

FINE CAR·FINER STILL 1965 SAAB

Read what's new and better about the exciting '65 Saab. Then go along to your Saab dealer and arrange a test-drive. Now, more than ever, you'll want to have a Saab!

Longer bonnet, redesigned front.
Powerful, more elegant appearance.

Engine output stepped up to 44 b.h.p.—on the Saab Sport to 60 b.h.p. (s.a.e.)

Re-shaped cooling system, radiator switched to front of car.

One of the most effective fresh air heaters on the market. You'll be 10-20°C warmer.

New type of fuel pump, mounted on the crankcase, pneumatically actuated.

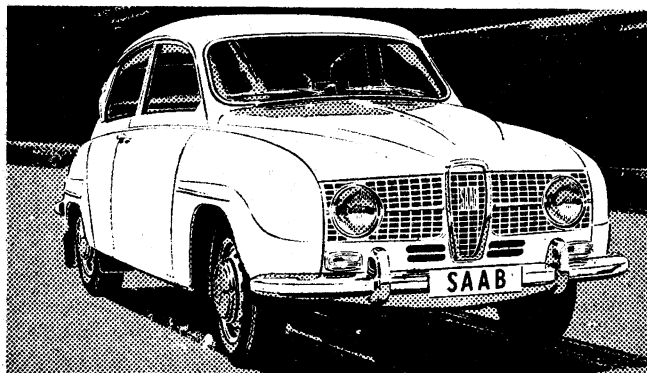

Turning circle reduced to 35 feet.
New Saab turns and parks more easily.

Exhaust system improved to give better resistance against corrosion, quieter running.

Pendant pedals, leaving the flooring without holes, combined with hydraulically operated clutch.

Maintenance-free outer drive shaft joints now standard on all models. Improved inner drive shaft joints on the Saab Sport.

Easier maintenance—greasing intervals increased.
New Saab needs servicing only every 6,000 miles.

PENBRITIN

brings new hope to the Chronic Bronchitic

Three effective dosage schemes can now be considered for bronchitic patients

1 Routine Dosage

Doses of 250mg. q.i.d. of Penbritin or other broad spectrum antibiotics will usually suppress H. influenzae, the most pathogenic organism in Chronic Bronchitis, with consequent relief of exacerbations. In the majority of cases, this method, repeated whenever an exacerbation occurs, is all that is required to keep the patient ambulant.

2 Prophylaxis

When continuous daily treatment is considered desirable, one capsule (250mg.) is recommended every twelve hours.

3 High Dosage Therapy*

This technique offers great promise in the treatment of winter-long purulent cases, particularly those which fail to respond to other antibiotic regimens² or who have previously required continuous antibiotic cover¹. Moreover, many of the patients remained free from exacerbations for long periods after treatment was stopped. These high doses have been given without side-effects^{1,2}.

A likely explanation for these clinical results is that a concentration of Penbritin bactericidal to H. influenzae has been attained in the sputum^{1,2,3}, and estimations of sputum level of the antibiotic give support to this probability¹. A bactericidal concentration of the tetracyclines is unattainable in any practical dosage¹. One of the authors¹ commented: 'Such a response to other antibiotics is, in our experience, extremely rare in patients of the type taking part in this trial.'

*1 G q.i.d. for one week, repeating the course if necessary.

30s. netThe Voice and Its DisordersMargaret C. L. Greene*

Every aspect of treatment for the pathological voice is covered; the anatomy and physiology of the vocal mechanism are described, and respiration, vocalisation and resonance analysed scientifically in relation to the production of the normal voice. Many types of voice disorder which may occur as a result of vocal strain, emotional disturbance and injury or disease of the larynx are discussed.

North, south, east or west—the horizon is relatively limitless, the only factors that have to be considered are time and money. Gone are the days when for thousands of families the east meant Scarborough and the west Blackpool. To-day travel agents so casually toss into the conversation such names as Leningrad, Prague, Sopot (which, as everyone knows, is one of the main holiday resorts in Poland), Bangkok and Hong Kong, that to mention "How about the Costa Brava" can be a little embarrassing.

These far away places are lovely to read and dream about, but to the family man and those who can only think in terms of two weeks at a time the variety of inclusive tours in the better-known areas is enough from which to choose. Some agents, of course, do make a special feature of planning a particular holiday to suit your wishes.

Iceland is one of the many places that is making a strong effort to encourage visitors. It certainly has much to offer, with its mountain scenery, hot springs and glaciers, and the sun at midnight. You can fly there or, possibly better still, as you will see more, make it a port of call on a cruise that includes the Faroes and Norway.

Although cruising in the Mediterranean, along the Dalmatian coast, or to the Canary Islands in luxurious floating hotels is extremely popular with many thousands of people, there is a lot of fun to be obtained by being captain on your own bridge. Canal cruising in well-provided launches is as pleasant a way of seeing the countryside as anyone could desire and is quiet and relaxing. In this country alone there are over 1,400 miles of navigable waterways. These canals and rivers wander through valleys and meadows and over hills into sleepy little valleys, towns, and cities. It may take longer to get to Oxford, Stratford-upon-Avon, or Llangollen than by car or train but it is much more pleasing. If this is the type of holiday you like, but you would prefer a larger boat and no responsibility, then river cruising through Europe could be a worth-while choice.

Many people have always liked to combine their holiday with a period of complete rest, and spas, therefore, have never completely lost their attraction. Those in France and Germany are well known but now the Soviet Union are extending the scope of their holiday attractions by arranging convalescent trips. There are a number of sanatoria in the Black Sea and Caucasian resorts and they are a mixture of hotel and fully equipped convalescent home.

There is always much to be said, though, for a good old-fashioned holiday in this country, particularly as so many of the hotels have been modernized and, according to a recent report, are as good and frequently better than their counterparts anywhere else in the world. It is so easy, except during the busy season—a telephone call or so, a few hours in the car—calling en route for lunch or dinner, and then a deck chair on the promenade watching the world go by, or sitting peacefully in the hotel gardens just watching.

An analysis of the nutritional properties of Mackeson

Of course, dark beers have long been regarded as a valuable aid in building up strength after illness. But Mackeson has the important advantage of being more acceptable to invalids and convalescents because of its taste.

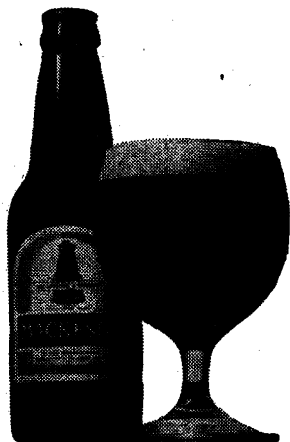

Instead of having a bitter taste it is smooth and mild in flavour and consequently 'goes down' much better with the patients.

Calorific Value: 276 calories per pint, essentially equal to three quarters of a pint of milk.

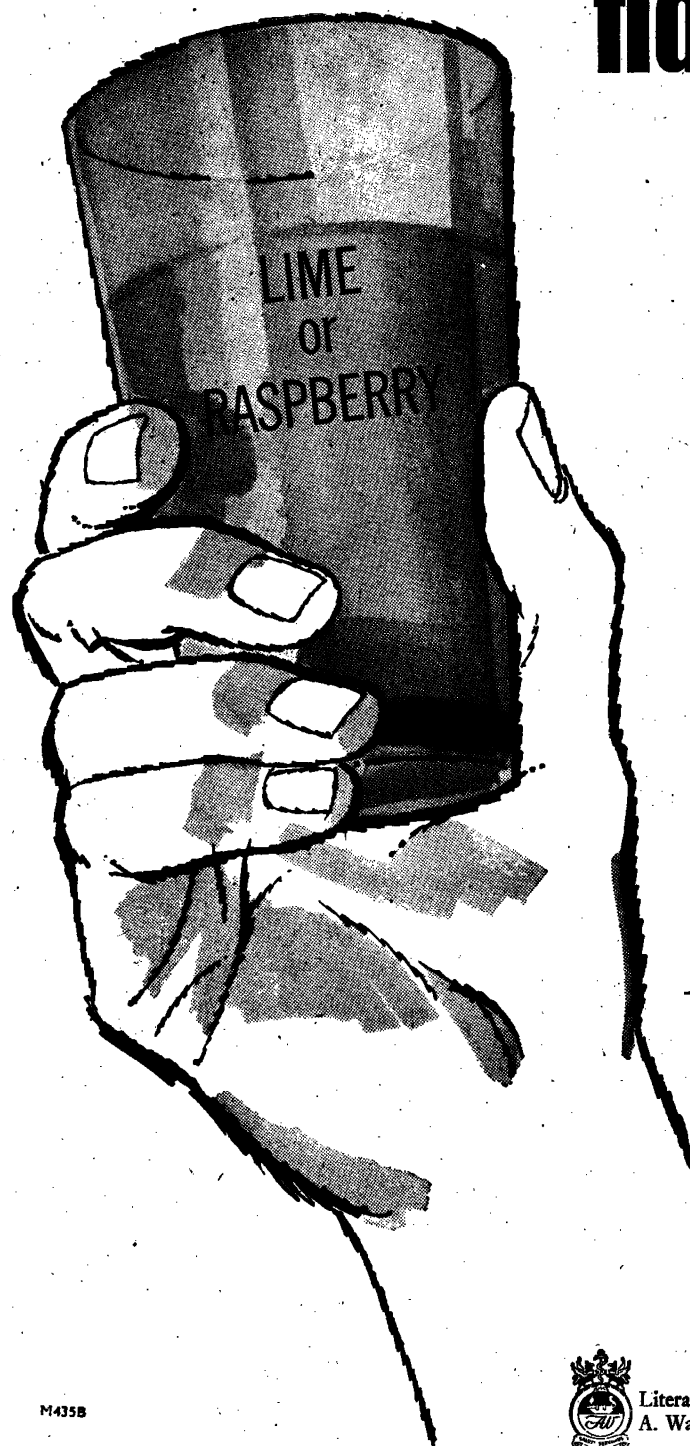

Lactose Sugar: One of the main ingredients, easily digested and quickly assimilated even by weakened digestive systems.

Nitrogenous Matter: as protein break-down products, e.g. peptides and amino acids.

B-Group Vitamins: contains valuable water-soluble members of this group of vitamins.

A really palatable flavoured PAS

Pasinah-D is the first PAS preparation in which the taste of Sodium PAS is successfully disguised when in solution. It dissolves completely in cold milk or water to make a pleasantly-flavoured, easy-to-take drink. Only two doses daily are required, and flavours may be alternated to give variety and lessen the danger of defaulting. Pasinah-D is very well tolerated and is specially acceptable to children.

SIDROS—FOR THE PATIENT DEFICIENT IN IRON

well tolerated iron compound plus reducing agent to aid absorption

In the treatment of iron-deficiency anaemia many iron salts can produce the desired increase in haemoglobin level. Some also have a tendency to produce side-effects, and there can be a great deal of wastage through non-absorption.

SIDROS is designed to overcome these disadvantages, and provides a reliable treatment for iron-deficiency anaemia.

Ferrous gluconate Each Sidros tablet contains 300 mg of ferrous gluconate which produces a highly satisfactory clinical response and is very well tolerated.

Ascorbic acid Sidros also contains stabilized ascorbic acid (30 mg per tablet) which is known to aid absorption by maintaining iron in the reduced state.

The basic NHS price of 100 Sidros tablets is 2/8 as dispensed from 1000 tablet bottle. Samples of Sidros are available on request.

SIDROS is effective, well absorbed, well tolerated and economical

IRON on an empty stomach

To prescribe iron before breakfast would be asking for trouble with ordinary ferrous sulphate tablets. Even taken after meals and in divided doses, such tablets cause irritation and unpleasant side effects in many patients, often leading to the abandonment of therapy.

But "One FERRO-GRADUMET® tablet before breakfast" is right. This once-daily haematinic is made to be taken on an empty stomach, for the Ferro-Gradumet is a unique approach to the treatment of iron-deficiency anaemia. Just one tablet daily, before breakfast, gives steady, trouble-free assimilation of ample amounts of iron. Instead of releasing a corrosively large dose of ferrous sulphate in the stomach, the Gradumet slowly leaches out its contents over a period of hours throughout the gastro-intestinal tract until, finally, the empty matrix is excreted.

The secret of the Gradumet lies in this inert sponge-like matrix, the pores of which are permeated with ferrous sulphate and a soluble "channelling agent". The pre-determined release pattern, which is independent of body chemistry, retains the greater part of the ferrous sulphate until the tablet has passed out of the stomach into the small intestine, where it is better absorbed with less irritation.

Each Ferro-Gradumet tablet contains the exsiccated equivalent of 525 mg ferrous sulphate, providing 105 mg elemental iron—a sufficient daily dose in all cases of iron-deficiency anaemia.

PRESENTATION Each red Filmtab® (film-coated tablet, Abbott) contains 525 mg ferrous sulphate (in exsiccated form), equivalent to 105 mg elemental iron.

NORMAX

PROMOTES REGULARITY

It contains dioctyl-sodium sulphosuccinate 60 mg, and 1-8 dihydroxyanthraquinone 50mg.

Normax acts by softening the faeces and gently stimulating colonic peristalsis. It is indicated especially during pregnancy and for the elderly patient, when its gentle action in restoring regularity is most appreciated.

1-8 dihydroxyanthraquinone acts on the lower bowel and has no irritant actions. Dioctyl-sodium sulphosuccinate is not absorbed and does not break down during its passage through the intestine.

Dioctyl-sodium sulphosuccinate acts by lowering the surface tension of the impacted faecal mass and in association with the mild peristaltic movement induced by the 1-8 dihydroxyanthraquinone, leads to facilitated passage of soft stools. Animal experiments and extensive clinical observations have failed to reveal evidence of toxicity.^{1,2}

Because of this the therapeutic effect of Normax can be obtained without the danger of toxicity. Normax has a wide application in the treatment of constipation and it retains its effectiveness even when used regularly over long periods.¹ Normax restores regularity and is a rational approach to the treatment of constipation.

Normax capsules are available in bottles of 30 and 250 at basic NHS price of 4/10d. and 26/10d. respectively. Normax is subject to purchase tax.

Increased life expectancy has created many new opportunities for a fuller life but has also brought about new problems.

Many of your elderly patients may be suffering from loss of weight, poor appetite, "spongy" bones, poor resistance to infection, and a feeling of apathy. These difficulties may be overcome by the administration of ORABOLIN—the oral anabolic agent.

Pharmacological and clinical studies have shown that

ORABOLIN

- Stimulates appetite
- Promotes weight gain
- Increases calcium and nitrogen retention
- Produces significant psychological improvement

Alphosyl-today's most widely prescribed product used specifically for the treatment of Psoriasis

In case after case, Alphosyl's effectiveness in controlling psoriasis is repeatedly confirmed. Even in chronic and refractory cases outstanding results have been achieved despite the failure of all previous forms of therapy. Evidence of four recent clinical trials^{1,4,5,6} shows that from a total of 249 patients treated with Alphosyl, 111 were completely cleared, 80 were 75%–99% improved, 44 were 50%–74% improved and only 14 showed less than 50% improvement.

Why Alphosyl is so effective In Alphosyl, allantoin and a specially refined coal-tar extract were combined for the first time. Allantoin has been found to be particularly effective in loosening psoriatic scales,³ while the keratoplastic effect of coal-tar is well known.³ Alphosyl is non-greasy and non-staining and vanishes on application. It is notably safe,^{1,3} being free from the risks which are found in other forms of treatment such as arsenicals, mercury, corticosteroids, x-ray, etc. It certainly deserves a trial in all cases of psoriasis.

New Alphosyl Cream Following the success of Alphosyl Lotion, this coal-tar allantoin combination is now available in Britain as a lubricating cream. The cream base has proved a particularly effective vehicle for Alphosyl as it incorporates a combination of free fatty acids (saturated and unsaturated) naturally occurring triglycerides, sterols and esters to give the lipid phase of the base a significant resemblance to the lipid array of normal human skin.⁶

Alphosyl Lotion formula—allantoin 2% + 90% alcoholic extract of coal-tar (5=1) 5% in a smooth, non-greasy lotion base.

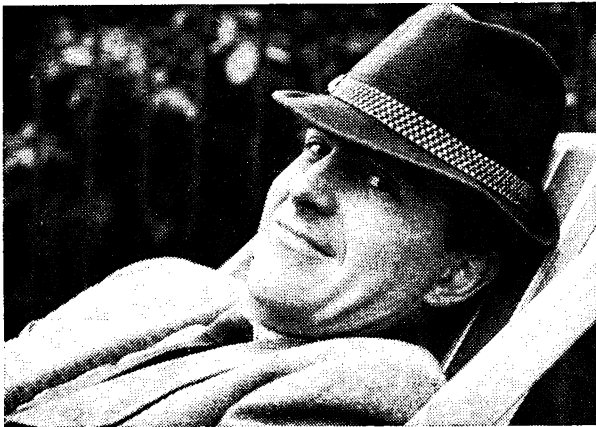

Alphosyl Cream formula—allantoin 2% + 90% alcoholic extract of coal-tar (5=1) 5% in a vanishing cream base.

(2) A supervisor who would guide their reading and laboratory work in relation to their specialty, and

(3) All would attend the medical sciences course.

The number accepted for this educational programme will be small and only one or at the most two candidates will get an attachment in each special subject.

The Eastern Regional Hospital Board will give the successful candidate an honorary clinical assistantship within the Unit where he is studying the special subject of his choice.

The Supervisor will not only guide the reading and laboratory work of the student but will in appropriate cases allow him to take part in current research programmes.

The objective of the medical sciences course which all the postgraduates, whether medical, surgical or other specialists, will follow is to bring the postgraduate student up to date on current trends in the medical sciences which are of importance to future medical developments.

In addition to this course, the Medical School offers weekly open postgraduate lectures by distinguished visitors and a course of lectures on scientific methods which postgraduate students in the school will be free to attend.

The fee for the course will be £36. Applications should be submitted before 1st September, 1965, to the Director of Postgraduate Medical Education, University of St. Andrews, Queen's College, Dundee, from whom further information may be obtained. (6425)

New South Wales Department of Public Health

ASSISTANT MEDICAL OFFICERS OF HEALTH

Applications are invited for vacant positions as Assistant Medical Officers of Health. During the past five years the Department has greatly extended its functions throughout the State and it is expected that there will be further growth in the next five-year period. Salary: £A.3,936 per annum.

Applicants should possess a qualification in Public Health recognized in New South Wales.

When first appointed, applicants will be attached to Central Administration in Sydney and later will be expected to take up a position in one of the larger country towns. In these centres, offices have been established with two Medical Officers of Health, a principal and a deputy.

Most services such as the School Medical Service, Maternal and Baby Welfare and Tuberculosis, have been decentralized. Encouragement is given to Medical Officers to initiate and conduct field research, for example, surveys of immunity against diphtheria, the health of aborigines, and the zoonoses in abattoir workers, are taking place at present.

A generous superannuation scheme is available.

Subject to entering into an agreement to remain in the New South Wales Public Service for a period of three years, the fares to Sydney will be paid for successful applicants, their wives and children under 18 years. Shipboard allowance is also payable and an allowance of £250 sterling will be granted towards the removal expenses of married appointees.

There are similar positions available (for permanent appointment) in the Sydney Office, which are suitable for two older applicants who are not seeking advancement to appointments as Medical Officer of Health.

Application forms available from the New South Wales Government Offices, 56 Strand, London W.C.2, where applications, accompanied by a recent photograph should be lodged as soon as possible but not later than April 20, 1965. (5656)

"INSTANT BREATH"

MFA

In the asthmatic attack—profound relief in seconds

One or two inhalations from Medihaler-iso Forte can provide relief of bronchospasm comparable in speed and degree to that achieved by injection. Yet for the patient there is nothing simpler or more convenient to use whenever required. Each dose (0.4 mg. isoprenaline sulphate) contains over 85% by weight of particles between 2 and 7 microns in diameter—optimum for retention in the lungs. Treatment economy is assured because each vial delivers over 300 doses at a cost of less than $\frac{3}{4}$ d. per dose.

Medihaler-iso Forte, Medihaler-iso and Medihaler-epi are now supplied with a new-style plastic oral adapter.
