RESPIRATORY FUNCTION IN DISEASE

An Introduction to the Integrated Study of the Lung

By David D. Bates, M.D., M.R.C.P., Director, Respiratory Division, Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, and Ronald V. Christie, M.D., M.Sc., D.Sc., Sc.D., F.A.C.P., F.R.C.P., Chairman, Faculty of Medicine, McGill University, Montreal

A brilliant application of recently developed knowledge of pulmonary physiology to the understanding and management of respiratory disease. The three opening chapters discuss methods of study of pulmonary function; the modern concept of evaluation of lung disease; and the various components of normal pulmonary function. The remainder of the book is devoted to individual disease entities, with discussions of clinical features, radiological features and pathology—plus an exhaustive explanation of the pathophysiological effects of that particular disorder on overall pulmonary function. Altogether, 54 illustrative clinical case histories are presented, as well as some very useful commentaries on the effects of treatment on the pattern of disordered function.

When the official monograph for "Corticotrophin Gelatin Injection" was adopted for the 1963 edition of the B.P., specifications were chosen which correspond exactly with those developed by Armour for Acthar Gel and which have been adhered to ever since its introduction in 1950.

Indications Acthar Gel is indicated in many conditions for which corticosteroids might otherwise have been used; especially in inflammatory diseases such as rheumatoid arthritis and ulcerative colitis, multiple sclerosis and in severe asthma.

Contra-indications acute psychoses, Cushing's syndrome, active tuberculosis or peptic ulcer, hypertension, diabetes mellitus, and congestive heart failure except that due to rheumatic heart disease.

Dosage and administration Acthar Gel is administered subcutaneously. The normal commencing dose is 20 iu per day; when the optimum dose has been determined the drug may safely be self-administered. Further details about administration and dosage will gladly be supplied.

Triominic

Oral Nasal Decongestant WANDER

'Triominic' timed-release tablets and orange-flavoured syrup contain antihistamines and a decongestant in balanced proportions to ensure relief from nasal congestion for between 6 and 8 hours. The active constituents of 'Triominic'—the original oral decongestant—reach the nasal mucosa systemically. This obviates the rebound congestion which may follow the topical use of decongestants.

Formula per timed-release tablet.

Phenylpropanolamine hydrochloride.....	50 mg.
Mepyramine maleate B.P.....	25 mg.
Pheniramine maleate.....	25 mg.

continuous drip control of ulcer by tablet

PRODEXIN tablets give all the benefits of continuous intragastric drip therapy¹ without any of its disadvantages.

The slow suck down tablets are specially formulated to give prolonged antacid buffer effect, unaffected by stomach emptying rate.²

Immediate relief of pain is achieved by rapidly raising pH to 2 neutralising excess acid and controlling the acid secretion by slowly building up the pH to a desirable level of pH3.5 and pH4.5

DOSAGE:

For continuous therapeutic effect one tablet at a time should be sucked slowly.
For peptic ulcer one or more tablets an hour.

Making foods for babies is an all-absorbing job (so we do nothing else)

We are lucky. We enjoy our work. That's why for 30 years we have specialised in making baby foods, and the baby foods we make are now famous. All over the world babies are thriving on Gerber . . . and loving it. For the Gerber range is so wide that even mothers with difficult babies can find the dietetically correct foods in forms that their babies will accept. Gerber supply foods for every stage of a baby's development, from first cereals to strained and junior. Our 'Cradle-to-Table' service.

No other leading manufacturer does this.

Mothers find it helpful. They tell us it gives them confidence. May we send you copies of our medically approved booklet 'Your Baby's Food', for the home guidance of mothers attending your clinic? (There is very little about Gerber in it!). Our address is:

Doubt and 'the Pill'

Oral contraception has gained widespread appeal through the marital confidence it now makes possible.

The number of patients seeking consultation and the increasing number of converts to the method, make it clear that temporary side-effects are accepted, for the most part, as a small price to pay for the peace of mind and assurance the method provides.

Where natural caution and reticence exists, the assurance of patient and physician alike is best served by discerning choice of the product.

1 Routine Dosage

Doses of 250mg. q.i.d. of Penbritin will usually suppress H. influenzae, the most important pathogenic organism in Chronic Bronchitis, with consequent relief of exacerbations. In the majority of cases, this method, repeated whenever an exacerbation occurs, is all that is required to keep the patient ambulant.

2 Prophylaxis

When continuous daily treatment is considered desirable, one capsule (250mg.) is recommended every twelve hours.

3 High Dosage Therapy*

This technique offers great promise in the treatment of winter-long purulent cases, particularly those which fail to respond to other antibiotic regimens² or who have previously required continuous antibiotic cover². Moreover, many of the patients remained free from exacerbations for long periods after treatment was stopped. These high doses have been given without side-effects^{1,2}.

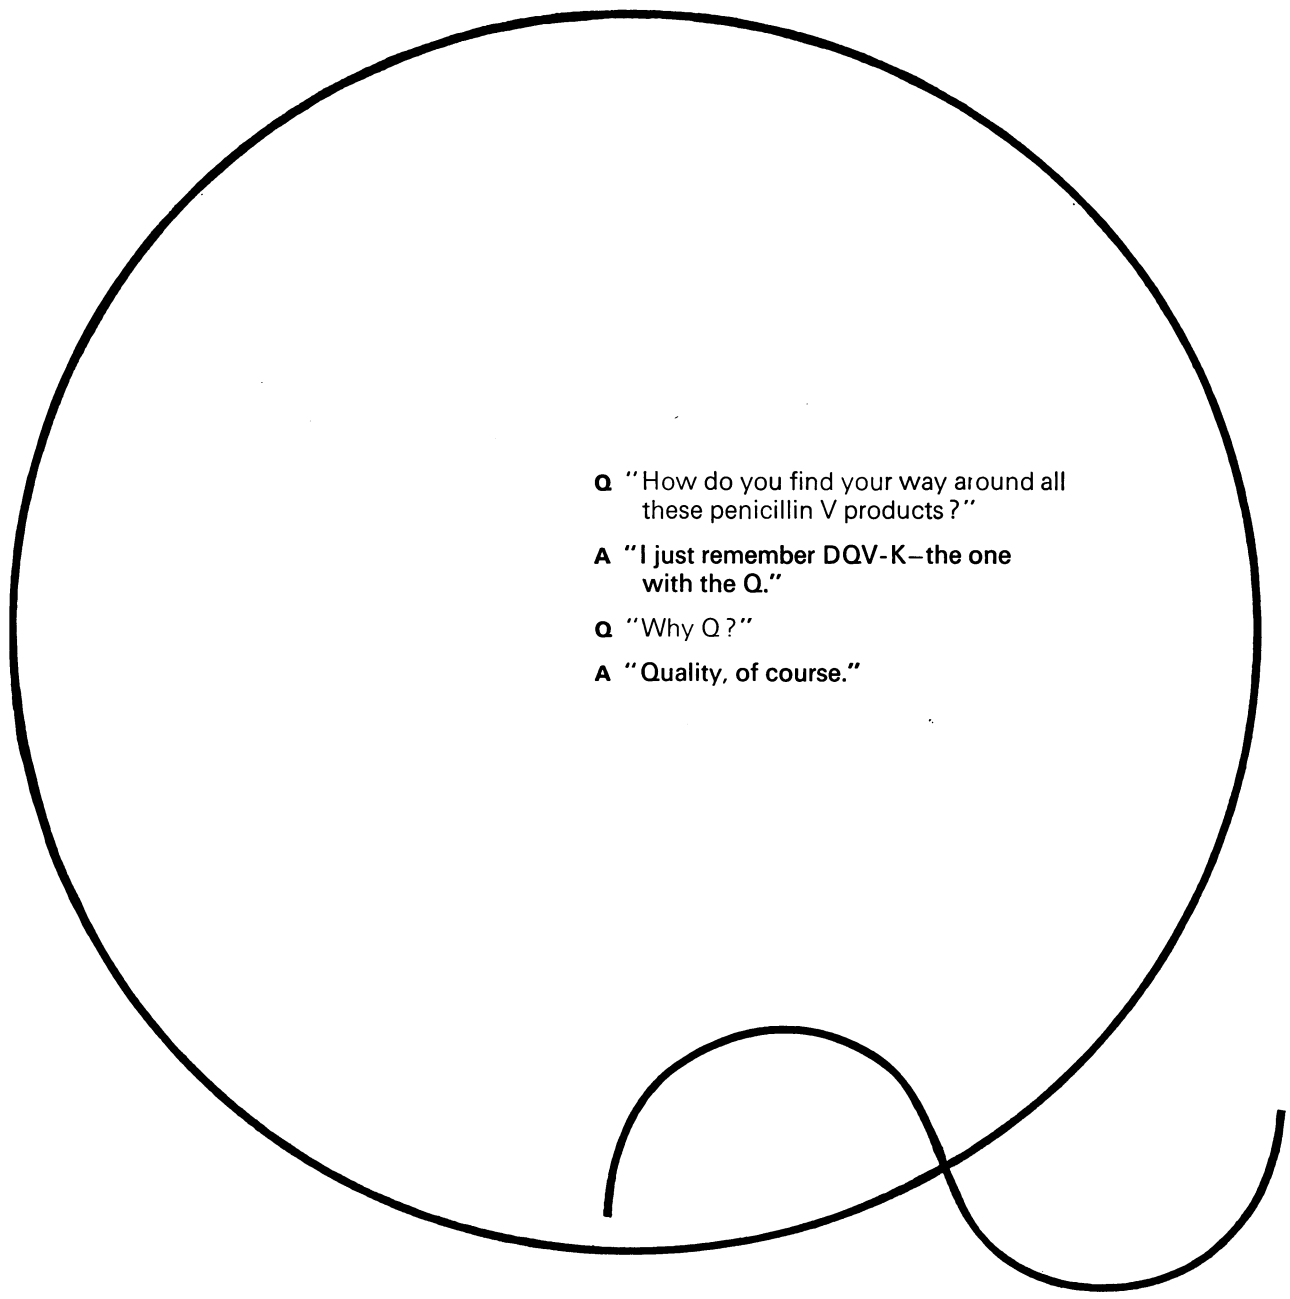

A likely explanation for these clinical results is that a concentration of Penbritin bactericidal to H. influenzae has been attained in the sputum^{1,2,3}, and estimations of sputum level of the antibiotic give support to this probability². A bactericidal concentration of the tetracyclines is unattainable in any practical dosage². One of the authors² commented:

'Such a response to other antibiotics is, in our experience, extremely rare in patients of the type taking part in this trial'.

A constant check on your cardiac patient

At your patient's bedside, Sanborn's visomonitor model 780 acts for you. Three basic and vital functions are automatically provided.

A self-contained electrocardiograph can be programmed to operate automatically for 10 seconds at selected time intervals. Distress conditions—arrest, bradycardia, tachycardia and loss of peripheral pressure pulse—can also turn on the ECG.

The system's internal-external pacemaker provides controls for manual or automatic operation. When set for automatic operation, pacing is initiated only when an arrest condition is detected. The threshold criterion for arrest may be varied from a 1.5 to 11 second asystole interval.

The visual alarm system on the model 780 consists of a series of eight colored indicator panels, which indicate operation of the monitor and alert an attendant during cardiac distress.

The Sanborn model 780 costs £764. For further information please contact Sanborn Medical Division, Hewlett Packard Ltd.

NORVAL

AN ORAL TREATMENT FOR HAEMORRHOIDS

Norval capsules contain dioctyl-sodium sulphosuccinate 60 mg. and taken orally will reduce the tendency to haemorrhoidal bleeding. Taken regularly Norval will ensure a softened stool without increasing bulk or having a laxative effect. Dioctyl-sodium sulphosuccinate works by reducing surface tension, penetrating into the hard impacted faecal mass, softening the faeces and eliminating the need to strain to stool.

SAFETY

Dioctyl-sodium sulphosuccinate is not absorbed and does not break down during its passage through the intestine.

There is no evidence to suggest that Norval will decrease in effectiveness when used regularly for indefinite periods of time. Norval eliminates the strain to stool and is a rational approach to the prevention of haemorrhoidal bleeding.

PRESENTATION AND BASIC N.H.S. PRICE

Norval capsules are available in bottles of 30 and 250 at basic N.H.S. prices of 3/10d. and 20/- respectively. Norval is not advertised to the public and has no B.P. equivalent. Norval is subject to purchase tax.

a matter of judgement

The golfer who is trying to reduce his handicap has to exercise a nice sense of judgement in selecting the right club for each stroke he plays, with due regard for all the circumstances of lie and distance. Not merely one that would do, but the right one. Comparable situations occur every day in every field—including the problem of selecting the right presentation to use against an infection which the doctor judges to be best treated with erythromycin.

Outside of hospital, intravenous presentations (eg Erythrocin lactobionate) scarcely enter into the picture, though an initial intramuscular injection of Erythrocin I.M. may be desirable to get therapy off to a more rapid start.

For oral administration in adults and older children, Filmtab® Erythrocin stearate is the presentation of choice. Enteric-coated tablets will "do", but many doctors remain unconvinced of their reliability. Erythromycin estolate, though acid-stable and giving excellent blood levels, is occasionally associated with jaundice†. No other form of erythromycin causes this or any other significant toxicity.

Filmtab Erythrocin, for example, employs the stearate salt, which has never been shown to cause liver damage. It is equally effective clinically, and the Erythrocin tablet is buffered against gastric acids. Specific blood-level studies have proved, and wide clinical experience over more than ten years has amply confirmed, that absorption of the antibiotic is entirely reliable.

Canad. med. Ass. J. 1963, 88, 1173

Filmtab Erythrocin tablets are supplied in strengths of 100 and 250 mg. The Filmtab coating contributes to easier swallowing, and dissolves very rapidly indeed in the stomach.

For young children and other patients who cannot take tablets, Abbott produce two liquid erythromycin preparations: one based on Erythrocin stearate (Erythrocin Suspension—100 mg/5 ml), and one on Erythrocin ethyl succinate (Erythroped®). The use of a tasteless salt in Erythroped® has made it possible to produce a pleasant cherry-flavoured suspension containing 200 mg in each 5 ml teaspoonful. The 60 ml bottle therefore holds 24 doses of 100 mg, and is one of the most economical—as well as one of the most palatable—antibiotic suspensions available.

Alphosyl-today's most widely prescribed product used specifically for the treatment of Psoriasis

In case after case, Alphosyl's effectiveness in controlling psoriasis is repeatedly confirmed. Even in chronic and refractory cases outstanding results have been achieved despite the failure of all previous forms of therapy. Evidence of four recent clinical trials^{1,4,5,6} shows that from a total of 249 patients treated with Alphosyl, 111 were completely cleared, 80 were 75%–99% improved, 44 were 50%–74% improved and only 14 showed less than 50% improvement.

Why Alphosyl is so effective In Alphosyl, allantoin and a specially refined coal-tar extract were combined for the first time. Allantoin has been found to be particularly effective in loosening psoriatic scales,³ while the keratoplastic effect of coal-tar is well known.³ Alphosyl is non-greasy and non-staining and vanishes on application. It is notably safe,^{1,3} being free from the risks which are found in other forms of treatment such as arsenicals, mercury, corticosteroids, x-ray, etc. It certainly deserves a trial in all cases of psoriasis.

New Alphosyl Cream Following the success of Alphosyl Lotion, this coal-tar allantoin combination is now available in Britain as a lubricating cream. The cream base has proved a particularly effective vehicle for Alphosyl as it incorporates a combination of free fatty acids (saturated and unsaturated) naturally occurring triglycerides, sterols and esters to give the lipid phase of the base a significant resemblance to the lipid array of normal human skin.⁶

Alphosyl Lotion formula—allantoin 2% + 90% alcoholic extract of coal-tar (5=1) 5% in a smooth, non-greasy lotion base.

It visually demonstrates to the patient whether or not his diaphragmatic breathing technique is correct.

It strengthens abdominal muscles through exercise—thereby making the practice of diaphragmatic breathing more instinctive.

Expiratory ventilation of lungs is improved by the recoil-type thrust of the springs during exhalation.

The Gordon-Barach Support is an adjunct to diaphragmatic breathing. Special steel springs incorporated into the abdominal pad are compressed during inhalation when abdominal muscles are properly used. Increased tension of these compressed springs aids expiratory ventilation.

OUR METHOD
INNERAZE keeps sole and heel in perfect alignment.

...do you recommend an external wedge on the shoes?

But the wedges soon wear away; and very often the child is made to feel self-conscious because his shoes look different from other children's. As the diagram on the left clearly shows, any external wedge to heel disturbs the plane of forepart and heel. Surely it's more logical to have a wedge built-in between the inner and the outer sole—where it can correctly corset the foot, remain invisible, and completely unaffected by wear or repair of the shoe. That is how Start-rite INNERAZE shoes are made—on remedial lasts specially adapted to accommodate the internal wedge. That is why they are the only practical and thoroughly effective solution to this problem.

SURGICAL TAPE

Unprecedented ventilation with ultimate painless removal

* INERT CO-POLYMER ADHESIVE * EASY TO USE * ADHERES FOR EXTENDED PERIODS VIRTUALLY WITHOUT IRRITATION OR MACERATION

"Micropore" Surgical Tape has an exclusive structure. The synthetic, non-creeping co-polymer adhesive is physiologically inert. It virtually eliminates irritation and maceration. It can be removed painlessly even on hair-areas. The thin rayon backing is revolutionary and because the fibres are placed at random—NOT woven—they provide unprecedented ventilation. Skin functions normally beneath dressing. Time Saving Plus's. "Micropore" Surgical Tape is easy to handle—even with rubber gloves. During baths it remains in place—translucency cuts down dressing changes. It leaves no adhesive residue to clean off after removal. It is radio-translucent. Light and thin, "Micropore" Surgical Tape reduces patients' discomfort to a minimum.

an economical prescription for effective treatment of Coughs and Bronchitis

ECONOMY: The cost of Pavacol at the dispensing pack rate to chemists is only 7d. per fluid ounce.

DUAL ACTIVITY: Pavacol relieves Cough by acting in two ways:—

- 1 The pholcodine content exhibits a cough suppressant effect comparable with that of Heroin but without the latter's disadvantages in being addictive and constipating;
- 2 The Papaverine content relaxes plain muscle by direct action and the resultant bronchodilatation makes it easier for the patient to cough up sputum.

DIABETIC SYRUP ALSO AVAILABLE—Pavacol Diabetic contains the same ingredients as ordinary Pavacol Syrup but carbohydrates are omitted: Indications, dosage and price are identical.

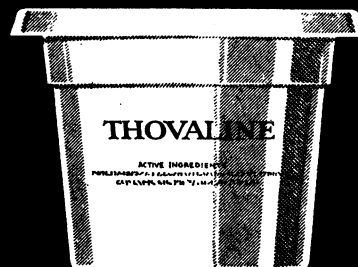

Literature and professional samples available on request.

In theory

1) Chronic pyelonephritis (often unrecognised or 'silent') is the cumulative result of the assault on kidney function of repeated acute urinary infection.

2) Bacteriuria plays an important role in predisposing to pyelonephritis.

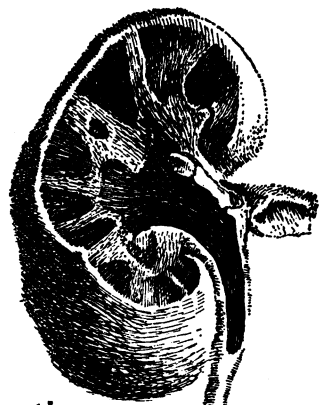

3) Females are particularly prone to acute kidney infections at certain well-defined periods e.g. infancy, early in marriage ('honeymoon cystitis'), pregnancy. This is due to urinary infection reaching the kidney due to uretero-vesical reflux or other congenital abnormality.

ANTIBIOTICS AND THE INTESTINAL FLORA

Treatment with broad spectrum antibiotics suppresses the normal flora, which may be replaced by abnormal resistant organisms causing diarrhoea.

This change can be prevented or reversed by the implantation of Lactobacillus acidophilus which has been rendered antibiotic-resistant, and is thus able to multiply freely under these abnormal conditions. This organism itself forms an antibiotic which may contribute to its rapid preponderance over other species.^{1, 2}

Oral treatment with antibiotic-resistant L. acidophilus in the form of ENPAC has been shown to eliminate Candida from the faeces of infants with antibiotic-induced diarrhoea, with relief of symptoms succeeded by rapid gain in weight^{3, 4} and greatly to reduce the numbers of staphylococci in the faeces of patients treated with tetracyclines.⁵

TO-DAY'S DRUGS

This book has just been published—on December 22. It is based on a series of review articles which were printed in the "To-day's Drugs" section of the BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL between January 1963 and May 1964. These articles have been edited and brought completely up to date so as to form an authoritative and practical guide to modern therapeutics. The book is designed to cover the drug treatment of those common conditions which are met with in general and hospital practice. There are important sections dealing with antibiotic therapy, cardiovascular conditions, rheumatic disorders, oral contraceptives, and the special problems involved in paediatric and geriatric prescribing. Special attention has been paid to the precautions which should be taken in using these drugs and their toxic and side-effects. This book should be of value to all doctors concerned in the day-to-day treatment of patients.

AMENDED ADVERTISEMENT ABSTRACTS OF WORLD MEDICINE

ASSISTANT EDITOR

The Council of the British Medical Association invites applications from registered practitioners for the appointment of Medical Assistant Editor of Abstracts of World Medicine at a salary of £2,365 a year, rising by annual increments of £142 to £3,648 a year. In exceptional circumstances the initial salary may be above the minimum of the scale. The appointment will be for a probationary period of six months in the first place. The Association's Superannuation Scheme will apply on substantive appointment.

Preference will be given to candidates under 45 years of age with a wide knowledge of medicine (up to M.D. or M.R.C.P. standard) who can present evidence of literary ability and/or journalistic experience. A knowledge of one or more foreign languages is highly desirable and an interest in the proper use of the English language essential.

Applications, giving details of qualifications and experience and accompanied by the names of three persons to whom reference may be made, should be addressed to the Editor of Abstracts of World Medicine, B.M.A. House, Tavistock Square, London W.C.1, and must be received before January 31, 1965.

IS THIS YOUR PRE-REGISTRATION YEAR?

Before you commit yourself to a practice work 3 or 5 years in the R.A.F.

When is the right time for you to make the big, once-and-for-always decisions about the way it's best for you to work and live your life? Straight away, now, at once? Or when you have had the chance to do a little out-of-hospital doctoring 'on your own', seen some common ailments and got a bit of capital together? Many people feel that it is only prudent not to be in too much of a hurry. If you are one of them, here is a thought for you:

You don't, now, have to choose either an R.A.F. career or a civilian one. You can have both. And there are good reasons why you should—not only for your own sake and your family's, but in the interests of the profession and the public generally.

Interesting, out-of-the-rut medicine

Your first job in the R.A.F. (which you'll get three months after you join) will probably be Junior M.O. at a Station—rather like being an "Assistant with a view". In a typical case, you'd be one of two doctors, with, between you, 1500 to 2500 people to take care of. These would be the officers and men serving with you on the Station, and their families, plus any civilians who might be working there.

You'd have a much shorter list than you would as a civilian G.P., and to this extent you would live a less strenuous life. To compensate, you would give much more comprehensive care. It is this—and the variety of your work—that makes practice in the R.A.F. so interesting.

In the R.A.F., you combine several functions. You are in medical care not only of people, but of the environment they live in, and of the work they do. In proportion, you do less curative work, and more preventive work than most civilian doctors.

A lot of people hold the view that this is the way all medicine should be practised: with the closest possible intermingling of the doctor and his patients.

You see a bit of the world

Think of two doctors, both aged 40. One went to his practice straight from his teaching hospital, and has been there ever since. The other went from hospital into the R.A.F. on a 5-year commission. He lived—and lived well—in the tropics with his family for 2½ years, and visited 7 countries on leave or duty, two European, three Asian, and two Australasian. All this, of course, was some time ago—he's been in civilian practice 10 years now; he's as well established as the other doctor. But which of the two has got more out of life, and has the richer memories to look back upon?

In many ways, the transition from hospital into the R.A.F. seems much more 'natural' than the movement to civilian practice. The two communities have much more in common: both are young, cheerful, energetic, rather self-contained—and at the same time very professional, with a marked sense of purpose about what they do. If you can feel, now, that you are going to miss Medical School when you leave it, think about going into the R.A.F.: Service life would probably be 'right' for you.

'Retire' with up to £3,000, tax-free

Next year, if you were in the R.A.F. as a married officer, your pay and allowances could be over £2,000. You would get regular 'rises' and regular promotion. In hard cash terms you would be literally hundreds of pounds better off than your civilian opposite-numbers. Besides which, your cost-of-living would be lower: if you were single, living in the Mess, you would get the equivalent of first-class hotel accommodation for, perhaps, 2/- a day out of your pay; if you were married, and the R.A.F. provided you with a house furnished right down to the last coffee cup, and they probably would—the rent would be £192 p.a.

Leave the Service after 3 years, and you get a gratuity of £1,500, tax-free; stay on for 5, and you get £3,000. With this, you could put down a deposit on a house and furnish it very well indeed, attic to cellar.

Five years from now. You'd probably still be the right side of thirty. What a start to a career!

In all your life, when will you have a chance like this again?

Today, because you are young and at the beginning of your career, you can take a short time out from the main stream of civilian practice just by deciding to do it.

Now, you are free to go. In a few years time, you probably won't be.

At this stage in life, you have none of the commitments that might make an older man hold back; things like a practice that has your name on it; obligations to a community that you have become a part of; the ownership of property . . . and suchlike hostages to fortune.

All these things will, quite properly, come along in due time.

Meanwhile, you have this chance and now is the time to find out about it. If you can't write off straight away, tear this advertisement out and put it in your pocket to remind you.

Do not let this chance go by default

For full information, please write giving your age and qualifications to Wing Commander D. G. M. HILLS, M.B., B.S., D.P.H., R.A.F., Ministry of Defence (MA1/HN 171H), 1-6 Tavistock Square, London WC1.

invite applications from registered medical practitioners for the position of Medical Adviser, responsible to the Head of Medical Services in the Research Division. Preference will be given to candidates with special interest or experience in human pharmacology, since this position will be closely associated with the development of new therapeutic agents. The duties of the successful candidate will include the organization of clinical trials for new products and the assessment of the results obtained in these trials. Previous industrial experience is not necessarily required. Applications should be made to the Personnel Manager, giving some details of age, qualifications, and experience, and quoting ref. no. M.S.2. (8427)

The corticosteroid with one starting dose for all three Uniform initial dosage schedule for LEDERCORT triamcinolone facilitates management of most commonly encountered corticosteroid responsive disorders—often provides higher, more uniform potency and efficacy than other analogues. ONCE-A-DAY DOSAGE, for arthritis—asthma—dermatoses provides 24-hour suppressive effect, minimises "missed dose" problems, further facilitates administration and management.

the corticosteroid more patients can start on ~~and~~ and stay on LEDERCORT triamcinolone shows a remarkable ability to obtain and maintain desirable results with, in many cases, fewer collateral limitations than hydrocortisone, dexamethasone, betamethasone or other corticosteroids. Patients unresponsive or unable to tolerate other corticosteroids frequently do well on LEDERCORT triamcinolone. Cardiac disease, hypertension, emotional disturbance and obesity are not considered contraindications for LEDERCORT. Patients have stayed on this modern corticosteroid for many years... with notable freedom from side effects.

stability in diabetes safely achieved with RASTINON

The gap between too much blood sugar and too little is easily crossed in the diabetic. The role of Rastinon in diabetic therapy is to stabilize the patient in balance with little fear of hypoglycaemia. Rastinon releases endogenous insulin which ensures that blood sugar is maintained at the normal level. Rastinon is indicated in the treatment of the maturity-onset type of diabetic. It is safe, effective, and economical. Rastinon tablets each contain 0.5 G. tolbutamide B.P.

Besides leading the paramedical team for the above purpose, the incumbent of this post is required to undertake teaching duties in respect of paramedical and medical personnel.
The successful applicant will be offered a contractual appointment for a period of three years which may be renewed subject to satisfactory service. The contract provides, inter alia, for the defrayal by the Cape Provincial Administration of the costs for transporting the successful applicant and his family from their place of residence to Cape Town as well as payment of remuneration in lieu of contract. An allowance at the rate equivalent to the basic salary offered is also payable in respect of the period actually and necessarily occupied in travelling from the place of residence to Cape Town.

Applications must be made in duplicate on the prescribed form, Staff 23, which is obtainable from the office of the Attaché, Immigration Section, South African Embassy, Trafalgar Square, London, W.C.2.
Applications should be addressed to the Medical Superintendent, Karl Bremer Hospital, Bellville, South Africa, to reach him not later than March 1, 1965.
In addition to the salary indicated, a vacation savings bonus is payable, subject to certain conditions.
The conditions of service are prescribed in terms of the Hospital Service Ordinance No. 23 of 1958 and the regulations framed thereunder as well as the agreement entered into between the Provincial Administration and the University of Stellenbosch, South Africa.
The Joint Medical Staff is required to serve jointly the Provincial Administration and the University of Stellenbosch, South Africa.
Successful candidates for permanent appointment, if not already in the Civil Service, will be required to submit satisfactory birth, health, professional and registration certificates.
Candidates are required to furnish particulars regarding the following:

- (a) Academic achievements (degrees and diplomas held and the standard of achievement in professional examinations, scholarships and special awards).
- (b) Professional experience (not only the name of the employer but also that of the institution in which the candidate worked and the type of work undertaken).
- (c) Names of three referees from whom references may be obtained (one of these should preferably be someone occupied in the same branch of medicine as the candidate). (8201)

HOMES

ST. ANDREW'S HOSPITAL,
NORTHAMPTON FOR NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISORDERS

President: The Earl Spencer

Medical Superintendent:

D. J. O'Connell, M.D., D.P.M.

This private hospital receives patients, both male and female, suffering from nervous and mental disorders, including alcoholism and senile illnesses. The fees range from sixteen guineas per week. Private rooms with special nurses can be provided, either in the hospital or in one of the villas in the grounds. The hospital is situated in 130 acres of pleasant grounds which provide all recreational facilities. These include a nine-hole golf course, sports ground, tennis courts, etc. A Recreation and Occupation Centre, known as Gloucester House, has been opened recently which includes an occupational therapy department, swimming pool, squash court, and a library with an adjoining reading room.

WANTAGE HOUSE

This is a separate reception unit to which patients may be admitted. It is equipped for the complete investigation of nervous and mental disorders by the most modern methods. All forms of treatment are available. It contains laboratories for biochemical, bacteriological and pathological research.

MOULTON PARK

Some two miles from the main hospital is the farm of approximately 600 acres. Occupational therapy is a feature of this branch and patients are given every facility for occupying themselves in farming, gardening, fruit growing, etc.

For terms and further particulars apply to the Medical Superintendent (Telephone No.: 34354 Northampton), who can be seen in London by appointment.

WYKE HOUSE, ISLEWORTH

A private hospital, established in 1826, for the individual treatment and care of a limited number of psychiatric patients. Apply Resident Physician, Tel.: ISL 7000.

NORTHUMBERLAND HOUSE

two tablets nightly lower blood pressure smoothly

Since its introduction in 1953, Rauwiloid has provided highly effective treatment in a wide range of patients with mild to moderate hypertension. Its main characteristics—simplicity of dosage, economy, and freedom from tolerance or serious side-effects—make it an ideal “first-time” product for the early stages of hypertension. Even in the more severe cases, Rauwiloid can be of considerable value when combined with more potent agents.

Tablets contain 2 mg. alseroxylon fraction (selected alkaloid hydrochlorides) of Rauwolfia serpentina in bottles of 60 and 500. Basic N.H.S. price of 60 tablets 8s. 8d.
