

New literature on family planning

A recent survey has shown that over 70% of married women under 45 years of age are in favour of Family Planning, which explains why Doctors are receiving more and more requests for information.

These new booklets and leaflets give the latest information on conception control and will save Doctors' time when dealing with these enquiries.

The Condom as a Contraceptive. Written by the Director of Research at the National Committee on Maternal Health Inc., New York. This authority on the statistical evaluation of family planning analyses the effectiveness and acceptability of the condom in detail.

Modern Family Planning. A new booklet discussing the various methods of family planning written in simple language suitable for distribution to interested patients.

Diaphragm or Protective

A comparison of the two leading methods of conception control.

The case against Coitus Interruptus

An indictment of this method of conception control—its failure rate and its physical and mental effects.

The married woman's views on contraception. A survey based on facts revealed by a recent investigation of the opinions of married women about family planning.

Contraception—the facts about recent developments. An enquiry into the stage reached in the development of oral contraception—the advances to date, the interest of the general public, the known disadvantages and the long-term dangers.

Some criticism has, in the past, been levelled at Protectives on the grounds that they reduce sensitivity. A recent development by the London Rubber Company almost entirely overcomes such objections.

Professional samples of this new product, Durex Gossamer and copies of the leaflets listed above, will be sent on request, from Adult female. Total body psoriasis of several years' duration. Alphosyl started 22/1/58. Lesions practically clear by 5/3/58.

dramatic clinical results in psoriasis

followed by medical successes throughout the United Kingdom

Though modern medicaments have brought almost dramatic relief to many forms of skin affection, Psoriasis has so far remained intractable. Its aetiology continues to baffle investigation and many forms of tried therapy have yielded only partial or temporary results.

Now ALPHOSYL—after extensive clinical trials and medical successes throughout the United Kingdom—shows promise of bringing total clearances in many cases of Psoriasis.

In ALPHOSYL, for the first time, are presented in combination two agents: allantoin and a specially refined coal tar extract. The synergistic effects of these medicaments result in rapid clearance of the condition itself and positive stimulation of the healing process.

ALPHOSYL LOTION combines these two valuable agents in one preparation and has had impressive results where other medications have failed.

The successes obtained with ALPHOSYL indicate that it deserves a trial in all cases of Psoriasis—no matter how extensive the area of infection, how long the duration of the condition, or whatever the therapy previously used. The established germicidal, stimulating and anti-pruritic properties of tar in the treatment of sub-acute and refractory skin affections, can now be considerably enhanced by its incorporation with hydrocortisone.

*Clinical trials have shown that the two medicaments together exert a powerful synergistic action that is far more rapid, more pronounced and complete than the action of either alone. These two valuable therapeutic agents are presented in a non-greasy, stainless hydrophilic cream, known as TARCORTIN.

Nulacin tablets, dissolved slowly in the mouth, provide intragastric milk-alkali drip therapy, obviating the necessity for a tube. Treatment is easy and convenient for the ambulant as well as the bedridden patient.

Nulacin may be relied on to provide an effective treatment for peptic ulcer as well as other conditions associated with gastric hyperacidity. No undesirable side effects occur and no cases of alkalosis or acid rebound due to Nulacin have ever been reported. The safety and effectiveness of Nulacin therapy has been proven by 'in vivo' clinical work carried out in many countries.

Betnelan

an entirely new anti-inflammatory steroid

Here is a steroid having increased anti-inflammatory activity with a decreased possibility of side effects. Betnelan, a most potent steroid available for clinical use, is devoid of salt retention activity has negligible effect on potassium balance causes no mental depression and shows promise of clinical superiority in other respects. For short-term therapy a "2:1:½" dosage scheme is suggested. For example, in acute asthma, severe eczema, urticaria, shock and other conditions for which corticoids are indicated systemically, the dosage may be 2 tablets t.i.d. for 2 days followed by

1 tablet t.i.d. for 2 days and ½ tablet t.i.d. for 2 days
For maintenance, dosage need be no more than ½ tablet twice daily.

BETNELAN is presented as scored tablets containing 0.5 milligrams betamethasone in bottles of 30, 100 and 500.

Dose for dose, Betnelan is the lowest priced of all corticosteroids available.

Betnelan (betamethasone) is an entirely new parent compound developed in Britain by Glaxo Laboratories Ltd. Its merits are derived from its unique chemical structure—the beta position of 16 methyl group in the formula 16β-methyl-9α-fluoroprednisolone (betamethasone) representing more than 20 new stages of manufacturing complexity.

Just how much of the general misery and discomfort of your influenzal patients is due to aches and pains or to weakness or to any of the other symptoms of this debilitating disease would be difficult to say. But there's no doubt that relief of the constitutional symptoms with a simple antipyretic and an analgesic can do much to ease your patients' recovery and hasten convalescence.

When you prescribe Zactirin you not only provide effective symptomatic treatment, you also ensure that you do not add to your patients' distress with troublesome side-effects such as constipation and dizziness. Zactirin contains Wyeth's new analgesic discovery—ethoheptazine—plus soluble aspirin.

THIS PATIENT IS

SUSPICIOUS AND SENILE

Constant supervision of elderly, agitated patients is rarely practicable or even tolerable for long under home conditions, particularly when they live alone. You can greatly simplify home management problems, however, when you prescribe Sparine Latab* tablets. Gently and without over-sedation, this new, delayed release, long-acting form allows you uniform control of emotional upsets with only once or twice daily dosage. You can make your patients more manageable with less nursing and supervision by prescribing

Availability of Vitamins in Yeast

Deficiencies of single factors of the Vitamin B Group do not occur. Accordingly, even if a deficiency condition appears to result from the lack of an individual factor of the group and it is considered necessary to give intensive treatment with this factor, the entire Vitamin B Complex should always be administered concurrently.

It is, however, extremely important, in view of suggestions in recent publications, that the vehicle selected as a source of the entire B Complex does not withhold its vitamin content from the patient.

Human experiments show that the rich, natural vitamin potency of Aluzyme is totally available to the human system.

- Aluzyme is not advertised to the public and may be prescribed on Form E.C.10

A SPENCER support for the Paraplegic Patient

This paraplegic patient, aged 25, developed symptoms in 1943 of stiffness in the neck and pain in the right hip. Condition was diagnosed as a tumour inside the spinal cord (glio Blastoma multiform). The site of the tumour: C4, 5 and 6.

A Spencer Dorso-lumbar Support with rigid bracing at back and front was applied in October 1946, which enabled the patient to use his special walker for exercise. Abdominal muscles are paralysed and a special Spencer Abdominal Spring Pad incorporated in his support has been helpful in assisting respiration and relieving symptoms of constipation and indigestion. Prognosis is poor but the patient is comfortable so long as he wears the support and does not attempt to be too active.

Because he is unable to sit erect without high support to his back and uplift for his diaphragm and chest, Spencer Designers created the support (as shown) to come up well over the chest to enable the patient to sit up with more comfort. Elastic gores at top sides assist in respiration. Special hip pads protect the prominent hip bones. Measured and fitted by expert trained Surgical Support Dispensers.
