msd research discovers the diuretics...

...YOU HAVE THE CHOICE

when a plain thiazide is required 'Saluric' and 'HydroSaluric'

In the long-term oral treatment of oedema, 'Saluric' and 'HydroSaluric' hold notable records of effectiveness and reliability. Acting smoothly and predictably, these standard thiazides have been prescribed with confidence in hospital and general practice for a number of years.

when a potassium supplement is indicated
'HydroSaluric'-K

'HydroSaluric'-K provides smooth, predictable diuresis and also a measure of insurance against hypopotassaemia — of particular importance where the diet may be inadequate, or where the patient is on digitalis therapy.

when a more

'Edecrin'
the most recent advance
in diuretic therapy

The most recent discovery is 'Edecrin', representing an entirely new class of oral diuretic. 'Edecrin' often produces a diuresis in patients refractory to all other diuretics, and in some cases has been life-saving.

'In most cases the increased potency of ethacrynic acid ['Edecrin'] was reflected in a response from previously resistant patients or by a better response without troublesome side-effects.' Brit.med.J., 1965, 2, 732 (25 Sep)

and for intravenous use in emergencies
'Lyovac Saluric' and 'Lyovac Edecrin'

Presentations 'Saluric' as tablets containing 0.5 G chlorothiazide BP; 'Lyovac Saluric' in vials containing 0.5 G sterile chlorothiazide (as the sodium salt); 'HydroSaluric' as tablets containing 25 mg and 50 mg hydrochlorothiazide BP; 'HydroSaluric'-K as tablets containing 25 mg hydrochlorothiazide BP and 572 mg potassium chloride; 'Edecrin' as tablets containing 50 mg ethacrynic acid; 'Lyovac Edecrin' in vials containing sodium ethacrylate equivalent to 50 mg ethacrynic acid.

In chronic bronchitis PENBRITIN helps him put up a better fight

By swiftly reducing both the quantity and purulence of the sputum, routine dosage Penbritin brings a rapid clinical response in the majority of patients: moreover clinical trials have shown these benefits to be more marked than those observed in patients on tetracycline therapy. The success of this regimen (250mg. four times daily for one week or more) can be attributed to Penbritin's higher activity against the causative organisms, H. influenzae and pneumococci.

In addition, severely disabled patients, including those with extensive bronchiectasis and cases whose sputum is winter-long purulent despite other antibiotic therapy, may gain unprecedented relief from a short course of high dosage Penbritin. In published trials on this regimen (1 gram four times daily for one week or more) infection was cleared in the majority of patients, and subsequent freedom from exacerbation for up to 16 weeks was reported.

GLYMAXIL Regd. instant buffer antacid

Hyperacidity and peptic ulcer:

AN OUTSTANDINGLY DIFFERENT AND MORE EFFECTIVE TREATMENT

Just two things interest the chronic sufferer. He wants the pain to go, and stay gone. And if both results can be achieved with an antacid that tastes pleasant and is needed in lesser quantity than he's used to, he's going to be very grateful indeed.

Glymaxil, the only soluble buffer antacid, can promise exactly this. In clinical practice Glymaxil has been shown 'significantly more effective' in relieving pain and 'significantly more palatable' than aluminium hydroxide. Glymaxil, the first antacid chelate, acts faster and buffers more acid for longer periods in the ideal pH range 3-5 than other commonly used antacids.

A very agreeable treatment

By suppressing pain promptly Glymaxil gives the nervously-inclined patient a sense of reassurance, itself highly beneficial. Taken in small doses (1-2 teaspoonfuls) and tasting pleasantly of peppermints it is also a most agreeable and convenient liquid antacid—one that will make his symptoms a great deal easier to live with.

Dosage One or two teaspoonfuls as required. Not more than 120ml. (one bottle) of Glymaxil should be consumed in any 24 hour period.

Presentation Bottles of 120ml. containing 40% w/v sodium glucaldrate.

^{British} objective evidence proves that cyclospasmol[®] is also cyclandelate of value in the treatment of cerebrovascular disease

Xenon Inhalation Technique

The atraumatic xenon inhalation technique was used in a pilot study to assess the effect of Cyclospasmol on cerebral cortical perfusion. This double blind trial included nine patients representing a wide spectrum of cerebrovascular disease, each patient acting as his own control.

Cortical clearance rates were estimated independently for both cerebral hemispheres before a single dose of 1.G. Cyclospasmol or placebo, and 4 to 6 hours later.

Analysis of the results showed that Cyclospasmol produced a statistically significant increase of 6.51 ± 1.55 ml. blood per 100 G. brain tissue per minute.

Further details of the trial available on request.

Anaphylline

(THEOPHYLLINE-NIACINAMIDE)

a new theophylline complex for more effective maintenance therapy in mild to moderate cases of

BRONCHITIS-ASTHMA-EMPHYSEMA

Clinical evidence confirms that this new theophylline-niacinamide complex achieves rapid therapeutic blood levels for faster dilation of the bronchioles and substantial improvement in vital capacity in most cases of chronic bronchitis, asthma and emphysema.

Significant Treatment Advantages:

The unique Anaphylline complex is a loose bonding of theophylline and niacinamide which affords a soluble theophylline through all pH ranges. No more ionization of theophylline salts with precipitation of the theophylline in the acid of the stomach. Now direct immediate absorption of the theophylline complex for faster, higher and longer blood levels.

* MORE RAPID ABSORPTION FOR QUICKER PATIENT RESPONSE

Evidence from clinical trials indicates that Anaphylline achieves therapeutic blood levels faster than theophylline salts and within 15 minutes of oral administration.

* MORE PROLONGED BLOOD LEVELS FOR SUSTAINED RELIEF

Rapid, initial blood levels achieved are followed by a steady, sustained rise reaching peak achievement at 60 minutes, with gradual, but uniform decline thereafter.

* SUPERIOR PATIENT TOLERANCE

Achievement of these blood levels is not accompanied by any increase in the side-effects normally associated with theophylline treatment.

INDICATIONS

For use as a bronchodilator to control the symptoms of chronic bronchitis, chronic asthma, emphysema and other pulmonary disorders.

DOSAGE:

Adults 1 to 2 tablets to be taken 3 or 4 times daily, preferably after meals. (Children 6-12 yrs., half to 1 tablet.)

FORMULA

Theophylline-Niacinamide complex containing 100 mg. theophylline and 150 mg. niacinamide in single tablet form.

HOLIDAYS

If you have never been caravanning before—and what a pleasant experience you have missed—but intend to start this year there are several courses of action that you can take. Hire a caravan to tow, rent one on an established camping site, buy a touring caravan to tow behind your own car, or finally buy or hire a motor caravan. Prices of a new caravan range from just over £200 to well over £1,000.

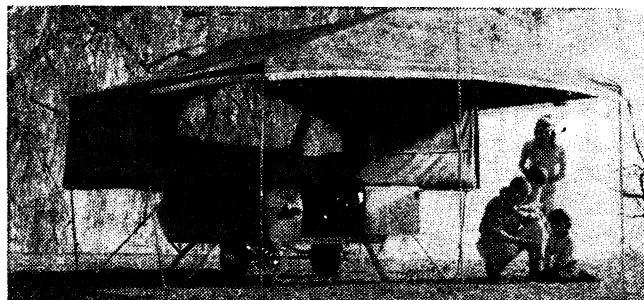

There has been considerable improvement over the last few years in caravan construction, particularly with the provision of enlarged kitchens, better working surfaces and higher quality of fittings generally. This is possibly more apparent in the interiors of some motor caravans where there is now more headroom and better all-round equipment. The amount of room inside some, such as the Auto-Sleeper, is quite surprising—six feet of headroom and accommodation to sleep four adults and two children. If you are buying your own caravan choose a well-known make such as Eccles, Fairholme, Bessacarr, or Thompsons. It is advisable to visit a display ground or showroom where you can see all models and obtain expert advice on the right size to suit your car, the correct towing bracket to be fitted and the many other details that are so necessary for carefree caravanning.

Throughout the British Isles there are hundreds of first-class camping sites with flush sanitation, showers, shops, cafes, and restaurants. The majority also have mains electricity. The sizes of the caravan parks vary considerably; in popular areas particularly in South, South West England, and parts of Wales, the number of caravans can in the height of the season rise to over a hundred. The most popular places are naturally enough those close to the sea and the better the beaches the more numerous are the sites. However, there are many sites throughout the country, particularly in the North of England, Scotland and Ireland which are by no means congested and are in beautiful positions.

One aspect of holidays on wheels that is likely to increase in popularity in this country with those who prefer more of a camping holiday than a caravanning one is the camping trailer. This looks like a large low box on wheels but opens up in a fascinating manner to unfold a tent with room for beds on a floor off the ground. The living accommodation is provided by an awning. It is extremely easy to erect and touring is simplified by the light weight and unobstructed visibility through the rear window of the car.

The currency restrictions this year will encourage more people to take their caravan or trailer on to the Continent. The French in particular are exceptionally camping conscious and as a result the country is well developed and organized. In Normandy alone there are 160 sites in category I, all with toilets, shops, and restaurants. Brittany has over 400 accredited sites and the Loire Valley and Atlantic coast something in the region of 350. There is also an association called Castels et Camping Caravanning which offers sites of a high standard in many private estates and the grounds of historic homes. Very useful leaflets describing these areas can be obtained from the French Government Tourist Office, 178 Piccadilly, W.1, together with lists of camping sites.

COMPOSITION

Ferrous gluconate	300 mg.
Folic acid	350 mcg.

DOSE

ONE TABLET DAILY THROUGHOUT PREGNANCY

It is now known beyond doubt that megaloblastic anaemia of pregnancy is caused by deficiency of folic acid.

From the very excellent results obtained over the years by the prophylactic use of folic acid and iron given orally from the beginning of pregnancy it is becoming more and more generally accepted that anaemia of pregnancy can be prevented. The question of the optimum dose of folic acid has not been easy to establish but recent work* suggests that not less than 300 mcg. and not more than 400 mcg. daily can be considered adequate.

In the light of this knowledge Folex-350 containing 350 mcg. of folic acid and 300 mg. of ferrous gluconate has been introduced.

ERYTHROCIN® works. It will deal decisively with the four organisms that cause most common bacterial infections met with in everyday practice—streptococcus, staphylococcus, pneumococcus and H. influenzae. Against the 'cocci' in particular its potency is considerably greater than that of the tetracyclines or chloramphenicol.

ERYTHROCIN POWER PLUS

ERYTHROCIN works safely.

It is the least toxic, the least allergenic antibiotic currently in common use. This telling fusion of power with exceptional safety makes ERYTHROCIN a logical first choice for general use in the treatment of common bacterial infections.

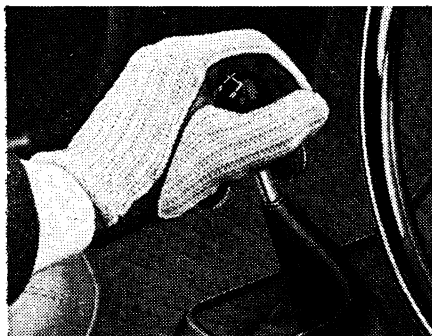

Erythrocine® (Erythromycin stearate BP) is available as 250 mg. and 100 mg. Filmtabs® and 100 mg. per 5ml Suspension.

pain

Distalgesic erases pain

Two tablets of Distalgesic taken three or four times daily bring prompt and lasting relief in pain of varying degrees. Distalgesic is effective for the aches and pains of arthritis and rheumatism where prolonged medication is necessary; in pain which recurs intermittently and in the acute pain of injury. In severe pain, Distalgesic can often delay the need for parenteral narcotics. It is non-narcotic, does not cause constipation, addiction or gastric bleeding.

Distalgesic tablets—specially shaped for ease of swallowing and identification—each contain 32.5 mg dextro-propoxyphene hydrochloride, authoritatively described as the most promising alternative to codeine, and 325 mg paracetamol, generally regarded as the safest of the antipyretic analgesics.

New Betnovate Scalp Application unique among topical steroid preparations

New Betnovate Scalp Application reaches lesions completely bypassing the hair

"Most of them (the patients) thought the steroid lotion (Betnovate Scalp Application) superior to any previous treatment in that it was clinically more effective and cosmetically more acceptable."

This statement, which refers to a recent clinical trial, indicates that the need for a suitable preparation for treating steroid-responsive dermatoses of the scalp has now been successfully met with new Betnovate Scalp Application. This cosmetically appealing preparation which was designed specifically for the scalp contains 0.1% betamethasone as 17-valerate in a slightly gelled alcoholic solution and has exactly the right viscosity to spread easily and evenly, and to make proper contact with the lesion without dripping and without adhering to the hair. There is no odour or any visible residue on drying. The quick drying action of the spirituous vehicle produces a pleasant cooling effect accompanied by the striking anti-inflammatory and anti-pruritic action of Betnovate. Twice daily applications (morning and night) rapidly clear steroid-responsive dermatoses of the scalp such as psoriasis and seborrhoea capitis. This new Betnovate preparation, which comes in a handy 30 gram plastic squeeze bottle with a long nozzle, is easily applied without disturbing the hair; abundance of hair in no way affects its effective use. Women patients who have hitherto been reluctant to use other preparations for fear of their hair becoming greasy or their set being ruined during application will find Betnovate Scalp Application not only cosmetically acceptable but also the ideally effective preparation.

New evidence recommends hydroxocobalamin (Neo-Cytamen) in B₁₂ deficiency

Neo-Cytamen (hydroxocobalamin) is the specific, most efficient and most economical treatment for pernicious anaemia. Hydroxocobalamin is more slowly absorbed from the injection site than cyanocobalamin¹ and the degree of protein binding of hydroxocobalamin is three times greater²; it is therefore better retained. This was confirmed by recent clinical studies of the treatment of pernicious anaemia in which it was found that higher and more persistent serum B₁₂ levels were obtained with hydroxocobalamin than with cyanocobalamin³. These studies also showed that because hydroxocobalamin was better retained, satisfactory maintenance therapy was possible with injections (1000 micrograms) given at two-monthly intervals. The results of a subsequent clinical study⁴ suggested that the interval between maintenance injections could often be safely extended to three months with satisfactory results.

"From both biological and therapeutic aspect, hydroxocobalamin is preferable to cyanocobalamin and should therefore become the standard preparation for the treatment of vitamin B₁₂ deficiency."³

Antenatal protection against megaloblastic and iron-deficiency anaemias for less than 2/8d per month

The routine use of supplementary iron and physiological doses of folic acid throughout pregnancy is now widely accepted as the best way of preventing iron-deficiency and megaloblastic anaemias. However, during such routine treatment two separate oral preparations are often employed, increasing the costs and requiring the patient to take several tablets a day. Pregamal, containing folic acid and iron, offers economy in both cost (100 tablets 2/8*) and dosage (one to three tablets a day). The folic acid content in Pregamal (100 micrograms) is considered to give adequate protection without obscuring the blood picture of the occasional case of Addisonian pernicious anaemia. The iron as ferrous fumarate (ferrous iron 65 mg per tablet) is well tolerated, well absorbed and well utilised. Pregamal, all through pregnancy, provides combined protection against megaloblastic anaemia and iron-deficiency anaemia—for less than 2/8 per month.

Long-term management of the elderly hypertensive— with safe potassium supplement

In long-term diuretic/anti-hypertensive treatment the dangers of gastric irritation or small bowel ulceration following potassium supplements are well known. One way of avoiding these dangers is to ensure that the potassium supplement is released very slowly in the small intestine without reaching high concentrations at any time. Glaxo Neo-NaClex-K, the two-tier tablet, is designed to do just this. Soon after the tablet is swallowed the white tier provides the diuretic/anti-hypertensive dose (2.5 mg bendrofluazide) for smooth, sustained reduction of blood pressure. The second (pink) tier then releases the potassium supplement (630 mg potassium chloride) very slowly so that no great concentration of potassium is reached at one time. The smooth action of bendrofluazide and the slow release of potassium of Neo-NaClex-K makes long-term management of the hypertensive, especially the elderly hypertensive, safer and easier.

Complan —the complete meal in a cup

For patients who cannot tolerate solid foods in illness and convalescence Complan, prepared as a pleasant drink, provides all the nourishment they need. Complan contains every essential constituent of the human diet, balanced for complete nutrition and blended for easy assimilation. Preparing Complan is so simple; it takes only a few minutes. This is why, during winter, Complan is most useful in providing excellent nourishment for the elderly—especially those living alone. As it is a food, Complan is not prescribable on EC10. However, as the cost is only 5/- (recommended price) per 1 lb carton you can recommend Complan without hesitation—as a complete planned diet or as a nutritious dietary supplement. What else that is so good costs so little?

Economical Fersamal —the type of oral iron supported by new evidence

Recently the merits of various iron preparations in the treatment of uncomplicated though severe iron-deficiency anaemias were discussed in an article¹ with special reference to two studies^{2,3} published not long ago. It was concluded that simple iron salts, given orally in divided doses, providing 180 to 220 mg of ferrous iron per day, were completely effective and that there was no therapeutic advantage to be gained from using complex and expensive oral iron preparations. Fersamal offers a simple and effective oral iron therapy that is not only economical but also highly acceptable to patients. Fersamal (Tablets and Syrup) contains ferrous fumarate, an extremely well-tolerated iron salt with a very low incidence of gastric or intestinal disturbances, even among patients intolerant of other iron preparations. The tablets (each containing 65 mg ferrous iron) are small, easy to swallow and are palatable enough to be chewed if preferred. The syrup (each 5 ml containing 45 mg ferrous iron) has a delightful fruit flavour which appeals especially to children. In practice these advantages secure the co-operation of patients and ensure effective therapy.

A doctor's life with a difference can be found in the ROYAL ARMY MEDICAL CORPS

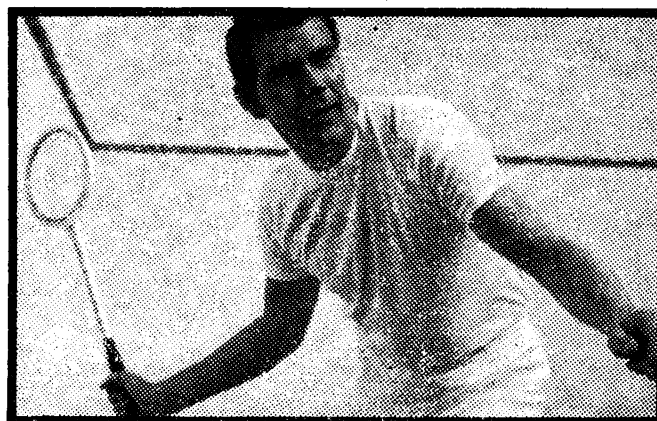

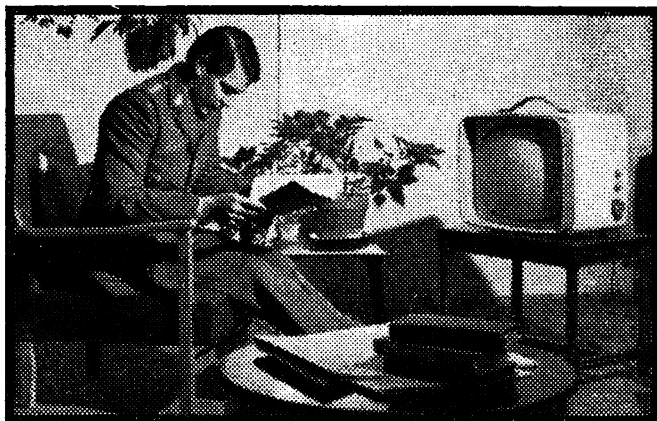

Excellent opportunities are provided for general practice under good conditions of service. The professional opportunities are very wide and varied and include caring for the wives and children of soldiers.

All aspects of medical care—preventive medicine, general and hospital practice are closely integrated. Surgeries are organised by groups and groups are supported by hospitals so that Medical Officers are able to follow up those of their patients admitted to hospital. These modern surgeries have every facility. Good equipment, trained staff, and a locum provided for six weeks' annual leave. Post-graduate training is given.

For the married man it matters greatly how his wife feels about the Service. The community spirit of Army life, especially overseas, embraces an Officer's family as much as himself. Such extra emoluments as Marriage Allowance, Education Allowance, Disturbance Allowance, and Local Overseas Allowance, show the importance attached by the Army to helping the Officer with a family. Most married Medical Officers get a furnished house at low rental.

Pay for a married Captain (the rank on entry) is over £2000. There are increases every two years and on promotion. Promotion to Major can normally be expected after 5 years and to Lieut-Colonel after 13 years (or shorter, where an antedate is given for experience in hospitals and general practice). Commissions granted may be permanent or Short Service. A Short Service commission earns a tax-free gratuity of £3000 for 5 years' service, £1500 for 3 years. Regular commissions are pensionable on the normal basis.

BROXIL Regd.

would be my choice in routine penicillin therapy

BECAUSE of its Excellent Clinical Results

There are over 400 published references to Broxil in world literature. These confirm its success in infections such as tonsillitis, pharyngitis, otitis media, boils and carbuncles, which in an overwhelming proportion of cases are caused by Gram-positive organisms (staphylococci, streptococci and pneumococci).

BECAUSE of its Specific Activity

Broxil is highly bactericidal to the majority of these organisms, destroying them without disrupting the normal intestinal flora.

BECAUSE of its High Blood Levels

Broxil gives blood levels double those achieved by penicillin V and at least as high as intramuscular injections of penicillin G.

BECAUSE in its syrup form, it is particularly suitable for children

Broxil is readily accepted and tolerated by children, and side effects are minimal.

Availability: 125 and 250 mg. tablets and capsules. 60 ml. syrup (125 mg./5 ml.)

Dosage: Children : 62.5–125 mg. every 4–6 hours. Adults : 125–250 mg. every 4–6 hours.

Prophylactic Dose: Adults : 125 mg. twice daily. Children : 62.5–125 mg. twice daily.

BROXIL (phenethicillin potassium B.P.) is a product of British research at Beecham Research Laboratories, Brentford, England.

TRAINING POSTS IN MEDICAL ADMINISTRATION

Three training posts in whole-time medical administration in the Scottish Hospital Service are offered in 1967 for registered medical practitioners. Medical administration is concerned with the use and development of medical skills and resources, and the work ranges from medical management of these resources at hospital level to the planning and management of regional services and association with the provision for medical teaching. A career in this field offers the opportunity of using epidemiological methods in studying medical needs, of carrying out operational research into the workings of health services, and of applying the findings in improving the effectiveness of health services.

A three-year training programme has been planned. One year will be spent attending a full-time university course leading to a postgraduate diploma and two years in supervised practical training. Commencing salary ranging from £2,105 (at age 29) to £2,335 (at age 33 or over); annual increments thereafter. University fees will also be met and other allowances in respect of travelling and subsistence are payable.

A memorandum of information and an application form may be obtained from the Secretary, Administrative Medical Staff Training Committee, Woodburn House, Canaan Lane, Edinburgh 10. The closing date for receipt of applications, on the prescribed form, is March 28, 1967. (H.4430)

GOVERNMENTAL—see also p. lviDEPUTY MEDICAL ADVISER
MINISTRY OF OVERSEAS DEVELOPMENT

Applications for this post are invited from candidates aged at least 45.

The Deputy Medical Adviser will be based at the Ministry's Headquarters in London, but his duties will involve travel overseas. He will advise on the technical and professional merits of plans and projects for medical development, assist in the recruitment and training of professional and technical medical staff for service overseas, and advise on the training of overseas medical staff in the United Kingdom. The work will involve liaison with professional bodies, universities, and research institutions. He may also represent Her Majesty's Government at international and other conferences.

Candidates must be registered medical practitioners. They must have had considerable medical service overseas, and should normally have had responsibility in a senior post for organizing and directing the medical services in a developing country.

The successful candidate will be asked to take up duty in mid-1967. SALARY: £4,585. Non-contributory pension.

WRITE to Civil Service Commission, Savile Row, London W.1, for application form, quoting 6604/67. Closing date March 17, 1967. (13480)

Applications are invited from registered Medical Practitioners for the post of Medical Officer with this Company.

The Company has an extensive medical and industrial hygiene programme, and the successful applicant will be based in London, although some travelling will be required.

The applicants should have a good clinical background in general medicine, and preferably possess the M.R.C.P. or its equivalent. They should also have a career interest in occupational health.

The commencing salary will be in accordance with the B.M.A. recommended scale for Medical Officers or Senior Medical Officers, according to the qualifications and experience of the successful candidate.

Applications giving details of age, education and experience should be sent to the Chief Medical Officer,
Esso Petroleum Company Ltd.,
Esso House, Victoria Street, London, S.W.1.

MEDICAL OFFICER

Applications are invited from male registered medical practitioners for the post of full time MEDICAL OFFICER to the Chemical Plant and Equipment Division Factories of The British Oxygen Company in North London. The successful applicant will be based at Edmonton.

This is a new appointment, and candidates should have a good clinical background and an interest in industrial medicine. The commencing salary will depend on qualifications and experience, and will be within the B.M.A. recommended scale.

Applications should be sent with brief details of education, experience and age to the Chief Executive,

Personnel Division,
BRITISH OXYGEN COMPANY LIMITED,
Hammersmith House, London, W.6. (23741)

GOVERNMENTAL—see also p. lv.ROYAL NAVAL PHYSIOLOGICAL LABORATORY*SUPERINTENDENT*(£3500 to £4000)

The R.N.P.L. at Alverstoke, Gosport (Hants) has established a leading position in the fields of diving physiology, submarine escape and underwater blast: future work will most probably include investigations of fatigue and stress, improved living conditions in ships and submarines, occupational hazards, etc. The present staff totals 50 and includes scientific, medical and experimental personnel.

The Superintendent is responsible for running the establishment and maintaining efficient and modern facilities so as to ensure the successful progress of the approved programme of research. He will play a large part in formulating this programme as a member of the R.N. Personnel Research Committee, and will maintain close liaison with other Defence and national organizations concerned with this and associated fields of research. Much of the scientific work, being unclassified, may be used as a basis for published papers.

Candidates should normally have obtained a first or second class honours degree in physiology or one including physiology as a main subject, but evidence of high professional attainment could be accepted in place of such a degree. A medical qualification is very desirable but not essential. A live interest in physiological research work is imperative and must be backed by experience in research and the management of a research team.

There are no age limits but the successful candidate is likely to be at least 35. Starting salary could be above the minimum of the scale £3,500 to £4,000. Non-contributory pension scheme.

Fuller details of this appointment may be obtained, without obligation, by writing to the Civil Service Commission, 23 Savile Row, London W.1, quoting S/6615/AM. Closing date March 16, 1967. (13441)

THE N.S.W. INSTITUTE OF PSYCHIATRYVACANCY FOR RESEARCH FELLOW

A Research Fellowship of the Institute of Psychiatry of New South Wales is offered for two years to the successful applicant for the position of research psychiatrist to "The Human Ecology of the Arid Zone" project. This research project will begin on April 1, 1967, and affords an opportunity to establish the first psychiatric epidemiology of the sparsely populated regions of Australia and to determine the modifications of psychiatric services needed for such regions.

The applicant should be a registered medical practitioner and possess a qualification in psychiatry. It is expected that his work in this project will provide an adequate basis for an M.D. thesis.

A town in the mid-west of New South Wales has been chosen as a base, and the surrounding area with a 250-mile radius as the region to be studied. This includes pastoral properties, a mining industry and an aboriginal population. Funds are available for transport by car and by light aircraft, and for regular visits to Sydney for consultation. A house is available at a nominal rental.

The research psychiatrist will work in collaboration with the social psychologist already appointed, with the general practitioners of the area and with the Directors of the project, Professor L. G. Kiloh, Professor D. C. Maddison, Professor J. E. Cawte, and Dr. Barclay, each of whom will visit the project to direct specific aspects.

This is a challenging opportunity to carry out psychiatric research, to work towards a higher degree and to obtain unique experience in a field of vital importance for the development of health services in Australia.

The successful applicant will be entitled to a grant at the rate of $A7,900 per annum. Further details may be obtained from Dr. W. A. Barclay, Director, N.S.W. State Psychiatric Services, 52 Bridge Street, Sydney. Applications, which should be addressed to Professor J. E. Cawte, School of Psychiatry, University of New South Wales, Prince Henry Hospital, Little Bay, N.S.W., Australia, will close on February 28, 1967. (H.3211)

Nulacin and only Nulacin provides intragastric milk-alkali drip therapy for the ambulant patient

“In view of the ineffectiveness of most of the tableted antacids, the milk-alkali tablet (Nulacin) would appear to be the antacid of choice for ambulatory therapy.”

Safe, Simple, Effective

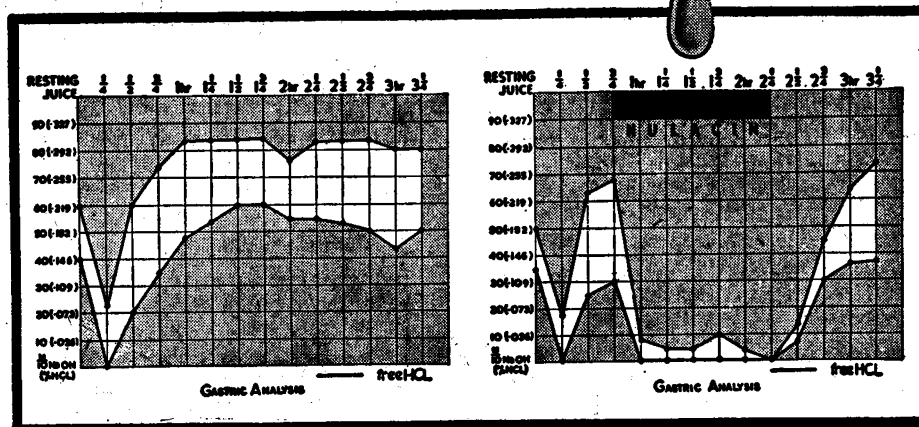

NULACIN TABLETS provide a safe, simple and effective treatment of peptic ulcer.

In treating peptic ulcer a Ryle's tube may be passed through the nose and into the oesophagus and a mixture of milk and antacid allowed to flow continuously over the affected area. This form of therapy can only be employed in those patients who are in bed and for the ambulant patient Nulacin tablets are preferable. Nulacin tablets are prepared from whole milk combined with dextrans and maltose, together with the trisilicate, oxide and carbonate of magnesium and calcium carbonate. Nulacin tablets when allowed to dissolve slowly in the mouth provide milk-alkali drip therapy. In fact, Nulacin tablets have revolutionized the treatment of peptic ulcer.
