutes. Stubborn cases may need 'Neo-Epinine' No. 2 Compound Spray Solution, which contains 1 per cent of the drug with 2 per cent of papaverine and 0.2 per cent of atropine methonitrate.

WILLIAM WORDSWORTH

No sooner has the blossom languished and spring shed her coat of many colours than the tall grasses ripen. The air is again pollen-laden. To those who love the countryside these richly-clothed meadows are a joy: to sufferers from hay-fever they are merely the signal for a fresh period of acute discomfort. Yet there is a solution — BENADRYL, probably the most potent of all histamine antagonists, may be taken just before and during the pollen seasons and, in the majority of cases, provides effective relief.

Peritrate is a drug of considerable benefit in the prophylactic treatment of patients with coronary insufficiency, regardless of their age. The evidence of clinical trials indicates that in some cases Peritrate may protect completely against attacks; in others, the number of attacks is substantially reduced; while those attacks not prevented may be less intense and of shorter duration. Results so far obtained with Peritrate suggest that it is more efficacious than drugs such as aminophylline or khellin; also there are certain other beneficial effects which can be expected:

1. Less palpitation, especially at night.
2. Shortness of breath on effort, less severe.
3. An improvement of 50 per cent in distance walked.
4. Reduction of nitroglycerin requirement.
5. The negative S-T segment shifts, ordinarily occurring after exercise, modified; Peritrate has returned the abnormal resting electro cardiogram towards normal in a significant number of cases.

*New!
for Babies*

Carter's of Coleford, makers of Ribena Blackcurrant Juice, announce a new Vitamin C syrup—ROSENA—which has been especially prepared for children from two weeks to ten years old. Rosena is a balanced blend of pure orange juice and rose hip extract. The soft, pleasant flavour of the rose hip has been used to stabilise the orange juice at an acidity which makes it most pleasant and acceptable to children of all ages. It does not cause stomach or bowel trouble. By reason of its high vitamin content (not less than 56 mgms. of Vitamin C per fluid oz.) Rosena is equal in Vitamin C activity to Ministry of Food Orange Juice and National Rose Hip Syrup. It also contains three natural sugars, which are nutritionally valuable.

These comprise glucose, fruit sugar and cane sugar. In addition, a further ten per cent of pure glucose has been added. It costs only 2/10d. a bottle and lasts baby a whole month! From Chemists only.

COW & GATE LTD.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING, 24th APRIL, 1953

Statement by the Chairman—MR. W. R. B. ST. J. GATES

It is my privilege to lay before you the accounts for the year under review. I think you will agree that they are very satisfactory, particularly as the difficult conditions to which I referred last year have continued.

Wages, our bills for fuel and power, packaging and most of our raw materials, including, of course, the cost of milk, our main raw material in the manufacture of infant and invalid foods, have all increased considerably, creating smaller margins between manufacturing cost and selling price. In addition, the general public, because of continued high taxation and the high cost of living, has less money to spend. In spite of this, and because many parents believe that it is essential to give their children the best possible start in life, the sales of our baby foods at home were well maintained, which is a real tribute to the sterling quality of the products themselves and to the good sense of the British public. The latter, I am sure, now realizes that there can be no safe way of cheapening the production of such a vital and important thing as a baby food, which demands virtually as a matter of life and death the most exacting care and precision at every stage of manufacture and packing. We may economise on many things which are not necessities, but nothing but the best can be good enough for such an important person as His Majesty the Baby.

I am glad to report that Cow & Gate in Canada is making steady progress through its subsidiary companies, and particularly the branded evaporated milk "Farmer's Wife" is going from strength to strength. We believe that the markets in the New World, already substantial, will grow rapidly, and the wise investment that we made there will steadily gain in value and importance. I only wish that the dollar situation allowed us to import certain products from Canada to this country such as cheese, because we have several cheese factories there which could largely supplement the present cheese ration over here. There is a substantial surplus of cheese in Canada at the present time, and we hope that Her Majesty's Government, in conjunction with the Government in Canada, will find ways and means to prevent any waste of this valuable food.

As I reported to you last year, the factory which we built in Australia has now been acquired by the Co-operative Dairy Association of New South Wales Ltd., but as part of the arrangement that we made with them, they have undertaken to provide us with dairy products (made under the supervision of our own technical experts) under a long-term trading agreement. As a result you will observe a new item in the Balance Sheets on pages 3 and 5 under the heading "Deferred Account Receivable."

We have continued to expand the wholesale and retail distribution side of the business, and in doing so have furthered the Government's policy of providing safe milk, pasteurized and bottled, not only to our own retail customers, but also by wholesale to a growing number of smaller retailers who are thus saved the heavy expense of installing their own processing and bottling plant.

Because of a reduction in spending power, and the availability of other foodstuffs, people are drinking less milk than they were a year ago, but your business is a well-balanced one and the smaller sales of liquid milk (which must be regretted because milk is such valuable food) will be compensated to some extent by the greater throughput of our factories, which are manufacturing almost every kind of dairy product.

Recently we have acquired three farms which have been equipped mainly for the rearing of pigs. They are helping us to dispose of the by-products of milk used for the manufacture of cheese, and without them we should have been faced with the loss of a considerable quantity of whey, which it does not pay us to use for manufacturing or other purposes.

By the time this Report reaches you, you will probably have tasted fresh cream again, and I know that you will be interested to recall that in the days before the war, Cow & Gate was famous for its little brown jars of fresh cream. In fact, looking back to the early days of the Company's history, it was the introduction of these little brown jars of cream which helped to make the business nationally famous. The high price of cream may prevent the reintroduction of this once famous line packed in the same way, but we shall, of course, be ready to market both fresh cream and also the processed varieties in cans and jars which were so popular in years gone by.

During the past year we have begun selling processed cheese again, and our new cheese spread called "Cow & Gate Cotsdale" has in a very short time achieved remarkable success. Unfortunately, there is a shortage of bulk cheese needed for its manufacture in this country and the demand for Cotsdale Cheese has far exceeded the supply. We hope during the coming year to be able to make supplies available throughout the whole country.

I think everyone looks forward to the day when the Ministry of Food ceases to exist. This is not meant in any way to reflect upon the ability with which this Ministry was administered during the war and immediate post-war years, but a Ministry of Food should not really be necessary in peace time. Before the war, the milk industry was largely governed by the Milk Marketing Board, and we have great admiration for the Board's activities; but it was representative only of the producers' side of this great industry. The distributive and manufacturing trade in the British Isles has grown out of all knowledge since 1939, and this country has relied more and more upon home manufacture as well as home production, both during and since the war. If some of the powers at present delegated to the Ministry of Food are to be placed in other hands, they should in all fairness be shared by the producers, distributors and manufacturers, who have at least an equal stake financially and who should be equally capable of discharging these duties in a conscientious and public-spirited manner. In my opinion, moreover, the day is long outlived when it can possibly be expedient or in the public interest to allow a statutory body representing purely producers' interests to be the sole arbiter in regard to such a vital matter as the nation's milk supply.

You will recollect that last year I mentioned that we were proposing to raise further capital. Since then, you will be aware of what has been done. £1,000,000 of new money was raised and it was very largely taken up by existing Stockholders, most of whom are relatively small investors. I think you will agree that that was a great sign of confidence that the Stockholders have in the Company. I personally, and I am sure my colleagues support me in this, feel very encouraged to have received this further evidence of the staunch and loyal support of our members, which during my long association with the Company has been characteristic of them.

Let me conclude once again by paying a tribute to our staff both here and overseas, without whose loyalty and hard work we should have achieved nothing. Our thanks are due to our many agents overseas, whose task has been made more difficult by monetary restrictions, shortage of supplies, wars and rumours of wars.

We look forward to the coming year with confident anticipation, knowing that with the crowning of Queen Elizabeth II, the nations which comprise the British Commonwealth and Empire are closely bound together, and not only they but the other great English-speaking people that is part of the Free World. To mark this historic event I have pleasure in announcing that your Directors recommend the payment of a Coronation Bonus of 5 per cent. less tax to the Ordinary Stockholders of the Company. This is in addition to the Ordinary Dividend recommended at the rate of 10 per cent., less tax.

W. R. B. ST. J. GATES, Chairman.

Deferment of recruitment for fully registered "R" practitioners (i.e., fully registered practitioners liable for call-up under the National Service Acts) is granted at the discretion of the Central Medical Recruitment Committee and (in Scotland) the Scottish Central Medical Recruitment Committee. The Committees normally allow a fully registered "R" practitioner to hold a First House Officer post (N.H.S. salary £350 per annum) provided that it commences within three months of the end of his deferment by the Ministry of Labour and National Service as a whole-time medical student; and a Second House Officer post (N.H.S. salary £400 per annum) provided that it is secured before the end of his First House Officer post and commences within one month thereafter.

An "R" practitioner requires the special written permission of the C.M.R.C. or (in Scotland) the Scottish C.M.R.C. to proceed to any further post.

The position of provisionally registered "R" practitioners has been made clear in a notice sent to them by the University Joint Recruiting Boards.
