a change for the better . . .

One is naturalished method unless it offer So it says method the Cytamer Injections are and do not I moreover, is principle and

One is naturally loth to change an established method of treatment for another—unless it offers real and practical advantages. So it says much for Cytamen—vitamin B<sub>12</sub>—that it is being used increasingly in the treatment of pernicious anaemia. Certainly the Cytamen advantages are real enough. Injections are small in bulk, more economical and do not lead to sensitisation. Each dose, moreover, is an exact weight of the active principle and thus exerts a constant physiological effect.

In the care of convalescents and weakly children, conventional tonics are sometimes of little or no benefit. The patient, it seems, requires some other restorative. Often the answer is vitamin B<sub>12</sub>. Sharpened appetite, improvement in well-being and notable weight gains have all been observed following doses of oral B<sub>12</sub>. Glaxo present oral B<sub>12</sub> as Cytacon. Two forms are available—sugar-coated tablets, and a fruit-flavoured liquid for teaspoon doses.

for the $\setminus$ rapid relief of pain

The distress caused by the piercing, stabbing pains of neuralgia is quickly relieved by the rapid, smooth, analgesic action of HYPON

TABLETS, enabling the practitioner to prescribe a safe means of meeting the patient's need. Menstrual pain is also effectively alleviated. Where the cause of distress is of a more chronic nature, as in rheumatism and sciatica, the adverse effects of prolonged medication with codeine and salicylic therapy are eliminated by the inclusion in the formula of caffeine and phenolphthalein. HYPON TABLETS are already widely prescribed by members of the profession for their speedy and safe action with the almost complete elimination of gastric upset. Parallel with the relief from pain, febrile states are effectively reduced in conditions such as influenza, coryza and tonsillitis.

The Relentless

To the woman at the menopause, a glance in the mirror reveals so much more than a reflection of her face. Apprehension, flushing, irritability and depression confront her and the calm philosophy that has stood her in good stead through the years no longer mellows her reflection.

Euvalerol M, the ideal sedative in menopausal conditions, alleviates nervous phenomena and vasomotor disturbances and restores the emotional outlook.

Euvalerol M contains a preparation obtained from valerian root from which the unpleasant odour, characteristic of valerian, is eliminated. To each fluid drachm (4 c.c.) of this odourless preparation of valerian are added ½-grain (16 mg.) of phenobarbitone and 0.1 mg. of stilboestrol.

EUVALEROL M

In bottles of 4 and 8 fluid ounces.

Literature on application.

The low mental state which frequently accompanies the extreme irritation of pruritus presents a difficult problem for the physician. In the majority of cases the condition is relieved by regular application of EURAX, an odourless, non-greasy cream containing 10% crotonyl-N-ethyl-o-toluidide. EURAX possesses an extremely low sensitizing index and its activity is not diminished even after prolonged use.

The IRONDUKE

Throughout History, Iron has always symbolised strength. Today, in common phrase-ology, terms like "an iron will" carry on this idea.

These terms were based on the physical strength of the metal, but there is a nutritional sense in which iron provides strength.

During pregnancy, much iron is required for the healthy development of the fœtus — this must be supplied by the mother, who must either ingest it from her diet or draw it from her own limited reserves.

PRENATALAC is a special food, containing 50 mgms. of Ferri et Amm Cit per ounce, prepared for expectant and nursing mothers.

HEMOLAC is an infant food, containing 25 mgms. per ounce of the same iron salt, for cases of microcytic anaemia in infancy.

THEODROX provides a dependable method of oral administration of aminophylline in doses large enough to produce the same high blood levels obtainable with parenteral administration.

Previous investigations have shown that good response is obtained from aminophylline only if a certain concentration of the active component, theophylline, is attained in the blood. Because gastric irritation prevents giving oral doses large enough to produce this necessary blood level, the only dependable way of obtaining this end has been to resort to parenteral aminophylline.

Now there is clinical proof that when aminophylline is combined with a specially prepared, aluminium hydroxide, the stumbling block of gastric irritation can be virtually eliminated, and massive oral doses can be tolerated to produce consistent blood levels comparable to those obtained by parenteral administration. *(1) *(2).

Theodrox is supplied in containers of 25, 100 and 1,000 tablets, each tablet containing Aminophylline B.P., 3 gr. and Aluminium Hydroxide Gel, Dried, B.P.C., 4 gr. Theodrox is also available as Theodrox with Phenobarbitone, each tablet containing in addition  $\frac{1}{8}$  gr. of Phenobarbitone B.P.

Child's Spinal Support

Dorso-Lumbar Support

Compare Spencer with any other support for effectiveness, comfort, economy

For Effectiveness-each Spencer Support is individually designed, cut and made—based on body descriptions, measurements and the medical requirements of each patient. In terms of individual needs, only a designed-to-order support can provide maximum therapeutic effectiveness.

For Comfort—Spencers are not adjusted to "fit," the "fit" of a Spencer is designed into the sections of the support itself! Heights, lengths, all details are determined by the needs of the individual wearer. Thus Spencer provides lasting comfort. Such comfort is not possible in a support that is adjusted to fit a body for which it was not designed.

For Economy-to be truly economical, a support must provide the correction required by the medical condition and must hold its shape in order to maintain that correction. Because each Spencer is individually designed it does not lose its shape.

We invite you to compare the difference! You will find Spencer demonstrably superior for women, children, and men.

THE EXTRA PHARMACOPŒIA

(MARTINDALE)

Volume 1, 23rd Edition

In this new edition will be found information on the composition and character of practically every substance used in medicine, together with a concise summary of its use, its method of administration and its contraindications, with abstracts of the world literature. The book gives details, with references, of the most recent innovations in medical practice.

Information is provided on the toxicity of chemicals and drugs, on reports of cases of poisoning, and on treatment of overdosage. It is unlikely that any medicinal agent of established value has been omitted from the Therapeutic Index, which is about half as long again as that of the last edition and contains approximately 750 headings.

Pp. xxii + 1352.

Price 55s. (postage 1s.)

THREE ESSENTIALS EVERY DOCTOR'S OFFICE

Details Free on Request

The average doctor doesn't want elaborate correspondence cabinets.

But every doctor needs somewhere to keep his correspondence and records.

There is a Shannon unit which fits neatly on to any desk, side-table, or other convenient place. It is inexpensive and handy. Complete with all the necessary triply-strong suspended (on metal) folders, it costs very little. Yet it controls the doctor's correspondence safely and will last for many years.

Most doctors would find this Shannon unit invaluable in | not you?

simplifying routine.

Then there are the ready-printed visible Case-History and Accounts records which control the history of every patient, give visible indication of impending visits, warnings of confinements, indications of cases to watch. . . . These, too, cut down the time spent on routine and help the doctor to control his practice as rigidly as any business or professional man.

Hundreds of doctors rely on these Shannon systems to keep close control of their multifarious activities. Why

Just write "Send Details" on your card or letter heading and post it to The Shannon Ltd., of 67 Shannon Corner, New Malden, Surrey. You will receive full details of all the above by return free and without any obligation.

Two weapons against Athlete's Foot

and other fungal dermatoses

The combined use of Mycil Ointment and Powder has proved to be highly effective in both prophylaxis and treatment of fungal dermatoses.

Mycil Ointment is formulated to ensure penetration of the active constituent, chlorphenesin, to the site of the infection.

Mycil Powder, used alone, prevents reinfection. Because of its absorptive properties it is a valuable agent with which to combat excessive perspiration.

Both preparations are non-mercurial and odourless and may be used over long periods, if necessary, without adverse effects.
