The powerful bactericidal activity is derived from a unique mechanism. It interrupts two successive steps in a metabolic process essential to the survival of bacteria.

the new bactericide in chronic bronchitis

ROCHE

Bacterin Roche is clearly effective. At the London Hospital, Bacterin Roche was given twice daily to 50 chronic bronchitis patients. In addition to the usual antibiotic treatment, these patients were given Bacterin Roche for 14 days. In 10 days, 40% of the patients showed improvement, with cultural confirmation. Bacterin Roche is effective against many of the organisms - Gram-negative and Gram-positive - commonly found in respiratory infections, including Streptococcus pneumoniae, Staphylococcus aureus, most important in chronic bronchitis - Haemophilus influenzae

and Mycoplasma pneumoniae. At the V Intern. Congress of Gastroenterology in Rome, 1964, Bacterin Roche was used in this trial as a highly efficient bactericide. It was frequently found to be more effective than the best antibiotic. Bacterin Roche was prepared by the Roche Institute of Biomedical Research, 100 Avenue des Capucines, 1201 Geneva 14, Switzerland.

Bacterin Roche is available in capsules and tablets. For more information, contact Roche Products Limited, Welwyn Garden City, Herts. SG12 6AP.

Now is the time to book Jane King for her summer holiday from hay-fever

Why now ?

Because of her misery last July – riverside party. Chris brought his record player. Maureen brought her LPs . . . Jane brought four handkerchiefs and a box of tissues. Great time for everyone . . . except Jane. She just sneezed, and sneezed and sneezed. It should be different, now.

Why now ?

Because Jane's doctor remembers last July. Now he prescribes Alavac*-P – the vaccine that makes pollen desensitisation a practical proposition for GPs.

Why now ?

Because now is the time for a course of Alavac-P to give Jane summer-long protection from hay-fever and pollen asthma. The mix of 12 grass pollens in Alavac-P gives protection throughout the pollen season, throughout the British Isles.

For complete prescribing details consult the current issue of MIMS. Further information is available on request.

Now is the time to prescribe ALAVAC-P for next summer's holiday from hay-fever.

Ampiclox

➤ Ideally, bacteriological samples should be taken and results known before antibiotic treatment is started. Often the patient's condition demands antibiotic therapy immediately. In this difficult situation, Ampiclox meets the following criteria:

- ● Active against a broad range of bacteria, Gram-negative and Gram-positive, including 'resistant' staphylococci.
- ● Bactericidal rather than bacteriostatic in action, particularly important where a septicæmic state threatens or the patient's resistance is low.
- ● The well established safety of penicillin therapy. Increasing dosage as necessary is not limited by a low 'toxicity ceiling'.

Ampiclox† is a special injectable formulation of the antibiotics Penbritin* and Orbenin*. It is ideal for use in emergencies, and well suited to continuation therapy when the need for this very broad spectrum is confirmed. Where sensitivity tests indicate, either Penbritin or Orbenin may be prescribed.

➤ Ampiclox in appropriate dosage is recommended for adults and children over the age of 4 weeks.

➤ During the first weeks of a baby's life, resistance to infection is very limited. And it may be difficult, or even impossible, to obtain satisfactory pathological specimens. Ampiclox Neonatal may be used for the treatment of confirmed or suspected infection in premature babies and other neonates. Also to forestall infection where a difficult delivery, clinical procedures or other circumstances present an infection hazard.

Ampiclox Neonatal is a specific formulation of Penbritin and Orbenin designed for the safer, more effective treatment of neonates. It has the following advantages:

- ● Active against a broad range of bacteria, Gram-negative and Gram-positive, including 'resistant' staphylococci.
- ● A well proven record of safety for neonates. Toxicity is not a limiting factor in determining dosage.
- ● Bactericidal action is particularly important for neonates, who have not had time to develop their own natural resistance.
- ● Available in oral and injectable presentations.

Rest and Relax

Though there are many advantages in living in this contemporary age of space flights, supersonic airliners, computerisation, and natural gas we still have the familiar stresses and tensions of old to contend with. Doctors are telling their patients as frequently as ever that they must relax, rest and "get away from it all".

What better way of achieving this—for the doctor as well as the patient—than by taking a sea-cruise. The treatment begins the moment you walk up the gangway and down to your cabin. From then onwards there are no worries, no telephone calls, no breathalysers, and no car-parking difficulties. Everything is at hand; theatre, cinema, cardroom, lounges, and bars. If you feel energetic you can sit in a deck chair and watch the deck games and swimming or find a quiet place and just sit. Above all there is the sea and sunshine and the opportunity of joining in the shore trips to many exciting and historical places.

The itineraries of the leading steamship companies offer a very wide choice. For instance there are cruises in the modern and luxurious Canadian Pacific liners Empress of England and Empress of Canada to such a variety of places as Madeira, Cadiz, Tenerife, Trinidad, Rio de Janeiro, Copenhagen, Leningrad, Stockholm, and Hamburg. Prices range from £120 to £350, and there is a six-day Easter cruise with fares from £45 to Coruna for anyone wishing for peace and quiet, as the liners are big enough to cater for all.

The virtual abolition of the travel allowance will open up many new perspectives, though the popular resorts of Spain and Italy will attract as many visitors as ever thanks to the "package" tours. Many people, though, will be unable to resist the urge to visit or re-visit those places that have been shunned owing to the expense. The French resorts on the Atlantic and Mediterranean should return to popularity and reap considerable benefit. Morocco could be well worth considering as there is so much to attract and interest people of all ages and inclinations. Marrakech and the Djemma El F'na Square with its snake charmers and story tellers, Casablanca, Rabat, and the ancient towns in and around the Rif mountains offer much that is rewarding. Tangier is a mingling of the modern and ancient and is an excellent example of the French and Moroccan way of life. It has a beautiful crescent shaped beach that is ideal for swimming and all sports. The old part of the town contains the renowned Kasbah with its fascinating bazaars, the Great Mosque and the Sultan's Palace, and is an intriguing area to explore.

Another advantage of the extra travel allowance is that it will permit many people to go abroad more than once or take long weekends in Paris, Copenhagen, Amsterdam, or Brussels to mention only a few of the centres within easy reach. The renting of villas or flats for longer periods than previously will be a boon for families and particularly so during the school holidays.

Special interest holidays have been arranged by many travel services and a wide range of subjects is covered, such as painting, archaeology, bird watching, deep-sea fishing, water-skiing, and language courses. Of particular interest to doctors is the one arranged by the Galleon World Travel Association to Israel. The itinerary includes visits to many hospitals, research and health centres, and discussions with local doctors. In addition there are sight-seeing tours to the most important Biblical and historical cities.

Despite the lure of sunshine abroad the resorts of England, Scotland, Wales, and Ireland, areas covered by the Norfolk Broads, Lake district, Derbyshire dales, the Cotswolds, and on and on will be as favoured as ever. Doctors who attended the B.M.A. Meeting at Aberdeen last year will remember the beautiful Deeside country with its lovely coast and beaches, the woodlands and winding streams. This is a delightful area and ideal as a touring centre and is of course famous for its golf courses and fishing.

SYMPOSIUM REPORT ON SEPTRIN*

Since the introduction of SEPTRIN this major advance in antibacterial therapy has had wide clinical success. Experience gained with SEPTRIN in many areas of medicine was discussed at a Symposium held at the Royal College of Physicians, London, in May, 1969†. Here are brief summaries of three comparative trials reported: fuller details are available on request.

†Postgrad. med. J. (1969) in press.

in bronchitis (compared with ampicillin)

SEPTRIN produced objectively determined improvement in patients suffering exacerbations of chronic bronchitis. SEPTRIN was shown to be more effective than ampicillin in its effect in reducing sputum volume and purulence.

in bronchitis (compared with tetracycline)

SEPTRIN was compared with tetracycline in another trial and was shown to provide a more beneficial effect on exacerbations of chronic bronchitis. Again significantly greater reductions in sputum volume and reduction in purulence were observed.

*Trade mark.

in U.T.I. (compared with ampicillin & sulphadimidine)

SEPTRIN was found superior to ampicillin and sulphadimidine in treating hospitalised patients with U.T.I. Cure rates achieved were 85% with SEPTRIN, 70% with ampicillin and 40% with sulphadimidine. (Cure criterion—eradication of original organism from the urine 1 week after the end of treatment.)

SEPTRIN an advance on the antibiotics

Wherever gout strikes— Zyloric protects

With ZYLORIC, serum uric acid levels are reduced and kept within normal limits, urate deposition in the joints regress and acute attacks of gout become less frequent or disappear.

ZYLORIC acts by limiting the formation of uric acid from its metabolic precursors. Uricosuric agents, in contrast, do not limit the production of uric acid, they increase the flow of urates through the kidney.

With ZYLORIC less uric acid passes through the kidney which is protected from the effects of urate deposition and urate nephropathy (kidney damage is a cause of death in 25 per cent of patients with chronic gout).†

Johnny went into hiding q.i.d. until the doctor prescribed 'Ilosone' Suspension

'Ilosone' excels in paediatric infections. But the flavour of the suspension (although important to Johnny) is only one of the reasons why it works so well. Against gram-positive cocci 'Ilosone' is much more active than, for example, the tetracyclines – and it will not discolour teeth or deposit in bone. Thus for infections such as tonsillitis, pharyngitis, pneumonia, otitis media and acute bronchitis – 'Ilosone' Suspension is a first-line treatment.

Pyopen and serious Gram-negative infections

Twenty-four hour culture of Pseudomonas pyocyanea
(aeruginosa) on blood agar.

Pseudomonas and Proteus Specific

Pyopen is indicated exclusively for the treatment of sensitive Pseudomonas and Proteus infections commonly resistant to most antibiotics. Pyopen's activity against Escherichia coli is comparable to that of Penbritin which would normally be preferred unless the other organisms are implicated.

Clinically Effective

"When the appropriate dosage is used, carbenicillin is without doubt the best available antibiotic for infections due to Ps. aeruginosa... results, especially in septicaemia, have been very much better than those achieved by earlier pseudomonas drugs."

Med. J. Aust., (1968), 2, 890.

High Dosage Therapy

"High dosage treatment with carbenicillin appears to be justified . . . because of the low toxicity of penicillins compared with other antibiotics active against Ps. pyocyanea such as the polymixins and gentamicin . . ."

Lancet, (1967), 1, 1289.

With Penicillin Safety

"Pyopen has shown in clinical experience obtained hitherto, to be completely non-toxic. As a true penicillin, even in renal insufficiency, it is suitable for long-term high-dosage treatment, with which blood levels can be obtained which exceed the M.I.C. values for most pseudomonas strains."

Urologe, (1968), 7, 16.

In Patients with Renal Insufficiency

"Carbenicillin offers the considerable advantage that it can be administered to patients with renal insufficiency without any risk of increasing the renal lesions as a result of its accumulation."

Med. Clin., (Barcelona), 1967, 49, 405.

High Serum Levels

High serum levels are both practicable and vital to the success of Pyopen therapy—please consult current Pyopen literature.

the new key

● maximum efficacy ● minimum dosage ● optimum tolerance

Extensive chemical and pharmacological research involving examination of over 8,000 compounds revealed one which has proved to be the most active and least toxic antidiabetic agent so far produced. Its name is DAONIL.

Maximum efficacy

The hypoglycaemic activity of DAONIL was first shown in animal experiments where a dose of only 0.28 mg/kg reduced blood sugar levels by nearly 30%. In subsequent world-wide clinical trials on over 5,000 patients DAONIL provided satisfactory control of blood sugar in 80%. Control was classified as excellent or good in 70% of cases.

Excellent	37.4%
Good	32.2%
Adequate	18.7%

A single daily dose proved sufficient.

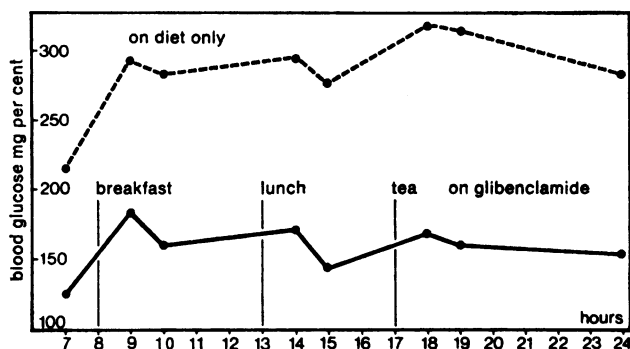

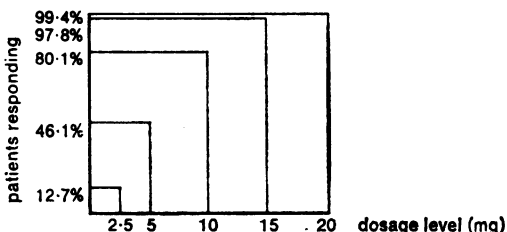

Fig 1 Blood glucose profiles throughout the day in 25 patients on diet only and then following therapy with glibenclamide at breakfast.

Thirty-six investigators compared DAONIL with chlorpropamide. Eighteen considered the two drugs to be equally effective but fourteen found DAONIL to be superior in lowering blood sugar.

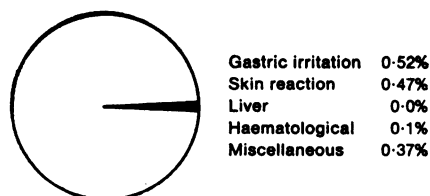

Minimum dosage

Very small amounts of DAONIL bring about the required degree of blood sugar control. Over 90% of suitable patients could be stabilised using a dosage range of 2.5–20 mg, confirming DAONIL as the most active antidiabetic agent available.

Optimum tolerance

In a chronic condition such as diabetes any treatment must be well-tolerated by the patient. In extensive clinical trials side-effects sufficiently severe to warrant withdrawal of therapy occurred in only 1.46% of patients.

Searle announce Ovulen 50

The new formulation of Britain's leading oral contraceptive Ovulen.

Ovulen 50 contains only 50 micrograms of oestrogen (ethinyloestradiol B.P.). The progestogen content remains 1.0 mg of ethynodiol diacetate. Clinical trials since 1967 in 1043 patients over 9735 cycles have shown the new formulation, Ovulen 50, to be as effective and acceptable as Ovulen. Switching patients to Ovulen 50 from other brands presents no problem; the trials have shown that there is no need for other (mechanical) methods during the first weeks of the first cycle on Ovulen 50. Your patient should finish her current pack, wait seven days, and then start her new pack of Ovulen 50.

"The most effective and probably the safest way to administer potassium chloride is in a solution suitably flavoured, administered after meals with a large amount of fluid."

"Tablets of potassium chloride (B.P., B.N.F.), dissolved in water are unpalatable and so irritating to the stomach that epigastric pain, nausea and vomiting preclude their use."²

"Enteric-coated tablets of potassium chloride may not disintegrate in the intestinal tract and may appear unchanged in the stool."³

"Enteric-coated tablets may cause intestinal ulceration and strictures."⁴

"Unfortunately most chloride preparations are unpalatable."⁵

Solid-dose potassium chloride, whether in special coatings or other time-release mechanisms, would still seem to suffer from certain disadvantages and risks, therefore it appears desirable to avoid solid-dose potassium chloride. Instead potassium and chloride can be given in a reasonably palatable, effervescent solution prepared from a tablet that does not contain solid potassium chloride. Kloreff is unique in this respect.

"The best one (potassium supplement) however may be an effervescent potassium chloride tablet (Kloreff). The preparation is quite palatable."⁶

RYBARVIN

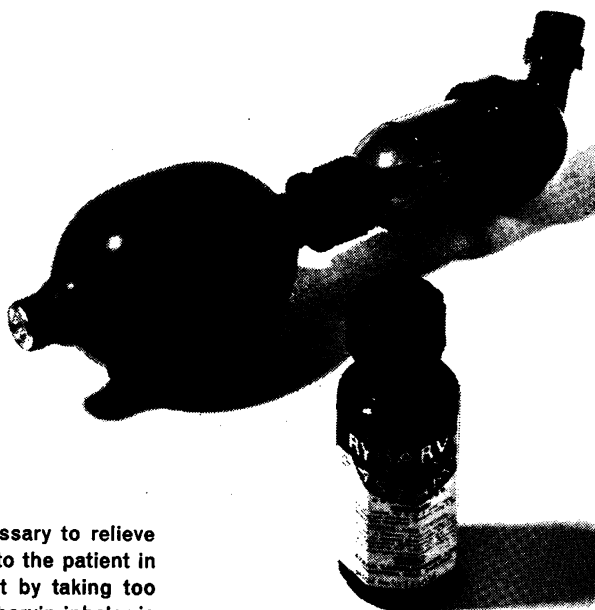

Inhalant

FOR BRONCHIAL SPASM

THE PROVEN
BLUE CHIP
INVESTMENT
FOR ASTHMATICS

No devaluation after 29 years!

SAFETY The very small amount of inhalant often necessary to relieve an attack is important. Therapeutically, this is of benefit to the patient in avoiding any side-effects which might be brought about by taking too frequently a full measured dose. Over-dosage with the Rybarvin inhaler is virtually impossible.

ECONOMY Economically the very low cost of treatment by Rybarvin, 1500 average doses (half-minute) per 28ml. bottle, i.e. about 1/15d. per dose, must be of interest to both patient and doctor.

RYBARVIN INHALANT Bottles containing 15ml. and 28ml.

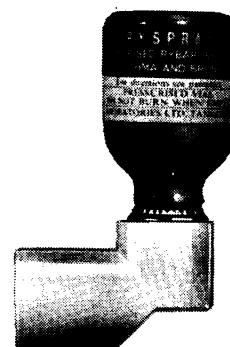

Extract of Pituitary (Posterior Lobe) B.P.C. 0.20% v/v Atropine Methonitrate B.P. 0.10% w/v, Papaverine Hydrochloride B.P. 0.08% w/v, Adrenaline B.P. 0.40% w/v. Benzocaine (Ethyl para-aminobenzoate) B.P. 0.20% w/v.

Note: THE RYBAR INHALER CAN NEVER HAVE A BLOCKED SYPHON TUBE. It is now fitted with a special filter (patent pending).

RYBAR LABORATORIES appreciate the convenience of the unobtrusive Pressured Pack particularly on social occasions and have produced Ry-spray for prescription where doctors feel this type of pack is more suitable.

RYSPRAY is a powerful bronchodilator giving rapid and sustained relief in asthma and bronchitis. Complete unit (300 doses).

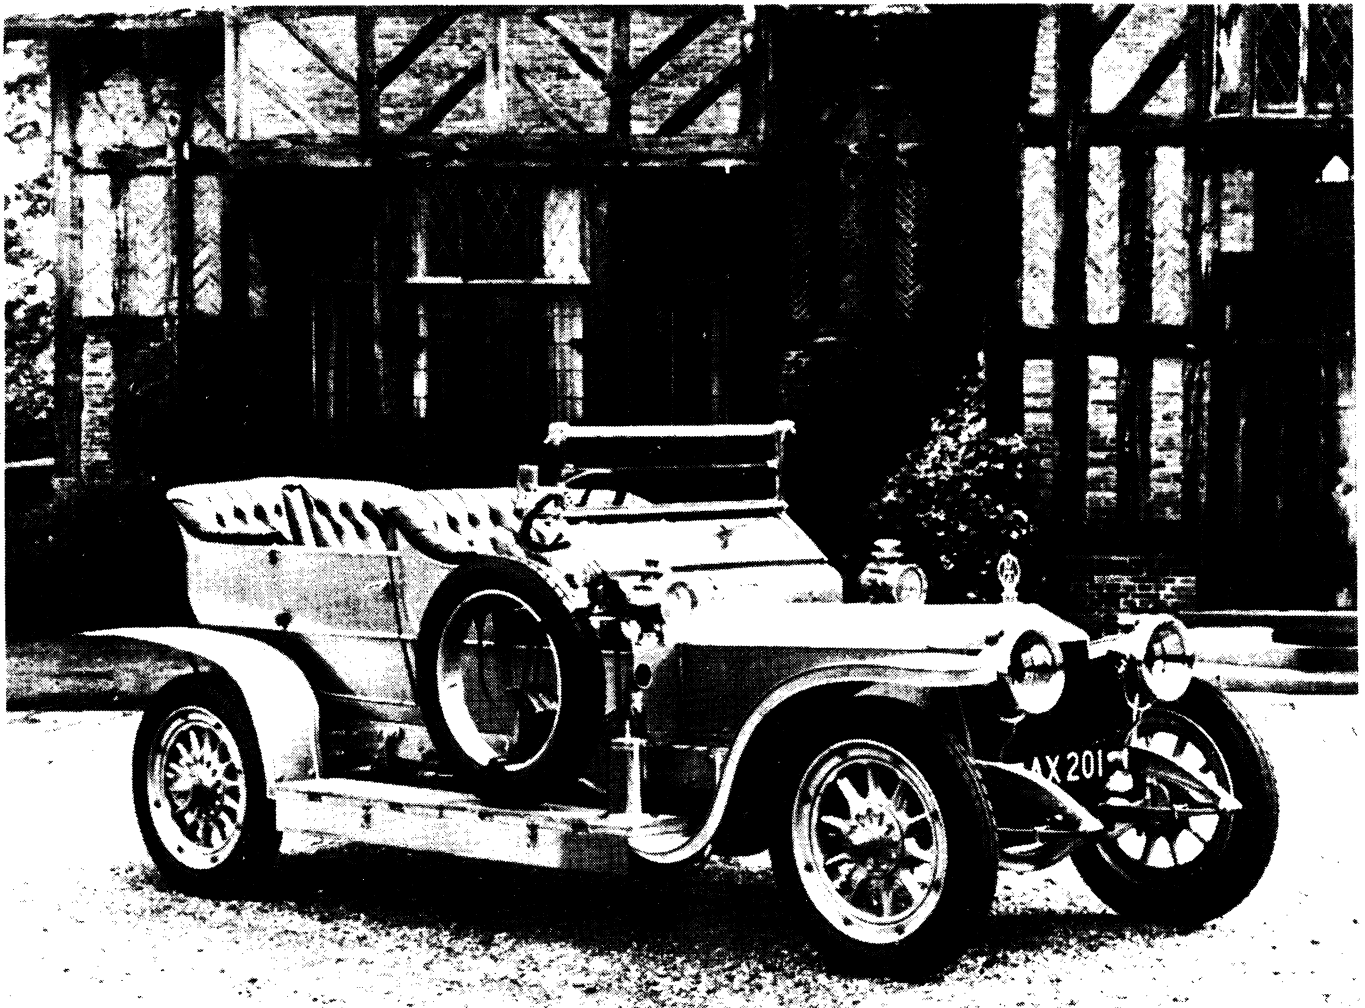

It is a great convenience to the patient that the amount of inhalant in the bottle can be seen.

SERVICES

What's in the R.A.F. for a young doctor?

Interesting out-of-the-rut medicine

The typical R.A.F. station doctor is a G.P. — with probably a lot of experience in pediatrics! He also has important responsibilities in aviation medicine, public health and industrial health. He does much more preventive work than most civilian doctors are able to do. There are wide opportunities for hospital practice — 47% of R.A.F. doctors are now working in specialist departments.

The chance to travel

You could live and work abroad, in many different conditions and climates, treating not only R.A.F. personnel and their families, but local populations. Your gain in clinical experience would be marked.

... a fair crack of the whip
for the Doctor's wife

A Doctor's wife is a Doctor's wife. She should not also have to be his telephone-answerer, appointment-maker, dispenser and general auxiliary! In the R.A.F., these things are done by professionals: the typical R.A.F. doctor, on a typical R.A.F. station, works in a fully equipped Medical Centre, which he shares with another doctor; between them they would probably have about 12 staff—secretarial as well as nursing.

£3,000 (tax free) after 5 years

In the first case, you would probably join the R.A.F. for 5 years. If you decide to go back to civil life at the end of this time, you would take with you a tax-free honorarium of £3,000. (You might of course wish to stay on: you can apply after the first year.) Now for income: suppose you are a married man of 25, fully registered. If you were in the R.A.F., your income would be at least £2,522 p.a. CLINICAL RESEARCH

Due to the expansion of our international research activities we wish to reorganize our clinical research division and to appoint a British doctor to co-ordinate our research programme in the Anglo-Saxon sphere of influence—the U.K., Scandinavia and other English-speaking countries.

The main qualities we will seek in the successful candidate are a sound clinical experience in hospital or general practice, a genuine critical interest in research and the ability to collaborate closely in a "research team" in various countries.

This very challenging post will be based in Switzerland, close to Geneva, and thus a knowledge of French or German would be an additional advantage, as well as any previous experience in the pharmaceutical industry.

The initial salary and other terms of service will be by negotiation.

Applications, including if possible a recent photograph, should be forwarded to the Personnel Manager, Zyma, S.A., Nyon, Switzerland. (H.6641-61-1)

Fucidin — parenterally

as well as orally

Clinicians often require a parenteral antibiotic in the treatment of severe staphylococcal infections. To meet this need LEO research over a three-year period has led to the development of Fucidin for intravenous infusion. This preparation widens the scope of Fucidin (sodium fusidate B.P.) which over the last seven years has been increasingly used as a potent oral antistaphylococcal agent.

Fucidin for intravenous infusion.

Presented in packs of 2 ampoules one of which contains 580 mg diethanolamine fusidate B.P.C. as a dry powder (equivalent to 500 mg sodium fusidate B.P.) and the other 50 ml sterile phosphate-citrate buffer.

Detailed information on dosage, administration, applications and case-histories appears in the packing leaflet and also is available on request from
