ANTIBIOTICS AND THE INTESTINAL FLORA

Treatment with broad spectrum antibiotics suppresses the normal flora, which may be replaced by abnormal resistant organisms causing diarrhoea.

This change can be prevented or reversed by the implantation of Lactobacillus acidophilus which has been rendered antibiotic-resistant, and is thus able to multiply freely under these abnormal conditions. The products of growth of the organism are inimical to that of many other bacteria^{1,2} and thus contribute to its rapid preponderance over other species.

Oral treatment with antibiotic-resistant L. acidophilus in the form of ENPAC has been shown to eliminate Candida from the faeces of infants with antibiotic-induced diarrhoea, with relief of symptoms succeeded by rapid gain in weight³ and greatly to reduce the numbers of staphylococci in the faeces of patients treated with tetracyclines.⁴

and almost any eczema may be infected...

although not apparently so

Investigations have shown that a high proportion of cases of eczema and psoriasis harbour 'hidden' infection which can only be detected on culture.

Remiderm, being a combination of a modern corticosteroid, triamcinolone acetonide, and a new antibacterial/antifungal agent, halquinol, can eliminate this risk of 'hidden' infection and treatment time is shorter than when a corticosteroid alone is applied.

Remiderm ointment and cream: triamcinolone acetonide 0.025% and halquinol 0.75%: 15gm. tubes, basic NHS price 7/9. Remiderm spray: triamcinolone acetonide 4.95mg. and halquinol 31.2mg. in a 75gm. canister, basic NHS price 16/-.

Betnovate

most likely to succeed

The excellence of Betnovate (betamethasone 17-valerate) in treating psoriasis and eczema of all types has now been firmly established. The evidence from extensive clinical trials—"that a better response is more likely with betamethasone 17-valerate than with any of the other corticosteroids tested"*—has been fully substantiated by the outstanding results obtained with Betnovate in hospital and general practice. Used increasingly for many conditions other than psoriasis and eczema, Betnovate has also been shown to produce a better response throughout the whole range of steroid-responsive dermatoses. The majority of such skin disorders can in fact be treated satisfactorily by simply applying a Betnovate preparation once or twice daily.

Every Winter PENBRITIN brings renewed hope to the Chronic Bronchitic...

...whatever the severity of the condition

One Penbritin capsule four times a day for a week or more brings an excellent response in the majority of patients, reducing the volume of sputum and the severity of exacerbations. When other antibiotics fail, four Penbritin capsules four times a day for a week or more usually provide effective treatment for advanced bronchitic patients, including those with extensive bronchiectasis. Used in this way, Penbritin is also successful in clearing the sputum of those winter-long purulent cases which would otherwise require continuous antibiotic cover. Early relapse is uncommon and many patients remain free from further infection for as long as two to three months after treatment.

Mestranol, an oestrogen, is introduced early in the cycle, followed later by a combination of mestranol with the progestogen chlormadinone acetate.

The more physiological approach with 'Sequens' explains why there are fewer side-effects than with earlier agents which combine oestrogen and progestogen throughout the cycle.

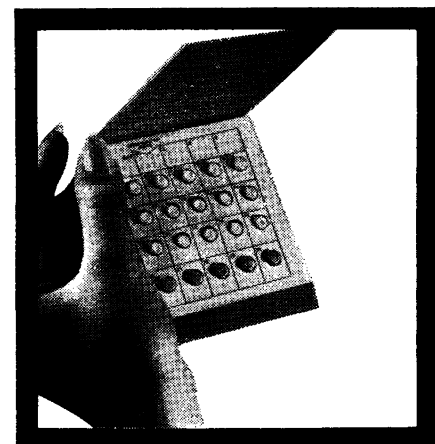

- * weight gain is not a problem
- * low incidence of breakthrough bleeding

How to bring more freedom into your life as a doctor.

Become a Naval Officer!

One of the best things about being a Medical Officer in the Royal Navy is the freedom it gives you. You can have the responsibility, and the complete clinical control, to practise a wide field of subjects—both the traditional ones and the new sciences, like nuclear, underwater and aviation medicine. You can also study for higher degrees, specialise and even aim for consultant status—all with the full support of the Royal Navy.

What about your pay and prospects? These are good. Your starting salary would be considerably higher than that of a civilian hospital registrar (with marriage and other allowances to add considerably to your income). Moreover, you can add in the varied, active, outdoor life of a naval officer—with its comradeship, world travel and very special status. You enter initially for a Short Service Commission—with the opportunity of a Permanent Commission after 1 year.

3 Ways of Entry

- 1 As a fully registered doctor; any civilian experience counts towards your seniority.
- 2 During your pre-registration year.

- 3 As a student any time after passing 2nd M.B. For fully registered women doctors there is a special Short Service Commission.

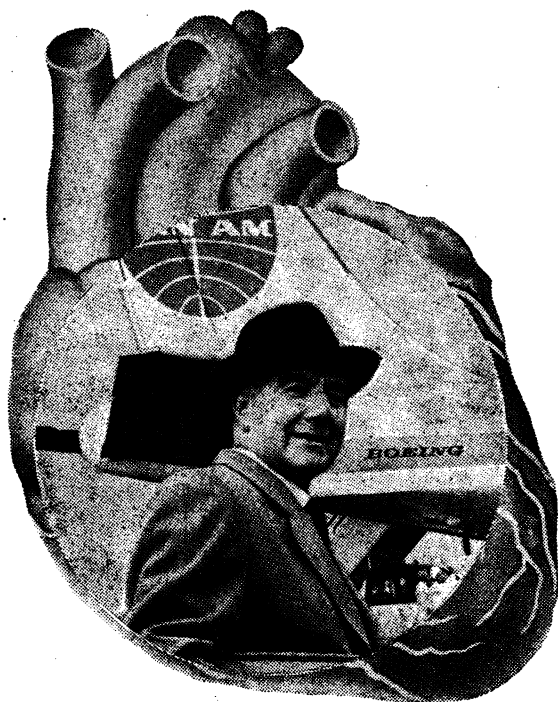

If you would like more information, write to the address below, giving details of your age and qualifications. A personal interview can be arranged if desired.

"In view of the ineffectiveness of most of the tableted antacids, the milk-alkali tablet (Nulacin) would appear to be the antacid of choice for ambulatory therapy."

Med. Times, N.Y., 1958, 1, 74

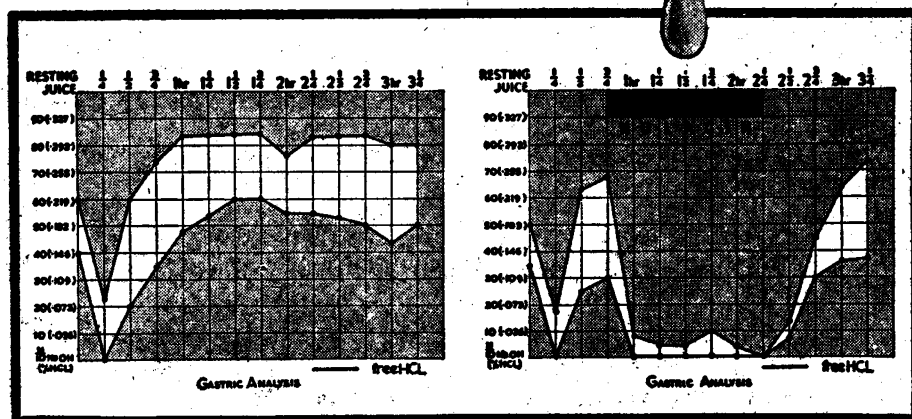

Safe, Simple, Effective

NULACIN TABLETS provide a safe, simple and effective treatment of peptic ulcer.

In treating peptic ulcer a Ryle's tube may be passed through the nose and into the oesophagus and a mixture of milk and antacid allowed to flow continuously over the affected area. This form of therapy can only be employed in those patients who are in bed and for the ambulant patient Nulacin tablets are preferable. Nulacin tablets are prepared from whole milk combined with dextrans and maltose, together with the trisilicate, oxide and carbonate of magnesium and calcium carbonate. Nulacin tablets when allowed to dissolve slowly in the mouth provide milk-alkali drip therapy. In fact, Nulacin tablets have revolutionized the treatment of peptic ulcer.

Is there a bronchial barrier which prevents some of your patients with bronchitis from getting the benefit of the Tetracycline you prescribe?

THE PROBLEM . . .

"Absorption of tetracycline is rather variable from patient to patient."¹

"Tetracyclines are widely used in bronchitis but often give relief rather than elimination of bacterial pathogens."²

. . . AND ITS EFFECTS

Permanent and irreversible lung damage can be prevented by tetracycline PROVIDED IT IS PRESENT IN SUFFICIENT QUANTITIES IN THE SPUTUM TO INHIBIT H. INFLUENZAE.

"The effective sputum level of tetracycline is 0.5 mcg./ml."²

BUT THE BRONCHIAL BARRIER RESTRICTS THE SPUTUM LEVEL.

"The sputum level of tetracycline is 10-30% of the serum level in most patients."²

Since it has also been shown that up to 25% of patients can be poor tetracycline absorbers,³ what happens to those bronchitics who have not achieved adequate serum levels?—they are prevented by the bronchial barrier from producing sputum levels capable of inhibiting H. influenzae.

raise the bronchial barrier by prescribing

the tetracycline that most reliably ensures adequate serum levels even in the poor absorber.

TETREX PROVIDES YOU WITH ALL THESE ADVANTAGES:

Many studies have shown:

Higher average peak blood levels⁴ which in some cases may be double those obtained with tetracycline hydrochloride.

Faster blood levels⁵ ensuring a more rapid onset of therapeutic effect.

Reliability of absorption³, high tolerance, more efficiency and economy, low dosage produces high blood levels.

DOSAGE: 1 G. per day in 4 divided doses of 250 mg.

PRESENTATION bottles of 16, 100 and 1,000.

Pylura ointment provides rapid relief from the pain and discomfort of haemorrhoids

Pylura presents adrenaline and beta-eucaine lactate incorporated in a soft lanolin and petroleum jelly ointment to which phenol has been added to prevent infection and inflammation.

When applied locally, adrenaline causes constriction of blood vessels and is employed for this purpose in the treatment of haemorrhoids, fistulae and other inflammatory conditions of the anus and rectum where, for any reason, surgery is not desirable.

When these conditions are painful the local anaesthetic beta-eucaine lactate has been found extremely effective in alleviating such pain.

Pylura is supplied with a nozzle for easy application of the ointment. Full instructions with every tube.

For asthma and bronchitis

A full antispasmodic effect from fractional dose of ephedrine

TESTS show that 2-Diethylaminoethyl- α -phenylbutyrate Citrate has a more pronounced bronchodilatory effect than ephedrine. Three parts of 2-Diethylaminoethyl- α -phenylbutyrate Citrate producing the same effect as 5 parts of ephedrine. It acts more rapidly than ephedrine, reaches maximum effect somewhat later and falls away at a slightly slower rate. With a mixture of the substances the curve of bronchial dilatation showed that the effect produced was considerably greater than when double the quantity of each substance was administered separately. 4 MG. OF THE MIXED SUBSTANCES (CONTAINING 2 MG. OF EPHEDRINE) HAS THE BRONCHODILATORY EFFECT OF 8 MG. EPHEDRINE. Whilst a full bronchodilatory effect is produced with this mixture, side-effects, such as nausea, restlessness, sweating, etc., due to over-dosage or idiosyncrasy to ephedrine are avoided.

CONTINUOUS RELIEF from bronchospasm
for several hours

Rapid Initial Bronchodilatation: Isoprenaline in the special outer layer is released and absorbed promptly (within 1 minute).

Immediate Sustained Bronchodilatation: A NEW, soluble, lozenge-type core allows an IMMEDIATE start to release of the core ingredients (methylephedrine/theophylline) on swallowing. A steady, even release continues over 50-60 minutes, providing effective bronchodilatation for several hours.

Minimum Side Effects: The use of methylephedrine instead of ephedrine reduces risk of central nervous system stimulation and blood pressure increase. The tablet contains no sedative ingredients.

Psoriasis... rapid response to Alphosyl

... even in previously intractable cases. A patient of 48 who had a generalised psoriasis for 20 years was essentially clear in six weeks.² A girl of 10 with a strong familial history of psoriasis, cleared almost completely after three weeks' application of Alphosyl Cream.² These are just two typical cases from the extensive clinical records underlining Alphosyl's outstanding effectiveness in bringing psoriasis under control.

New Alphosyl lubricating cream. A new water-in-oil dosage form, Alphosyl Lubricating Cream is particularly significant in the treatment of the dry, extremely scaly psoriatic lesion confined to the small site and the intertriginous area. Alphosyl cream is especially helpful in clearing psoriatic plaques exposed to constant friction. By enhancing lubrication of the skin folds, it serves to lessen irritation and facilitate healing. Clearing is prompt, even in previously resistant cases. The effectiveness of Alphosyl in this form is attributable in large measure to its unique cream base. This consists of a combination of saturated and unsaturated free fatty acids, naturally occurring triglycerides and esters that resemble the lipid constituents of normal healthy skin. The vehicle also contains hydrophylic-lipophilic bipolar substances which enhance the moisture uptake and retention of the amphoteric proteins of the stratum corneum. Significantly, it has been shown that squalane, one of the components of the base, is most effective in dissolving a cement substance in psoriatic scales.

Formula: Allantoin 2%+90% alcoholic extract of coal-tar (5=1) 5% in a vanishing type cream base or a smooth, non-greasy lotion base.

THE GENERAL PRACTITIONER RESEARCH GROUP

The Group is an organization of general practitioners undertaking clinical trials of new and established drugs in domiciliary practice. At the present time there are 200 members and all trials are conducted completely independently and according to accepted double-blind principles.

The reports of the Group are published monthly in the Practitioner in the regular series entitled: "General Practitioner Clinical Trials." These reports are shortened versions of much fuller reports which are circulated to the participants in each trial. The authorship of these Practitioner reports is credited to the doctors taking part in each trial, listed alphabetically. These reports have appeared without interruption over the past six years, and in addition, many papers have been read at international conferences in many parts of the world, and in many specialized fields.

The Group is continually in need of new members and any general practitioner who might be interested in participating in this work is invited to write to the Group's Secretary at 325 Staines Road, Twickenham, Middlesex. (H.5687)

Surgery—contd. on p. liv

Before you commit yourself to a practice, work 3 or 5 years in the R.A.F.

You'll do some interesting, out-of-the-rut medicine, see a bit of the world, live well, and 'retire' with up to £3,000, tax free.

Your first job in the R.A.F. would probably be junior M.O. at a Station: rather like being an 'Assistant with a view'. In a typical case you could be one of two doctors with, between you, 1500 to 2500 people to take care of, and your own 'cottage hospital' with wards, theatre and laboratory, and secretarial as well as nursing staff.

You'd have a shorter list than a civilian G.P., and to this extent you would live a less strenuous life. To compensate, you would give much more comprehensive care. It is this—and the variety of your work—that makes practice in the R.A.F. so interesting.

In the R.A.F. you combine several functions. You are in medical care not only of people, but of the environment they live in, and of the work they do. In proportion you do less curative work and more preventive work than is even possible for most civilian doctors.

A lot of people hold the view that this is the way all medicine should be practised—with the closest possible integration of the doctor and the community.

This is the choice you face

Think of two doctors, both aged 40. One went to his practice straight from his teaching hospital, and has been there ever since. The other went into the R.A.F. on a 5-year commission. He lived —and lived well—in the tropics with his family for 2½ years and, on leave or on duty, visited 7 countries: two European, three Asiatic, and two Australasian. By now he's been in civilian practice for 10 years; he's as well established as the other doctor. But which of the two has got more out of life, and has the richer memories to look back upon?

In many ways, the transition from hospital into the R.A.F. seems more 'natural' than the movement to civilian practice. You go from one community to another—and they have much in common: both are young, cheerful, energetic, rather self-contained—and at the same time very professional, with a marked sense of purpose. If you can feel, now, that you are going to miss Medical School—think about the R.A.F. Service life would probably be 'right' for you.

The time for bold decisions is when you are young and free

Today, because you are at the beginning of your career, you can take a short time out from the main stream of civilian practice just by deciding to do it.

Now, you are free to go. In a few years time, you probably won't be.

You'll have a practice 'with your name on it'; children who want a permanent home to strike root in; and soon. It will be time for you to settle down.

Meanwhile, at the parting of the ways, you have this chance. Now is the time to find out about it.

The address to write to is: Wing Commander D. G. M. Hills, O.B.E., M.B., B.S., D.P.H., R.A.F., Ministry of Defence (MAI/HN12/D), 1-6 Tavistock Square, London, W.C.1. Please give your age and qualifications.

Medical cadetships. Commissions as a cadet are available to students who have passed second M.B. (or equivalent). Initially your basic pay would be £630 p.a. COMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTSROCHE*CLINICAL RESEARCH

We have a vacancy for a Medical Officer, to be based on our Clinical Research Department at Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire. Some travelling in this country will be necessary in connection with the duties of the post, which concern the initiation and supervision of clinical trials on the products of Roche research. We are looking for a man who has a good understanding of the pharmacological and biochemical basis of drug action and who would now like to apply his knowledge to the broader aspects of clinical research. A working knowledge of German and some understanding of statistical methods would be additional advantages.

A good starting salary will be negotiated, and is thereafter subject to annual review; there is an exceptional contributory pension scheme, and other conditions of service are also attractive.

Interested medical practitioners should write, in confidence, to the Staff Officer at:

INDUSTRIAL APPOINTMENTS

Attention is drawn to the British Medical Association's statement of policy on the Remuneration of Industrial Medical Officers as approved by the Representative Body, 1963, which is available on request from the Secretary.

GLAXO LABORATORIES LIMITED

will have a vacancy on October 1 for a Part-time

INDUSTRIAL MEDICAL OFFICER

at their factory in Barnard Castle, Co. Durham.

He will be responsible for pre-employment medical examinations, the supervision of the health of all members of staff during working hours and for advising management on matters of hygiene and physical and mental welfare.

The factory, which has some 800 employees, is primarily concerned with the preparation and packing of antibiotics and some of the Company's other pharmaceutical products. Medical work at this factory, therefore, provides the added interest of insight into trends and progress in this industry.

We would like to make this appointment during the summer in order to enable the new Medical Officer to take up his duties on October 1. The starting salary, which will be subject to discussion, will be at least the B.M.A. minimum for Industrial Medical Officers. The hours of work will also be subject to negotiation but would be within the range of 15-20 hours per week.

Attractive conditions of employment are offered which include a Pension Scheme and participation in the Company's profitability.

Applicants, who should be experienced practitioners, not necessarily in Industrial Medicine, should apply to the Personnel Officer, Glaxo Laboratories Ltd., Barnard Castle, Co. Durham. (H.5737)

PRINCE HENRY AND PRINCE OF WALES HOSPITALS
University of New South Wales

ANAESTHETIC SPECIALISTS

Applications are invited to fill four newly created full-time Specialist Anaesthetist posts in the Division of Anaesthesia. Successful applicants will be based on either the Prince Henry or the Prince of Wales Hospital, which are teaching hospitals of the University of New South Wales.

Undergraduate students have reached the final year of the course for the first time this year, and rapid growth in the number of hospitals in association with the development of the medical school, has resulted in the establishment of the presently advertised posts. Undergraduate students are being instructed in the elements of anaesthesia, and an anaesthetic Registrar training programme has been in operation for some years. A clinical sciences block at Prince Henry Hospital provides good facilities for laboratory and animal experimental investigation. Temporary laboratories have been constructed at the Prince of Wales Hospital, where a large rebuilding programme is in progress.

All usual forms of general surgery, including peripheral vascular surgery, are undertaken at the hospital, and the hospital has special units in urological surgery, ophthalmology, ear, nose, and throat surgery, orthopaedic surgery, and plastic surgery. Candidates should also indicate interest or experience in the following fields where special skills are required:

Cardiopulmonary surgery. An active cardiopulmonary surgical unit is located at Prince Henry Hospital, which undertakes all forms of pulmonary, oesophageal, closed and open heart surgery.

Neurosurgery. There is an established neurosurgical unit at Prince Henry Hospital, which works in close association with its counterparts in neurological medicine.

Paediatric surgery. There is a busy Department of Paediatrics, based principally on the Prince of Wales Hospital. Paediatric surgery exists as a separate specialty, and anaesthetic services for a wide range of operative procedures are required.

Intensive care units. A large and well-established Respiratory Unit is located at Prince Henry Hospital, and a more general Intensive Care Unit is nearing completion at the Prince of Wales Hospital.

The present salary range is £A.3,386 to £A.4,336 (£A.6,772 to £A.8,672) per annum according to the qualifications and experience of the successful applicant, but these salaries are presently under review. Further information may be obtained through Professor J. Ludbrook, Director, Department of Surgery, Prince Henry Hospital, Little Bay, N.S.W., Australia. Formal application should be made to the Personnel Officer, Prince Henry Hospital, and should include a full account of the candidate's clinical experience and academic record, together with the names of three referees.—J. R. Clancy, Chief Executive Officer. (10413)
