There's now considerable evidence to show that Amoxil is more effective than other broad spectrum antibiotics in the treatment of chest infections.^{1,2,3,4}

There are some good reasons for this:

Firstly, Amoxil is extremely well absorbed by the oral route,⁵ attaining high bactericidal concentrations.

And secondly, the overall absorption is unaffected by the presence of food⁵ which means your patient doesn't have to remember to take Amoxil half an hour or whatever before meals.

Couple this with Amoxil's apparently excellent ability to penetrate into bronchial secretions^{3,6}, and you've probably explained why Amoxil out-performs other broad spectrums.^{1,2,3,4,-} non-ergotamine migraine treatment SHOULD BE TRIED FIRST!

NEW REPORT

This was the conclusion to the report of a trial in which Migraleve was compared with an ergotamine/cyclizine tablet in the treatment of 59 patients with well defined symptoms of migraine.

Both preparations were effective in relieving the symptoms of migraine, but vomiting was less severe with Migraleve - calling into question the use of ergot preparations, particularly in view of the limited period over which they could be administered with safety. In contrast, therapy with Migraleve can be continued as long as necessary.¹

This confirms the results of an earlier trial² which showed that 65% of regular ergotamine users preferred Migraleve and that Migraleve successfully treated the migraine attack in 79% of patients.

With Migraleve, many migraine sufferers feel that for the first time in the history of their condition they have something which is effective in averting or relieving their attacks. A typical response to a first trial with Migraleve is . . .

"RELIEF! Only a fellow migraine sufferer can appreciate what it means!"

Alistair is an he has only on

It's all around him, all the time yet, he's never seen it. Because at only 0.3mm in length, the common dust mite doesn't advertise itself.

Yet this minute creature is responsible for a disabling disease in an estimated 300,000 Britons. Now, at last, there is a new answer. A short immunisation course that is simple and very effective. A fundamental treatment that for the first time gives you, the family doctor, real control over this type of allergic asthma. And a new quality of life for your asthma patients.

Migen is effective. Allergy has always been recognised as one of the most common causes of asthma. Recently it has been established that the most important allergenic factor in house dust is the house dust mite; in fact, more than 90% of house dust sensitive patients are sensitive to house dust mite. And, "The rise in the mite content of dust from September to October has been shown to be directly related to an increase in asthma during this period."*

Migen immunises against the house dust mite. Immunisation against this powerful allergen raises the patients' overall level of tolerance. If he is multi-sensitive, he may well find that he no longer reacts to contact with other allergens which have previously provoked attacks. And the stress caused by fear of attack is reduced.

Migen is simple. Migen is a short course vaccine which contains pure extract of Dermatophagoides pteronyssinus, the most common British house dust mite. Just six injections form a complete course of treatment for asthma and perennial rhinitis. And each syringe is pre-filled to ensure accurate dosage.

Migen – minimal side effects. Migen's active material is released slowly but completely for maximum efficiency and minimum risk of adverse effects. Migen is adsorbed onto tyrosine, a naturally occurring amino acid, fully metabolisable in the human body.

Migen is a Bencard product. Prepared by Bencard, leaders in allergy research, Migen is the first asthma treatment to give you control over your asthma patients. Migen may usually be prescribed on the basis of a careful case history, no complicated testing techniques are necessary. However a simple confirmatory skin test kit is available on request, together with patient record cards and advice notes.

Migen. Many products have been advocated for use in the treatment of asthma. Most have drawbacks that you and your patients suffer for the sake of some relief. Now Migen offers an opportunity to treat asthma simply and effectively.

Allergy has always had a strong hold on the asthmatic. From today a powerful and very common Treatment pack consisting of six pre-filled syringes with sterilised needles.

Doctors in the Australian Army get the best of all worlds

A new life in Australia. With first class passage paid for you and your family. A job waiting—and all the advantages of a service practice.

With extraneous administration taken off your hands, you can really do your job properly. You could be in an R.M.O. unit, field ambulance station or military hospital and there are opportunities for updating medical knowledge and techniques. Then there's the sports and social side, too.

The sort of man we're looking for is preferably under 40—with medical qualifications registerable in the Commonwealth of Australia. He's medically fit—prepared to serve anywhere and is a British subject eligible for permanent residence in Australia. If this sounds like you, this is what we'll do for you.

You'll be appointed to a Short Service Commission for 4 years in the Medical Corps of the Australian Army in the minimum rank of Captain, where your salary would amount to £4,773 per annum after the equivalent of 5 years service. (Your professional experience in England serves to ante-date your period of service). Tax and a refunded retirement benefit will be deducted from this—though your clothing and marriage allowances of £51 and £345 per annum are not taxed. You also receive a bounty of about £1,540.

If this sounds like your sort of life, contact: Brig. C. F. Flint, O.B.E., Australian Army Representative, Australia House, Strand, London WC2. Telephone: 01-836 2435 Extn. 356.

Rat exposed to SO₂, showing hyperplasia of mucus-producing cells

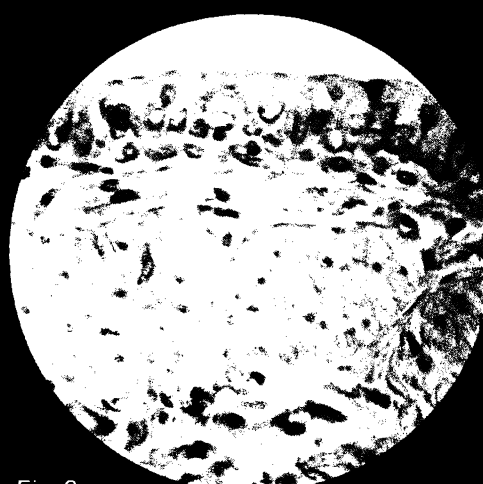

Fig. 2
Rat exposed to SO₂, but also treated with Mucodyne—the hyperplasia is greatly reduced reduces hyperplasia of the respiratory mucosa.

MUCODYNE presents a completely different concept in the treatment of mucus congestion. Experimentally, it has been shown to reduce the pathological increase in mucus-producing cells. Clinically it reduces the volume of bronchial secretions and restores pathologically sticky mucus to a more normal consistency. A consistency that enables it to be removed more easily. And more quickly. Recent British evidence* has shown that MUCODYNE shifts sticky mucus 4 days faster than bromhexine. For your next congested patient therefore this mucodynamic action of MUCODYNE will mean relief comes that 4 days earlier.

Severe eczema:
after 1 week's treatment
with clobetasol propionate

It's clear to see why...

... Dermovate has proved itself so successful in the treatment of psoriasis – a searching test for any topical steroid.

It's not just in general practice that Dermovate (clobetasol propionate) is proving itself to be a top performer.

In clinical trials, involving double blind comparisons with other modern topical steroids, Dermovate showed itself to be significantly superior in the treatment of psoriasis.*

But not only in psoriasis has Dermovate proved superior.

In stubborn eczema and other recalcitrant dermatoses Dermovate clearly succeeds.

If you haven't prescribed Dermovate yet – do so today and see for yourself that Dermovate clearly succeeds in psoriasis and stubborn eczemas.

Duromine

Clinical results with most anti-obesity agents may look good. But these results are often misleading. It is easy to demonstrate weight loss initially. What you need to know is whether the weight loss will continue, and without treatment problems.

This kind of evidence is available for Duromine.

A major clinical trial, involving two years of meticulous work, provides the latest comprehensive evaluation of Duromine. This, the second carefully controlled long-term study to be published in a leading British medical journal, has again demonstrated that with Duromine a weight loss of 20 lb. is well within reach in as little as three months.^{1,2} Further significant weight loss was achieved as the trials progressed.

Composition

Duromine capsules contain phentermine as an ion-exchange resin complex. Capsules are available in two strengths: grey/green 15 mg. and grey/maroon 30 mg.

Indications

Simple obesity. Duromine may also be used to re-establish appetite control in patients who have developed tolerance to other anorectic agents.

Dosage

One capsule at breakfast time. Capsules in two strengths (15 mg. and 30 mg.) allow for adjustment of dosage if necessary.

Side-effects

Slight dryness of the mouth or a tendency to early waking may be experienced from the higher dosage.

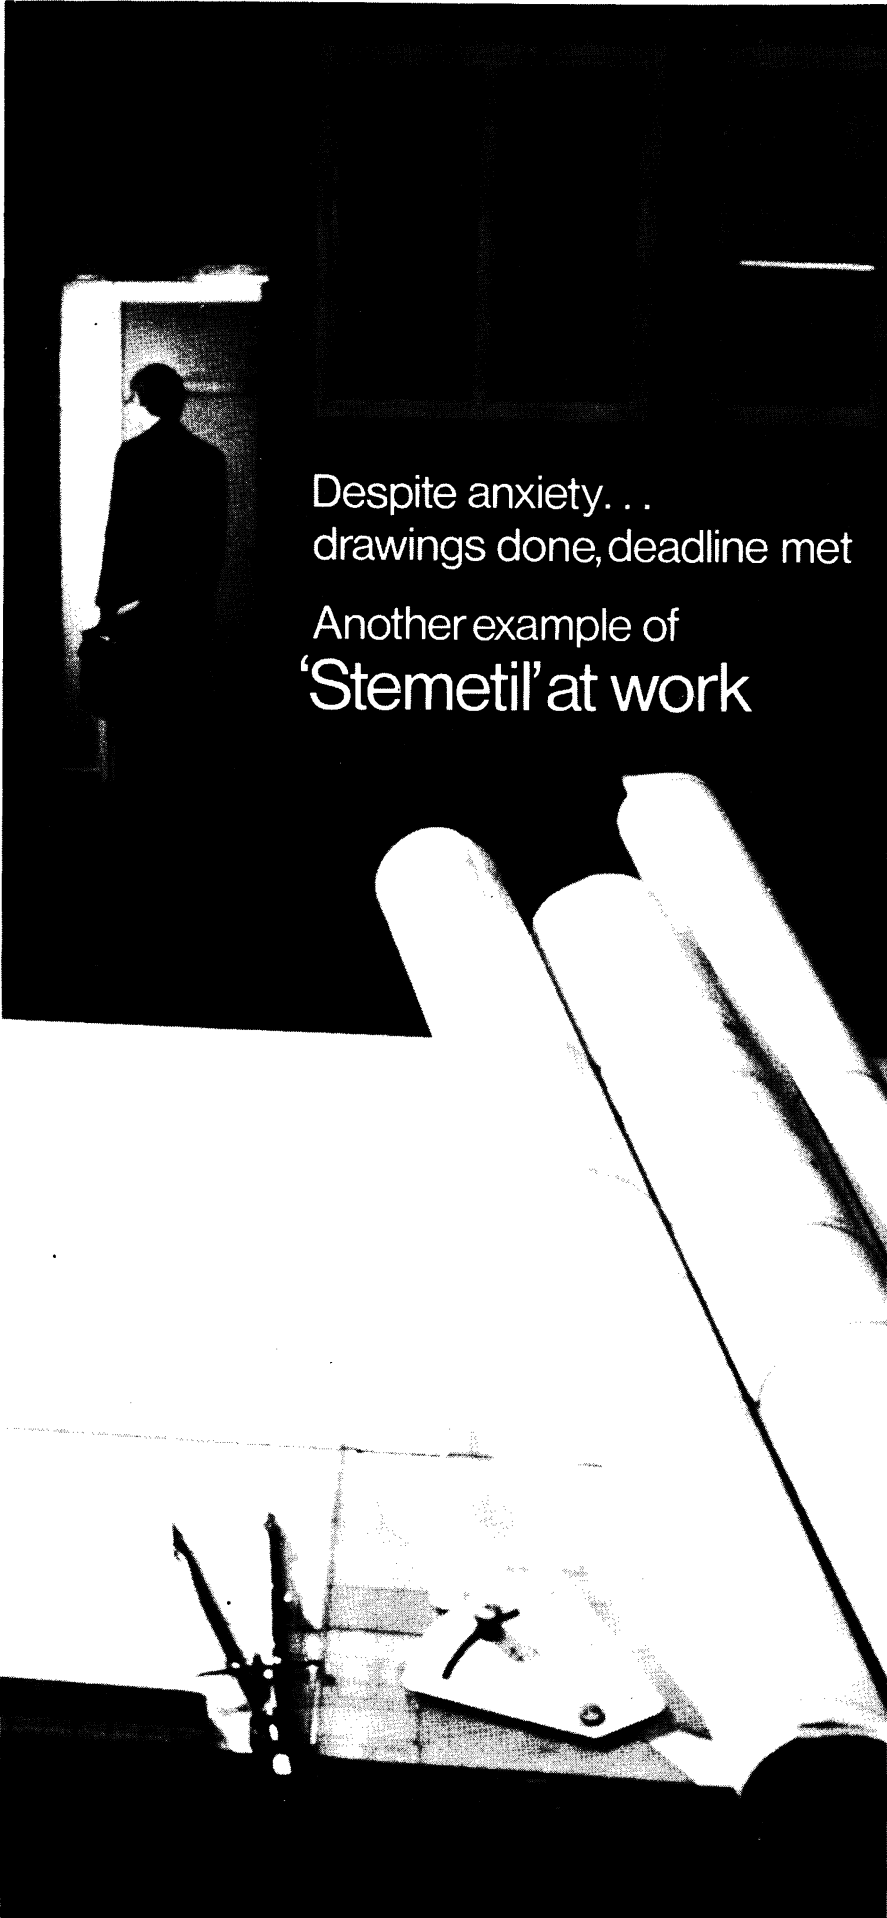

Contra-indications

Duromine is contra-indicated in patients under treatment with monoamine-oxidase (MAO) inhibitors.

Despite anxiety . . .

Another example of
'Stemetil' at work

Anxiety poses special problems in those who work.

Because anxiety, by blunting mental faculties, producing physical symptoms, or both, always impairs the capacity to work.

Because treatment, if it is the wrong kind, may easily do the same.

Both disorder and remedy in short may produce what few can afford for long: inefficient, "below-par" performance.

This in a nutshell is why 'Stemetil'* makes such good sense.

Because 'Stemetil' effectively removes the initial incapacitation without itself causing fresh incapacitation.

As an efficient tranquillizer, it provides prompt, complete relief of anxiety and its physical symptoms.^{1, 2}

As an efficient daytime tranquillizer, it acts without clouding thought, impairing concentration or blunting alertness.¹

With 'Stemetil', in short, neither the patient nor his work need suffer further. And what other treatment can make as good a job of things as that?

Relief of symptoms in varicose disorders

Varicose veins, post-phlebitic syndrome, superficial thrombophlebitis, varicose ulcers, varicose eczema, ankle oedema, restless legs, paraesthesia, haemorrhoids.

Dosage Initial treatment: 4 capsules a day, preferably with meals. In most cases, at least four weeks treatment with PAROVEN is required before significant benefit is felt. At the point where the patient experiences benefit, the dosage may be adjusted to a maintenance level. Maintenance treatment: 1-2 capsules a day.

Side effects and Precautions In a few patients, slight gastro-intestinal disorders, flushes and headaches have been reported. These are usually overcome by taking the capsules with meals or by slight adjustment of dosage. There are no known contra-indications to PAROVEN; it is virtually non-toxic and has no teratogenic effects. In keeping with current teaching and practice its use during the first trimester should, however, be avoided.

Advanced Courses in General Practice

Two parallel residential courses in general practice are to be held at Lumley Castle, Chester-le-Street, County Durham from 29th April to 3rd May, 1974.

These are intensive courses designed especially for principals in general practice who are working for the examination for M.R.C.G.P. It is intended that small group methods of learning will be used, covering the five areas: clinical medicine, human development, human behaviour, society and medicine, and the practice.

These courses have been approved under the arrangements applicable to general practitioners in the National Health Service in accordance with the terms and conditions of Section 63 of the Health Services and Public Health Act, 1968, and each will count for 10½ sessions. Membership is limited to 12 per course, the closing date for application in both cases being April 1st 1974.

Requests for further information and application forms should be made to The Regional Postgraduate Institute for Medicine and Dentistry, The Medical School, The University, Newcastle-upon-Tyne NE1 7RU (Tel: 0632 28511 Ext. 3041/2).

UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND
New Zealand

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

Applications are invited for the following positions. Conditions of Appointment and Method of Application are available from the Association of Commonwealth Universities (Apts), 36 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PF. The Council invites applications from qualified medical practitioners, preferably with experience in teaching at graduate or undergraduate level, for the position of which will be vacant on the resignation of Professor C.W.D. Lewis in June 1974. The University is seeking a person of high academic and professional standing who has had substantial administrative experience.

The Dean shall be the Head of the School of Medicine of the University of Auckland and shall ex officio be a member of the Senate of the University and shall be appointed to an appropriate Personal Chair.

The Dean shall be responsible to the University Council for the organisation of teaching in the School of Medicine, for advising on appointment and promotion of staff, for the allocation of monies within the School, for proposals on building requirements of the School, for the encouragement of research within the School and generally for carrying out of all administrative duties pertaining to the Deanship.

Salary will be established within the range for medically qualified Professors having regard to the qualifications of the candidate concerned. The present range is NZ $17,549 — $19,391 per annum.

Applications will be accepted at any time up to 15th April 1974.

Applications are invited from persons holding a medical qualification registrable in New Zealand, together with a recognized higher qualification for:

SENIOR LECTURESHIP/LECTURESHIP IN HISTOPATHOLOGY

(Department of Pathology)
The successful applicant's duties will include undergraduate and postgraduate teaching, together with surgical pathology in one of the teaching hospitals of the Auckland Hospital Board. Applicants should have or be prepared to develop a special interest in a particular field of histopathology. Excellent facilities for research are available.

Commencing salary will be established according to qualifications and experience. Present scales for medically qualified Senior Lecturers and Lecturers are: Senior Lecturers — NZ $13,130 x four increments — $15,120 per annum; Lecturers NZ $8,931 x four increments to a bar at $10,551 x five increments — $12,762 per annum. Senior Lecturers and Lecturers appointed above the bar may be paid an allowance for clinical responsibilities of up to five per cent.

If required, further information may be obtained from the Head of the Department of Pathology, Professor P.B. Herdson, in the University.

Applications will be accepted at any time up to 31st March 1974. (24308) 25

FELLOWSHIP AWARDS

WORLD HEALTH ORGANISATION
AND COUNCIL OF EUROPE
FELLOWSHIPS 1975

A number of fellowships for study abroad will be awarded in 1975 by the World Health Organisation and the Council of Europe. These are available to registered medical practitioners, registered dental practitioners, state registered nurses and other professional personnel engaged in the health services, medical education, or medical research in the United Kingdom.

The fellowships are awarded normally for periods of two weeks to one month. In each case fellows are given an allowance of approximately £150 per month, (the amount varying with the country or countries visited) together with all travelling expenses.

Applicants should be of at least five years standing in their profession and able to utilise their studies abroad for the benefit of the U.K. health services. They will be expected to contribute to the health services in their country at least three years after holding a fellowship.

Applications are most likely to be successful if they are quite specific concerning the content and the place of study. Certain subjects are reserved themselves to study by small interdisciplinary teams, in which case separate application forms should be completed for each member.

Application forms for fellowships to be taken up in 1975 may be obtained: a. By those resident in Scotland from: The Secretary, Scottish Home and Health Department, Room 406, Eagle Buildings, 19 Rose Street, Edinburgh EH2 2PR. b. By those resident in Wales from: The Secretary, Welsh Office, Health Department, Pearl Assurance House, Greyfriars Road, Cardiff, C. By those resident in Northern Ireland from: The Secretary, Department of Health and Social Services, Dundonald House, Upper Newtownards Road, Belfast BT4 3SF. d. By others from: The Secretary, Room B810, Department of Health and Social Security, Alexander Fleming House, Elephant and Castle, London SE1.

Envelopes should be marked W.H.O. and Council of Europe Fellowships. The completed application form should be returned to the office from which it was obtained, not later than Wednesday, 10th April, 1974. (23813) 26

COMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTS

Adverse Reactions Physician

Our Clinical Research Department is at Welwyn Garden City, some 20 miles north of London. We are looking for a physician who, while a member of the team of doctors in the department co-ordinating clinical trials, will be responsible to the Director of Clinical Research for all adverse reactions work. He will assist in the follow-up and assessment of unusual side effects reported during clinical trials, and will investigate all adverse reactions to marketed products which may come to the Company's attention.

We are looking for a candidate with a knowledge of immunology and pathology (including haematology), as well as general medicine. A higher degree is desirable. The person appointed will be encouraged to keep in touch with clinical medicine (perhaps by taking an outside appointment for half day each week) and with research generally.

Clinical Adviser in Rheumatology and Therapeutics

This is a demanding and senior position for a well-qualified physician at the registrar, senior registrar or research fellow level. A 'plum' job, it offers breadth of interest, considerable authority and responsibility, a consultant-level salary, a pleasant working environment with opportunities for overseas travel, and good prospects for further advancement.

Top priority after initial training will be to take over the direction and management of the clinical evaluation programme of the major new antirheumatic, naproxen (Naprosyn). The right man (or woman) will already be aware of the value of this product and the considerable clinical interest it has generated since its introduction only a few months ago.

The successful candidate will:

- organise and institute clinical studies on naproxen throughout the UK, in conjunction with leading clinicians.
- attend, organise and speak at meetings and symposia.
- provide up-to-date information regarding indications, contra-indications, precautions, etc.
- involve himself in the many other and varied activities that will enable him to become an expert in the field of therapeutics research.

In time, it is expected that he will also become involved in other therapeutic fields, so flexibility and wide-ranging interests are important.

The successful applicant will join a small team of highly qualified doctors at the UK headquarters of our client - Syntex Pharmaceuticals - at Maidenhead, Berks. He himself must also possess a higher medical qualification and have a genuine interest in therapeutics research.

The position carries a starting salary commensurate with experience and qualifications. It will certainly be within the consultant range, with opportunity for considerable further progression. Other benefits include the choice of a new car, free life assurance and BUPA membership, non-contributory pension and generous assistance with relocation if necessary.

Please write for further information and an application form, or phone if you would like to discuss the position further:

GOVERNMENTAL

Opportunities for Experienced Doctors to specialise in Psychiatry

As a Medical Officer in the Prison Medical Service you are responsible for the general medical care of the inmates of the establishment — borstal, prison or remand centre — to which you are attached. Current vacancies are at HM Prisons, Briston, Canterbury, Durham, Grendon, Leeds, Parkhurst, Wakefield, Winchester, and Holloway or Wormwood Scrubs.

In making medical and psychiatric assessments for the Department and the Courts, assistance is available from psychologists, social workers and pharmacists at most establishments. Surgical and psycho-therapeutic units employing part-time specialists are established at selected centres and use is made of the facilities available in NHS hospitals for consultations and special investigations. The general hygiene and dietary requirements of the establishment are also your concern.

These posts provide a unique opportunity to research into mental and physical disorders.

Candidates must be fully registered as medical practitioners in the U.K. and possess good all-round medical and surgical experience. A knowledge of psychological medicine is desirable, and a D.P.M. is an advantage.

Starting salary within the scale £5,332 — £6,968 (plus £111 environment allowance) according to qualifications and experience. Promotion prospects. Non-contributory pension scheme. Rented accommodation may be available.

Opportunities with HOECHST

Hoechst is one of the largest chemical and pharmaceutical companies in the world. Its large investment in drug research now necessitates an increase in medical personnel to evaluate the recently synthesised and anticipated new compounds. Our need is particularly urgent in the area of:-

CARDIOLOGY

A physician with a special interest in the clinical pharmacology of the cardiovascular system is required to join the Medical Department of Hoechst.

This department works in an international context, although the home base for this position is in Frankfurt (Main), West Germany.

Some of the newly developed compounds have already shown sufficient promise to be evaluated in patients. It is these new substances with which the successful candidate will work. The company has a substantial Clinical Pharmacology Unit in which the pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics of the compound are established. On the results of experiments here, the team, of which he will be a member, decides the objectives for early clinical studies. He will then initiate these, usually in cooperation with a University Department. Further clinical studies are set up internationally and the aims are agreed centrally with all those involved; the results also being co-ordinated centrally. Finally, he will be in charge of filing the clinical data required for registration of a new drug.

The clinician appointed will have regular contact with Medical Advisers in Hoechst subsidiaries throughout the world, and some travel is therefore involved.

The campus on which he will be based offers the stimulating prospect of regular contact with Chemists, Pharmacologists, Toxicologists, Clinical Pharmacologists and Biometricians.

Ideally, the person appointed will have a postgraduate qualification, an interest in and experience of cardiology, and will probably be of Registrar or Senior Registrar status.

Initial interviews will be carried out in the United Kingdom; final interviews will be held in Frankfurt.

Applications should be accompanied by a curriculum vitae and sent in confidence to:

Medical Director,
Hoechst Pharmaceuticals,
P.O. Box 18,
Hounslow, Middlesex.

MEDICAL OFFICER

An important iron and steel-making company in Southern Africa requires a Medical Officer.

He will work with the Senior Medical Officer to provide a full medical service for its employees and their dependants.

Experience as a General Practitioner and as an Anaesthetist is essential. Some surgical experience would be very useful.

The Company employs some 4,000 people and medical care is dispensed through the medium of a hospital and four clinics, with a total medical staff of 40.

It is stressed that this is not a 'contract' but a permanent post offering a new career. A rental or home purchase allowance will be paid for housing in a new township offering excellent schools and other amenities as well as unlimited sunshine. Savings may be remitted out of the country. An element of the agreed salary will relate to 'loss of practice'. An annual bonus is paid and has averaged 12 ½ per cent for several years.

Dyspepsia

If antacids were the complete answer, would he return to your surgery so often?

Antacids deal with excess acid. But, in many cases, dyspepsia involves more than this.

Unpleasant symptoms such as dyspepsia, heartburn and gastritis can frequently be traced back to disturbed gastric motility. Recent research has shown that in many patients food is retained for too long in the stomach, gastric contents enter the oesophagus, and bile refluxes from the duodenum.¹

With Maxolon, you can resolve this underlying problem. Maxolon restores gastric motility to normal, so that symptoms of dyspepsia are prevented.

Prescribe Maxolon (tablets or syrup) for your dyspepsia patients. They—and you—will appreciate the difference.

Full information on Maxolon in gastroduodenal conditions is available on request.
