'Aventyl'*

BRAND NORTRIPTYLINE

new wide spectrum mood enhancer lends wings to troubled minds

When the patient is overwhelmed by normal everyday stresses, 'Aventyl' often brings prompt relief. Even in the more serious behaviour disturbances—whether marked by depression or anxiety, or both—'Aventyl', with its unusually wide spectrum of action, broadens the doctor's power to relieve the troubled mind swiftly.

'Aventyl' has an inherent beneficial effect on anxiety and hostility—it is not a combination of an anti-depressant with a tranquillizer, but a single entity going beyond mere antidepressant action as such. Four out of five patients with symptoms referable to anxiety and depression (including psychosomatic disturbances) are likely to respond favourably to 'Aventyl', many of them within a week.

'Aventyl' is not a monoamine oxidase inhibitor.

'Tremonil' is generally well tolerated, and may when necessary be given concurrently with other drugs which are mainly effective against rigidity.

the answer to summer congestion

is a metered dose⁶⁹

An accurately metered dose of Nomaze AH ensures immediate and prolonged relief from nasal congestion. Nomaze AH is a unique presentation delivering, in micro-aerosol form, a precisely metered dose of 0.5 mg. ephedrine hydrochloride, 0.05 mg. naphazoline nitrate and 0.5 mg. antazoline from a handy pressurized container. The accurately metered dose is delivered precisely to the site of the trouble. The result: immediate and prolonged nasal decongestion, even in cases of acute allergic rhinitis. This precision dosage, possible only with the micro-aerosol presentation of Nomaze AH, overcomes the danger of stimulating the central nervous system—a common disadvantage with decongestant drugs given in indeterminate dosage by drops and sprays. Easy to carry and convenient to use, Nomaze AH is a complete unit, independent of nasal applicators and refills. Basic NHS price 9/4d. One unit delivers 180 metered doses—and brings relief the summer through.

VALUABLE IN—

This compact kit has been developed to fill the urgent need for a simple, quick and reliable method of determining Haemoglobin level and Sedimentation rate.

The Harshaw Haemo-Kit employs Capillary methods, thus not only saving money—because the cost is far less than that of disposable syringes—but also wear and tear on patients' veins. It also eliminates the difficulty sometimes associated with venipunctures especially on children.

The Haemoglobin test can be carried out in ONE MINUTE: the Sedimentation test shows results in one hour. The patient is saved the inconvenience of a visit to the laboratory. For bedside tests in the home or in hospital the Harshaw Haemo-Kit provides the physician with a quick simple and invaluable diagnostic and prognostic aid, costing less than a syringe, taking less time than filling in a form.

In developing this micro-method Harshaw had to solve two major problems; the first was to produce a uniform diameter capillary tube; the second, to find a method of dividing the anti-coagulant very finely, and coating it uniformly over the entire bore of the tube to prevent clotting of the blood. This second problem was overcome by the perfecting of a patented method for the deposition of the anti-coagulant.

Prominent Clinicians, who have used the Haemo-Kit, report excellent reproducible results and have stated that the method is so rapid and simple that it is actually faster than filling in a form requesting laboratory investigation and the results are available to the investigator in an hour—to say nothing regarding the saving of the patient's time.

The Harshaw micro-method has been approved by the Ministry of Labour for screening lead workers under the Act.

FURAMIDE

- 1 "It appears that diloxanide furoate and paromomycin are at least as effective in the treatment of amoebiasis as is E.B.I. The first has the advantage of being cheaper and much better tolerated."
- 2 "... an effective amoebicide useful in both acute amoebic dysentery and chronic amoebic colitis".
- 3 "Tolerance of the drug was good in 100% of the subjects ... No special precautions were taken during treatment, and the patients were all ambulant".

FURAMIDE is the simplest treatment for amoebiasis, requiring no injections, enemas or special diets. Cure rates are high—75% to 80% in the acute stage and up to 100% in the chronic condition. Side effects are unlikely, and hospitalization is not normally required, making treatment cheaper than the older forms of therapy. Extensive clinical trials in many tropical and sub-tropical countries have borne out these claims.

Dosage is simple—1 tablet three times daily for ten days in patients of average weight.

Each Furamide tablet contains 0.5G of Entamide (diloxanide) furoate B.P. Both Entamide and Furamide are products of Boots research.

Packed in bottles of 15 and 250 tablets.

"Pripsen... is a highly effective agent against ascariasis."

"Of the 88 patients completing the trial, 74 (84%) were cured by a single dose and, in the remaining 14, repeated dosage... resulted in a 100% cure-rate... Apart from one patient... there were no undesirable side-effects in this series, which included babies of 4 and 5 months."

fungus infections?

GRISOVIN-FP the oral treatment

For your patients with tinea, griseofulvin is an oral antifungal compound without compare. Presented as Grisovin-FP, it is specific in low dosage against the dermatophytes that cause tinea of the hands, feet, nails and scalp.

The systemic action is much more effective than topical applications and the oral route avoids the inherent defects of such treatments.

You will find that griseofulvin, the active ingredient of Grisovin-FP, is remarkably free from side effects. Because there is no antibacterial activity, it is unlikely to cause any major change in the gastro-intestinal flora.

Experience in many countries with the whole range of dermatophyte infections has confirmed that griseofulvin will achieve what no other antifungal compound will against tinea.

What has Equanil to do with a cabbage?

The answer is nothing. And neither has your patient if you prescribe Equanil*. The plain fact is, however, that when potent depressant drugs are prescribed for patients with relatively mild anxiety and tension, there is a tendency for them to be over-sedated and become mere 'cabbages'. The drug of choice in chronic anxiety and tension is Equanil, which relaxes mind and muscle without interfering with the patient's day to day activities. Well-tolerated Equanil (Meprobamate B.P.) is available as 200 mg. and 400 mg. tablets in bottles of 20 and 250.  John Wyeth & Brother Limited, Taplow, Maidenhead, Berkshire. *trade mark

Too much IRON?

Too much iron delivered in any one place at any one time is difficult to deal with, to say the least. In the stomach, excessive ferrous sulphate causes irritation and unpleasant side effects, often leading to the patient's abandoning therapy.

The FERRO-GRADUMET® is a unique approach to the treatment of iron-deficiency anaemia; for just one tablet daily gives steady, trouble-free assimilation of ample amounts of iron. Instead of releasing a corrosively large dose of ferrous sulphate in the stomach, the Gradumet slowly leaches out its contents over a period of hours throughout the gastro-intestinal tract until, finally, the empty matrix is excreted.

This once-daily haematinic is made to be taken on an empty stomach. The predetermined release pattern, which is independent of body chemistry, retains the greater part of the ferrous sulphate until the tablet has passed into the small intestine, where it is better absorbed with less irritation.

The secret of the Gradumet lies in an inert spongelike matrix, the pores of which are permeated with ferrous sulphate and a soluble 'channelling agent'. Each Ferro-GRADUMET tablet contains 525 mg ferrous sulphate, equivalent to 105 mg elemental iron—a sufficient daily dose in all but the most severe cases of iron-deficiency anaemia.

In pregnancy and other conditions where gastro-intestinal side effects are particularly to be avoided, a course of Ferro-GRADUMET tablets makes an ideal oral iron treatment—so sure that it may often obviate the need for parenteral administration, and more acceptable than the needle.

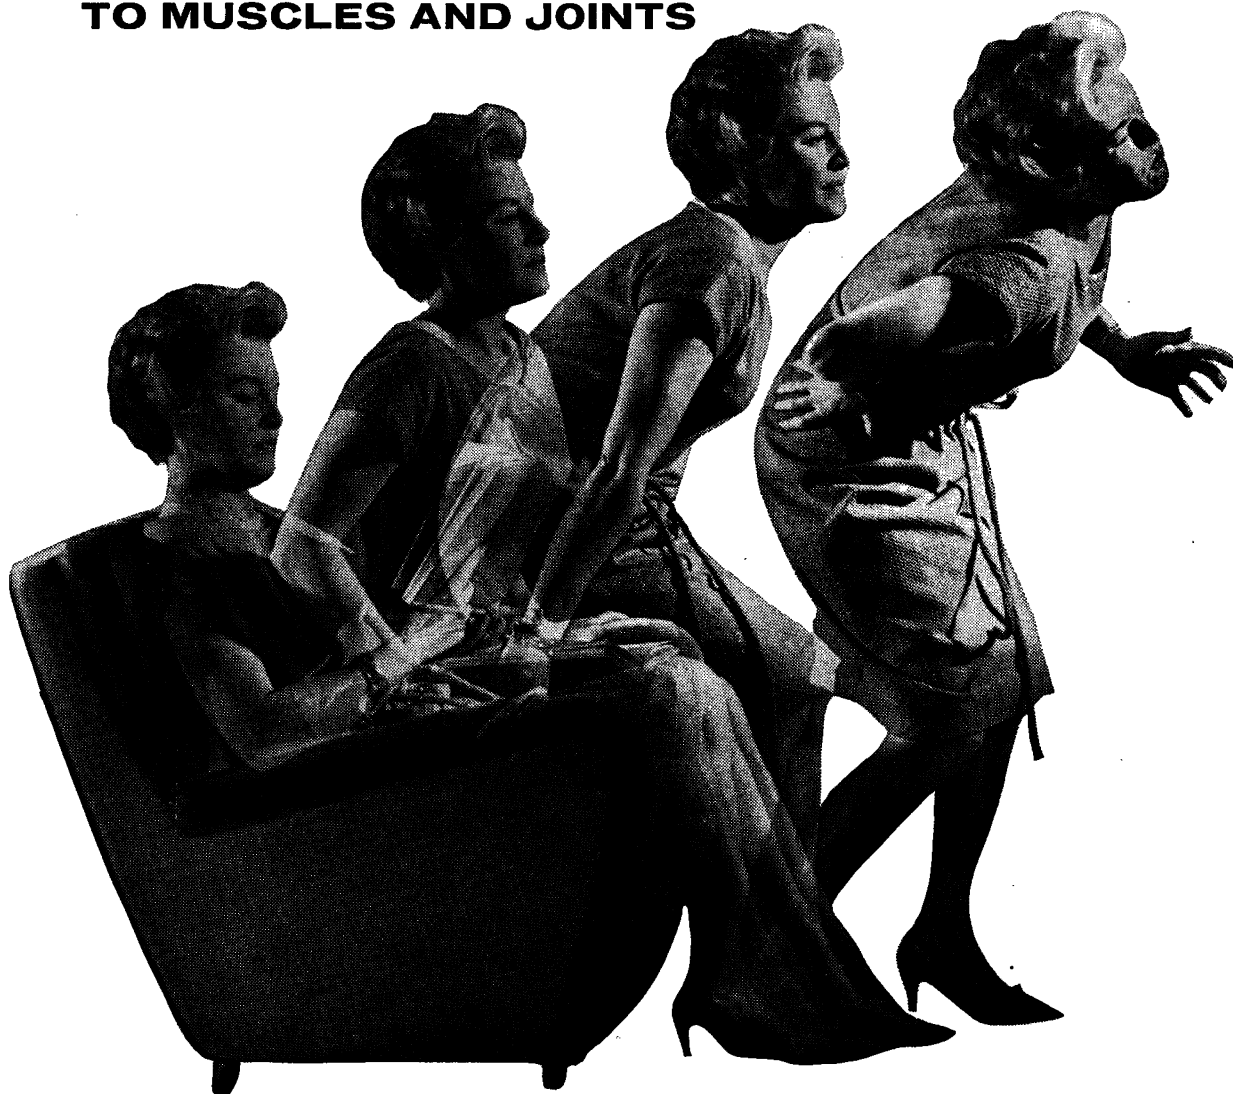

PRESENTATION Each red Filmtab® (film-coated tablet, Abbott) contains 525 mg ferrous sulphate (in exsiccated form), equivalent to 105 mg elemental iron. A complete month's treatment (30 Ferro-Gradumet tablets) has a basic NHS cost of 5/5 from largest pack.

The Nutritional Properties of Bovril

Bovril is far more than a pleasantly-flavoured drink. Its unique mixture of meat extract, hydrolysed beef, whole lean beef, beef stock and yeast extract makes it a highly nutritious food from the point of view of vitamins and protein.

1. Vitamins of the B-complex. One cup of Bovril supplies 20% of the daily requirement of the normal adult for vitamin B₂ (riboflavin) and 20% of the nicotinic acid (vitamin PP).

2. Haematinic Factors. Of all the factors required for blood formation, only three are likely to be limited in the diet – iron, vitamin B₁₂ and folic acid. One cup of Bovril will supply 35% of the adult's daily requirement of vitamin B₁₂ (cyanocobalamin) and 20% of the folic acid.

3. Gastric Secretion. Bovril is a well-known stimulant of gastric secretion—even more powerful than meat extract itself. It is, therefore, particularly useful for elderly patients and convalescents.

4. Appetite. A major factor in the rapid recovery from serious illness or major surgery is a good intake of protein foods. Poor appetite can delay recovery. Bovril is a great help in promoting good appetite while stimulating gastric secretion.

Every ounce of Bovril contains: 1.02 mg riboflavin, 6.8 mg niacin, 1.1 µg vitamin B₁₂, 68 µg folic acid.

what size car man are you?

Do you go for a racy 2-seater? Or a roomy 8-seater? Or perhaps something in between?

Then make it a Volkswagen, and drive on the most reliable chassis of all. 25 years of improvement, with over 2,700 modifications, make today's Volkswagen the most experienced and tested vehicle in the world.

And whichever you select, a "1200" or a more powerful "1500", you can be sure that the same tried principles apply.

Take engines. They are all placed in the rear, where they transmit their power directly to the driving wheels. They are all air-cooled, and so can't freeze or boil.

Take suspension. Volkswagen has always had independent suspension on all four wheels. A shock to one wheel cannot be transmitted to another.

Take reliability. The Volkswagen reputation for reliability has sold 7 million vehicles, and is currently selling over a million each year. Such a reputation has to be guarded. Perhaps your practical self has always advised you to own a Volkswagen? Well, there are six from which to choose.

Andrewes : VIRUSES of VERTEBRATES

Sir CHRISTOPHER ANDREWES

M.D., F.R.C.P., F.R.S.

Wellcome Trust Fellow, Formerly Deputy-Director, National Institute for Medical Research, Mill Hill, London.

This is a new book of major importance which may well become the standard work on its subject.

It is written by a senior virologist and provides essential information on the viruses which affect man and other vertebrates.

In this book will be found an account of the viruses, their properties, and their relations to one another. It is divided into four sections— I : RNA Viruses ; II : DNA Viruses ; III : Unclassified Viruses ; IV : Chlamydozoaceae, and it is so planned that the facts about each virus are gathered under twelve standard headings. References are grouped at the end of each chapter. Pathogenic effects are in principle considered only so far as is required to identify a virus and indicate its importance. In fact, considerable space is devoted to accounts of the disease-producing powers of viruses since it is largely by their deeds that they are known.

VIRUSES OF VERTEBRATES is an essential reference book which will serve three purposes :

- (a) to tell the reader rapidly, by the orderly arrangement of facts, what is known about a particular virus
- (b) to help him to identify an unknown virus
- (c) to marshal the data on which the classification of the viruses can be based.

INDUSTRIAL HYGIENE RESEARCH LABORATORIES

The Industrial Hygiene Research Laboratories of I.C.I. Ltd. are carrying out important investigations into the Toxicity of chemicals used in industry and agriculture. In order to find additional means of protecting the general public and, in particular, those engaged in the manufacture and use of these substances, the research programme is being expanded. As a result we seek the following senior staff to join the Laboratories which are housed in extensive modern accommodation at Alderley Park, Cheshire, in pleasant but not isolated rural surroundings.

There are vacancies at the Laboratory for

in the physiological section to work on the experimental study of animal behaviour. The practical background of the work is in connection with the development of more sensitive methods for the detection of minor toxic defects, mainly with the object of assessing the safety of industrial atmospheres and with the more detailed analysis of toxic actions on the central nervous system. The person appointed would work in close collaboration with the biochemical section where there is specialised knowledge in the production of controlled atmospheres. Skill and ingenuity in the design and adaptation of apparatus and in the design of experiments for the study of behaviour are essential. The basic training of the candidate is of less importance than a sound background of research experience. Reference EPZ/BMJ.

Further information may be obtained from the Staff Manager (OBS), Head Office Staff Department, Imperial Chemical Industries Limited, I.C. House, Millbank, London, S.W.1. Applications, quoting the appropriate reference number, should include brief details of qualifications and previous experience.

A Pharmacologist or Physiologist to take charge of the section engaged in the investigation of acute toxicity and pharmacological actions. There are considerable opportunities in this field for research—e.g. into the biological actions of newly developed chemical types and for the study of pharmacological effects in animal behaviour. A medical qualification would be desirable but is not essential. There are, in addition to the physiological section, biochemical and pathological sections also concerned with different aspects of mechanisms of toxic action and the metabolic fate of chemicals in the body. Reference PP/BMJ.

Publication of research results is actively encouraged. Substantial starting salaries for these appointments will be negotiated and there is a progressive salary plan, a Profit-Sharing Scheme and a contributory Pension Fund. Help can be given to a married man with Housing and removal expenses.

The Cytology and Cytochemistry of acute Leukaemias

This monograph attempts to establish a firm classification of acute leukaemias on the basis of intensive cytological and cytochemical studies of 140 consecutive cases. Apart from its potential usefulness in clinical practice and therapeutic trials, the new classification provides material for a consideration of the nature of leukaemia itself. The report is extensively illustrated by 74 photomicrographs in colour which provide, in effect, a comprehensive guide to typing.
