Treatment with Paroven significantly altered the PO_2 , oxygen saturation, and the oxygen content of varicose vein blood and the oxygen extraction in tissues of varicose vein legs towards normal values. The improved venous blood oxygenation and the reduced tissue oxygen extraction indicated better tissue perfusion with less blood oxygen having been taken from the increased capillary blood flow.

"The most obvious effect of treatment with HR (Paroven) is the very constant relief of night cramps, with an improvement exceeding 90 per cent".

(Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161)

"The degree of relief in chronic aching pain in the legs was not so marked (compared with 90% improvement in night cramps and 70% improvement in heaviness of the legs), but still amounted to 54 per cent".

(Brit J Clin Pract (1970) 23, 161)

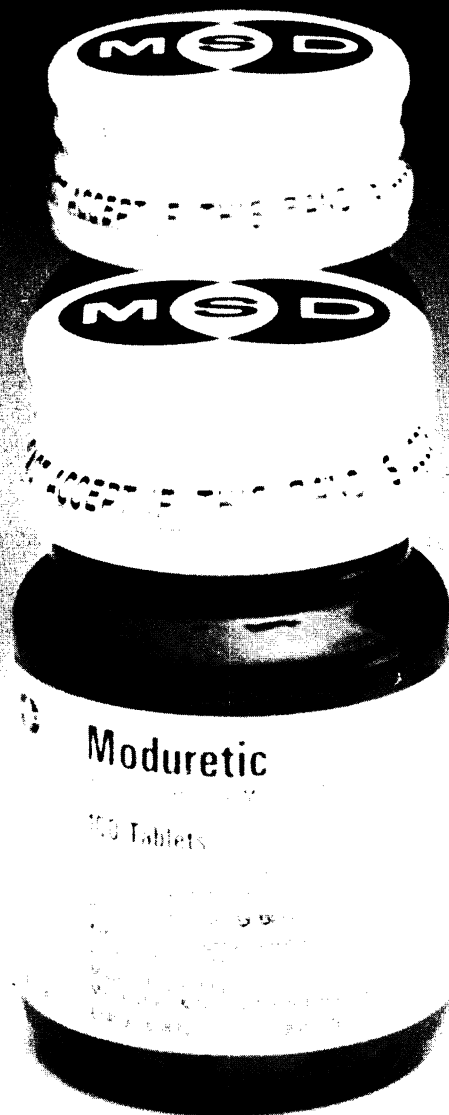

"Symptoms of heavy legs are improved in 70 per cent, and it was generally agreed that not only did legs feel lighter but the patients were more agile".

'... in the management of hypertension, the major clinical advantage to be obtained from combination thiazide-amiloride therapy (in comparison with thiazide drug alone) is the occurrence of moderate antikaliuresis and diuretic-antihypertensive efficiency.'

adjunctive therapy – whilst conserving body potassium. In fact, potassium supplements should not be given concurrently.

'Moduretic' combines amiloride hydrochloride, a potassium-conserving agent, with hydrochlorothiazide, the well established thiazide antihypertensive.

Many physicians are already recognising the advantages of 'Moduretic' in the treatment of thiazide-responsive hypertension.

As the weather worsens, demands on your time increase. This winter you can relieve some of the pressure by prescribing Magnapen for the more serious chest infections which you see. For acute-on-chronic bronchitis. For pneumonia. For infections following flu.

Magnapen gives you a greater chance of first time success in these serious cases because it is active against virtually all bacteria encountered in General Practice. So you can rely on Magnapen even when there are no laboratory reports to guide you.

Magnapen's greater certainty means that the patient is more likely to respond quickly. More likely to be up and about again sooner. And Magnapen can save you the time which you might otherwise have to spend on repeat visits, second consultations or night calls to patients who may fail to respond to other antibiotics.

New striking power in antibiotic therapy

Velosef (cephradine), a highly effective new broad spectrum antibiotic, has now been launched.

Results presented at the International Cephadrine Symposium in October show that Velosef offers doctors a significant new striking power to deal with a wide variety of infections in the respiratory tract, gastrointestinal tract, genitourinary tract and in skin and soft tissues.

Full details of Velosef are available on request from:

HAY FEVER

THIS IS A SIMPLIFICATION OF THE SEQUENCE THAT LEADS TO THE IMMEDIATE ALLERGIC RESPONSE

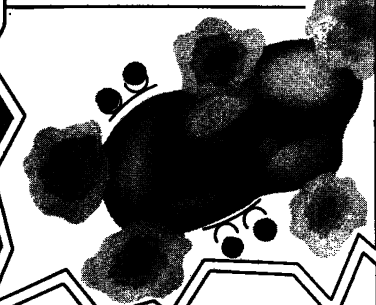

1. GRASS POLLEN ANTIGENS ENTER THE BLOODSTREAM, CAUSING THE FORMATION OF LARGE NUMBERS OF ANTIBODIES.

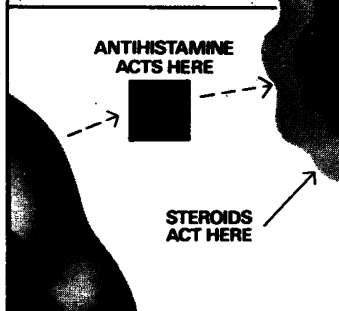

2. IN ALLERGIC PATIENTS SOME ANTIBODIES ATTACH THEMSELVES TO CERTAIN CELLS, SENSITISING THEM. WHEN THE ANTIGENS AGAIN COME INTO CONTACT WITH THE ATTACHED ANTIBODIES...

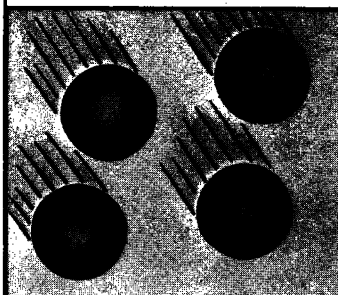

3. THE CELLS DISRUPT RELEASING HISTAMINE AND OTHER PRODUCTS - SRS-A, BRADYKININ, ETC. THESE CAUSE THE CLASSIC HAY FEVER SYMPTOMS - TISSUE INFLAMMATION, OEDEMA, RHINORRHOEA, PAROXYSMAL SNEEZING.

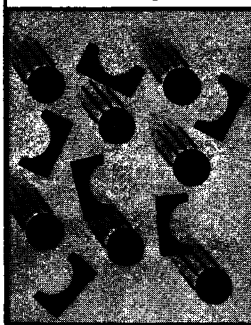

4. PALLIATIVE MEASURES MERELY REDUCE THE EFFECTS OF CELL-DISRUPTION PRODUCTS, BUT THEY CAN HAVE UNDESIRABLE SIDE EFFECTS LIKE DROWSINESS.

5. ALAVAC-P OFFERS A FUNDAMENTAL ANSWER IMMUNISATION.

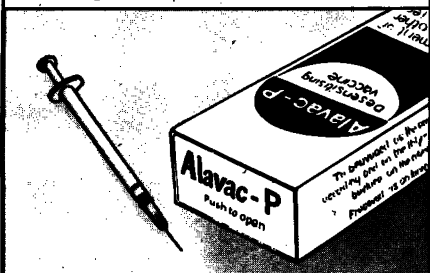

6. ALAVAC-P PROMOTES THE PRODUCTION OF CIRCULATING ANTIBODIES.

7. THESE CAPTURE THE ALLERGENS BEFORE THEY CAN EVER REACH THE SENSITISED CELL - PREVENTING THE SYMPTOMS OF HAY FEVER.

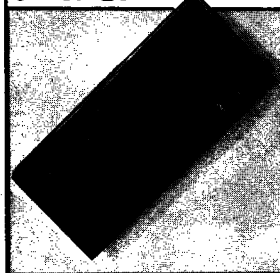

8. ALAVAC-P CONSISTS OF A SHORT, EASY-TO-ADMINISTER COURSE OF INJECTIONS, GIVEN WELL BEFORE THE HAY FEVER SEASON STARTS IN MAY / JUNE. ALAVAC-P IS SUITABLE FOR A WIDE SELECTION OF PATIENTS.

9. THREE SUCCESSIVE YEARS OF ALAVAC-P TREATMENT CAN CONFER EVEN LONGER-TERM FREEDOM FROM HAY FEVER.

10. YOU CAN PRESCRIBE ALAVAC-P FROM CASE HISTORY ALONE - AND TO SIMPLIFY THE RECORDING OF PATIENTS, BENCARD PROVIDE A PATIENT CHECK BOOK.

11. IMMUNISATION WITH ALAVAC-P GIVES SUMMER-LONG PROTECTION WITHOUT THE UNWANTED SIDE EFFECTS OFTEN ASSOCIATED WITH SYMPTOMATIC THERAPIES.

Here's why Alavac-P gives the most practical and effective action against hay fever and grass pollen asthma.

Alavac-P is an adsorbed, short-course (8-9 injections) hay fever vaccine.

It is a practical, more permanent alternative to temporary palliative measures.

It is formulated from the pollens of 12 common grasses that cause over 80% of hay fever and grass pollen asthma in the British Isles.

Minimal risk of reaction is ensured by the slow release of active material into the system.

Alavac-P provides clinically effective pre-seasonal treatment for patients of all degrees of sensitivity over 5 years of age.

Long-term protection may be achieved and deterioration reversed in many patients by repeating Alavac-P treatment in three successive years.

Skin tests are not needed: Alavac-P may be prescribed from case history and clinical symptoms alone.

The course should be started by early March to ensure protection before the onset of the grass pollen season in mid-May.

Ready-assembled disposable syringes with attached needles are included with each set of vials together with instructions on administration, dosage and precautions.

Alavac-P is prescribable on N.H.S. form E.C.10.

Basic N.H.S. price - £5.85 per set.

A booklet with further information on Alavac-P (regd) and hay fever immunity is available from: Bencard, Freepost, Great West Road, Brentford, Middlesex.

Where there's there's often another

Δ nxiety

But there's no two ways about treatment: Stemetil controls both

- Rapid, sustained relief of nausea and vomiting
- Intrinsic tranquillizing action simultaneously calms and relaxes

Migraine, vestibular disturbances, gastro-intestinal disorders, malignancy, cardiovascular disease – in these and many other organic and psychogenic conditions, anxiety, nervousness and tension are familiar concomitants of nausea and vomiting, and serve only to hinder definitive treatment of the underlying disorder. 'Stemetil'* not only stops the nausea and vomiting, but also effectively brings these accompanying emotional symptoms under control. Side-effects are minimal and transitory and the result is frequently such that the patient feels not just better, but better than he's felt for a long time. Moreover, because it offers not just one, but two, essential effects, 'Stemetil' clearly makes economic, as well as therapeutic, sense.

For the next ten minutes, you're the Dermatologist

It's one of the many hats you have to wear in the course of a normal working day. And while you're wearing it, your standard of diagnosis and treatment will be modelled on those of the dermatologists who taught you – and those whose advice and practice continue to give guidance. For you, now, there is the Ficoid range of topical skin preparations, bringing the standards of hospital dermatology to general practice.

The Ficoid rationale

In the Ficoid range, there are preparations meeting virtually all the specifications you may require in topical skin therapy. An anti-inflammatory effect appropriate to the clinical situation. Antibacterial cover when needed. A physical form appropriate to the lesion and the patient's skin. And all at a cost which makes Ficoid not only good dermatology but exceptionally good value for money as well.

The Ficoid range

The anti-inflammatory agent in Ficoid is fluocortolone, a fluorinated steroid adequate for even the most severe inflammation – and there is a dilute as well as concentrated form. When you need antibacterial cover, Ficoid-plus offers a wide antipathogenic spectrum without the well-known drawbacks of antibiotics.

Cosmetically elegant

To cater for crusted, scaly, lesions and dry skin, Ficoid is available in ointment form. For moist or weeping lesions, Ficoid may be prescribed as a cream or a lotion. This is particularly suitable for pilose areas. For ease of prescribing, all the Ficoid range comes in 30 g tubes, except the lotion which is in 20 ml bottles.

Ficoid 2	fluocortolone 0.2%	cream, ointment; 30 g tubes
Ficoid 2-plus	fluocortolone 0.2% clemizole hexachlorophenate 2.5%	cream, ointment; 30 g tubes
Ficoid 5	fluocortolone 0.5%	cream, ointment; 10 g and 30 g tubes lotion; 20 ml bottle
Ficoid 5-plus	fluocortolone 0.5% clemizole hexachlorophenate 2.5%	ointment 10 g, and 30 g tubes

Clinical evidence for Ficoid*

In one study* fluocortolone was assessed by 110 doctors in the treatment of 1,028 patients with a variety of skin conditions including eczema (44%), dermatitis (15%) and psoriasis (8%). The trial involved both general practice and hospital cases. Results were summarised as follows:

	No.	Unchanged or improved	Unchanged or worse
Fluocortolone/clemizole hexachlorophenate	605	543	62
Fluocortolone	423	376	47
Totals	1028	919	109
	100%	90%	10%

Contra-indications

In infants, long-term continuous topical steroid therapy should be avoided. Adrenal suppression can occur even without occlusion.

Precautions

Topical administration of corticosteroids to pregnant animals can cause abnormalities of foetal development.

The relevance of this finding to human beings has not been established, however, topical steroids should not be used extensively during the first trimester of pregnancy, i.e. in large amounts or for prolonged periods. As with all topical steroids, there is a risk of striae following extensive therapy.

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON LONDON SCHOOL OF HYGIENE AND TROPICAL MEDICINE

Department of Public Health

(Director — Professor J. N. Morris, D.Sc., F.R.C.P., D.P.H.)

M.Sc. Social Medicine

The next academic course leading to the degree of Master of Science in Social Medicine in the Faculty of Medicine of the University of London will start on 1st October, 1973 and extend over 2 calendar years. The course provides professional training for doctors wishing to specialize in social and community medicine and follow careers in

HEALTH SERVICES ADMINISTRATION or TEACHING AND RESEARCH

The training has been designed to fit the graduate for administrative posts in the reorganized National Health Service (1974), including the development of its information systems. There is a serious shortage of university teachers of social medicine which it is hoped that the Course will also help to meet.

The Course includes the study of statistics and epidemiology; social and behavioural sciences; the principles of management; social service planning and innovation. It aims to integrate theoretical and practical aspects of major issues in preventive medicine and medical care. During the second year each student will be attached to an academic or service unit in order to gain practical experience, particularly in the application of epidemiological methods to problems in the field.

Applicants must be medically qualified with at least 2 years' clinical experience post-registration.

A number of bursaries at the level of Registrars' or Senior Registrars' emoluments are available to suitable candidates for the Department of Health and Social Security, and others from the Medical Research Council.

It may be possible to arrange for graduates coming straight from clinical work to spend several months with a Regional Hospital Board before the beginning of the course, if they so wish.

Further details and application forms may be obtained from the Registrar, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, Keppel Street (Gower Street), London WC1E 7HT, to whom applications for admission should be addressed before 1st March, 1973.

HEAD OF MEDICAL/REGULATORY AFFAIRS (OPERATIONS)

In addition to aggressively pursuing new ideas through Research, the rapidly growing Pharmaceutical Division of Fisons Limited is developing on a world-wide basis.

An area of significant contribution and source of new drugs, Medical Affairs is responsible for Safety Evaluation (Toxicology and Metabolism), Clinical Pharmacology and Clinical Trials. The area is organized not only to establish the therapeutic applications and safety of new drugs but also to collate information generated for registration and to support international marketing policies.

Controlled from the U.K., these functions require the expertise of several specialized Groups — international registration, data control and analysis, operational research and medical services — all of which influence the progress of research.

It is imperative that such a Group is directed by a man of broad medical experience who holds a medical degree and is fully aware of Governmental requirements for drug registration. Experience in the management of multi-discipline teams is also essential together with knowledge of the medical/scientific areas involved.

The position is a new one and the successful applicant will report directly to the Head of Medical Affairs. The responsibilities involved will be fully reflected by an attractive salary, a company car and the usual pension benefits.

Applications should be addressed to the Divisional Personnel Manager, Fisons Limited, Pharmaceutical Division, 12 Derby Road, Loughborough, Leics., quoting Job Reference S91A.

KINGSWOOD SCHOOLS, BRISTOL
SEDBURY PARK SCHOOL, CHEPSTOW

for sessional work are needed at these Approved Schools situated approx. 30 mins. drive apart. Both expect to become Special Community Homes in April 1973. The total number of sessions available average 1 1/2 p.w. The appropriate local authority rates apply both for fees and travelling expenses.

Kingswood Schools consist of three units on the one campus: an Assessment Centre currently doing diagnostic work for deprived and delinquent boys from 8-18 years, most of whom are expected to be placed in Special Community Homes after assessment; a Training School for 80 boys most of whom are delinquent and disturbed; a Special (Secure) Unit for 20 boys who are very highly disturbed, most of whom are persistent absconders. Full-time Psychologists, Field Social Workers (including a Senior P.S.W.), Residential Social Workers and Teachers are employed. The Assessment Centre is expected to develop to serve a comparatively small geographical area as an all-purpose diagnostic unit which in time will accept both girls and boys, aged from approximately 5-18 years. The Training School has three house units, one of which is a shared responsibility therapeutic community; much use is made of group work throughout the school and all boys have an individualized educational programme based on a modified integrated day. Age range approximately 12-16 years. In the Special Unit there is a very high staff/boy ratio and each boy has a personal treatment programme. Age range approximately 12-16 years.

Sedbury Park has room for 86 boys and also specializes mainly with disturbed delinquents, working through a house system and very well equipped school rooms and workshops where boys of good intelligence have ample opportunity for educational development. There is also an intensive care unit for up to six boys which is used as part of the treatment facilities of the school as a whole. The ethos of both Sedbury Park and Kingswood is essentially rehabilitative, and both enjoy excellent relationships with local authority Social Services. Both are heavily involved in the training of students and have between them a total of approximately 160 well qualified staff.

In all parts of the Kingswood estate and at Sedbury, the Psychiatrists would be expected to work as members of teams of staff. In all aspects, essential roles would be of staff support, group work with both boys and staff, individual clinical assessment (at the Assessment Centre) and subsequent re-assessment: participation with staff in assessment, re-assessment and review case conferences would be expected and there would be opportunities for some individual counselling and psychotherapy in flexibly structured treatment milieu.

Applicants should be qualified Child Psychiatrists. It is not expected that one person could take up all the necessary roles. Interested Psychiatrists are invited to contact, in the first instance; Mr. J. L. Burns, Principal, Kingswood Schools, Britannia Road, Kingswood, Bristol. Tel: 674073. (H10009) 84

SERVICES

Are you in your Pre-Registration Year —or recently fully registered?

The RAF hospital at Akrotiri, Cyprus. It has 120 beds and can be adapted to accommodate up to 250. Here are a few figures for 1971: outpatients, 19,846; admissions, 4,984; X-Rays, 11,438; path lab tests, 62,432; anaesthetics, 2,193. The hospital has specialist departments of surgery, orthopaedic surgery, medicine, gynaecology and obstetrics, pathology, dentistry, neuropsychiatry, radiology, anaesthetics, otorhinolaryngology and ophthalmology; and, in the tamarisk trees by Dreamers' Bay, perhaps the most beautiful location of any hospital.

Before you commit yourself to your permanent pattern of life, consider what the RAF has to offer

The chance to practise total medical care, as a GP

Your first job would probably be a Junior Medical Officer on a large RAF Station. There would be at least one other doctor. Between you, you would have a 'list' of 2000 to 3000 people—servicemen and their families. You would meet all the usual clinical problems of a GP—and get plenty of experience in paediatrics. As well as this, you would be actively involved in the practice of aviation medicine and gain experience in the preventive, occupational and social fields.

Conditions of work are extremely good. You would have a consulting room in a specially built Medical Centre—like a small hospital with its own treatment room, theatre and resuscitation room, and wards for a dozen or so short-stay patients. There is a full secretarial and nursing staff. Your clinical freedom would be absolute.

The chance to specialise, too

Because General Practice is so highly developed in the RAF, this does not mean you have no chance to specialise. The contrary is true. 47% of all RAF doctors are now working in specialist departments. On a 'full career' contract you have every opportunity to reach consultant status in your late or middle thirties; perhaps earlier.

The chance to study for higher qualifications

Any RAF doctor, whether specialist or GP (as long as he is not on the very shortest of contracts) can apply for six months study leave on full salary. On a permanent commission, he may have up to two years' external study leave.

The chance to travel

The RAF operates in many different conditions and climates. Abroad, the RAF doctor looks after RAF personnel and their families and, very often, the local population as well. Your gain in clinical experience would be marked.

The chance of a good social and family life

The RAF is a young community, with a full and active social life. There are facilities for almost every kind of sport and, which is most important, the time to enjoy your family while you are still a young man. Living conditions are excellent. If you are single you live in the Officers' Mess, which has all the amenities of a good hotel. If you are married, you will nearly always have a furnished house that goes with the job; rent for this is very modest; and it can save a large financial outlay at the beginning of your career.

A realistic pay scale

Pay is based on the average earnings of a civilian GP. Immediately after full registration, the present basic salary is £3942; after 5 years it rises to £4767; after 13 years to £5898. There are various other allowances; for instance, with children at boarding school the figures are £363 (net) for one child, £795 (net) for two children, £1314 (net) for three children. There are tax-free gratuities of £1500 after 3 years, or £3000 after 5 years. After service of 16 years or more there is a pension, payable for life, and a generous terminal grant.

For full information please write, giving your age, nationality, and date of full registration, to Group Captain D. G. M. Hills, OBE, MB, BS, DPH, RAF, Ministry of Defence, 1-6 Tavistock Square (724 KJ2), London, WC1H 9NL. Or visit your nearest RAF Careers Information Office.

A New Horizon in Asthma

Becotide INHALER

STEROID CONTROL WITHOUT STEROID SIDE EFFECTS

Systemic steroids have, for many years, been recognized as the most effective form of treatment for moderate to severe bronchial asthma but their use is complicated by many serious side effects.

ALLEN & HANBURYS LTD LONDON E2 6LA

therapy

Becotide Inhaler contains beclomethasone dipropionate BP, a steroid which differs from those previously administered to asthmatics by aerosol in that it is highly active within the lungs in doses which are not systemically active. Effective control of asthma can be achieved without causing unwanted systemic effects.

Because of the intrinsic properties of the steroid employed and the direct route of administration Becotide Inhaler provides an extremely selective and thereby safer form of steroid therapy for bronchial asthma.

In Asthma—Becotide Inhaler puts steroid therapy in its place

For full prescribing information see overleaf

Becotide INHALER

BECOTIDE INHALER PRESCRIBING INFORMATION

Indications for Becotide Inhaler

Becotide Inhaler is indicated for a wide range of patients with bronchial asthma. The simplest cases are those whose asthma is becoming worse and bronchodilators less effective. For their safety it is important that they receive additional treatment and not simply increase their intake of bronchodilators. Treatment with Becotide Inhaler restores the patient's response to bronchodilators and often reduces their rate of use. Another group of patients who respond well to Becotide Inhaler are those who are not controlled or are inadequately controlled by sodium cromoglycate in addition to bronchodilators.

An important group are severely asthmatic patients who are dependent on systemic steroids or ACTH for their well being. The majority of these patients can be transferred to Becotide Inhaler with maintenance of good respiratory function and disappearance of dangerous steroid-induced systemic side effects. In others, a substantial reduction in systemic steroid intake is achieved with reduction in the risk of serious side effects. Patients who are receiving intermittent courses of steroids are also suitable for transference to Becotide Inhaler therapy.

Becotide Inhaler is particularly important for managing severe asthma in children because good control of asthma can be achieved without retardation of growth. Resumption of growth occurs in children transferred from systemic steroids.

DOSAGE

Adults

Two inhalations (100 mcg) three or four times a day is the usual maintenance dose. In severe cases it is advisable to start at 600 mcg—800 mcg per day and adjust the dose according to the response.

The maximum daily intake should not exceed 20 inhalations (1 mg) in adults, or 10 inhalations (0.5 mg) in children below 12 years of age.

It is essential that the patient should understand that Becotide Inhaler is not a bronchodilator aerosol. It should be used regularly and not for rapid relief of bronchospasm. It is also important to instruct the patient in the proper use of the pressurised aerosol. He should breathe out fully and then "fire" the aerosol early in inspiration to ensure that the particles of steroid are carried in the airstream as far down the bronchi as possible.

Children

One or two inhalations (50–100 mcg) should be given two, three or four times daily, according to the response.

IMPORTANT ASPECTS OF CLINICAL MANAGEMENT

Patients to be treated with Becotide Inhaler fall into two broad groups:

- 1) Those not receiving systemic steroids.
- 2) Those who are steroid dependent.

Different consideration must be given to these groups in order that the full benefits of Becotide Inhaler can be achieved in clinical practice.

Patients not receiving systemic steroids

The use of Becotide Inhaler in patients who have never taken steroids or taken only occasional courses of steroids is straightforward. An improvement in respiratory function is obvious within a week. The few patients who do not respond during this period usually have excessive mucus in their bronchi so that the drug is unable to penetrate to its site of action. In such cases a short course of systemic steroid in relatively high dosage should be given to eliminate mucus and other inflammatory changes in the lungs. Continuation of treatment with Becotide Inhaler usually maintains the improvement achieved, the oral steroid being gradually withdrawn.

Exacerbation of the asthma caused by infection is usually controlled by appropriate antibiotic treatment and, if necessary, by increasing the dose of Becotide Inhaler.

Steroid-dependent patients

The transfer of steroid-dependent patients to Becotide Inhaler and their subsequent management needs more attention mainly because recovery from impaired adrenocortical function caused by prolonged systemic steroid therapy is usually slow.

The patient should be in a reasonably stable state before being given Becotide Inhaler in addition to his usual maintenance dose of systemic steroid. After about a week, gradual withdrawal of the systemic steroid is started at a rate which must not exceed 1 mgm of prednisolone, or the equivalent of other drug, per day. Some patients feel unwell during the withdrawal phase despite maintenance or even improvement of respiratory function. They should be encouraged to persevere with the Inhaler and withdrawal of systemic steroid continued unless there are objective signs of adrenal insufficiency.

Most patients can be successfully transferred to Becotide Inhaler with good respiratory function but special care is necessary for the first months after the transfer until the pituitary-adrenal system has sufficiently recovered to enable the patient to cope with emergencies such as trauma, surgery or severe infections.

Transferred patients should carry a warning card indicating that they may need supplementary systemic steroid during periods of severe stress. The dose of Becotide Inhaler should be increased at this time and then reduced to the maintenance level after the systemic steroid has been discontinued.

Replacement of systemic steroid treatment with Becotide Inhaler sometimes unmasks allergies such as allergic rhinitis or eczema previously controlled by the systemic drug. They should be treated with antihistamine and/or topical preparations.

Side effects

No major adverse side effects attributable to the use of recommended doses of Becotide Inhaler have been reported but some patients have become hoarse. Localised infection with Candida albicans has occurred in the mouth and throat of a few patients; the condition rapidly cleared after appropriate topical antifungal therapy without discontinuing the treatment with Becotide Inhaler. Reduction of plasma-cortisol levels has been reported in patients who received twice the recommended maximum dose of Becotide Inhaler. (Brit. J. Dis. Chest (1972) 66, 101).

Intal doesn't relieve asthmatic attacks

It prevents them

Steroids, bronchodilators and antihistamines, whether in aerosol or tablet form, are only symptomatic treatments. Whereas INTAL actually protects the patient from asthmatic attacks—day in, day out.

By preventing the release of spasmogens INTAL affords daily prophylaxis for as long as any challenge exists. More than 150 clinical trials have proved its effectiveness, safety and ease of administration.

But only an asthmatic can really appreciate the difference it makes.
