

a new antacid palatable effective economical

Alcin is a new antacid offering several important advantages. It provides safe and effective treatment of symptoms associated with gastric hyperacidity and peptic ulceration.

Palatability Having an absence of chalkiness and an agreeable flavour, Alcin is non-nauseating.

Buffering Activity Alcin not only rapidly neutralises excess acid, but at the same time its sustained buffering activity maintains the level of acidity of the gastric contents within the desired range.

Safety Alcin is safe for prolonged administration. There is no risk from overdosage as Alcin cannot cause either alkalosis or acid rebound.

No Digestive tract ill-effects Alcin has no known laxative or constipating effects.

Economy Alcin is economical in use. The basic N.H.S. cost of 50 tablets is 1/9½d.

Composition: Each tablet contains 360 mg. anhydrous co-prepared sodium magnesium aluminium silicate and basic magnesium aluminate.

Samples available on request to Reckitt & Sons Limited, Pharmaceutical Department, Hull.

ASERBINE FOR THE TREATMENT OF BURNS, VARICOSE ULCERS AND INDOLENT ULCERS

ASERBINE IS A NEW SUCCESSFUL, TOPICAL TREATMENT FOR BURNS, VARICOSE ULCERS AND OTHER INDOLENT ULCERS

Experience suggests that the chief uses of Aserbine are :

- 1 As a de-sloughing agent in the treatment of burns and especially in preparing an area for skin grafting.
- 2 As a treatment for varicose ulcers.
- 3 As a treatment for pressure-sores.

It is indicated for topical use for regrowth of epithelium and formation of granulation tissue in chronic lesions of the skin.

Aserbine is available as a cream and as a solution.

ASERBINE FOR BURNS

Thirty-four superficial and full thickness burns treated with Aserbine were described in a report which concluded that the new solution is an effective method of cleansing and promoting the healing of open wounds.¹

Aserbine has been successfully used in conjunction with plastic surgery where it accelerates de-sloughing and prepares the burn for grafting.

"In cases where grafting has been necessary it was considered that the new lotion reduced the period before grafting."¹

One paper¹³ reported the treatment of 21 patients with Aserbine and concluded that it was easy to use. The authors particularly noted the absence of immediate or secondary reactions, the aseptic condition of the burns and the rapid epithelialization.

No destruction of living tissue was observed in a large series of cases.² In this series Aserbine cream was applied on the second day after injury and application was repeated twice daily. Early application of the cream quickly differentiated superficial from full thickness burns. Crusts and dead skin were removed with forceps before new cream was applied. The wounds were rapidly cleaned, good granulation tissue produced and grafting was successful.

A significant comment is made in the report of a trial carried out in this country on thirty-four children admitted to hospital with severe burns.

"It was proposed to carry out an initial investigation before proceeding to a clinical trial. Results have, however, demonstrated convincingly that the lotion is superior to treatment used in this hospital previously and we have therefore instituted the new lotion as routine treatment in all burn cases."¹

Aserbine keeps the burn aseptic, removes any dead tissue, encourages the formation of granulation tissue and the regrowth of epithelium.

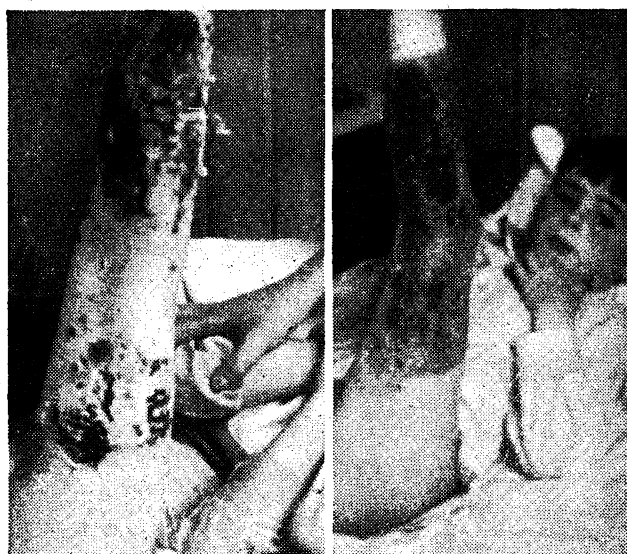

ASERBINE FOR VARICOSE ULCERS

Varicose ulcers treated with Aserbine remain clean, slough is removed and there is an improvement in the formation of granulation tissue. In cases where plastic surgery is necessary Aserbine accelerates the de-sloughing process and prepares the area for grafting.

In one trial³, Aserbine was found highly successful in approximately half the 40 cases of leg ulcers treated, and promoted healing of all ulcers within a few weeks. Another published report⁴ included 19 patients with ulcer or trophic wounds, one with ecthyma and one with a pressure-sore. Eighteen of the ulcers showed a rapid, complete and successful healing without relapse. Only one case showed slower rate of healing than normal. This report describes Aserbine as a new and acceptable treatment for difficult ulcers and pressure-sores.

The following case history⁴ illustrates the treatment with Aserbine of a varicose ulcer on the right leg of a female patient. There was little granulation tissue and the size of the ulcer was 86 x 45 mm. Dressings were well tolerated, although a slight burning sensation was experienced 5-10 minutes after application. There were no other side effects.

Improvement was noticed in 15 days and by the 45th day the healing of the ulcer was almost complete.

1. Appearance of burnt leg showing slough after 5 days.

2. Prominent granulation tissue after treatment begun with Aserbine.

3. Wound almost healed after 28 days' treatment with Aserbine.

Stages in the treatment of a varicose ulcer with Aserbine showing the rapid process of healing.¹²

ASERBINE FOR INDOLENT ULCERS

Reports on the use of Aserbine in the treatment of varicose ulcers have stressed its value when dealing with indolent or "difficult" ulcers.^{3,4}

"It seems to have an antiseptic and healing action. It does not promote uneven healing but rather a progressive epithelialization from the edges of the wound. In some cases Aserbine promotes the formation of a scab under which healing progresses satisfactorily."³

One report⁴ refers to Aserbine as an acceptable treatment for pressure-sores.

There is a reference to pressure-sores in another report⁶ which states that the use of Aserbine, in conjunction with modern nursing methods, produces a marked improvement in the healing of sloughing pressure-sores in paraplegic and bed-ridden patients.

BACTERICIDAL AND BACTERIOSTATIC PROPERTIES

Aserbine has bactericidal properties and has been found effective against most common infective organisms. Aserbine is bactericidal against E. Coli, within 10 minutes, pyocyanea within 5 minutes, proteus vulgaris within 2½ minutes, staphylococcus aureus within 10 minutes and streptococcus pyocyanea within 10 minutes.⁵

Aserbine has been tested in vivo on burn cases and appears to have bacteriostatic and bactericidal potency.^{5,2}

SAFETY IN USE

No serious side effects have been experienced in patients treated with Aserbine.

An initial smarting sensation has been reported in some patients treated with the solution. The probable explanation is the presence of propylene glycol in the solution. It is not, however, regarded as a sensitizer, and there are no records of contact dermatitis due to propylene glycol. Aserbine solution may be described as a bland dressing which causes no skin sensitivity, no pain or inflammation of raw surfaces.¹³

Pyrexia is common in extensive burns treated with Aserbine cream. It has never been proved to be serious and is not associated with a positive blood culture. Localized urticaria at the periphery of the wound particularly where the exudate collects has been reported.

what he knows about Multiple Sclerosis (which used to be known as disseminated sclerosis) and the chances are he'll tell you that he's never heard of it.

One of the most important functions of the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Gt. Britain and Northern Ireland is to encourage a greater awareness on the part of people generally of this most intractable of diseases. The co-operation of doctors in this respect is urgently needed, if the Society is to continue successfully with its work.

If you have a patient who is suffering from Multiple Sclerosis, and you decide that it would be in his best interest to apprise him of the fact, the Society will be grateful if you tell him of the work it is doing; how it can, if he so desires, through his local branch, put him in touch with other people similarly afflicted and generally help with his welfare.

THE WORLD'S DIABETICS AND HOECHST

One of the biggest breakthroughs in medical history was the discovery and isolation of insulin. But daily injections remained, at best, a gross inconvenience for all diabetics until a drug was discovered with which more than a third of the world's diabetics could be treated. Hoechst have played an important part in this story.

Over the years diabetes has changed from an incurable and virtually untreatable disease almost to a problem of social education. Today, finding diabetics is as important as treating them: and for many of them that treatment is as simple as a couple of tablets a day. Once they are found it is difficult to get it across to diabetics that their condition is serious and that they must take certain precautions even though they may not feel ill. On the other hand, it is vital to reassure the patient already ill that treatment is possible and not as unpleasant as it used to be.

PANCREATIC EXTRACT

Hoechst have been associated with the diabetic problem since the beginning of the century. Discovery of the relationship between diabetes and the pancreas in 1889 prompted the search for an effective pancreatic extract. In 1910 Hoechst started to develop Zulzer's process for pancreatic extraction, but it was 1921 before the first high purity preparations were ready for clinical trial. In the same year Banting and Best made their famous discovery and isolated insulin.

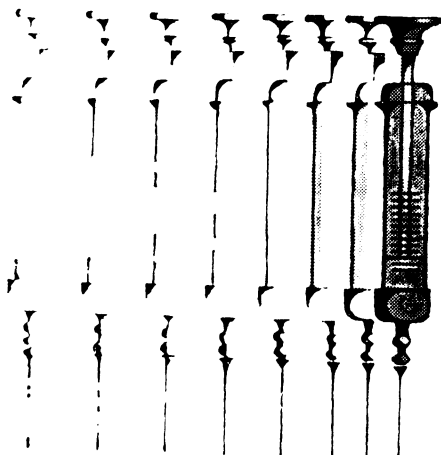

1923

FIRST EUROPEAN INSULIN PRODUCERS

By 1923 Hoechst had developed their own technique for manufacturing insulin, and because of this they were also licensed to use the Canadian process developed by Banting and Best. Hoechst were the first producers of insulin in Europe.

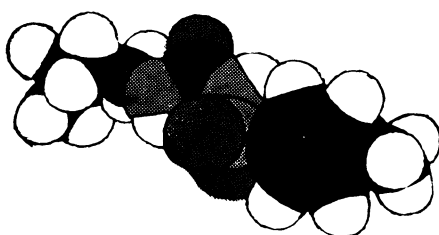

1938- 1953

INSULIN PRESENTATION REFINED

In the succeeding years Hoechst continued their research on insulin. With the preparation of pure crystalline insulin, exact standardization became possible, and between 1938 and 1953 all the variants in insulin presentation so familiar to today's medical profession were developed: short-acting, long-acting, depot preparations, combinations of all sorts to suit all purposes and make life as easy as possible for the diabetic. But still the curse of the daily injection had to be borne, and concurrently with insulin development research had been pursued to find a synthetic compound that could be taken orally.

Although the hypoglycaemic action of some sulphonamides had been known for years, all compounds tested proved too toxic until, in 1955, D 860 was synthesized in the research laboratories at Hoechst. Eight hundred and fifty-nine compounds had already been investigated and found wanting, mostly on grounds of toxicity. A drug which was to be taken by a patient every day for years had to be virtually harmless, and all the promising compounds were subjected to strict and extensive tests for safety. D 860, now known as tolbutamide and marketed as Rastinon by Hoechst, emerged as one truly safe drug.

1965

RASTINON—ORAL ANTIDIABETIC

There was, inevitably, initial scepticism when Rastinon was first introduced. Now, after more than two thousand clinical papers have been published and three million patients are being treated, tolbutamide is the standard oral treatment for diabetes. More than a third of the world's diabetics can be satisfactorily treated with tolbutamide and relieved of the difficulties of daily insulin injections.

That isn't the end of the story. Since Rastinon was discovered, three thousand compounds have been synthesized in the incessant search to find even safer, even more useful drugs to help sufferers from diabetes. So far none of them has shown any significant advantage, and Rastinon is still going strong. But who knows what tomorrow will bring?

The Acute Abdomen for the Man on the Spot

J. C. Angell, F.R.C.S.

This is a handbook mainly concerned with the diagnosis of acute abdominal illness, though the handling of the case is often discussed, including some operative detail. It is designed for the inexperienced Registrar, and therefore, basic knowledge and experience as a house surgeon are taken for granted. It is a selected account of personal experience, presented in a discursive, anecdotal way.

'... healing time [of inflamed traumatised skin] was reduced and consequently the period of incapacity from work was correspondingly reduced. The pain and discomfort were relieved within twenty-four hours; the swelling decreased rapidly after forty-eight hours; and discolouration of the skin, at the end of seven days, was but a yellow stain.'

“If the antiseptic is to be of any value at all it must not only kill organisms that are dry and probably embedded in films of some kind but it must act rapidly before it is removed by evaporation, gravity or washing”.

Dettol meets these two important provisions of rapidity of action and compatibility with soap

1. Rapidity of Action. Dettol kills Staph. aureus including phage type 80, 81, and Ps. pyocyanea in less than 2½ minutes (vide BRIT. MED. J., 1963 i, 498)

2. Compatibility with Soap. 'Unlike the other antiseptics, Dettol appeared to have its efficiency increased by the presence of soap, and against Staph. pyogenes the effect was one of true synergism.' — ("ANTISEPTICS IN MIDWIFERY" BRIT. MED. J., 1956, ii, 202)

Dettol is non-poisonous and is well-tolerated. Its efficiency is well maintained in the presence of organic materials and it is stable in solution.

FOR GERIATRIC PATIENTS safe, comfortable, effective HERNIAL SUPPORT

Because each Spencer Support is designed in order to meet the patient's individual needs, results are demonstrably superior.

The patient shown on left, at the age of 74, developed a left ventral hernia following surgery fourteen years previously. A left inguinal hernia resulted from the long wearing of a cast following a hip injury 3 years later. "Stock" supports proved ineffective. A Spencer Support as shown was prescribed with excellent results. Her Spencer gives safe, comfortable and effective control of the hernias—improves and maintains posture—protects and supports the weak muscles of old age. With the aid of her Spencer, the patient runs her household, does all her own work, and—as she says—still has time "to enjoy life."

today's treatment for constipation

Normax is the rational approach to the treatment of constipation. Normax capsules contain Dioctyl-sodium sulphosuccinate and 1-8 Dihydroxyanthraquinone.

Faecal softener. Clinical observation has shown that Dioctyl-sodium sulphosuccinate is a softening agent which reduces surface tension, allowing water to penetrate and soften the hard, dry impacted stools, thereby facilitating passage through the colon and expulsion through the rectum. "It is not an irritant, laxative or bulk purgative."¹ Animal experiments have shown that this substance is not absorbed, nor does it break down during its passage through the intestine, and no side effects have been revealed to date.

Mild peristaltic stimulant. The faecal softening action has been supplemented in the Normax capsule by a mild peristaltic stimulant (1-8 Dihydroxyanthraquinone) which gently and safely promotes the natural bowel movement to produce a comfortable, effortless evacuation.

Advantages. By combining a faecal softener with a mild peristaltic stimulant, Normax eliminates the strain to stool. The low dosage required, and the effectiveness of Normax, make it the ideal treatment for chronic functional constipation in all ages.

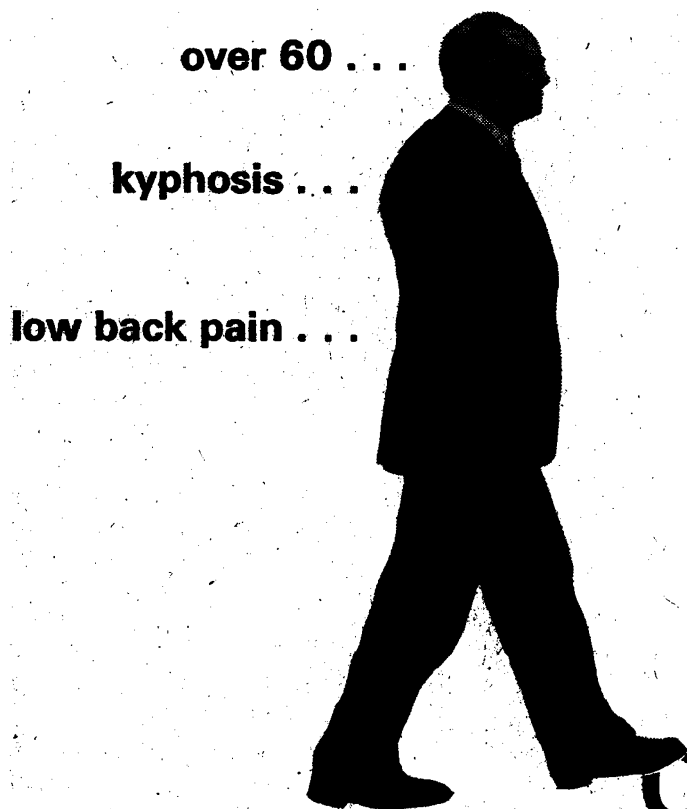

Presentation. Normax capsules are available in bottles of 30 and 250 at basic N.H.S. prices of 4/10d. and 26/10d., respectively. Normax is subject to Purchase Tax.

"Studies are reported here which suggest that calcium deficiency is an important factor in many cases of postmenopausal and senile osteoporosis. Many patients with these forms of osteoporosis absorb and retain calcium abnormally avidly when on a high calcium intake in the form of supplements (calcium gluconate Sandoz), and moreover may continue to retain it avidly for at least three and a half years. Symptoms of the disease are relieved and no further fractures take place."

Tricloryl

Non-barbiturate sedative with a wide margin of safety

Tricloryl (triclofos) is a non-barbiturate sedative which, for the young and elderly in particular, has a number of outstanding advantages both for promoting sleep and daytime sedation.

Tricloryl is palatable, well-tolerated and effective, and conspicuously free from tendency to cause 'hangover' and other side effects.

It is available as syrup, which can be conveniently taken in water to form an acceptable drink, and as film-coated tablets.

which hypertensive patients are best treated with 'Esbatal'?

All new patients requiring an adrenergic neurone-blocking agent

"Bethanidine sulphate is an important and potent hypotensive drug, and by its use the regime of many patients has been simplified and side-effects avoided". J. Irish med. Ass., 1965, 56, 9.

"While expecting the symptoms of adrenergic neurone blockade, we have been pleasantly surprised by the lack of other side-effects, and especially by the absence of diarrhoea". Lancet, 1962, ii, 897.

Male hypertensives

'Esbatal' does not cause impotence, but as with other adrenergic neurone-blocking agents, failure of ejaculation may occur. When this causes concern, withdrawal of 'Esbatal' for 24 hours usually reverses this side-effect. Good control of blood pressure is regained rapidly on resuming treatment. (See Lancet, 1964, ii, 659.)

Patients in whom other forms of hypotensive therapy cause diarrhoea

"... a useful alternative to established means of therapy. It seldom causes diarrhoea, and the dose is easily manipulated. Lancet, 1964, ii, 659.

When rapid control of blood pressure is essential

"... it has the advantage of more rapid action and excretion so that its dose can be increased more rapidly and the blood pressure brought under control more quickly". Brit. med. J., 1964, ii, 865.

"Bethanidine sulphate is of particular value for the rapid reduction of high blood pressure ...". J. Irish med. Ass., 1965, 56, 9.

Pylura ointment provides rapid relief from the pain and discomfort of haemorrhoids Pylura presents adrenaline and beta-eucaine lactate incorporated in a soft lanolin and petroleum jelly ointment to which phenol has been added to prevent infection and inflammation.

When applied locally, adrenaline causes constriction of blood vessels and is employed for this purpose in the treatment of haemorrhoids, fistulae and other inflammatory conditions of the anus and rectum where, for any reason, surgery is not desirable.

When these conditions are painful the local anaesthetic beta-eucaine lactate has been found extremely effective in alleviating such pain.

Pylura is supplied with a nozzle for easy application of the ointment. Full instructions with every tube.

What happened to Offord's Trigger Percussor? It paid the price of progress. Once it represented a medical advance, now it only represents an era that has passed. That's the way with medicine; the old is constantly being replaced by the new. Consider the treatment of anxiety states, for example. Since the introduction of Librium*, earlier forms of therapy have had to take second place. Today, over 1,000 published reports testify to the effectiveness of Librium in the treatment of anxiety and tension.

iron before breakfast

FERRO-GRADUMET®

To prescribe iron before breakfast would be asking for trouble with ordinary ferrous sulphate tablets. Even taken after meals and in divided doses, such tablets cause irritation and unpleasant side effects in many patients, often leading to the abandonment of therapy. But "One Ferro-Gradumet tablet before breakfast" is right. This once-daily haematinic is designed to be taken on an empty stomach. Because iron absorption is in inverse proportion to the amount of food present, just one tablet daily, taken before breakfast, gives steady, trouble-free assimilation of ample amounts of iron. Instead of a corrosively large dose of ferrous sulphate being released in the stomach, the contents of the Gradumet—a unique controlled-release vehicle which is independent of gastro-intestinal chemistry and motility—are slowly leached out over a period of hours throughout the gastro-intestinal tract.

Presentation Each red Ferro-Gradumet Filmtab® (film-coated tablet, Abbott) contains the exsiccated equivalent of 525 mg ferrous sulphate B P, providing 105 mg elemental iron—a sufficient daily dose for all cases of iron deficiency.

President: The Earl Spencer

Medical Superintendent:

D. J. O'Connell, M.D., D.P.M.

This private hospital receives patients, both male and female, suffering from nervous and mental disorders, including alcoholism and senile illnesses. The fees range from sixteen guineas per week. Private rooms with special nurses can be provided, either in the hospital or in one of the villas in the grounds. The hospital is situated in 130 acres of pleasant grounds which provide all recreational facilities. These include a nine-hole golf course, sports ground, tennis courts, etc. A Recreation and Occupation Centre, known as Gloucester House, has been opened recently which includes an occupational therapy department, a swimming pool, a squash court, and a library with an adjoining reading room.

WANTAGE HOUSE

This is a separate reception unit to which patients may be admitted. It is equipped for the complete investigation of nervous and mental disorders by the most modern methods. All forms of treatment are available.

MOULTON PARK

Some two miles from the main hospital is the farm of approximately 600 acres. Occupational therapy is a feature of this branch. For terms and further particulars apply to the Medical Superintendent (Telephone No.: 34354 Northampton), who can be seen in London by appointment.

Nulacin and only Nulacin provides intragastric milk-alkali drip therapy for the ambulant patient

“In view of the ineffectiveness of most of the tableted antacids, the milk-alkali tablet (Nulacin) would appear to be the antacid of choice for ambulatory therapy.”

Med. Times, N.Y., 1958, 1, 74

Safe, Simple, Effective

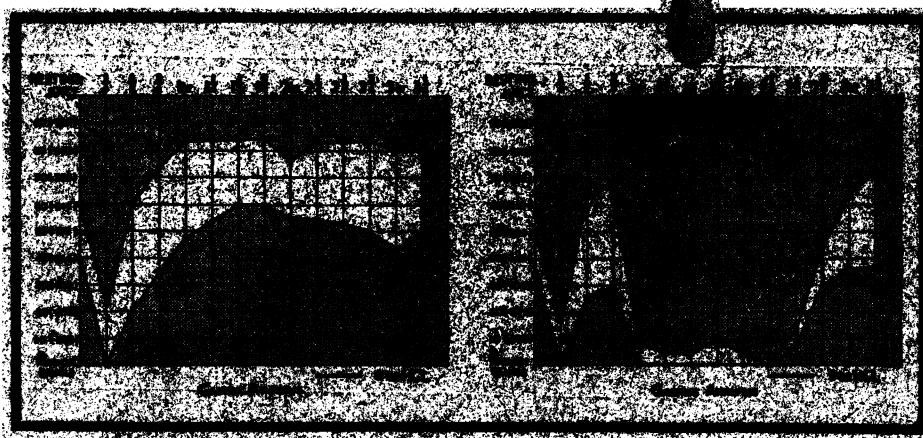

NULACIN TABLETS provide a safe, simple and effective treatment of peptic ulcer.

In treating peptic ulcer a Ryle's tube may be passed through the nose and into the oesophagus and a mixture of milk and antacid allowed to flow continuously over the affected area. This form of therapy can only be employed in those patients who are in bed and for the ambulant patient Nulacin tablets are preferable.¹ Nulacin tablets are prepared from whole milk combined with dextrans and maltose, together with the trisilicate, oxide and carbonate of magnesium and calcium carbonate. Nulacin tablets when allowed to dissolve slowly in the mouth provide milk-alkali drip therapy. In fact, Nulacin tablets have revolutionized the treatment of peptic ulcer.⁸
