For the prevention of Photodermatoses and conditions precipitated or aggravated by Ultraviolet Radiation, such as Herpes Simplex.

Most screening agents absorb ultraviolet radiation only up to 310 mμ.

UVISTAT, however, absorbs radiation over a much wider range from 250 up to 350mμ.

This embraces the longer wavelengths (above 320 mμ) responsible for the initiation of light reactions in photosensitive patients.

UVISTAT is included in Category N and is exempt from Purchase Tax.

Literature and professional samples on request from Ward, Blenkinsop & Co. Ltd., Fulton House, Empire Way, Wembley, Middlesex. Telephone: WEMbley 8686.

FORMULA: UVISTAT contains 10% mexenone in an oil-in-water emulsion base.

Available in 50G. tubes.

ANTIBIOTICS AND THE INTESTINAL FLORA

Treatment with broad spectrum antibiotics suppresses the normal flora, which may be replaced by abnormal resistant organisms causing diarrhoea.

This change can be prevented or reversed by the implantation of Lactobacillus acidophilus which has been rendered antibiotic-resistant, and is thus able to multiply freely under these abnormal conditions. The products of growth of the organism are inimical to that of many other bacteria<sup>1,2</sup> and thus contribute to its rapid preponderance over other species.

Oral treatment with antibiotic-resistant L. acidophilus in the form of ENPAC has been shown to eliminate Candida from the faeces of infants with antibiotic-induced diarrhoea, with relief of symptoms succeeded by rapid gain in weight<sup>3,4</sup> and greatly to reduce the numbers of staphylococci in the faeces of patients treated with tetracyclines.<sup>5</sup> continuous drip control of ulcer

by tablet

PRODEXIN tablets give all the benefits of continuous intragastric drip therapy<sup>1</sup> without any of its disadvantages.

The slow suck down tablets are specially formulated to give prolonged antacid buffer effect, unaffected by stomach emptying rate.<sup>2</sup>

Immediate relief of pain is achieved by rapidly raising pH to 2 neutralising excess acid and controlling the acid secretion by slowly building up the pH to a desirable level of pH3.5 and pH4.5

DOSAGE:

For continuous therapeutic effect one tablet at a time should be sucked slowly.
For peptic ulcer one or more tablets an hour.

of a NAVAL MEDICAL OFFICER

This is a life of unbounded opportunity. Anywhere in the world, you practise medicine with complete medical freedom. Among 100,000 Naval men and women you gain extensive medical experience of the most varied nature. Civilian patients, too, of both sexes and all ages, are treated in Naval hospitals. You have excellent opportunities for specialising in the normal clinical subjects, and in the less usual, such as Nuclear, Underwater, and Aviation medicine. You are actively encouraged and financially assisted to acquire higher degrees. You can gain consultant status.

As a Medical Officer, your pay, allowances, and gratuity—or permanent commission pension—are very good: for example, your initial pay is considerably higher than that of a civilian hospital registrar. You can enter in one of three ways:

as a registered Medical Practitioner—your civilian experience back-dating seniority—or as a qualified doctor doing your pre-registration year, or as a student with a 2nd M.B. For qualified women doctors, there is a special short service commission. # ASERBINE FOR THE TREATMENT OF BURNS, VARICOSE ULCERS AND INDOLENT ULCERS

ASERBINE IS A NEW SUCCESSFUL, TOPICAL TREATMENT FOR BURNS, VARICOSE ULCERS AND OTHER INDOLENT ULCERS

Experience suggests that the chief uses of Aserbine are :

- 1 As a de-sloughing agent in the treatment of burns and especially in preparing an area for skin grafting.
- 2 As a treatment for varicose ulcers.
- 3 As a treatment for pressure-sores.

It is indicated for topical use for regrowth of epithelium and formation of granulation tissue in chronic lesions of the skin.

Aserbine is available as a cream and as a solution.

ASERBINE FOR BURNS

Thirty-four superficial and full thickness burns treated with Aserbine were described in a report which concluded that the new solution is an effective method of cleansing and promoting the healing of open wounds.<sup>1</sup>

Aserbine has been successfully used in conjunction with plastic surgery where it accelerates de-sloughing and prepares the burn for grafting.

"In cases where grafting has been necessary it was considered that the new lotion reduced the period before grafting."<sup>1</sup>

One paper<sup>13</sup> reported the treatment of 21 patients with Aserbine and concluded that it was easy to use. The authors particularly noted the absence of immediate or secondary reactions, the aseptic condition of the burns and the rapid epithelialization.

No destruction of living tissue was observed in a large series of cases.<sup>2</sup> In this series Aserbine cream was applied on the second day after injury and application was repeated twice daily. Early application of the cream quickly differentiated superficial from full thickness burns. Crusts and dead skin were removed with forceps before new cream was applied. The wounds were rapidly cleaned, good granulation

A significant comment is made in the report of a trial carried out in this country on thirty-four children admitted to hospital with severe burns.

"It was proposed to carry out an initial investigation before proceeding to a clinical trial. Results have, however, demonstrated convincingly that the lotion is superior to treatment used in this hospital previously and we have therefore instituted the new lotion as routine treatment in all burn cases."<sup>1</sup>

Aserbine keeps the burn aseptic, removes any dead tissue, encourages the formation of granulation tissue and the regrowth of epithelium.

ASERBINE FOR VARICOSE ULCERS

Varicose ulcers treated with Aserbine remain clean, slough is removed and there is an improvement in the formation of granulation tissue. In cases where plastic surgery is necessary Aserbine accelerates the de-sloughing process and prepares the area for grafting.

In one trial<sup>3</sup>, Aserbine was found highly successful in approximately half the 40 cases of leg ulcers treated, and promoted healing of all ulcers within a few weeks. Another published report<sup>4</sup> included 19 patients with ulcer or trophic wounds, one with ecthyma and one with a pressure-sore. Eighteen of the ulcers showed a rapid, complete and successful healing without relapse. Only one case showed slower rate of healing than normal. This report describes Aserbine as a new and acceptable treatment for difficult ulcers and pressure-sores.

The following case history<sup>4</sup> illustrates the treatment with Aserbine of a varicose ulcer on the right leg of a female patient. There was little granulation tissue and the size of the ulcer was 86 x 45 mm. Dressings were well tolerated, although a slight burning sensation was experienced 5-10 minutes after application. There were no other side effects.

Improvement was noticed in 15 days and by the 45th day the healing of the ulcer was almost complete.

1. Appearance of burnt leg showing slough after 5 days.

2. Prominent granulation tissue after treatment begun with Aserbine.

3. Wound almost healed after 28 days' treatment with Aserbine.

Stages in the treatment of a varicose ulcer with Aserbine showing the rapid process of healing.<sup>12</sup>

ASERBINE FOR INDOLENT ULCERS

Reports on the use of Aserbine in the treatment of varicose ulcers have stressed its value when dealing with indolent or "difficult" ulcers.<sup>3,4</sup>

"It seems to have an antiseptic and healing action. It does not promote uneven healing but rather a progressive epithelialization from the edges of the wound. In some cases Aserbine promotes the formation of a scab under which healing progresses satisfactorily."<sup>3</sup>

One report<sup>4</sup> refers to Aserbine as an acceptable treatment for pressure-sores.

There is a reference to pressure-sores in another report<sup>6</sup> which states that the use of Aserbine, in conjunction with modern nursing methods, produces a marked improvement in the healing of sloughing pressure-sores in paraplegic and bed-ridden patients.

BACTERICIDAL AND BACTERIOSTATIC PROPERTIES

Aserbine has bactericidal properties and has been found effective against most common infective organisms. Aserbine is bactericidal against E. Coli, within 10 minutes, pyocyanea within 5 minutes, proteus vulgaris within 2½ minutes, staphylococcus aureus within 10 minutes and streptococcus pyocyanea within 10 minutes.<sup>5</sup>

Aserbine has been tested in vivo on burn cases and appears to have bacteriostatic and bactericidal potency.<sup>5,2</sup>

SAFETY IN USE

No serious side effects have been experienced in patients treated with Aserbine.

An initial smarting sensation has been reported in some patients treated with the solution. The probable explanation is the presence of propylene glycol in the solution. It is not, however, regarded as a sensitizer, and there are no records of contact dermatitis due to propylene glycol. Aserbine solution may be described as a bland dressing which causes no skin sensitivity, no pain or inflammation of raw surfaces.<sup>13</sup>

Pyrexia is common in extensive burns treated with Aserbine cream. It has never been proved to be serious and is not associated with a positive blood culture. Localized urticaria at the periphery of the wound particularly where the exudate collects has been reported.

PRACTICE ADMINISTRATION

Ask yourself the following questions—

Are you getting an adequate reward ?

What sort of practice are you aiming to build up by 1975 ?

Would you benefit by merging with another practice ?

Who will take over when you retire ?

How efficiently is your office being run ?

The answers to these and many other vital questions about practice administration are to be found in a new series of ten booklets now being prepared by The Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales. Although the series will deal specifically with the problems of practice administration as they affect accounting practices, it is expected that many of these problems will be common to most professional practices.

The first two booklets in the series—The Development of an Accounting Practice and Professional Practice Insurance—have already been published and it is hoped that the other booklets will appear at approximately monthly intervals.

If you wish to purchase these booklets, please send your appropriate remittance to the Secretary, Ref. 19BM. _____

Remiderm

In the treatment of eczema the use of a topical corticosteroid alone is often unsatisfactory because it cannot protect the lesion from the ever-present risk of secondary infection.

Remiderm combines a highly effective antibacterial and antifungal agent, halquinol, with the rapidly-acting corticosteroid, triamcinolone acetonide, to provide the most comprehensive treatment of eczematata yet devised. Unlike the antibiotic-corticosteroid combinations, Remiderm cannot induce the development of antibiotic-resistant bacteria.

Prompt anti-hypertensive/diuretic effect

Gradual, sustained potassium release and absorption

Glaxo's new two-layer tablet helps to counter the problem of potassium depletion during prolonged treatment. It is designed for gradual, sustained potassium release and absorption and to minimise gastric irritation.

This unique tablet design has been applied to two new products :

In bottles of 25, 100 and 500.

Detailed literature is available from Glaxo Laboratories Limited

How Neo-NaClex-K and Serplex tablets work

The film-coated tablets are tasteless and easily swallowed.

Very shortly after the tablet is swallowed, the white layer disintegrates and the diuretic/anti-hypertensive dose is available for absorption.

---

The coloured layer, containing potassium chloride crystals, is designed to give a gradual release of the potassium to minimise gastric irritation. Reliable absorption of this material from the intestine has been demonstrated.

---

This layer dissolves slowly, exposing and releasing the crystals of potassium chloride very slowly so that no great concentration is reached at one time. The final photograph shows (after magnification) what remains of the coloured matrix after the potassium chloride has leached out steadily and completely for absorption.

Four tablespoons of corn oil and the reduction of high serum cholesterol levels

A recent article in the medical press<sup>1</sup> published the results of a study in the use of corn oil with a low animal fat diet in the reduction of high serum cholesterol levels.

The article ended: 'It is concluded that corn oil, together with a diet low in animal fat, is feasible as a long-term measure for the lowering of serum cholesterol, being safe, acceptable to the great majority of patients, and having virtually no clinical contraindications.'

The oil used in the study, corn oil, linoleic acid content 56%—was added to diets of 1,630 and 2,080 calories, and comprised 41.5% of the total fat in the former, 40.0% in the latter. The quantity of oil added to each diet was 57 grams; just four tablespoons of corn oil a day.

Mazola Pure Corn Oil has a fatty-acid composition (56.2% linoleic) identical to that of the oil used in this experiment. In addition, Mazola is palatable; it is widely used as a cooking oil. Thus Mazola, available from grocers throughout the country, is probably the most accessible and appetising source of supplementary dietary oil.

The "Sidros Absorption Bridge" is built with Lego

TO HELP YOUR PATIENT

The "Sidros Absorption Bridge" illustrates today's views on iron absorption. Iron is absorbed from the intestine only in its ferrous state. It is oxidized to the ferric salt on entering the mucosa and has to be reduced to ferrous iron before it can cross the barrier between mucosa and blood stream. Ascorbic acid acts as a reducing agent in this process.<sup>1, 2, 3</sup>

*Each Sidros tablet contains 300 mg. ferrous gluconate and 30 mg. stabilized ascorbic acid.
Dosage: 1-2 tablets three times daily.*

Stabilized ascorbic acid is present in SIDROS to keep iron in its absorbable ferrous state in the alkaline environment of the bowel and to act as a reducing agent in the mucosa.

And to help you

INDOMETHACIN REGO

'Indocid' is a new, non-steroid anti-inflammatory agent with analgesic and antipyretic properties, chemically unrelated to the corticosteroids, phenylbutazone-like compounds or salicylates.

Widespread clinical experience has shown that 'Indocid' rapidly relieves pain and inflammation, and allows greater mobility. In osteoarthritis, 'Indocid' is often effective where other agents are inadequate; it has given excellent results in osteoarthritis of the hip. In rheumatoid arthritis, objective evidence of effect may be seen as a measurable reduction of joint swelling. 'Indocid' has also proved effective in ankylosing spondylitis, gout and certain soft-tissue disorders.

iron before breakfast

FERRO-GRADUMET®

To prescribe iron before breakfast would be asking for trouble with ordinary ferrous sulphate tablets. Even taken after meals and in divided doses, such tablets cause irritation and unpleasant side effects in many patients, often leading to the abandonment of therapy. But "One Ferro-Gradumet tablet before breakfast" is right. This once-daily haematinic is designed to be taken on an empty stomach. Because iron absorption is in inverse proportion to the amount of food present, just one tablet daily, taken before breakfast, gives steady, trouble-free assimilation of ample amounts of iron. Instead of a corrosively large dose of ferrous sulphate being released in the stomach, the contents of the Gradumet—a unique controlled-release vehicle which is independent of gastro-intestinal chemistry and motility—are slowly leached out over a period of hours throughout the gastro-intestinal tract.

Presentation Each red Ferro-Gradumet Filmtab® (film-coated tablet, Abbott) contains the exsiccated equivalent of 525 mg ferrous sulphate B P, providing 105 mg elemental iron—a sufficient daily dose for all cases of iron deficiency.

"Studies are reported here which suggest that calcium deficiency is an important factor in many cases of postmenopausal and senile osteoporosis. Many patients with these forms of osteoporosis absorb and retain calcium abnormally avidly when on a high calcium intake in the form of supplements (calcium gluconate, Sandoz), and moreover may continue to retain it avidly for at least three and a half years. Symptoms of the disease are relieved and no further fractures take place."

Surgery—contd. on p. xlviii

Flt. Lt. John Bradshaw, M.B., Ch.B., has just taken up his first appointment on an R.A.F. Station. "I like the way the R.A.F. treats its doctors," he says. "The conditions of work are much better than in general practice under the National Health Scheme." Dr. Bradshaw is 24 and qualified at Sheffield. His wife is an ex-Nurse and they have two young children.

Before you commit yourself to a practice, work 3 or 5 years in the R.A.F.

You'll do some interesting, out-of-the-rut medicine, see a bit of the world, live well, and 'retire' with up to £3,000, tax free.

If you are in your pre-Registration year, here is something for you to think about.

You do not, now, need to take up your workaday N.H.S. career straight away. Furthermore, there are good reasons why you should not be in too much of a hurry. After 3 or 5 years you'll know, far better than you do now, where your particular talents and interests lie, and what sort of a future—personal as well as professional—you want to make for yourself. If you're a round peg, you'll know what a square hole looks like.

A short spell in the R.A.F. is, in fact, a breathing-space. It gives you the chance to make up your mind about all sorts of things.

You'd get your first job in the R.A.F. 3 months after you joined—probably as junior M.O. at a Station: rather like being an "Assistant with a view". In a typical case you could be one of two doctors with, between you, 1500 to 2500 people to take care of, and your own 'cottage hospital' with wards, theatre and laboratory, and secretarial as well as nursing staff.

You'd have a shorter list than a civilian G.P., and to this extent you would live a less strenuous life. To compensate, you would give more comprehensive care. It is this—and the variety of your work—that makes practice in the R.A.F. so interesting.

In the R.A.F. you combine several functions. You are in medical care not only of people, but of the environment they live in, and of the work they do. In proportion you do less curative work and more preventive work than is even possible for most civilian doctors.

A lot of people hold the view that this is the way all medicine should be practised: with the closest possible integration of the doctor and the community.

This is the choice you face

Think of two doctors, both aged 40. One went to his practice straight from his teaching hospital, and has been there ever since. The other went into the R.A.F. on a 5-year commission. He lived—and lived well—in the tropics with his family for 2½ years, and, on leave or on duty, visited 7 countries: two European, three Asiatic, and two Australasian. By now he's been in civilian practice for 10 years: he's as well established as the other doctor. But which of the two has got more out of life, and has the richer memories to look back upon?

In many ways, the transition from hospital into the R.A.F. seems more 'natural' than the movement to civilian practice. You go from one community to another—and they have much in common: both are young, cheerful, energetic, rather self-contained—and at the same time very professional, with a marked sense of purpose. If you can feel, now, that you are going to miss Medical School—think about the R.A.F. Service life would probably be 'right' for you.

The vulgar matter of £. s. d. . . .

Next year, if you were in the R.A.F. as a married officer aged 25, your pay and allowances would be over £2000 and your cost of living would be low. If you were single, living in the mess, you'd get the equivalent of first class hotel accommodation and service for only a few shillings a day out of your pay.

Leave the Service after 3 years, and you get a gratuity of £1,500, cash. Stay on for 5, and you get £3,000. With this, you could put down a deposit on a house and furnish it very well indeed, attic to cellar.

What a start to a civilian career!

The time for bold decisions is when you are young and free

Today, because you are at the beginning of your career, you can take a short time out from the main stream of civilian practice just by deciding to do it.

Now, you are free to go. In a few years time, you probably won't be.

You'll have a practice 'with your name on it'; children who want a permanent home to strike roots in; and so on. It will be time for you to settle down.

Meanwhile, at the parting of the ways, you have this chance. Now is the time to find out about it.

The best thing is to write off straight away. If you can't—tear this page out and put it in your pocket to remind you.

The address to write to is: Wing Commander D. G. M. Hills, O.B.E., M.B., B.S., D.P.H., R.A.F., Ministry of Defence (MAI/HN206B), 1-6 Tavistock Square, London, W.C.1. Please give your age and qualifications.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE OF ADVANCED STUDIES THE JOHN CURTIN SCHOOL OF MEDICAL RESEARCH FOUNDATION CHAIR OF CLINICAL SCIENCE

Applications are invited for appointment to the Chair of Clinical Science in the John Curtin School of Medical Research, Institute of Advanced Studies.

The Professor will be Head of a new Department of Clinical Science to be established as a department of the John Curtin School, but housed in a new wing of the Canberra Community Hospital. Construction of this wing will soon commence, and an area in it of approximately 8,000 square feet has been allotted to the Department of Clinical Science. The date of appointment is subject to negotiation, but it is hoped that the Professor will be able to suggest his requirements for laboratory layout and equipment before the new hospital wing is ready for occupation in December, 1966. Plans have been developed for the staffing of the department and the provision of funds for research equipment and running expenses; details may be obtained on request.

There is no restriction placed on the field of clinical science in which the department will be expected to concentrate its interests. There will be opportunities for the staff of the new department to form close links with one or more of the existing groups in the John Curtin School—i.e., in biochemistry, physical biochemistry, medical chemistry, microbiology, experimental pathology, genetics, physiology, and electron microscopy. The school is well equipped for research in all of the fields mentioned, and there are also animal breeding and workshop facilities. The staff of the Department of Clinical Science will be able to utilize these facilities as well as those already available in the Canberra Community Hospital.

There is no undergraduate faculty of medicine within the University at present, and the Department of Clinical Science will operate entirely as a research department, being able to take research scholars for courses leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. The University has a postgraduate awards scheme and students would be able to apply for awards tenable in the Department of Clinical Science.

The salary of the Professor of Clinical Science will be £A.5,700 per annum, and he will be entitled to one year's study leave on full pay, plus a grant of up to £A.1,600 towards expenses, within each four-year period. Superannuation is on the F.S.S.U. pattern, with supplementary benefits. The University will pay first-class fares for the appointee and his family and will also provide a grant towards the costs of removal of furniture and effects. The University would also provide assistance in housing.

Further information about the proposed Department of Clinical Science and the facilities and interests of departments in the John Curtin School of Medical Research may be obtained from the Association of Commonwealth Universities (Branch Office), Marlborough House, Pall Mall, London S.W.1. A summary of the conditions of appointment and instructions for application are also available.

....Rauwiloid and the safety pin

Both were a significant advance on existing methods; both are inexpensive and dependable; neither has been superseded. Rauwiloid's main characteristics—simplicity of dosage, economy, and freedom from tolerance or serious side-effects—continue to make it an ideal first choice for mild to moderate essential hypertension. Even in more severe cases, Rauwiloid can be of considerable value when combined with more potent agents.
