

SYSTEMIC PATHOLOGY

edited by

G Payling Wright

and

W St C Symmers

An authoritative, contemporary account of human pathology, presented system by system in the form of a series of integrated chapters, each of which is a monograph on part or the whole of one of the body systems. The structural and functional changes that are the essential manifestations of disease are discussed in detail, and careful consideration is given to the effects of the diseases of each system on the organs and tissues of the other systems of the body. While the account of the pathology of each system is complete in itself, each chapter is appropriately cross-referenced to the others throughout the book.

The approach to the subject is comprehensive, but with particular attention to the practical aspects that have most bearing on the diagnosis and treatment of disease as seen in clinic, ward, operating theatre and laboratory. In keeping with this practical approach, aetiology and pathogenesis are discussed not only in terms of causation but also in relation to the prevention of disease.

Forty-one chapters have been contributed by twenty-eight practising pathologists, each a specialist in the field of his contribution and an experienced teacher of medical students and postgraduates.

COLOMYCIN

Clinical reports on COLOMYCIN clearly show its outstanding value in the treatment of Gram-negative urinary and other systemic infections (with the exception of proteus), particularly those cases which have been found resistant to antibiotics in current use. COLOMYCIN is well tolerated and the development of resistant organisms is not a problem. The use of COLOMYCIN as a bactericidal antibiotic has been recognised by its inclusion in the 1966 Addendum to the British Pharmacopoeia.

Injections—parenteral Colistin Sulphomethate Sodium B. P. for urinary tract and other systemic infections.

INDOCID®

Indomethacin

- relief of pain
- relief of stiffness
- increased mobility
- reduction in the need for other anti-arthritis agents, for example
steroids
- suitable for long-term
use

"It is clear from reported clinical experience that indomethacin is a powerful compound, capable of giving relief of symptoms and reduction of inflammatory signs in several rheumatic disorders."

Brit.med.J., 1966, 1, 80 (8 Jan)

'Indocid' in soft tissue lesions

In acute musculoskeletal disorders such as bursitis, tendinitis, synovitis, and capsulitis of the shoulder, 'Indocid' rapidly decreases pain and increases mobility. A recent British double-blind study demonstrated that the majority of patients with capsulitis of the shoulder ('the painful stiff shoulder syndrome') showed both objective and subjective improvement within one week.

"The charts show that indomethacin was found to be significantly better than placebo for all four* of the criteria measured."

International Symposium on Recent Developments in Non-steroidal Anti-rheumatic Therapy, Turin, 8-9 June, 1965, Ed. Minerva Medica, 1965, p.73.

*Pain, restriction of movement, internal rotation, and abduction.

'Indocid' and corticosteroids in arthritic disorders

In many cases where corticosteroids are being used the introduction of 'Indocid' may eliminate the need for steroids or permit a reduction in their dosage.

"Dosage of corticosteroids can quite frequently be reduced under cover of indomethacin; the effect of the two drugs appears to be simply additive." Brit.med.J., 1964, 2, 429 (15 Aug)

The use of 'Indocid' may avoid or postpone the necessity for steroid therapy.

"During the two and a half years that indomethacin has been available to us it is of relevance to note that only three patients with rheumatoid arthritis have been started on long-term corticosteroid therapy or A.C.T.H. The fact that a non-steroid anti-inflammatory agent is now available may well make a profound difference to the present use of corticosteroids in this condition." Brit.med.J., 1965, 2, 1281 (27 Nov) a new anti-emetic

from Beecham Research Laboratories

Maxolon

Maxolon is an effective anti-emetic against vomiting of central or local origin.

Maxolon may be given orally or by injection.

Maxolon does not have undesirable effects on the Central Nervous System, and gastric and salivary secretions are unaffected.

Indications:

Nausea and vomiting due to:

Gastro-intestinal disorders.

Intolerance to essential drugs.

Malignant disease.

Uraemic conditions.

Post-operative conditions.

Deep X-ray or Cobalt therapy.

N.B. Maxolon is not so effective in vomiting of labyrinthine origin such as travel sickness, vertigo and Ménière's disease.

Formula: Maxolon (approved name metoclopramide) is chemically N-(diethylaminoethyl)-2-methoxy-4-amino-5-chlorobenzamide monohydrochloride. This new compound is in no way similar to existing medicaments in gastro-enterology.

Contra-indications: Although animal tests in several mammalian species have shown no teratogenic effects, Maxolon, like all new drugs, is not recommended during the early weeks of pregnancy.

Adult dosage:

Oral: 1 tablet (10mg.) or two teaspoonfuls (10mg.) of syrup, three times daily.

I.M.: 1-3 ampoules (10-30mg.) daily depending upon the severity of the condition.

I.V.: 1 ampoule (10mg.) when required.

Information on other dosages is available on request from the Company's Medical Department.

Possible side-effects: Constipation may occur in a small percentage of patients. Symptoms of overdose are drowsiness and restlessness of the limbs.

Precaution: As both Maxolon and the phenothiazines may occasionally cause benign transient dystonia, care should be exercised in the event of both drugs being prescribed concurrently.

Availability:

 Tablets: containing 10mg. metoclopramide, in canisters of 20.

Syrup: containing 5mg. metoclopramide in 5ml., in bottles of 100ml.

Ampoules for injection: 2ml. ampoules containing 10mg. metoclopramide, in boxes of 10.

instant buffer antacid

Hyperacidity and peptic ulcer:

AN OUTSTANDINGLY DIFFERENT AND MORE EFFECTIVE TREATMENT

Just two things interest the chronic sufferer. He wants the pain to go, and stay gone. And if both results can be achieved with an antacid that tastes pleasant and is needed in lesser quantity than he's used to, he's going to be very grateful indeed.

Glymaxil, the only soluble buffer antacid, can promise exactly this. In clinical practice Glymaxil has been shown 'significantly more effective' in relieving pain and 'significantly more palatable' than aluminium hydroxide. Glymaxil, the first antacid chelate, acts faster and buffers more acid for longer periods in the ideal pH range 3-5 than other commonly used antacids.

A very agreeable treatment

By suppressing pain promptly Glymaxil gives the patient a sense of reassurance, itself highly beneficial. Taken in small doses (1-2 teaspoonfuls) and tasting pleasantly of peppermint, it is also a most agreeable and convenient liquid antacid—one that will make his symptoms a great deal easier to live with.

Dosage One or two teaspoonfuls as required. Not more than 120ml. (one bottle) of Glymaxil should be consumed in any 24 hour period.

Presentation Bottles of 120ml. containing 40% w/v sodium glucaldrate.

A NEW ORAL MEDICATIONA SAFE AND EFFECTIVE TOPICAL PREPARATION WITH IMMEDIATE ANALGESIC PROPERTIES

Bonjela provides an effective remedy for lesions of the mouth. Relief from pain and rapid healing are achieved in nine out of ten cases of oral ulceration whatever the origin.

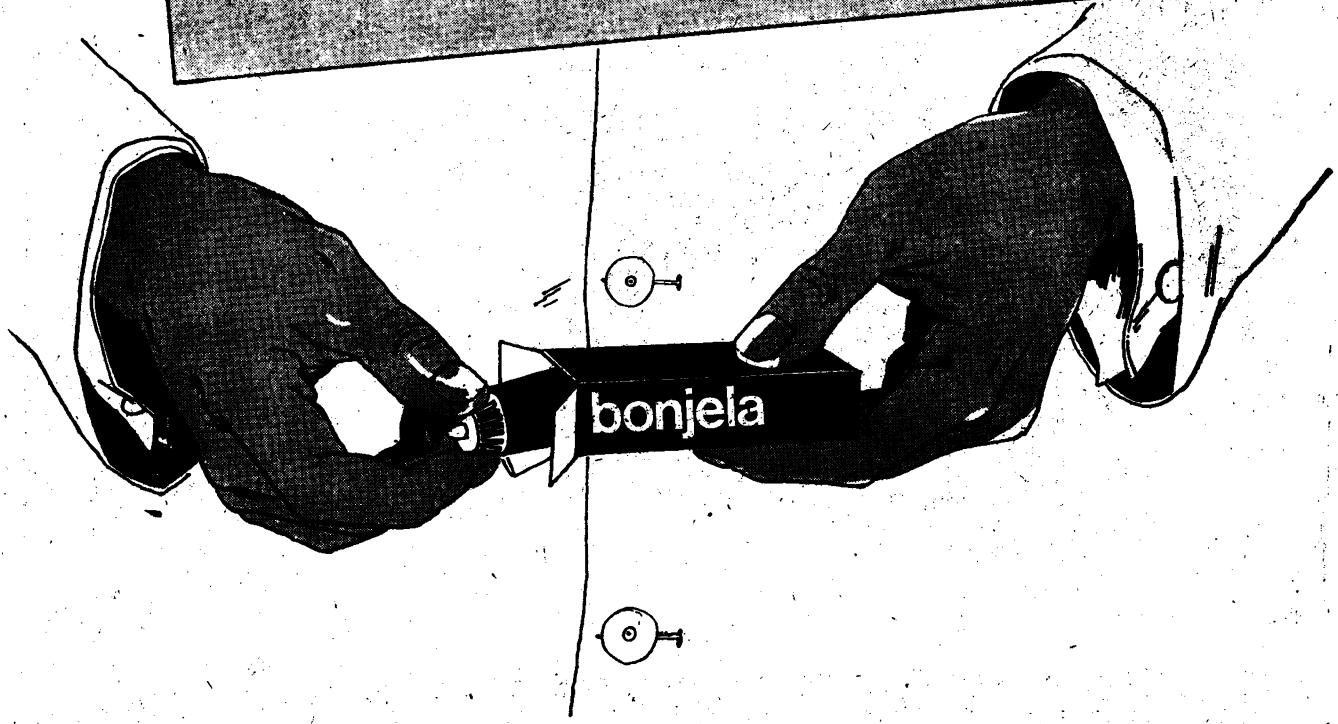

This high rate of response to Bonjela was revealed in American trials. Formal trials apart, an immediate clinical assessment may be made by applying Bonjela to any case of oral ulceration encountered. Pain or tenderness is usually relieved within a few minutes owing to the analgesic properties of choline salicylate and the anaesthetizing action of the alcoholic gel.

FORMULA: Choline Salicylate 8.7%, Cetylalkonium Chloride 0.01%, Alc. (95%) 39.9%, Menthol 0.057%, Glycerin 4.6%.

INDICATIONS are Herpes Labialis, Gingivitis, Glossitis, Oral Ulcerations, Cheilitis, Denture Sores, Infant Teething Disorders, Lesions of the Nasal Mucosa.

PRESENTATION: Bonjela is available in 10 g. tubes at a basic N.H.S. cost of 2/8d. per tube.

THE MOST EXPEDIENT ASPIRIN THERAPY FOR PAIN, FEBRILE AND RHEUMATIC CONDITIONS

What makes this antibiotic so valuable to the hospital physician?

Spectrum?

Exceptionally broad. It covers most gram-positive organisms — including the penicillin-resistant staphylococci — and many gram-negative organisms.

Action?

Intensely bactericidal. It gives a rapid kill of bacteria at or near the minimum inhibitory concentration.

Safety?

Wide clinical usage has confirmed the laboratory evidence of Ceporin's low toxicity — a particularly valuable attribute in the treatment of the very young or the very old — and it is usually well tolerated by patients allergic to penicillin.

This combination of attributes is invaluable in many situations where other antibiotics — including penicillin — might prove ineffective or dangerous. A recent analysis of results from over 2000 cases has shown high success rates in a wide variety of infections — including urinary and respiratory tract infections, septicaemias and soft tissue infections. Many reports mention the rapid clinical response obtained with Ceporin after other antibiotics had failed.

Presentation

Ceporin is issued in vials containing 250 mg, 500 mg and 1 gram of cephaloridine, packed singly and in boxes of five.

'Ilosone' excels as a first-line treatment for acute upper respiratory tract and bronchopulmonary infections of bacterial origin.

'Ilosone' is effective against a wide range of infections, but it is much more active than the tetracyclines against Gram-positive cocci - by far the commonest pathogens of the respiratory tract. Unlike the tetracyclines, however, 'Ilosone' has extremely low toxicity, virtually no sensitising potential - and it has negligible effect on the normal bacteria of the gut.

By selecting 'Ilosone' as your first-line treatment you ensure a rapid response in most cases - with much less risk of complications.

...Medihaler-iso Forte gives relief in seconds

Fast profound relief of bronchospasm is within reach of the patient with Medihaler-iso Forte—in bronchitis as in asthma. Two recent reports have confirmed its exceptional speed and degree of relief. In one trial¹, Medihaler-iso Forte gave faster and greater relief than the two other pocket aerosols with which it was compared: at 3 to 5 minutes after inhalation Medihaler-iso Forte produced an average improvement in peak expiratory flow rate of 47 per cent, 18 per cent higher than the next best preparation. In the second trial² it was the fastest-acting of six pocket aerosols. In yet another trial³ a single inhalation from Medihaler-iso Forte had greater effect than 5 mg. of isoprenaline inhaled over three minutes from an oxygen-powered nebuliser.

These reports confirm that fast profound relief of bronchospasm is within reach of the patient with Medihaler-iso Forte. In the acute attack it is a most effective and convenient treatment. For the less severe case, relief can often be obtained from the smaller dose delivered by Medihaler-iso.

And now Exolan Cream in response to the needs of the ambulant patient in the treatment of psoriasis

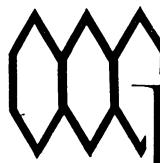

New Exolan Cream has been prepared in a cosmetically acceptable vanishing cream base, and is ideal for the treatment of psoriasis of the scalp. In general cases of psoriasis it may also be prescribed for the ambulant patient who prefers to use a cream formulation.

In the treatment of psoriasis, triacetoxyanthracene has been shown to exhibit the healing properties of dithranol while displaying none of the side effects of burning or staining the skin. It therefore may be used by the patient in his own home without fear that any harm will result if it accidentally comes into contact with normal skin.

After examining various formulations of triacetoxyanthracene the most clinically effective was found to be the one which corresponds to EXOLAN PASTE. This preparation is similar in constitution to the dithranol/Lassars Paste combination which has been recommended by Consultant Dermatologists for many years.

Unfortunately some patients do not like applying pastes, especially during the day time. Also their use is precluded on the scalp and other hairy regions of the body. EXOLAN CREAM has therefore been formulated for use in these cases and contains 1% triacetoxyanthracene in a vanishing cream base.

Women at risk

'... The highest infection rate was in women of childbearing age, particularly between twenty and twenty-nine.'

Lancet, (1962), ii, 1246

In young adult women, urinary tract infections such as 'honeymoon cystitis' or 'pyelitis of pregnancy' may often be acute episodes in an infection which has smouldered sub-clinically since childhood, perhaps following inadequate symptomatic treatment. Whether the infection is new or old, and however apparently mild, eradication of the infecting organisms is essential to reduce the risk of chronic renal disease in later life.

MEDICAL ENGINEERING AND AUTOMATION

Exhibition

Sponsored by the U.K. Electronic Engineering Association & The Scientific Instrument Manufacturers' Association of Great Britain

EARLS COURT LONDON 13-17 MARCH '67

THE MEDICO-ENGINEERING REVOLUTION The whole vista of medicine and surgery is changing under the impact of new electronic and engineering techniques. The most "personal" of all the professions now demands of its practitioners even wider knowledge and experience. MEDEA '67 offers the most encyclopaedic survey yet presented of the new developments which are bringing about a medical revolution. The exhibition covers every phase of new engineering principles shown by some of the most famous scientific and engineering firms in the world, ranging from equipment for diagnosis and treatment, through the latest myographic and bioengineering apparatus, to the use of computers in fields as different as the study of epidemiology and the management of hospitals.

MEDEA '67 presents not only everything that is new in medical engineering but gives a glimpse of the future. Research institutes, hospitals, universities and government departments have been invited to demonstrate techniques which are still under development.

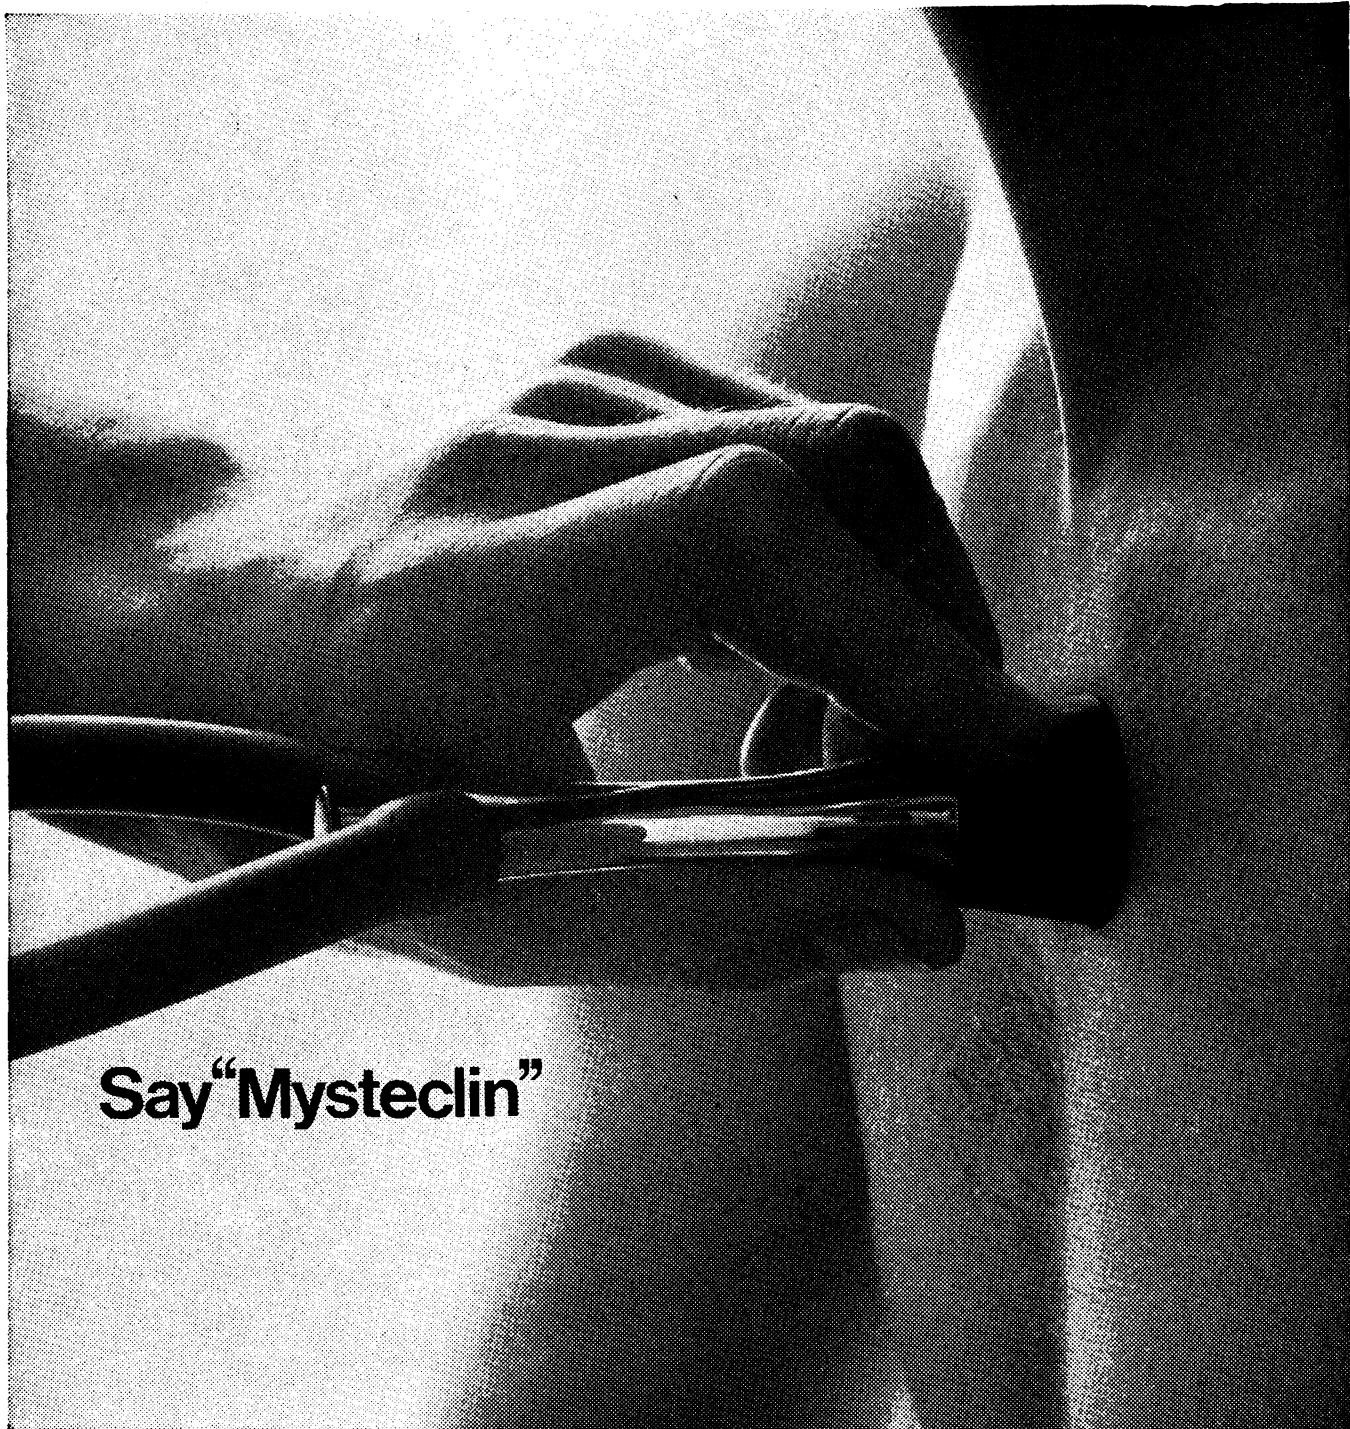

The international aspect of MEDEA '67 is emphasised by the world interest shown in the technical and medical symposium held in conjunction with the exhibition.

Times: 10 a.m.—6 p.m. daily except Thursday 16th when open until 9 p.m.

Why pay the cost of poor absorption?

Tetralysal is almost totally absorbed in the upper intestinal tract. The absence of unabsorbed residues in the lower gut greatly reduces the risk of monilial overgrowth, nausea, vomiting and diarrhoea.

Tetralysal is available as capsules containing 204 mg lymecycline (150 mg tetracycline base). Full medical information on request.

Why ONLY Nulacin?

All alkalis, given by mouth, have only a transient effect on gastric acidity. This is probably due to rapid emptying of the stomach. Before Nulacin, an intra-gastric milk and alkali drip through a Ryle's tube was the only effective way to achieve continuous neutralization of stomach contents. The milk protein neutralized hydrochloric acid without stimulating further production. The milk fat helped to inhibit the formation of excess gastric juice. And the antacids dealt with excess acid. Nulacin brought this benefit to the ambulant patient—and still does.

Only Nulacin is made from whole milk and combines milk protein and milk fat with dextrans, maltose and suitable antacids.

Only Nulacin is prepared in a size, shape and consistency to dissolve slowly in the mouth and produce a continuous milk-alkali drip in the stomach.

THE STANDARD FOR THE WEIGHT OF SAIL CANVAS...

... was laid down by the British Standards Institute in 1956 and specifies the numerical designation by which different canvases made from flax and/or hemp or jute are identified, and prescribes standard weights in respect of each designation. In the days of the barque shown above, standards for sail canvas may not have been instituted; but the standard of British seamanship was just as high as it is today.

TRANSVASIN is the standard therapy... for the relief of rheumatic symptoms

Patients suffering from rheumatic lesions obtain rapid relief with Transvasin, the well-proven and economical therapy. The esters of nicotinic, salicylic and p-aminobenzoic acids penetrate the skin and are concentrated at the point of injury, producing superficial erythema and deep hyperaemia. Transvasin is a valuable adjuvant in the treatment of osteo- and rheumatoid-arthritis.

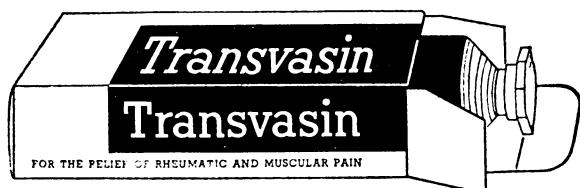

FORMULA

Ethyl Nicotinate.....	2%
n-Hexyl Nicotinate	2%
Ethyl-p-aminobenzoate	2%
Tetrahydrofurfuryl Salicylate.....	14%
Base	to 100%

The N.H.S. price of the 30 g. tube is 2/6d. and the cost of an average application of cream is under 1d.

The problem of the dirty mouth

Even in 1967 the dangers, and the unpleasantness, of the dirty mouth are still present in the post-operative period, as well as in many fevers; the geriatric patient being especially prone to them. Careful attention to oral hygiene will usually, of course, keep the patient comfortable and prevent complications. Such attention, however, is very time-consuming to the nurse; and it is not often realised that for most patients it can be replaced or supplemented by the use of chewing gum.

The regular use of chewing gum, by stimulating salivary flow, keeps the mouth clean in the most natural way possible. The patient is in a sense providing his own nursing care with the minimum of energy expenditure by himself.

Child patients, of course, need no encouragement to chew gum. The older patient may need encouraging—but not once he has appreciated the very obvious cleansing and refreshing effect that chewing gum has upon the mouth. Chewing gum is also of value to patients who are forbidden to smoke.

British Journal of Medical Education

Journal of the Association for the Study of Medical Education

Medical education today is presenting major problems in every country. Great changes are taking place and efforts are being made to discover in what directions still further changes are needed. There is a real need for better communications in medical education between Britain and other countries. These needs are met by a new journal, the British Journal of Medical Education. The Journal acts as a medium for interchange of information on medical education—Undergraduate, Postgraduate and Continuing—in the United Kingdom and Overseas. It is the official journal of the Association for the Study of Medical Education (A.S.M.E.). The first issue was published in December 1966, and subsequent issues will appear quarterly in March, June and September.

The contents of the first issue, December 1966, are as follows:

Editorial

'A.S.M.E.' John R. Ellis

History of British Medical Education Edwin Clarke

A Study of Medical Student Selection and Performance in the Edinburgh Medical School W. L. M. Perry

A Survey of Paediatric Teaching in the Undergraduate Medical Schools of the United Kingdom A. D. M. Jackson

List of Contributors

The British Journal of Medical Education sets out to fulfil A.S.M.E.'s aim of making more widely known what the British medical schools and postgraduate bodies are doing. Besides printing reports on medical education overseas, the Journal encourages the practical study of medical education, and takes particular interest in the evaluation of methods. It will thus form a useful link between medicine and development in education in other fields.

Spencer "Free Action" Support Brief for men

Spencer's revolutionary new concept of support in non-rubber, spandex elastic for back and abdomen.

Subtle in design to the degree of being mistaken for tailored, body-fitting underwear in the locker room, it actually provides powerful, functional support in elevating the viscera, thus relieving low back strain.

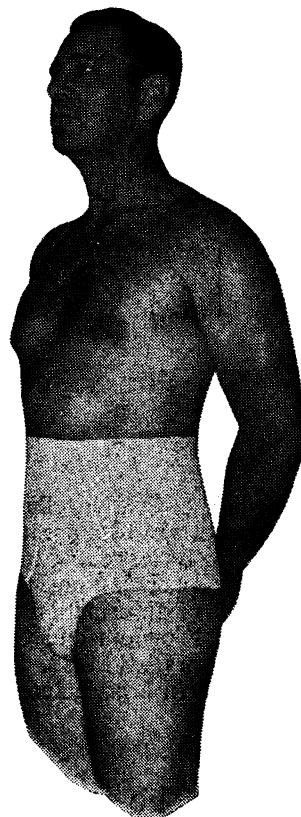

- ★ Front inner panels follow natural musculature.
- ★ Soft expansion areas at top edge and around legs allow motion and minimize bulging.
- ★ Comfortable, accommodating crotch section has easy access opening.

Patients have experienced relief from chronic low back pain while wearing the Support Brief.

We recommend this Brief for minor low back conditions and where it is considered beneficial to raise abdominal contents in aiding respiration, relieving ptosis, minimizing pooling of blood in lower abdomen, etc.

Few bronchitic patients can afford a day off. Give them effective relief with new

Galaton and Delexin

These two new Wander products give effective relief in the cough and bronchospasm common to many acute and chronic respiratory disorders.

GALATON combines a time-proved cough suppressant (codeine phosphate) with an effective bronchodilator (phenylpropanolamine). It relieves dry, unproductive cough and wheezing in many respiratory disorders—including acute bronchitis, chronic bronchitis and emphysema, bronchial asthma and pertussis. Galaton is particularly helpful in relieving the distressing night-time cough that disturbs sleep.

DELEXIN combines a powerful expectorant (guaiifenesin)—which liquefies tenacious, viscous sputum—with the bronchodilator and vasoconstrictor effects of phenylpropanolamine. Indications include acute tracheitis, acute bronchitis, chronic bronchitis and emphysema, and the respiratory complications of infectious diseases.

	Formulae per 5 ml.	Packs and Basic N.H.S. price
Galaton	Codeine phosphate B.P. 10mg. Phenylpropanolamine hydrochloride 12.5mg. Blackcurrant flavoured syrup	6 fl. oz. bottle 3/6d.
Delexin	Guaiifenesin 50mg. Phenylpropanolamine hydrochloride 12.5mg. Orange flavoured syrup	8 fl. oz. bottle 4/8d. (plus P.T.)

New First-aid and transit dressing for Burns

—even unskilled helpers
can apply it in seconds

The Roehampton burns dressing, made from Pritex polyurethane foam, reduces risk to the patient during the critical pre-hospital period. It also provides a logical preliminary to the modern exposure treatment. It is so simple and effective to apply that even unskilled helpers can attend to a casualty—quickly and safely. It can be applied in seconds without causing unnecessary pain and with a minimal risk of adherence. It provides good protection against trauma and reduces the risk of infection.

This Roehampton dressing can be removed in seconds. It will often save the patient having to be given large doses of drugs, or even a general anaesthetic.

In the event of multiple casualties, such as might be caused by large scale explosions or fires, the Roehampton burns dressing has many advantages. It makes a light, compact package that is easy to transport. No special care is needed to keep it in perfect condition. It remains sterile until the package is broken open. In all circumstances, it gives the patient the best possible means of protection from further damage while on the way to hospital.

HEALTH CENTRES & GROUP PRACTICES

Lord Cohen of Birkenhead writes the introduction to a booklet on Health Centres and Group Practices based on recent articles in the B.M.J.

“ . . . a series of excellent articles. . . Any practitioner who is considering how he can improve his service to his patients and his own working conditions will find this a very useful book.”

Lancet (1966), I. 380.

“ . . . a ‘must’ for any group contemplating new practice premises . . . should be equally valuable to the M.O.H. planning a new health centre.”

Brit. med. J. (1966), I. 221.

“ These reports . . . provide an admirable summary of the position today. . . .”

THE JAMES MACKENZIE PRIZE

This prize is awarded every three years to a general practitioner in the British Commonwealth who has published an undemanding valuable work during the previous five years; the intention being to reward good clinical and particularly good research work done in general practice.

The trustees are now willing to consider the names of suitable candidates for this prize, who should submit to the Chairman of the Awards Committee, The College of General Practitioners, 14 Princes Gate, London S.W.7, not later than July 1, 1967, (a) a copy of their published work, or (b) a clear account of the work which has been undertaken by them and in which they wish to be judged, submitted in a form that is suitable and ready for publication. (13775)

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER Postgraduate Medical Institute

A full-time postgraduate course, lasting ten weeks will begin on April 19, 1967. These courses are held three times a year starting in October, January and April. Each course includes instruction in general medicine, paediatrics, preventive medicine, pathology, psychiatry, orthopaedics and general surgery. The programme is planned so that students wishing to specialize in a particular clinical subject are given facilities to do so, while other students receive teaching in each of the main clinical departments. Course fee £40. Unpaid clinical attachments can be arranged at the end of the course for students requiring a longer period training.

It is sometimes possible to accept general practitioners for one or two weeks of a course, and attendance for this period is recognized under section 48 of the N.H.S. Act (1946).

Further particulars and application forms for these courses are obtainable from the Director, The Postgraduate Medical Institute, The University, Exeter, Devon. (12170)

BECAUSE of its Excellent Clinical Results

There are over 400 published references to Broxil in world literature. These confirm its success in infections such as tonsillitis, pharyngitis, otitis media, boils and carbuncles, which in an overwhelming proportion of cases are caused by Gram-positive organisms (staphylococci, streptococci and pneumococci).

BECAUSE of its Specific Activity

Broxil is highly bactericidal to the majority of these organisms, destroying them without disrupting the normal intestinal flora.

BECAUSE of its High Blood Levels

Broxil gives blood levels double those achieved by penicillin V and at least as high as intramuscular injections of penicillin G.

BECAUSE in its syrup form, it is particularly suitable for children

Broxil is readily accepted and tolerated by children, and side effects are minimal.

Availability: 125 and 250 mg. tablets and capsules. 60 ml. syrup (125 mg./5 ml.)

There are vacancies for young and enthusiastic psychiatrists on the staff of this hospital.

Queen Mary Hospital is a national hospital specializing in the in-patient treatment of patients suffering from psychoneurotic syndromes, alcoholism and the milder degrees of psychotic illness. There are 118 beds, a daily occupancy rate of 90 to 100 and an admission rate of 600 annually. The medical staff consists of four medical officers and a Medical Superintendent. The average patient-doctor ratio is seldom more than 25. There will also be the opportunity to take part in an outpatient programme at Christchurch.

Hanmer Springs is a tourist resort with a permanent population of 900, in inland North Canterbury, 80 miles from Christchurch, which with a population of 250,000 is the provincial capital. An excellent golf course adjoins the hospital. Skiing and mountaineering facilities are also readily available.

Applicants should have a higher qualification in psychiatry and several years of practical post-qualification experience in the field. The position would suit someone who is interested in practising the shorter methods of psychotherapy, though all orthodox psychiatric treatments are in use.

The position is recognized as being of specialist grade with a salary range from £2,835 to £3,235. The point of entry will be determined by the applicant's experience. A house is provided together with lighting, fuel and laundry for an annual rental of £150.

Passages, Fares for appointed and his wife and family, if married, will be paid.

Incidental expenses, Up to £35 for a single man and £100 for a married man can be claimed to cover the cost of taking personal effects to New Zealand.

Application forms and general information are available from the High Commissioner for New Zealand, New Zealand House, Haymarket, London S.W.1, with whom applications will close on May 17, 1967.

Please quote reference B 13/9/33/436. Further detailed information on the position may be obtained from Medical Superintendent, Queen Mary Hospital, Hanmer Springs, New Zealand. (13981)
