New'PAREDRIX' SPRAYPAK

'Paredrix' is already well-known as the constituent of 'Sulfex' and 'Pendex' that produces such remarkably rapid and prolonged vasoconstriction.

When an unmedicated vasoconstrictor is indicated, the pocket-sized ($\frac{1}{2}$ -fl. oz.) 'Paredrix' Spraypak is a most convenient presentation.

It disseminates a fine mist of 'Paredrix' throughout the complicated nasal passages, quickly bringing lasting improvement in ventilation and drainage.

ACTUAL SIZE
of 'Paredrix' Spraypak

It causes no inhibition of ciliary activity, no ephedrine-like central-nervous side-effects, no stinging, and no secondary returgescence.

'Paredrix' is also available in 8-oz. bottles for dispensing

For cost to N.H.S., please see M. & J. list of costs dated October, 1953.

NOW WIDELY PRESCRIBED— Transvasin

Contains skin-penetrating esters of salicylic, nicotinic, and p-aminobenzoic acids. It brings real relief to deep-seated muscular rheumatism by simple inunction.

Transvasin, a new preparation developed by Hamol S.A., our Swiss associates, and now available for prescription in this country, contains polar esters of salicylic, p-aminobenzoic and nicotinic acids. These esters readily pass the skin barrier in therapeutic quantities and enable an effective concentration of the drugs to be built up where they are needed. Transvasin not only induces vasodilation of the skin with a superficial erythema but also brings about a deep hyperaemia of the underlying tissues. It is non-irritant, and can be safely used on the skin.

It is now being widely prescribed, with highly successful results. There is evidence, also, that since a very small quantity is sufficient for each application the cost of treatment is extremely low.

Salicylic acid tetrahydrofurfuryl-ester	14%
Nicotinic acid ethyl-ester	2%
Nicotinic acid n-hexyl-ester	2%
p-Aminobenzoic acid ethyl-ester	2%
Water-miscible cream base ad	100%

Transvasin is not advertised to the public. It is available in 1 oz. tubes at 3/4d. plus 7½d. P.T., and is obtainable on Form E.C.10.

Samples and literature will be gladly sent on application.

NULACIN

for continuous,
maintained gastric
anacidity

It has long been recognized that the most rapid relief of the pain and discomfort of peptic ulcer and most rapid healing of the lesion are achieved when a continuous state of gastric anacidity is maintained.

Heretofore, this could only be attained with hospitalization and discomfort to the patient. Now clinical work in progress confirms NULACIN to provide "the nearest approach to the continuous intragastric drip for the ambulatory patient."*

A NULACIN tablet placed between the cheek and the gum dissolves slowly and releases its contained medicaments at a rate that gives continuous neutralization of the acid gastric juice, and accomplishes this with considerably less antacid than is required by any other method employing oral administration.

INDICATIONS

NULACIN tablets are indicated whenever acid neutralization of the gastric contents is required: in active and quiescent peptic ulcer, gastritis, gastric hyperacidity.

Dosage: Beginning half-an-hour after food a NULACIN tablet should be placed in the mouth and allowed to dissolve slowly.

During the stage of ulcer activity, up to three tablets an hour may be required. During quiescent periods, for prophylaxis in peptic ulcer and for the relief of discomfort due to gastric hyperacidity, the dose of NULACIN is one or two tablets between meals.

NULACIN tablets are not advertised to the public and have no B.P. equivalent. May be prescribed on E.C.10. The dispensing unit of 25 tablets is free of purchase tax. (Price to pharmacists: 2/-.) Also available in tubes of 12.

NULACIN tablets are prepared from whole milk combined with dextrins and maltose, and incorporate:

Magnesium Trisilicate 3.5 grs. Magnesium Oxide 2.0 grs.
Calcium Carbonate 2.0 grs. Magnesium Carbonate 0.5 grs.

Clearing the Channel

An action firm but gentle, prompt but lasting—that is the requirement when clearing nasal congestion. 'Vasylox', a new vasoconstrictor, meets this need. 'Vasylox' restores free breathing without causing central stimulation, sleeplessness, or interference with ciliary motility. Neither irritating nor stinging, it may be used for patients of any age, even for infants. The IRON DUKE

Throughout History, Iron has always symbolised strength. Today, in common phraseology, terms like "an iron will" carry on this idea.

These terms were based on the physical strength of the metal, but there is a nutritional sense in which iron provides strength.

During pregnancy, much iron is required for the healthy development of the foetus—this must be supplied by the mother, who must either ingest it from her diet or draw it from her own limited reserves.

PRENATALAC is a special food, containing 50 mgms. of Ferri et Amm Cit per ounce, prepared for expectant and nursing mothers.

HĒMOLAC is an infant food, containing 25 mgms. per ounce of the same iron salt, for cases of microcytic anaemia in infancy.

What can you do for my Rheumatism Doctor?

What a problem faces you when such a patient asks this question! You can, however, alleviate the painful symptoms by prescribing succinate-salicylate therapy in the form of Berex.

In rheumatic fever and rheumatoid disease the value of salicylates—in high dosage—is established beyond question.* But until recently the efficacy was offset by the toxic effects.

Now, by providing a combination of salicylate and succinate, Berex enables a massive dosage of salicylate to be administered without lowering the prothrombin level, with less gastric disturbance and with the encouragement of tissue respiration. British Medical Journal*, 1952, 1, 1152.

The new PENICILLIN COMPOUND

'PENIDURAL' is the new ready-for-use fluid oral penicillin, containing 300,000 units to each large teaspoonful (5 c.c.). It will retain its full potency in aqueous suspension for two years at room temperature, and is thus ideal for treatment both in hospital and home.

*Extract from Editorial of the British Medical Journal, dated

"A standard dose of 300,000 units of 'Penidural' was given, and after a single dose a therapeutic blood concentration was invariably found after 3 hours. When the dose was repeated at six-hour intervals a cumulative effect was observed, with continuous maintenance of a therapeutic concentration."

The introduction of this pleasantly flavoured liquid penicillin banishes the need for any tedious mixing. The patient merely has to pour out the specified dose.

Supplied in bottles of 60 c.c.

Below is a diagram based upon recent work as reported in the British Medical Journal, April 11th, 1953, pp. 805 and 823.

118 Patients (101 children and 17 adults) were given, irrespective of age and weight, 300,000 units of 'PENIDURAL'. No less than 100% showed therapeutic blood levels after 3 hours.

Prevention of Dressing Trauma

Jelonet is a dressing for all wounds—its non-adherent properties protect the delicate epithelium and prevent dressing trauma, enabling healing to continue undisturbed. It is used extensively in the treatment of burns and as a dressing following skin-grafting operations. It is non-toxic and compatible with Penicillin and all other antibiotics, and may be used as a means of drainage, or as a packing for deep granulating wounds. It may also be used as an adjuvant in the treatment of varicose ulcers by compression bandaging, and as a means of protecting the skin from irritating discharges. Jelonet may be prescribed by name under the N.H.S.

(Form E.C.10) in the following sizes:— single pieces in envelopes, tins containing

5, 10 or 36 pieces, each piece $3\frac{3}{4}$ " x $3\frac{3}{4}$ ".

A special size tin containing a strip 8 yards long by $3\frac{3}{4}$ " wide, folded zig-zag, is available for use in Hospitals and Surgeries. Formula:— Balsam of Peru B.P. 12.5 grammes; Yellow Soft Paraffin B.P. 1000 grammes. Sterile — ready for immediate use.

Few symptoms are so quickly noticed by the patient as constipation. Quite trivial changes in daily habits or diet can upset the regular movement, and the perturbed patient too easily seizes the first available drastic purgative. A mild, well-tolerated laxative such as Agarol Emulsion helps to avoid these violent swings from constipation to purgation and firmly guides the patient back to normal. The lubrication and gentle stimulation provided by Agarol allow the smooth bulk to move forward again and to be easily evacuated.

“Yes, canned strained foods really are better than home-made!”

Every day Doctors and Nurses find more and more mothers are accepting the fact that canned strained foods are better for baby than home-prepared strained foods.

And the more one knows about Heinz Strained Foods the easier it is to see why. Take Strained Spinach as an example.

First, Heinz select the most suitable variety of seed. They supervise the growth from sowing to harvesting. As soon as the crop reaches perfection the spinach is hurried to the factory, where it is inspected, carefully washed and cleaned. It is then cooked without delay by Heinz special equipment which minimises nutrient losses. Straight from cooking, it is put through fine sieves, then into enamel-lined cans. And in their laboratories, Heinz check the quality before the food is sterilized — and after too, by testing cans from each batch. The result is a much more nourishing and hygienic food than spinach cooked under normal home conditions.

For full details of the nutrient value of Heinz Strained Foods, please write to Dept. 1G, H. J. Heinz Company Ltd., Harlesden, London, N.W.10.

Spencer Antepartum-Postpartum Support

A Spencer supports the breasts in position to improve circulation; protects inner tissues; helps prevent skin from breaking. Guards against caking and abscessing after childbirth.

Do not overlook the Psychological effect of a SPENCER Support

During antepartum and postpartum periods—and especially in early ambulation—a Spencer exerts an important psychological effect. A Spencer's gentle but effective support increases the patient's confidence in her ability to "stay on her feet" and "move about."

Therapeutically, a Spencer Support helps to regain postural stability, helps replace organs in normal position, often relieves low-back pain. A Spencer offers protection to tissues affected by operative procedures without restricting natural muscle activity.

A qualified scientifically trained Fitter furnishes us with a description of the patient's body and posture, and detailed measurements. Then the support is individually designed, cut, and made at our Manufactory at Banbury. Within a short time the patient's support is delivered and adjusted by the Fitter.

HER MAJESTY'S COLONIAL SERVICE

Malaya

A doctor is required for the Malayan Medical Department for appointment as

at Woodbridge (Mental) Hospital, Singapore, to carry out such duties in the hospital and at out-patient clinics as may be required, and to assist in the teaching of medical staff. Candidates must possess medical qualifications; registrable in the United Kingdom and a higher qualification in psychiatry, and should be of the rank of at least Senior Registrar in the United Kingdom Health Service. Appointment to the above post is available (a) on probation for permanent and pensionable establishment, (b) on employment from the National Health Service, and (c) on short-term contract with gratuity. (a) Permanent Terms: Subject to three years' probation appointment is permanent with pension (non-contributory) at age of 55. Basic salary is £1,764 per annum. In addition, pensionable expatriation pay is payable at the rate of £364 per annum. A non-pensionable expatriation allowance is paid to married officers without children at the rate of £133 per annum, and to married officers with children at the rate of £259 per annum. A temporary, variable, non-pensionable cost-of-living allowance is payable at the rate of £42 per annum for single men, £308 for married men, and £413 for married men with children. (b) National Health Service Terms: Doctors may resign from the National Health Service but retain their superannuation rights during their time in Malaya (up to six years), and receive a resettlement grant of 20 per cent of the aggregate of their Malayan salary on leaving Malaya at the end of their engagements. Salary and allowances as under (a). Doctors so appointed may be considered for permanent terms at any time during their employment in Malaya provided they surrender their rights to the resettlement grant: payment by Malayan Government of superannuation contributions ceases from date of permanent service. (c) Contract Terms: The contract will be for three years' resident service, renewable for a further four of three years by mutual agreement. Salary and allowances as under (a). In addition a gratuity of £300 to £450 according to salary is paid on expiry of contract. Doctors on contract may be considered for appointment to the permanent establishment at any time on their agreeing to surrender their gratuity earning rights. In all three types of appointment the rate of salary and gratuity refer to doctors eligible for "expatriate terms" under Malayan regulations (i.e., those whose permanent homes are in the United Kingdom, Irish Republic, Australia, Canada, etc.). The climate is, for the Tropics, healthy. European children do well up to the age of about 6, and schools are available locally. Income tax is payable at Malayan rates, which are lower than those in the United Kingdom. Government quarters with heavy furniture are provided at a low rental, or an allowance is paid in lieu of quarters. Free passages are provided for the doctor, his wife, and children under the age of 10 (not exceeding four persons besides himself) on appointment and once each way during each tour of duty of three to four years. Generous home leave is granted and local leave is permissible. Application forms can be obtained from the Director of Recruitment (Colonial Service), Colonial Office, Sanctuary Buildings, Great Smith Street, London, S.W.1 (quoting reference No. CDE 117/60/013). HER MAJESTY'S COLONIAL SERVICE

Kenya

Vacancies exist for

MEDICAL OFFICERS

for general duties in the Medical Department of Kenya. Successful candidates may be posted to any station in Kenya. During the earlier years of service an officer will be expected to carry out general medical and surgical duties including a varying amount of public health administration. In most stations, even if remote from the larger towns, it is possible for an officer to maintain interest in any particular branch of medicine or surgery to which he is attracted. As far as possible the interests of an officer are considered when postings are made. The work of every medical officer is based on a hospital which may vary in size and facilities from a small district hospital meeting the needs of a comparatively primitive community to a large and modern provincial hospital. It is intended to select one officer with an interest in psychiatry. He need not possess a Diploma in Psychological Medicine, or have special experience, but should be interested in psychiatry and keen to gain experience in this field of medicine. Appointments can be made on a permanent basis with pension (non-contributory) at age of 55, or on short term contract with gratuity on satisfactory completion of service. Salary is paid in the scale £865 to £935 by £35 to £1,005 by £45 to £1,140 by £45 to £1,320 by £45 to £1,590 per annum, starting point is determined by experience and war service, and four extra increments are given to successful candidates possessing the M.R.C.P., D.P.M., D.P.H., or other approved higher qualifications. Temporary cost-of-living allowance of £300, rising to a maximum of £350 per annum, is also payable. Quarters provided at rental of ten per cent of salary. Free passages in both directions for officer and wife and up to cost of one adult fare for children. Taxation at local rates. Annual local leave permissible and generous home leave granted after each tour of from 40 to 48 months. Educational facilities are available. Medical Officers are eligible for promotion to administrative super-scale posts in Kenya and other colonial territories and also, if they have higher qualifications and suitable experience, for specialist appointments. Candidates must possess medical qualification registrable in the United Kingdom and at least one year's postgraduate hospital experience. Application forms from Director of Recruitment (Colonial Service), Colonial Office, Sanctuary Buildings, Great Smith Street, London, S.W.1 (quoting Ref. No. CDE 117/7/02). (6554)
