CHRONIC BRONCHITIS

The new approach to treatment

Mucolytic therapy directed against the nidus of re-infection.

SEARCH FOR MUCOLYTIC

Chronic bronchitis or 'intrinsic asthma' is a chronic progressive disease in which many causes play a part. Treatment so far has always been palliative. It has not touched upon the central fact emerging from the pathological studies carried out in recent years: that quite early in the disease a fundamental change occurs in the character of the bronchial secretions. The respiratory tract fluid becomes more viscous, sticky and tenacious. As a result, the normal physiological mechanism for removing bronchial secretions (a process which goes on unconsciously and continuously in the normal subject) is drastically interrupted. The importance of the role played by this fundamental disorder in bringing about continuation, extension and chronicity of the disease has never been assessed—simply because no method has existed of freeing the patient from the handicap of his retained sputum.

RESIDUUM OF MUCUS

One salient consequence does, however, strike the bronchitic and his physician every winter: repeated episodes of acute pulmonary infection. Now that broad-spectrum antibiotics are available the infection can be treated, but only at the cost of leaving behind a residuum of highly viscous mucoid sputum which cannot be coughed up. The patient's disability is thus enhanced, his return to work postponed and a nidus of infection prepared for the next acute exacerbation of his disease.

It is now obvious that the chronic bronchitic must be able to rid himself of these retained secretions before he can have any hope of recovery, or even of a cessation in the inexorable progress of his condition to permanent disablement and lingering asphyxiation.

Despite centuries of fruitless use, the belief in the efficiency of expectorants dies hard. The 'new look' in the form of a myth that detergent aerosols do more than steam or water-vapour is now being exploded. The latest approach has been based on a search for an appropriate mucolytic enzyme, delivered to the site of action with maximum efficiency.

These studies have led to the adoption of chymotrypsin as the enzyme of choice.

AN EFFECTIVE BRONCHODILATOR

In the course of clinical investigations it has become clear that a great many bronchitics are also handicapped, to a greater degree than is generally realised, by spasm of the bronchial musculature. Thus treatment to lower the viscosity of sputum is facilitated, and the resulting relief greatly enhanced, when antispasmodic and mucolytic therapies are given concomitantly. For this purpose a standard highly effective bronchodilator, isoprenaline, was incorporated with the chymotrypsin. It was then found that administration of this material by powder inhalation involved advantages to a degree which could not have been foreseen. These relate to the side-effects which ordinarily accompany the use of sublingual isoprenaline. They are so severe, and so frequent, as to make it impossible for a vast number of bronchitics and asthmatics to avail themselves of the relief which this drug can bring. However, when isoprenaline is given as an ultra-fine homogeneous powder of pre-determined particle size (2 to 6  $\mu$ .), 0.1 mg. produces immediate and maximum bronchodilation. Such a 200-fold reduction in dosage—compared with a 20 mg. sublingual tablet—permits its use by all who need it, irrespective of their inability to tolerate the sublingual preparation. The immediate broncho-dilating effect compares favourably with the 20 minute delay of sublingual therapy.

While he works

The climb back to a normal life is easy with Lomutherapy. The patient gets back to work sooner and stays at work. What's more, he can take the treatment while he works.

LOMU

For the Chronic Bronchitic— the first treatment that really works...

... on tenacious sputum — LOMUDASE

Preliminary reports confirm that LOMUDASE is the first genuinely effective pulmonary mucolytic. Within minutes it liquefies the bronchitic's mucus plugs and enables him to clear his chest easily. Lomudase saves the patient from the exhaustion of the ineffective cough. It removes the nidus for reinfection. The hazard of recurrent exacerbations is reduced. The patient can return to work quicker and is better able to keep working. He knows that relief is always readily available. All these factors help to raise his morale.

Lomudase is a revolutionary presentation of the enzyme chymotrypsin. It is specific, practical and safe. Its effect on pulmonary ventilation is enhanced by the presence of an effective bronchodilator. An entirely new method of administration allows Lomudase to act in the most efficient way—topically at the sites of the disease process anywhere in the bronchial tree.

... on bronchospasm — LOMUPREN

LOMUPREN is for use when bronchodilation alone is required. LOMUPREN is a special presentation of isoprenaline that relieves bronchospasm almost immediately. The effective dose is so small that Lomupren may be used repeatedly with safety and without discomfort.

Both Lomudase and Lomupren may be used in conjunction with conventional antibiotic, antihistaminic or steroid therapy

The LOMULIZER ensures correct administration

Lomudase and Lomupren are prepared as ultra-fine homogeneous powders. To be effective these must be wholly dispersed into the inspired air. The Lomulizer is a simple foolproof pocket disperser—not an aerosol—which ensures that the dose is delivered only when a suitable inspiratory effort is made.

LomutheraPy represents a major therapeutic advance. Most important, the need for recourse to expensive hospital apparatus is superseded. Moreover, LomutheraPy is always to hand whenever the patient needs it.

How Lomuthera works

Lomudase and Lomupren are prepared by a unique process as ultra-fine homogeneous particles of 2-6  $\mu$ . diameter. In this form, and when administered by the Lomulizer, the drugs penetrate to the distal parts of the respiratory tract and are evenly distributed throughout the bronchi and bronchioles.

DRESSINGS

These are available in shapes, sizes and packings to suit almost any working condition and type of minor injury.

As with Elastoplast Bandage, the same care, skill and high quality associated with Smith & Nephew products has gone into their manufacture.

ELASTOPLAST FIRST AID DRESSINGS

These consist of a porous elastic adhesive base, with a Domiphen Bromide B.P.C. medicated pad. Prompt application will protect the wound and permit natural healing. 'Elastoplast' First Aid Outfits are available for use in factories and workshops.

ELASTOPLAST DOCTORS' SET

Of handy size for hospital, clinic or surgery and contains a range of elastic adhesive dressings of different shapes and sizes.

ELASTOPLAST DRESSING STRIPS

A continuous medicated pad of gauze on a flesh coloured porous elastic adhesive base, 1 yd. long, from which dressings may be cut as required.

ELASTOPLAST 'AIRSTRIP'

A micro-porous waterproof dressing which allows the skin to 'breathe' whilst preventing water, grease and infective organisms from entering the wound. Available in 'Outfits' containing 6 assorted sizes, or in bulk packs.

PLASTERS

In the management of minor sprains

Where the use of strapping is indicated 'Elastoplast Plaster' is more convenient and more comfortable than rigid plaster. Flesh-coloured and made from light-weight cloth it is ideal for on-the-spot strapping and retention of dressings.

ELASTOPLAST Elastic Adhesive Plaster B.P.C.

BANDAGES

Where COMPRESSION AND SUPPORTIVE TREATMENT is indicated ELASTOPLAST Elastic Porous Adhesive Bandages will provide the best available medium

The Elastoplast bandage provides firm elastic adhesive support. It is ideally suited for the compression treatment of chronic conditions of the leg such as varicose veins, leg ulcers — and for general surgical and orthopaedic purposes where firm elastic support is required. At the same time adequate porosity permits free evaporation of skin exudates.

The NEW concept for relief of the Common Cold

In the common cold and postnasal drip, one "timed-release" 'TRIOMINIC' tablet brings welcome relief of symptoms in minutes. Running noses stop, clogged noses open—and stay open for 6 to 8 hours. The patient can breathe again. 'Triominic' is not likely to cause secondary congestion, and it eliminates local overtreatment and consequent nasal pathology, such as commonly follow the use of topical decongestants in the form of sprays and nasal drops.*

A NEW TOPICALLY SUPERIOR ANTI-INFLAMMATORY STEROID

NOW AVAILABLE FOR TOPICAL APPLICATION IN DERMATOTHERAPY

Adcortyl-A (triamcinolone acetonide) is a new synthetic corticoid compound with powerful anti-inflammatory and antipruritic action. Developed by the Squibb Institute for Medical Research and evaluated during preliminary clinical trials in over 1,000 patients, Adcortyl-A used topically has demonstrated its greater effectiveness in controlling most common dermatoses. Symptoms of itching and burning are dramatically relieved after topical application of Adcortyl-A. A superior agent for both acute and chronic dermatoses, its greater anti-inflammatory action is most clearly apparent in the treatment of chronic, therapeutically refractory conditions, such as chronic eczematous dermatitis. Complete resolution is often obtained with Adcortyl-A where other topically applied steroids have failed.

Adcortyl-A in ointment or lotion form may be used for treatment of a wide variety of dermatoses including:

Atopic dermatitis
Contact dermatitis
Eczematous dermatitis
Neurodermatitis

Seborrheic dermatitis
Insect bites
Pruritus ani
Pruritus vulvae

Lichen simplex chronicus
Exfoliative dermatitis
Stasis dermatitis
Nummular eczema

Adcortyl-A safely and effectively provides for prompt symptomatic relief as well as control of many common dermatologic disorders.

In double-blind tests in 309 patients comparing 0.1% Adcortyl-A and 1.0% hydrocortisone, Adcortyl-A exhibited superior anti-inflammatory, antiallergic and antipruritic activity.

Adcortyl-A is extremely well tolerated locally. No systemic toxicity has been observed in clinical studies, published and in progress, involving over 1,000 patients. Metabolic studies show that there is no electrolyte disturbance when Adcortyl-A is applied topically.

SUPPLY Adcortyl-A lotion, 0.1% with Graneodin — 15 cc. plastic squeeze bottles. Adcortyl-A ointment, 0.1% — 5 Gm. tubes.

How Heinz Baby Foods simplify mixed feeding

The days are gone when mixed feeding involved mother in hours of work, sieving and straining meat and vegetables for her baby's dinner.

To-day, she finds it much more simple and pleasant—when you recommend Heinz Baby Foods as soon as baby is 11 or 12 weeks old. Baby takes his food more readily from a calm and relaxed mother, and this should result in happy, contented mealtimes that both mother and baby enjoy. And, with the 25 varieties of Heinz Baby Foods,
a mother can give her baby the very best fruits, vegetables and meats all the year round.

All the ingredients used by Heinz are carefully selected, prepared in scrupulously hygienic conditions, and specially cooked to retain the maximum nutritional value. Accustoming baby as early as possible to this wide range of foods, trains growing appetites along healthy lines.

A new route for salicylate therapy

Algesal balm has only one active principle, the newly-synthesised compound, diethylamine salicylate, which differs from other salicylates in that it is not a counter-irritant nor a rubefacient.

Diethylamine salicylate has been shown to penetrate the skin in significant quantities and this discovery has opened up a new route for salicylate therapy.

The site of action of salicylates taken by mouth is still not known for certain and some authorities suggest that it may be peripheral, at the site of the pain<sup>1</sup>. Percutaneous salicylate therapy thus has immense possibilities, and Algesal is proving to be a most valuable remedy for the relief of local tissue pain by inunction.

The indications for Algesal fall naturally into four groups: rheumatism, closed inflammatory conditions, pain following trauma of different kinds, and certain painful conditions of unknown aetiology — e.g., chilblains and idiopathic night cramps.

Algesal is a non-staining white cream with a pleasant smell of lavender. It contains 10% diethylamine salicylate, in a vanishing cream base specially formulated to assist skin penetration.

Samples and literature will gladly be sent on request to the manufacturers, E. G. H. Laboratories Ltd., Peru Street, Adelphi, Salford 3.

Geigy Tofranil®

N-(γ-Dimethylaminopropyl)-iminodibenzyl hydrochloride

Thymoleptic

The purpose of this announcement is to inform all members of the Medical Profession that at the present time Tofranil is available only to Mental Hospitals and other psychiatric units, to allow a full assessment of its therapeutic value in the treatment of mental illness.

We are sure the Medical Profession appreciates our endeavour to fully assess this drug with the co-operation of Consultant Psychiatrists before its general release.

Thymoleptic is the word which best describes the unique mood-regulating properties possessed by Tofranil; properties which inaugurate a new category of mental drugs. The remarkable clinical improvement produced by Tofranil is on a different plane from the effect on individual symptoms which characterizes other drugs. It has made possible the successful treatment of the large majority of depressive cases without the need for E.C.T. Tofranil is not suitable for the treatment of schizophrenia and it is not a tranquillizer.

Indications

Endogenous depression

Depression due to involutional and organic changes

Depression accompanying psycho-neurotic changes

Availability

Tofranil is available as tablets containing 25 mg. and ampoules of 2 ml. containing 25 mg.

Anxiety adds to angina

Neither exercise restriction nor drug treatment to produce coronary vasodilatation can be expected logically to produce completely effective protection in the "heart-conscious" anginal patient if the emotional factor is ignored.

Equatrate gives your patient this complete and safe protection because it controls the fear, frequency and severity of attacks. Combining the safe, selective sedative meprobamate with long-acting pentaerythrityl tetranitrate, Equatrate provides better protection than with either drug alone and leads to a more normal life with increased exercise tolerance.

Nutrition in Geriatrics

An adequate diet plays a considerable part in maintaining the health and vitality of the elderly. Although this fact is well known, malnutrition tends to be more prevalent in the higher age groups, as physical and economic factors may restrict the choice of food and render preparation and cooking troublesome.

Marmite is a useful source of the B vitamins and has the added advantage of requiring very little preparation. Sandwiches made with Marmite are very popular with old people who appreciate the piquant flavour. Appetising drinks can also be quickly made by stirring Marmite into boiling water or hot milk.

ADRENOXYL

reduces the mean capillary bleeding time

Adrenoxyl is a capillary haemostatic which reduces the mean capillary bleeding time by increasing the contractility and resistance, and decreasing the permeability of the capillary wall.

Reduces capillary oozing

Reports have been received of the value of Adrenoxyl in diminishing capillary oozing both at the time of operation and post-operatively in many types of operation, including ear, nose and throat, ophthalmic, plastic and dental surgery. It has no effect on venous or arterial bleeding.

Safe and free from side-effects

Adrenoxyl is safe, and no side-effects have been reported following its use. It does not affect pulse rate, blood pressure, nor blood coagulation.

Packs

Adrenoxyl is available in ampoules for intramuscular or subcutaneous injection and in tablets for oral administration.

AMPOULES Each 2 ml. ampoule contains 0.75 mg. of adrenochrome monosemicarbazone dihydrate. The ampoules are packed in boxes of 6 and 50.

TABLETS Each tablet contains 2.5 mg. of adrenochrome monosemicarbazone dihydrate. The tablets are packed in tubes of 25 and bottles of 500.

LEPROSY in Theory and Practice

Edited by R. G. COCHRANE

M.D., Ch.B.(Glas.), F.R.C.P.(Lond.), D.T.M. and H.

This book has been written in an endeavour to present a comprehensive account of leprosy in its modern setting, and to stimulate and encourage a greater interest in, and a better understanding of, this disease. With the collaboration of twenty-three authorities in various fields, the editor has produced a book which covers both practical and theoretical aspects of the subject, and one which will without doubt become the standard text-book on the subject. It will serve as a guide to workers in leprosy, to the general practitioner in the tropics, and to research workers who are in any way connected with leprosy.

Placadol is a dual antispasmodic sedative designed for the relief of spastic conditions of smooth muscle. Each tablet contains papaverine hydrochloride 120 mgm.; homatropine methylbromide 1.5 mgm.; and codeine phosphate 10 mgm. Papaverine is a myotropic spasmolytic which acts directly on smooth muscle generally, with no risk of causing respiratory depression or addiction; homatropine methylbromide is a neurotropic spasmolytic which counteracts spasm due to overactivity of the parasympathetic; codeine is an accepted sedative and analgesic. In gynaecological practice this highly effective combination will relieve spasm associated with dysmenorrhoea, tubal spasm and the accompanying pains in the adnexa.

INDICATIONS :

Placadol Sed. inhibits hypertonicity of plain muscle and is useful in all forms of plain muscle spasm.

1. Alimentary Tract

Gastrointestinal spasm, including spasm due to duodenal or gastric ulcer and pylorospasm; biliary colic; spastic colitis and constipation, and proctalgia fugax. Spastic pain associated with ulcerative colitis, appendicular and ileocaecal colic.

2. Urinary Tract

Bladder-neck spasm in cystitis; ureteric colic and renal colic.

3. Heart

In the treatment of coronary disease it relaxes the coronary arteries and exerts a mild quinidine-like effect, preventing the development of ectopic beats and paroxysmal tachycardia.

4. Bronchi

For post-operative spastic conditions accompanied by painful cough; bronchial spasm in asthma.

5. Female Genital Tract

EMERGENCIES IN GENERAL PRACTICE

from the British Medical Journal

470 Pages, cloth bound,
with full index

PRICE 25s. net

by post : inland and overseas 26s. 9d.

This book deals with medical emergencies in a wide sense : acute clinical emergencies requiring prompt and skilful treatment ; conditions such as faints and fits and giddy turns, the careful elucidation of which may mean the difference to a patient between a life of activity and one of restriction ; acute psychiatric states ; accidents of treatment, such as dangerous reactions to drugs or collapse during anaesthesia ; and emergency calls when the doctor is isolated, as on a ship.

It comprises 57 specially commissioned articles which appeared originally in the British Medical Journal.

The author of each is an acknowledged authority. This collection, now revised by the authors, will be of value not only to general practitioners but also to senior students, house-physicians, house-surgeons, and to those supervising their work in hospitals.

(i) Provisionally registered medical practitioners: £486 4s. per annum for the first post held; £543 8s. per annum for the second and all subsequent posts held;

provided that the employing authority (subject in the case of a Hospital Management Committee to the consent of the Regional Hospital Board) shall have discretion to determine that the remuneration of any officer holding his first post in the National Health Service as a House Officer shall be £543 8s. per annum if they are satisfied that the officer has held at least one hospital post outside, of not less than six months' duration, involving clinical responsibilities equivalent to those of house posts in the National Health Service and supervised by appropriate specialist staff.

(ii) Fully registered medical practitioners: £600 12s. per annum for any post held; provided that in exceptional circumstances, subject to the consent of the Minister, this rate may be exceeded by up to £50 per annum where a post cannot be filled otherwise.

In each case under sub-sections (i) and (ii) above, a deduction of £125 per annum in respect of board and lodging and other services provided shall be made and each post shall be tenable for six months.

(b) SENIOR HOUSE OFFICER: Posts obtained by fully registered medical practitioners, and held normally for one year only: £852 6s. per annum. If the post is resident a deduction of £150 per annum is made.

(c) JUNIOR HOSPITAL MEDICAL OFFICER: Officers who have held house appointments but who are neither Senior House Officers nor in one of the registrar grades, who have less responsibility than other hospital officers of non-consultant status, and who have been appointed for a limited or an indefinite period, not less than one year after full registration as a medical practitioner: £886 12s. by £57 4s. to £1,229 16s. per annum. If the post is resident a deduction of £170 per annum is made.
