You may be asked from time to time to suggest a deserving cause as the subject of a bequest. Please remember that every year the British Empire Cancer Campaign for Research has to find more and more money for cancer research work not only in this country but in many parts of the Commonwealth. All this money must come from voluntary donations and bequests. The appropriate words to use in a will are: "I bequeath to the British Empire Cancer Campaign for Research the sum of £....." or "I devise and bequeath the residue of my estate to the British Empire Cancer Campaign for Research".

BRITISH EMPIRE CANCER CAMPAIGN FOR RESEARCH

The 'mano cornuta' and other gestures of a similar nature have been considered potent specifics against the Evil Eye since time out of mind. Just ask anybody south of, say, Naples, and they'll tell you that it's a wise precaution.[†] The Evil Eye may not be a major problem among your patients, but chronic bronchitis surely is. Of course, it can be treated with ordinary tetracycline, but always with the attendant risk of fungal overgrowth with such commonly occurring symptoms as sore mouth, thrush, diarrhoea and pruritus ani due to Candida albicans. For this reason 'it is a wise precaution to administer an antifungal compound with the broad-spectrum antibiotic.'^{*} Costing no more than the ordinary tetracycline and much less than oxytetracycline MYSTECLIN provides this 'wise precaution'.

New Product

Wide Spectrum Mood Enhancer

Brand Name

'AVENTYL'

Active Ingredient

Nortriptyline.

Indications

Depression (endogenous and reactive).
Psychoneuroses.
Psychosomatic disorders (particularly gastro-intestinal).
Behaviour disorders in children.
Senile psychoses.
As a supplement to other treatment in mental retardation and schizophrenia.

Dosage

Usual recommended dosage (in divided doses).
Adults, 20-100 mg. daily.
Children, 10-75 mg. daily (1-2 mg./kg. bodyweight).
Although the dose should be adjusted to the needs of the individual patient, most adults respond well to 25 mg. three times daily. In mildly anxious or depressed patients, and in psychosomatic conditions, 10 mg. three or four times daily has been found satisfactory.

Contraindications

'Aventyl' exhibits anticholinergic activity and should be used cautiously in patients with glaucoma or a tendency towards urinary retention, and with sympathomimetic drugs. 'Aventyl' should not be given with or immediately following any of the monoamine oxidase inhibitor group, because of the well-known danger of the latter when used in combination with other drugs. The MAO inhibitor should have been discontinued for 10-21 days before commencing treatment with 'Aventyl.'

Side-effects

No single side-effect can be considered as occurring frequently and most are mild and reversible, e.g., dry mouth, drowsiness, constipation, dizziness, etc.

Availability

'Pulvules' of 10 mg. and 25 mg.
Liquid containing 10 mg. per 5 ml., in bottles of 120 and 480 ml.

Which would you recommend for patients with arterial disease?

in planning diets for patients with arterial disease and coronary heart disease, many doctors recommend the substitution of a vegetable fat to aid in lowering the patient's serum cholesterol level. Look carefully at the two bottles above: which would you recommend to a patient? ANSWER: They are identical. The bottle on the right contains Mazola Corn Oil, labelled with its fatty-acids percentages. The bottle on the left contains exactly the same oil, and bears the label under which it is sold in thousands of grocery stores throughout the country. (Where your patients can buy it easily and inexpensively.) Mazola Pure Corn Oil: 3/7 for 16 fluid ounces.

'Aventyl'^{*}

BRAND NORTRIPTYLINE

new wide spectrum mood enhancer lends wings to troubled minds

When the patient is overwhelmed by normal everyday stresses, 'Aventyl' often brings prompt relief. Even in the more serious behaviour disturbances—whether marked by depression or anxiety, or both—'Aventyl', with its unusually wide spectrum of action, broadens the doctor's power to relieve the troubled mind swiftly.

'Aventyl' has an inherent beneficial effect on anxiety and hostility—it is not a combination of an antidepressant with a tranquillizer, but a single entity going beyond mere antidepressant action as such. Four out of five patients with symptoms referable to anxiety and depression (including psychosomatic disturbances) are likely to respond favourably to 'Aventyl', many of them within a week.

'Aventyl' is not a monoamine oxidase inhibitor.

CICATRIN

accelerates healing rates by 25-50%

Prolonged and expensive treatment of chronic ulcers may be avoided by the use of Cicatrin, the leading amino-acid/antibiotic preparation for topical application.

Further evidence of the efficacy of Cicatrin is provided by a recent controlled clinical trial to evaluate the influence of various topical applications on the healing rates of stasis ulcers. This trial shows that Cicatrin with its combination of selected amino-acids and antibiotics accelerates the healing rates by 25-50%.

It is also significant that in one group where the main difference between the two preparations was that one contained amino-acids and antibiotics (Cicatrin) and the other antibiotics only, the healing time in the Cicatrin treated group was shortened considerably both in bed rest and ambulatory cases.

ANTIBIOTICS AND THE INTESTINAL FLORA

Treatment with broad spectrum antibiotics suppresses the normal flora, which may be replaced by abnormal resistant organisms causing diarrhoea.

This change can be prevented or reversed by the implantation of Lactobacillus acidophilus which has been rendered antibiotic-resistant, and is thus able to multiply freely under these abnormal conditions. This organism itself forms an antibiotic which may contribute to its rapid preponderance over other species.^{1, 2}

Oral treatment with antibiotic-resistant L. acidophilus in the form of ENPAC has been shown to eliminate Candida from the faeces of infants with antibiotic-induced diarrhoea, with relief of symptoms succeeded by rapid gain in weight^{3, 4} and greatly to reduce the numbers of staphylococci in the faeces of patients treated with tetracyclines.⁵

FERRO-GRADUMET
TRADE MARK

FOR MAXIMUM IRON
WITH MINIMUM
SIDE EFFECTS

Time and again you'll have listened to complaints of discomfort and gastric upset from patients undergoing treatment for iron-deficiency anaemia. The reason — iron intolerance; the cause—the action of the usual ferrous sulphate tablets resulting in unpleasant side effects. But ferrous sulphate is probably the most efficient form of iron; and as you know, it should be taken on an empty stomach for maximum effect. How then to reduce or prevent discomfort in anti-anaemia therapy?

IRON IN TIMED RELEASE

From Abbott comes the answer—the Ferro-Gradumet, the one-a-day oral haematinic in a plastic matrix that slowly leaches out its full day's dose of ferrous sulphate (525 mg, equivalent to 105 mg of elemental iron) in a predetermined pattern over a number of hours; and, thanks to its unique GRADUMET presentation, does not disintegrate in the stomach, where ferrous sulphate is most irritant and least well absorbed. Here at last is an efficient treatment for iron-deficiency anaemia that permits a day's requirements of iron to be taken in a single tablet, pleasantly and with a minimum of side effects.

FERRO-GRADUMETS are supplied in bottles of 30 or 100 tablets each containing 525 mg ferrous sulphate (in exsiccated form), equivalent to 105 mg elemental iron.

STERI-STRIP•BLENDERM•MICROPORE•STERI-DRAPES•ASEPTEX MASKS

3M's aim, in providing these products, is to improve aseptic technique and patient comfort.

Each of these new products represents a genuine improvement over what was available before. Their construction incorporates unique techniques developed through continual research since 3M first invented pressure sensitive tapes. Future advertisements in this journal will be devoted to explaining in detail the advantages of:

STERI-STRIP Skin Closures

Surgery without stitches! Chemically inert surgical tape eliminates stitch removal (and patients' fear), and only leaves a faint hairline scar.

BLENDERM Surgical Tape

Transparent, occlusive surgical tape for controlled pressure dressings. Stretches and flexes easily—waterproof—no adhesive residue when tape is removed.

MICROPORE Surgical Tape

Surgical tape adheres easily—removes painlessly. Inert adhesive won't trap hair, or ooze into follicles. Highly porous, skin functions normally beneath dressings. Lightweight—easy to handle.

STERI-DRAPE Surgical Drapes

Impermeable, transparent, self-adhesive surgical drapes. Chemically inert adhesive. Drapes treated to prevent electrostatic build-up. Packed in individual sterile envelopes. Positively seals off the operative site—right to the incision if required. Towel-clips unnecessary!

ASEPTEX Surgical Mask

New stabilised porosity fabric reduces passage of bacteria. Contour shape provides larger filtration area—prevents mask from touching mouth or nostrils. Reduces fogging of glasses. Provides unobstructed field of vision. Lightweight. Disposable, but can be autoclaved 3 or 4 times if desired.

Psoriasis

Clinical tests confirm Alphosyl's effectiveness

Accumulating evidence increasingly underlines Alphosyl's effectiveness in cases of psoriasis, even in those that have proved intractable to other forms of treatment. Its success is attested by the fact that after only 2 years Alphosyl Lotion became the leading branded preparation for psoriasis in this country.

New Alphosyl Cream Following the success of Alphosyl Lotion, this coal-tar and allantoin combination is now available in Britain as a lubricating cream. The cream base has proved a particularly effective vehicle for Alphosyl as it incorporates a combination of free fatty acids (saturated and unsaturated) naturally occurring in triglycerides, sterols and esters to give the lipid phase of the base a significant resemblance to the lipid array of normal human skin¹.

Clinical Trials The table below gives the results of four different clinical trials which show the effectiveness of Alphosyl in lotion and in cream form.

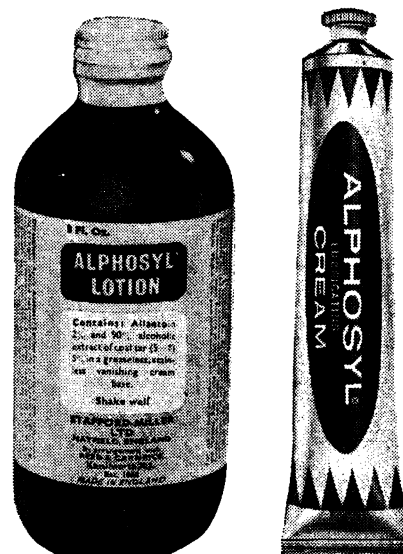

No. of patients	100% cleared	75%-99% improved	50%-74% improved	25%-49% improved	No improvement
62 ³	29	26	7	0	0
50 ⁴	11	16	17	6	0
96 ²	44	29	15	0	8

Why Alphosyl is so effective In Alphosyl, allantoin and a specially refined coal-tar extract were combined for the first time. Allantoin has been found to be particularly effective in loosening psoriatic scales⁵, while the keratoplastic effect of coal-tar is well known⁵. Alphosyl is non-greasy and non-staining and vanishes on application. It is notably safe,⁵⁻⁴ being free from the risks which are found in other forms of treatment such as arsenicals, mercury, corticosteroids, x-ray, etc. It certainly deserves a trial in all cases of psoriasis.

Stafford-Miller Limited, Hatfield, Herts. by arrangement with Reed & Carnrick, Kenilworth, New Jersey, USA.

Alphosyl Lotion formula - special coal-tar extract 5% + allantoin 2% in a smooth, non-greasy lotion base.

Alphosyl Cream formula - allantoin 2% + 90% alcoholic extract of coal-tar (5=1) 5% in a vanishing cream type base.

The importance of simplicity in the treatment of diabetes

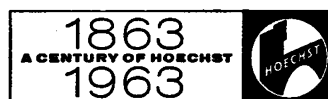

The diabetic is submitted to a life-time of medication to control his condition. In few other conditions is simplicity and ease of administration so important. The introduction of the sulphonyl-ureas eight years ago relieved one group of diabetics from the burden of daily injections. The extensive use of Rastinon in oral antidiabetic therapy for over two million patients has shown that it is not only one of the safest drugs available, but also one of the most effective in controlling diabetes when the condition is first discovered at middle age. Rastinon is the standard oral treatment of diabetes, and it is remarkable for its safety, simplicity, economy and effectiveness.

Medihaler-Ergotamine sets a new standard of speed, predictability and convenience of treatment.

An entirely new route, oral inhalation, enables ergotamine to provide the speed and predictability of relief expected only of injections. Yet Medihaler-Ergotamine is as simple to use and carry as a tablet. Attacks are aborted by a much smaller dose than is needed orally, with correspondingly less risk of side-effects. One to three inhalations ensure profound relief in most cases, at a cost of only 3d. to 9d. per treatment. Basic NHS prices are: complete unit 17/4, refill 15/-

Betamethasone in General Practice

Betnelan (betamethasone) is particularly well suited for low or 'physiological' dose therapy of rheumatoid arthritis. It has high anti-rheumatic activity, but shows improved gastro-intestinal tolerance, has virtually no effect on electrolyte balance, and has no depressive action on mental function. A further development with betamethasone has been the introduction of Betnesol Tablets. They dissolve spontaneously in water to form a palatable, tinted, clear solution, offering rapid and consistent absorption. Betnesol is well tolerated because no solid steroid reaches the stomach. It is the most acceptable and advanced form of oral corticosteroid therapy that you can give your patients.

THAT'S THE VOLKSWAGEN ENGINE

We make it air-cooled, so that it can't freeze or boil.

We put it in the back, over the driving wheels, for better traction.

We give it a low piston speed, and machine component parts to one ten-thousandth of an inch, for exceptionally long life.

We make it light, and so give it less weight to pull (you can even carry the Volkswagen engine).

Unorthodox? Certainly. And so is the rest of the car. But in a tried practical way that pays its owners over and over again.

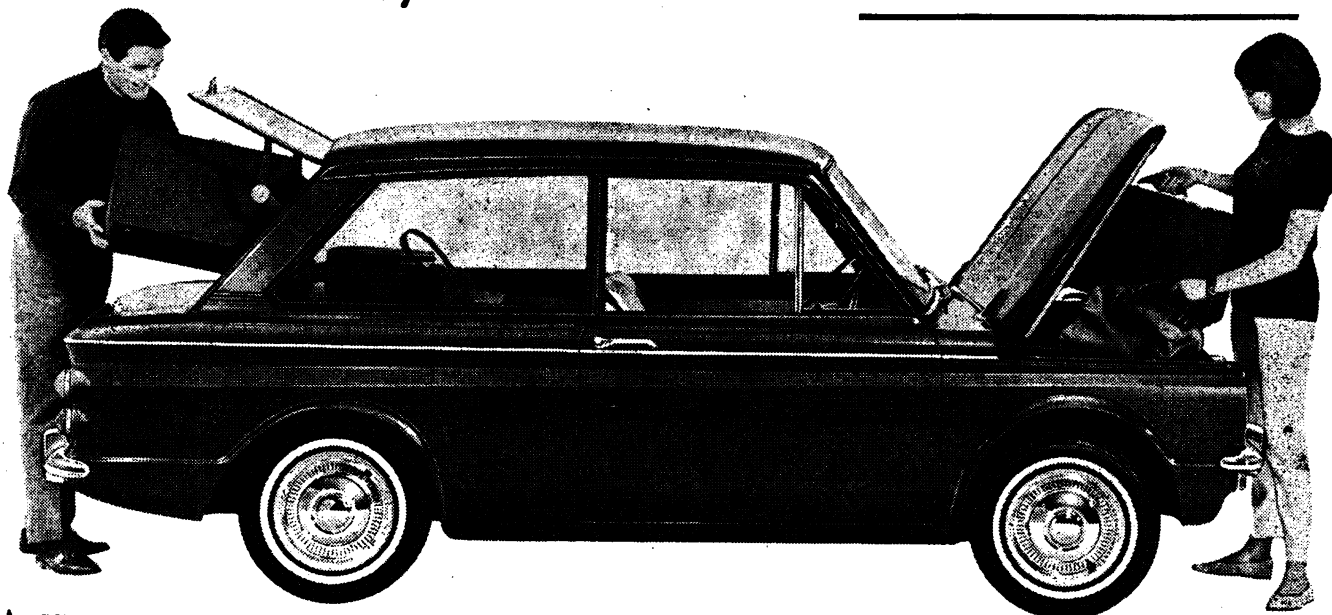

Why not discuss the Volkswagen with your local dealer?

WHAT IT'S LIKE TO BE AN ARMY DOCTOR

Extracts from an article by Major K.N. Murray, RAMC

WHEN SERVING WITH THE BRITISH ARMY OF THE RHINE

If a soldier knows that no matter where he may be posted on duty, his wife and children will soon join him, or indeed travel with him, he is a happy man. The British, however, have an inborn distrust of 'natives,' be they Germans, Indians, Malaysians or Chinese, so that it can be a great source of confidence to a travelling family to know that anywhere in the world they will have the backing of typical British services, not least of all doctors, nurses and hospitals.

A TYPICAL DAY

My day began with what has long been termed the sick parade. This is, in fact, not a parade of any kind, but a normal surgery, in this case at 8.30 in the morning with the patients all men. The soldiers sit comfortably in the waiting room, reading magazines, until the sign goes on and it is their turn to see the doctor in the privacy of his consulting room.

Following this, there were usually three or four men to see each day for brief general medical examinations. In this way, the overall health of a regiment is under constant review, and men are given a chance to live the type of Army life for which they are most physically suited. The Army institution of injections still exists; but, after all, the modern soldier may travel anywhere in the world at very short notice, and it is greatly to the benefit of him and his family, that we should be able to give them protection against so many diseases which used to be fearful scourges.

Half an hour on one or two mornings a week are often set aside for this, when the protection of a few men would be brought up to date and so, in this way, the whole regiment is kept as immune as possible to disease. As in all good professions, there was then a suitable break for coffee and biscuits.

The rest of my morning was then normally taken up with calls to visit families in their quarters. All the normal childhood ailments were there in abundance, and with a close-living community there were seasons of spots. While there is nothing like the same proportion of old people, who tend to take up so much of a civilian doctor's time in Britain, families often have older friends or parents staying with them on holiday, who present the doctor with a medical surprise in the way of a complicated or interesting diagnosis.

With the visits finished, I could then have a peaceful hour and a half at home for lunch with my wife and children, though it wasn't unheard of for the phone to go in the middle of it and to be told, 'come quick, Trooper Jones has dropped a tank on his fingers.' But this is a doctor's lot, or privilege, in all walks of life, and I soon became quite an expert at the minor surgery of everyday cuts and bruises.

FAMILY CLINICS

Four afternoons a week I had a family clinic in the Medical Centre from two to four o'clock. For this we had a separate consulting room and waiting room for families only. Assisting at those clinics were a SSAFA sister, who is a combination of sister, midwife and health visitor, and a German qualified sister.

One of those afternoon clinics was usually set aside for babies only, and in this it was rather I who assisted the SSAFA sister, and a vast number of infants were duly weighed and filled up with their triple antigens, polio inoculations and vaccinations, according to age.

This particular clinic always seems to be the greatest attraction abroad, and the mothers find a great moral boost in Sister's encouraging words as the infants go off until next time. One morning each week a gynaecologist visited the Medical Centre from the nearby Military Hospital to hold an ante-natal clinic, where an expert eye was kept on the well-being of all expectant mothers.

The tie-up with the Army Hospital Services is indeed close in all aspects. The hospitals have staffs of physicians and gynaecologists, specialists in skin diseases, eyes and ENT, and even psychiatrists, all RAMC personnel. When I wished to make a specialist appointment for a patient, a letter quickly arranged it, and when the day came around, the journey to hospital was made free by army car or bus.

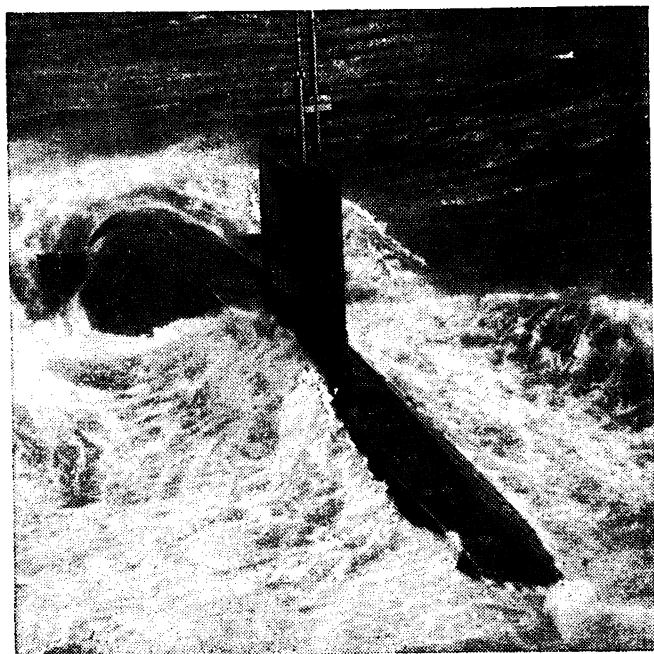

Drugs, too, are free. Each medical centre contains a completely stocked dispensary—the old joke of the number 9 is dead now; in fact, I've never been quite sure what it was. The doctor has available the drugs of his choice, and presentation of his prescriptions to the dispensary brings them to the patient free of charge.

ARMY LIFE ABROAD

Beyond my medical duties, I have found great attraction in the Army life out here. In any unit or regiment, the doctor is a valued and honoured citizen and attempts are always made to keep him a happy one. Most important is a good house and garden to live in, and I may say that never in civilian life could I hope to live in a house so good and so well equipped as that provided for me by the Army. You may gather I like it, both the work and the play. I like to travel abroad, not just to see a place, but to live there and find out what it is really like.

If you wish to know more about service as an Army Doctor, a booklet, 'A Career for Doctors in the RAMC,' may be obtained from the Director-General, Army Medical Services, The War Office, (HNR/35/F), London S.W.1. Tel: GRO 8040, Ext. 602. Or you may care to come in and discuss your particular case with us personally; if so, please write or telephone for an appointment.

The go-ahead
OPPORTUNITY that is
ROYAL NAVY

you find it as a
MEDICAL OFFICER

As a Medical Officer, you have complete clinical freedom and a widely varied medical experience. Your practice is among 100,000 Naval men and women. Ashore or afloat, it can take you anywhere in the world from Malta to Singapore: and, when you have a shore appointment abroad, your family can be with you. Go-ahead, too, is your opportunity to specialize: not only in traditional categories, but in the modern sciences of aviation and nuclear medicine.

As a Medical Officer, your pay, allowances, and gratuity—or permanent commission pension—are very good: for example, your initial pay is considerably higher than that of a civilian hospital registrar.

You can enter by one of three ways: as a Registered Medical Practitioner—your civilian experience back-dating seniority—or as a qualified doctor doing your pre-registration year, or as a student with a 2nd M.B. For qualified women doctors, there is a special short service commission.

For fullest details of your Royal Navy life as a Medical Officer, write, mentioning your own qualifications and age to:

COMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTSCOMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTS*MEDICAL DIVISION SENIOR EXECUTIVE

One of the leading British Pharmaceutical Houses, situated in Greater London area, invite applications for the position of Senior Executive in their Medical Information Division. Duties comprise general administration as well as supervision of the whole divisional staff, whose work includes correspondence on technical inquiries and related matters, compilation and editing of medical literature, assistance in the training and briefing of representatives and lecturing to professional bodies.

Applicants should have adequate qualifications or experience but, above all, an aptitude and liking for this interesting type of work. A good salary will be paid to the right man, and all applications will be treated in strict confidence.

Apply initially in writing to Box 962, B.M.J.

CHIEF PHARMACOLOGIST

A man of high calibre both as a scientist and an administrator is required for the appointment of CHIEF PHARMACOLOGIST to BENGER LABORATORIES LIMITED, manufacturers of ethical pharmaceutical preparations and a member of the Fisons Group of Companies.

The Chief Pharmacologist will be responsible for all pharmacological screening carried out on behalf of this company and he will have opportunity for carrying out original research in selective fields of pharmacology.

The post will call for stimulating leadership of current activities, including pharmacology, microbiology, virology, parasitology and toxicology. Planning of further progress will also be needed; growth of existing sections and possible extension into new fields can be anticipated.

Applicants should have had several years pharmacological research experience, ideally in the pharmaceutical industry and already be holding a senior post.

The great importance to the Company of this appointment will be reflected in the salary offered. Fisons Group contributory pension schemes are in operation and conditions of work are excellent.

Please address your application, which will be treated in strict confidence, to the Secretary, Benger Laboratories Limited, Holmes Chapel, Cheshire. (7210)

COMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTS

We are searching for a LITERARY DOCTOR

We need him to advise our Publicity Manager on the accuracy of the medical information presented to doctors and to act as the Publicity Department's medical expert.

It is essential that he be able to write quickly and well about any topic that is likely to be of interest to practising doctors.

Ideally this job would suit the younger man, aged 28-33 years, who would like to develop his literary skills, without wholly leaving the field of medicine. Our organization is staffed by young, able men of intelligence, drive and enthusiasm. We'd like to add a medical man of the same ilk.

As befits a progressive company we have a simple salary policy founded on the reward of merit. Our pension plan, life assurance, and accident benefits are first rate. As our organization has grown—tenfold in ten years and on the Continent we have established nine successful companies in the past four years—there is plenty of scope for the able man who wants to progress. If you would like to discuss this job further, why not write to me, David Rowlands, Staff Director, The Bayer Products Company, Winthrop House, Surbiton, Surrey, telling me why you feel such a meeting would be of value to us both.

P.S.—We thought that we'd dispense with application forms for this appointment and rely on the literary standard of the letters received. (7321)

DIRECTOR OF RESEARCH—EUROPE

In order to extend its already substantial research activities, Pfizer (Europe) proposes to create a new major medicinal research group to be located on the continent of Europe, probably in Germany or in Belgium. This new group will play an important and integrated part in the total research effort of Pfizer International and will, in the first instance, embrace medicinal chemical research, pharmacological research and clinical research. The activities of this group will be directed specifically towards the search for new chemotherapeutic agents which are effective in the prevention or treatment of diseases of major clinical importance.

To direct the activities of this new group, Pfizer (Europe) is seeking the services of a highly qualified and widely experienced research scientist. The scientist appointed will probably be similarly engaged at present, and will be enjoying a significant reputation in national or international medicinal research. Nationality is not important, but the Director of Research will be competent in verbal and written English and preferably also in German and French. The Director of Research will participate in the creation of the necessary new research facilities, and will be required to recruit such staff as are appropriate to the objectives of the new group. He will have close liaison with prominent European academic institutions related to his fields of activity, and will have ample opportunity to continue and pursue personal research activities.

This is a senior and critically important appointment for which we therefore invite applications from scientists of the highest calibre. The successful candidate will enjoy a salary appropriate to these standards.

Enquiries, which will be treated in the strictest confidence, should be addressed to:—

Vice-President (Research),

Pfizer (Europe),

102 Rue Leon Theodor, Jette, Brussels 9, Belgium.

HOUSES AND PROPERTY

The possibility of opening up a practice is NOT implied by the appearance of an advertisement under this heading.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Certain complications connected with the marketing of a number of high quality detached HOUSES AND BUNGALOWS near BOURNEMOUTH (views of Poole Harbour and hard by Parkstone Golf Course) have at length been resolved. The outcome is that these superior, centrally-heated residences (now ready for occupation) with their trim gardens and completed road, CAN BE PURCHASED—strange though it must seem—AT PRICES BELOW COST OF PRODUCTION: that is from £6,750 to £8,000.

So exceptional is the value, that straight-forward Building Society mortgages of more than 90 per cent can be arranged and shrewd people who are energetic enough to undertake an inspection, will secure, if they are in time, one of the outstanding property bargains of recent years. Every facility will be provided for visitors and there will be no high-pressure salesman to worry you.

But first you must obtain full particulars, pictures and plans (free, of course) from COLIN GRAY & CO., Surveyors, CHISLEHURST, KENT. ('Phone IMPERIAL 2233, ten lines).

Please communicate within the next 8 days.

FOR SALE, DOCTOR'S LARGE RESIDENCE, excellent condition, N.4 district. Ideal position near tube, shops.—Box 1004, B.M.J.

FOR COMPLETE AVAILABILITY OF THE B VITAMINS

Deficiencies of single factors of the Vitamin B Complex do not occur. Thus, even when a deficiency condition seems to result from the lack of a single factor of the Complex, and it is considered necessary to give intensive treatment with this factor, the other members of the Complex should be administered concurrently. It is therefore essential that the source of the Vitamin B Complex selected for this purpose should release its full vitamin content to the body. Human experiments show that the rich, natural vitamin potency of Aluzyme is completely available to the human system. Basic N.H.S. Cost: Tablets 500 4/-, 1000 7/2d. Literature and samples available on request.
