FENOPRON

FENOPROFEN CALCIUM

Prescribing Information

Presentation: Capsules each containing Fenoprofen calcium equivalent to 300mg Fenoprofen.
The capsules are chrome yellow/ochre, 2·1 cm long and marked DISTA/DISTA.
Uses: Anti-arthritic. Particularly for the symptomatic treatment of osteo-arthritis, rheumatoid arthritis and allied conditions.
Dosage and Administration: For oral administration to adults only. Dosage: One or two capsules (300mg to 600mg) three or four times a day, adjusted to the needs of the patient.
Contra-indications: (a) Hypersensitivity to the drug. (b) Should not be used with coumarin-type anti-coagulants or in combination with heparin. (c) Although cross-sensitivity has not been established, the drug should not be given to patients in whom salicylates induce the syndrome of asthma, rhinitis or urticaria.
Side-effects: The side-effects of FENOPRON are few, slight and occur infrequently. Only rarely has it been necessary to discontinue treatment because of them. The incidence and severity of adverse reactions have been less than have occurred amongst patients given acetylsalicylic acid. In particular, therapeutically equivalent doses of FENOPRON give rise to measurably less gastro-intestinal irritation and tinnitus. During controlled studies in arthritis, the reported side-effects on patients given FENOPRON were not significantly different to those in the placebo group.
Warning: The safety of FENOPRON in pregnancy has not been established.
Pharmaceutical Precautions: No special requirements known.
Legal category: No legal restrictions on sale or supply, but supplied on prescription only.
Package quantities: Capsules 300mg. Bottles of 100 and 500 capsules.
Cost: The basic NHS cost of 100 capsules (ex 500 pack) is £2.64.
Further information: FENOPRON offers relief of pain and reduction of joint inflammation, encouraging mobility and reducing stiffness. Few patients experience side-effects, and any which takes the pain out of living with osteo-arthritis

FENOPRON relieves pain and reduces joint inflammation. It thus encourages mobility, reduces stiffness and helps your patients to lead a more normal, active life. Treatment with FENOPRON not only controls day-to-day pain, but subdues occasional 'flare-ups' or exacerbations. Few patients experience side-effects with FENOPRON, and those which occur are neither serious nor troublesome.

FENOPRON will also benefit your patients with rheumatoid arthritis who need consistent reliable pain relief, reasonable improvement of mobility and an easier, less restricted life-style.

FENOPRON is supplied as 300mg capsules. The initial dose is two capsules three or four times a day, adjusted according to the needs of the patient.

Breathless?

But now imagine the very much worse discomfort suffered by chronic asthmatics, time and time again. And just imagine the tremendous relief that Bextasol inhaler can give these patients.

New Bextasol inhaler gives your chronic asthmatics a fair share of air.

Bextasol inhaler can establish effective prophylactic control of frequently recurring extrinsic and intrinsic asthma. Moreover, many of your patients will enjoy greater, better-sustained breathing capacity than on previous therapy. And it's often the only maintenance therapy they will require.

Bextasol inhaler delivers metered micro-doses of betamethasone valerate, a corticosteroid known for its high topical and relatively low systemic activity, direct to the airways. Systemic side effects are thus avoided.

Those chronic asthmatics, maintained on sodium cromoglycate and high doses of bronchodilators, who are still not able to lead a normal life can often achieve significantly improved lung function . . . with Bextasol inhaler.

Consequently, Bextasol inhaler offers the unique benefits of corticosteroid control to a much wider range of asthma sufferers.

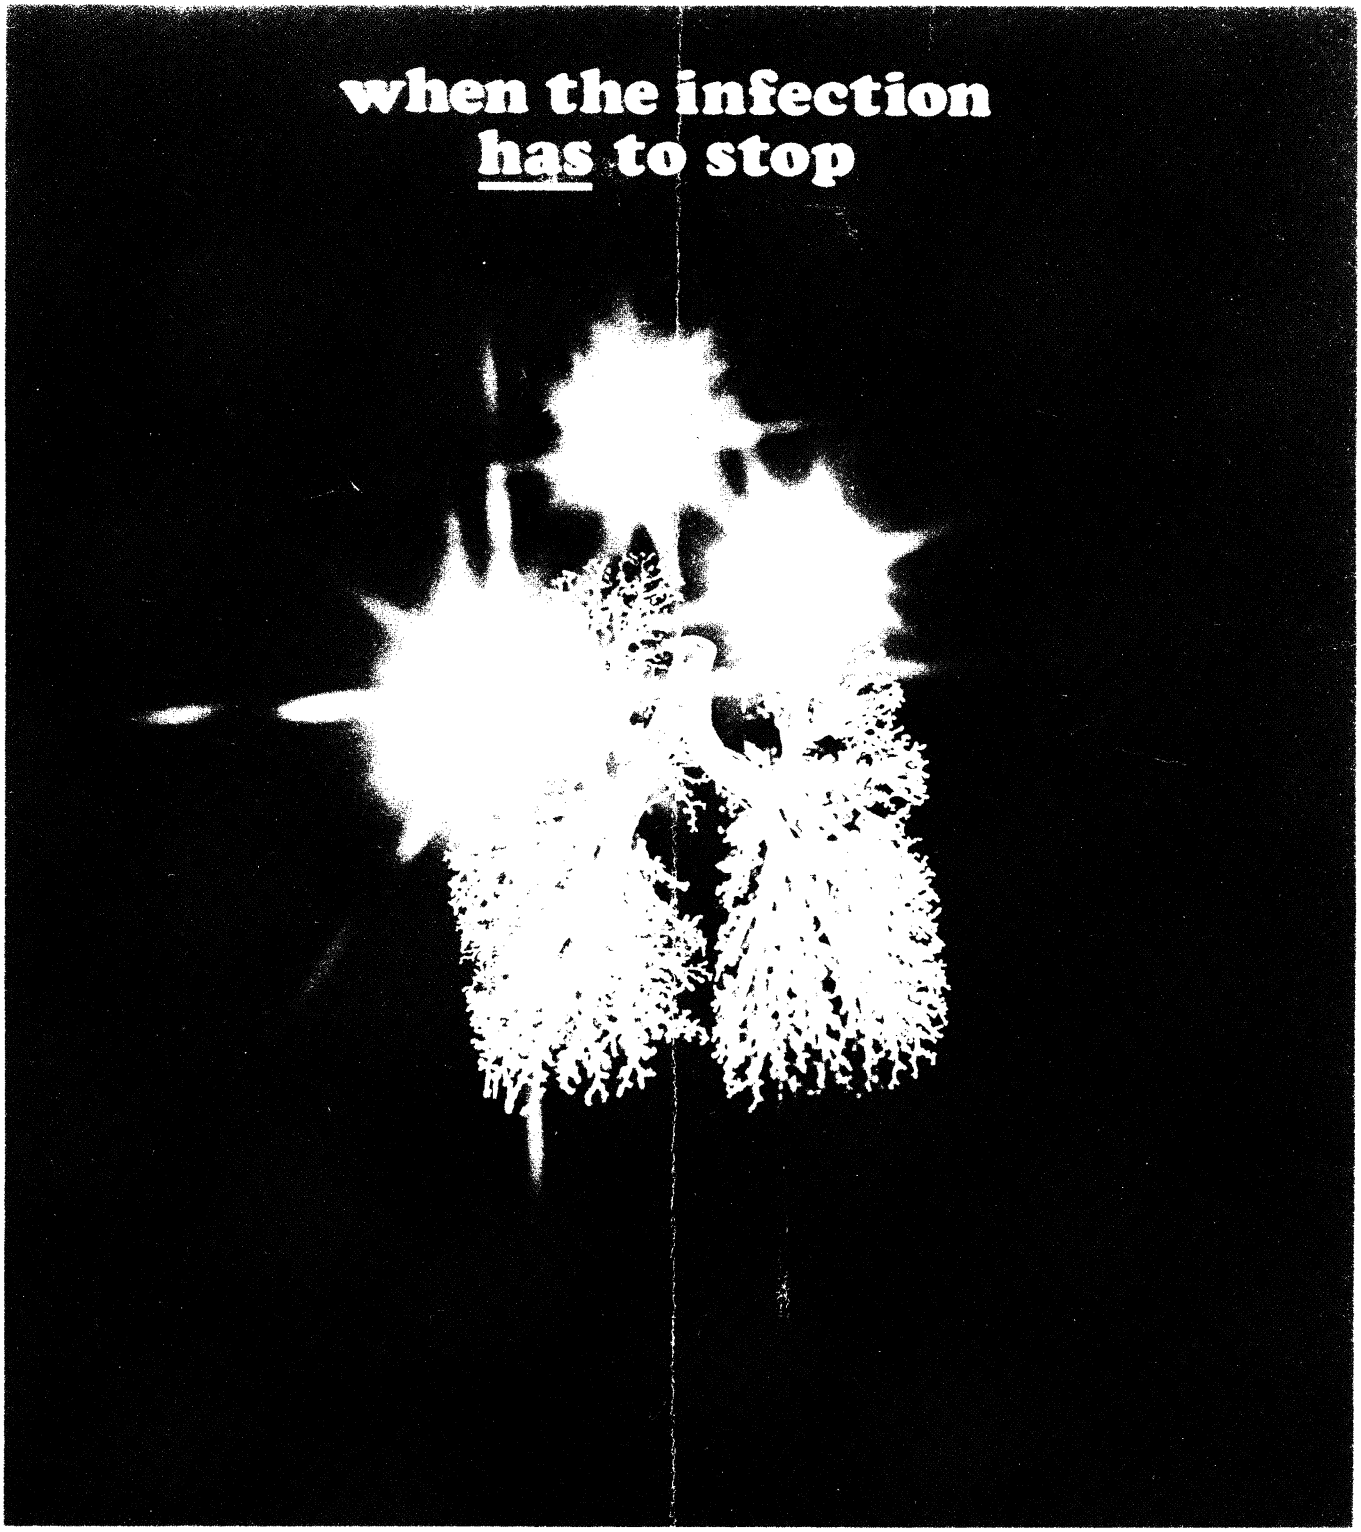

Presentation
Bextasol inhaler is a pressurised aerosol containing a suspension of micronised Betamethasone Valerate BP with propellants. The container supplies 200 metered inhalations, each providing 100 micrograms of betamethasone valerate.

HOW TO WORK A MIRACLE.

Sony announces its latest electronic wonder. The Sony Video Rover.

A machine consisting of a small television camera and video tape deck that can be carried and operated by just one man.

Think of it as a portable tape recorder with eyes and you've got the picture.

Nothing particularly earth-shattering about that, you're thinking.

But for victims of Hurricane Camille in America, the Sony Video Rover performed something of a miracle.

VIDEO ROVER vs HURRICANE CAMILLE.

When Hurricane Camille hit Mississippi, it left thousands of homes and jobs in ruins.

A return to normal life depended on how fast the insurance companies could deal with the avalanche of claims.

Normal methods would have meant many months of hardship.

So one major insurance company sent a team of 25 men to the scene of the disaster, each one equipped with a Sony Video Rover.

They were able to make quick and very accurate visual notes of the damage. And fly the tapes back to the company's head office.

There, a team of assessors working with TV monitors were able to assess and settle claims in a fraction of the normal time.

ALL THINGS TO ALL MEN.

Of course, the Hurricane Camille episode is only one example of how the Sony Video Rover has been used.

Industry has employed it from the boardroom to the factory floor.

Real estate agents used it for on site valuation and later as a sales aid.

Engineers have used it for testing supersonic aircraft.

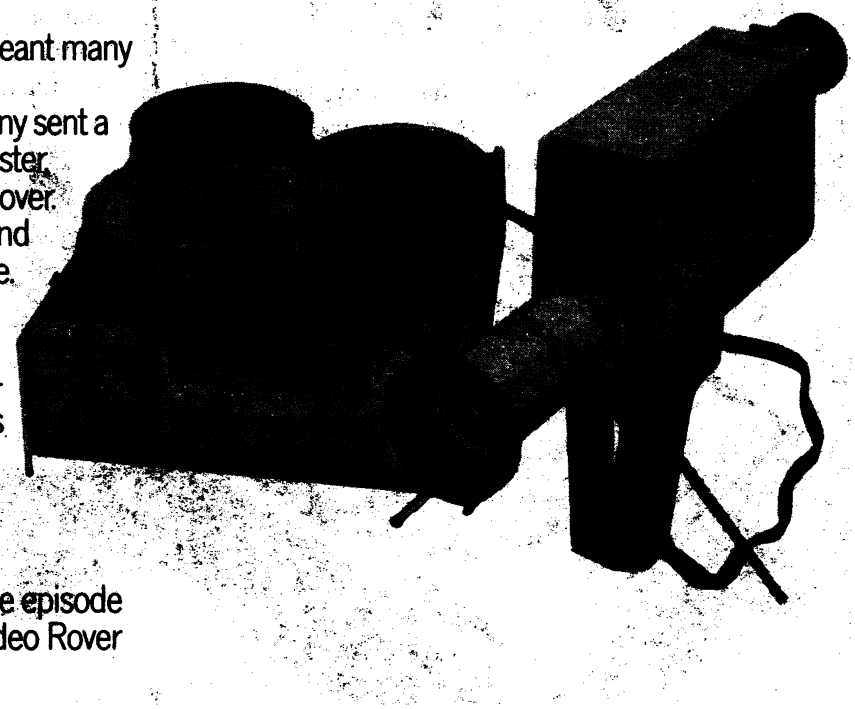

Scientists have explored the sea bed with it.

Doctors have even used it for diagnosing circulatory diseases.

Education, advertising, sport, crime-prevention, fire-fighting. You name it and we can quote a case history.

If you want to find out how this little machine can work something for you, drop us a line to the address below.

We'll send you all the information you need on the Video Rover and the rest of the Sony Video range. SONY.

Brenda is and today she

For the first birthday in her life, Brenda can blow out her own candles. Because she has been treated with a new product called Migen – a short immunisation course that is simple and very effective. A fundamental treatment that for the first time gives you, the family doctor, real control over asthma.

It won't help all asthmatics but it will help those whose asthma is caused by, or complicated by, allergy. And that's no small number.

Migen is effective. Allergy has always been recognised as one of the most common causes of asthma. Recently it has been established that the most important allergenic factor in house dust is the house dust mite: in fact, more than 90% of house dust sensitive patients are sensitive to house dust mite. And, "The rise in the mite content of dust from September to October has been shown to be directly related to an increase in asthma during this period."*

Migen immunises against the house dust mite. Immunisation against this powerful allergen raises the patients' overall level of tolerance. If he is multi-sensitive, he may well find that he no longer reacts to contact with other allergens which have previously provoked attacks. And the stress caused by fear of attack is reduced.

Migen is simple. Migen is a short course vaccine which contains pure extract of Dermatophagoides pteronyssinus, the most common British house dust mite. Just six injections form a complete course of treatment for asthma and perennial rhinitis. And each syringe is pre-filled to ensure accurate dosage.

Migen – minimal side effects. Migen's active material is released slowly but completely for maximum efficiency and minimum risk of adverse effects. Migen is adsorbed onto tyrosine, a naturally occurring amino acid, fully metabolisable in the human body.

Migen is a Bencard product. Prepared by Bencard, leaders in allergy research, Migen is the first short course asthma treatment to give you control over your asthma patients. Migen may usually be prescribed Treatment pack consisting of six prefilled syringes with sterilised needles.

Migen. Many products have been advocated for use in the treatment of asthma. Most have drawbacks that you and your patients suffer for the sake of some relief. Now Migen offers an opportunity to treat asthma simply and effectively.

Allergy has always had a strong hold on the asthmatic. From today a powerful and very common allergen can be controlled from your surgery, with Migen. It's asthma immunisation made easy.

A doctor without insurance must have nerves of steel.

Just think about the number of times you've seen patients struck down by a serious illness.

Just think about the tragic consequences when they haven't got adequate insurance cover. It's a rather unhappy story.

And as a doctor you're in a better position than most to realise that the chances of this happening are greater than the majority of people think.

So if you haven't adequate insurance yourself, that's something you should be feeling rather nervous about.

Luckily there's a simple answer. A policy with the Medical Sickness Society. The mutual society founded to take care of the insurance needs of doctors and dentists.

The Medical Sickness Society understands the problems of your profession.

It can advise on the type of insurance a doctor needs.

Be it life cover, a pension plan, sickness and accident insurance, an equity-linked savings plan or just plain advice about your insurance problems.

Bencard inject commonsense into the hay fever picture

Pollinex is a new vaccine from Bencard consisting of a course of only three injections. These are administered pre-seasonally and protect the hay fever patient right through the summer. Pre-filled disposable syringes ensure trouble-free administration and accuracy of dosage.

This commonsense approach to preventive therapy results from two recent advances in allergy research by Bencard. Firstly, the grass pollen extracts are modified by a unique process so that unwanted side-effects are largely eliminated without diminution of antibody production. Secondly, the modified material is adsorbed on to a natural base which is metabolised in the body.

Pollinex provides safer, simpler, immunological treatment of hay fever, so more patients can experience the relief which comes from preventive therapy. Pollinex is directly available from stock on an E.C.10 – and can be prescribed any time from now till early April.

The Effects of Irradiation on the Skeleton

Janet M. Vaughan

This book reviews the scattered clinical literature dealing with the effects of external radiation, and analyses the much more recent experimental observations on the effect of the bone-seeking radio-nuclides, particularly radium, strontium, and plutonium. Emphasis is laid on modern techniques of estimating radiation doses to sensitive tissues and the importance of differences in bone trabeculation in different species. Illustrated £7·75

Basic Immunogenetics

H. H. Fudenberg, D. P. Stites, J. R. L. Pink and An-Chuan Wang

This book concentrates upon some of the more important aspects of inherited differences among individuals, as studied by immunological methods. These aspects have been chosen because they have been studied in detail, because they reveal a wide range of genetic mechanisms involved in producing antigens, or because they raise questions about individual variations or regulation of the immune response. The chapters progress from a general description of the subject, stressing the basic structure of the typical antibody molecule, to the intricacies of human blood group immunochemistry. There's now considerable evidence to show that Amoxil is more effective than other broad spectrum antibiotics in the treatment of chest infections.[1,2,3,4]

There are some good reasons for this:

Firstly, Amoxil is extremely well absorbed by the oral route,[5] attaining high bactericidal concentrations.

And secondly, the overall absorption is unaffected by the presence of food[5] which means your patient doesn't have to remember to take Amoxil half an hour or whatever before meals.

Couple this with Amoxil's apparently excellent ability to penetrate into bronchial secretions[3,6], and you've probably explained why Amoxil out-performs other broad spectrums.[1,2,3,4]

Benoral

5ml b.d.

Pain-with little or no inflammation

10ml b.d.

Pain-with active inflammation

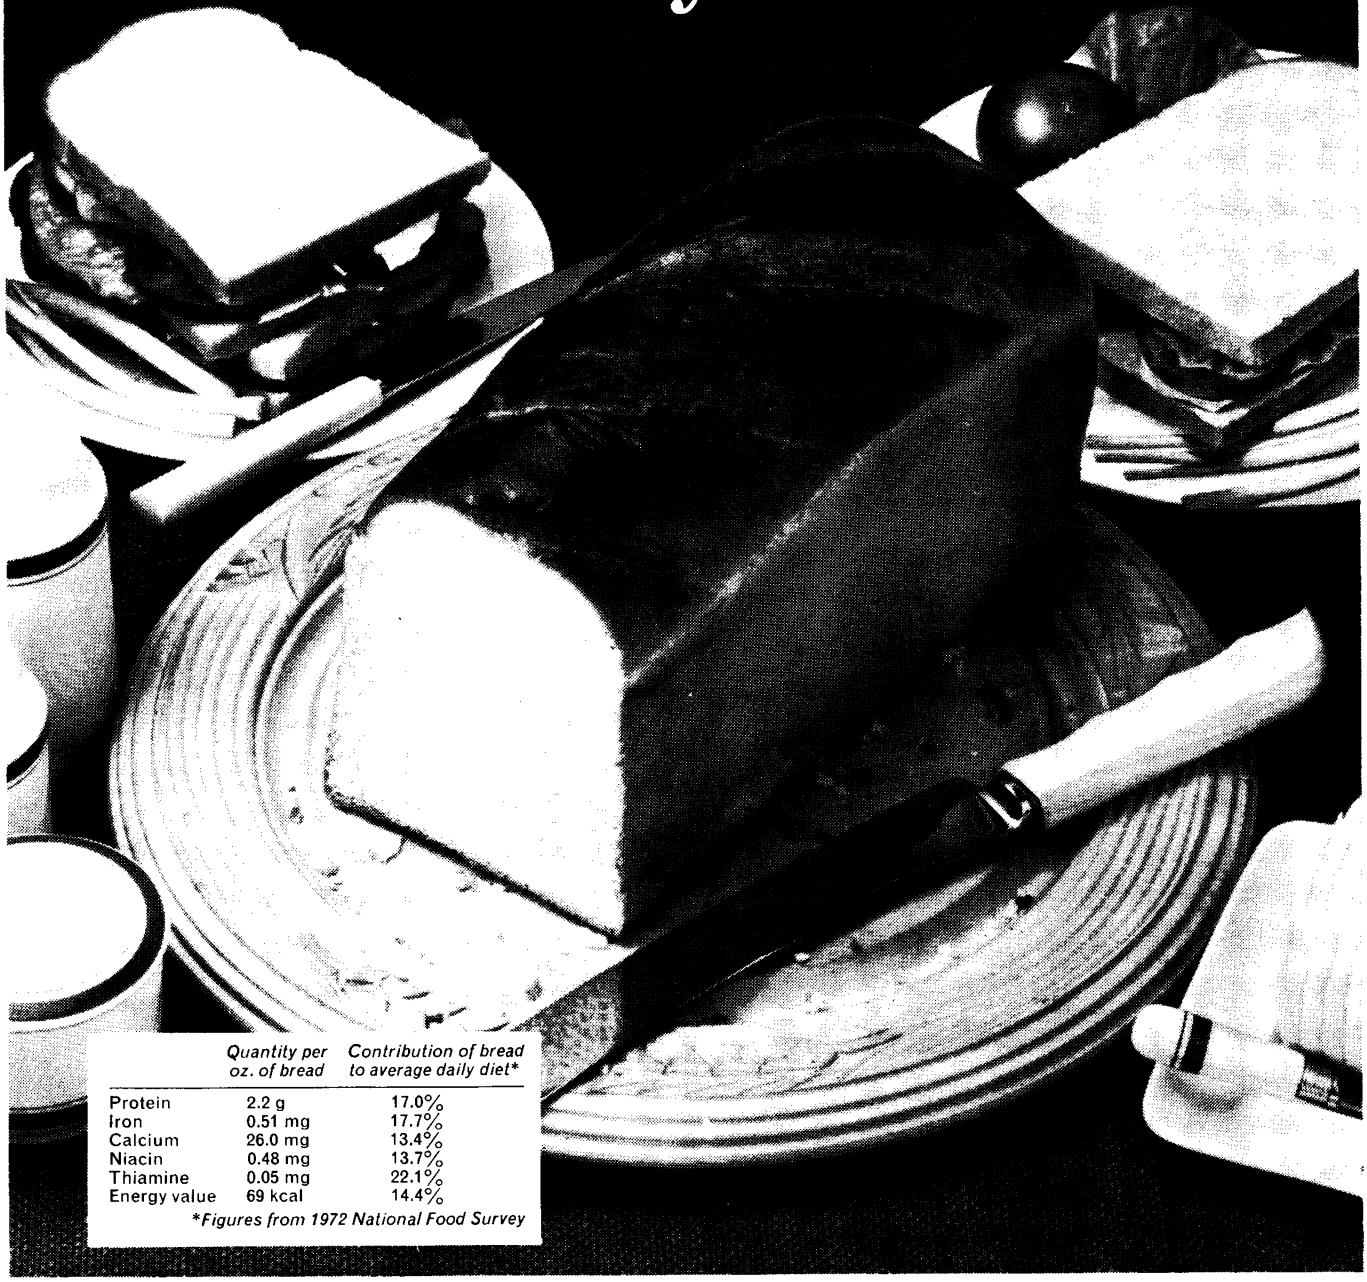

Now also available in 150ml pack

Formula Benoral Suspension contains 40% w/v (2g in 5ml) benorylate. (4-acetamidophenyl 2-acetoxybenzoate) Indications Benoral is recommended for the treatment of rheumatoid arthritis, osteoarthroses and other painful musculo-skeletal conditions. Benoral can also be used to relieve mild to moderate pain due to many other causes and as an antipyretic in febrile conditions. Dosage The usual adult dose for rheumatoid-arthritis and other painful musculo-skeletal conditions is 4 to 8g daily. Because it has a prolonged effect this amount can be conveniently given as 10ml of the Suspension (with water if required) morning and evening but 5ml may be taken 3 or 4 times a day if preferred. For the relief of mild to moderate pain 1g may be given 3 or 4 times daily as required. In influenza and as an antipyretic: 1-1.5g up to 4 times daily as required, Not suitable for children under the age of three months. For older children see medical literature. Contra-Indications Clinical experience to date has not revealed any clear-cut contra-indications for Benoral. However it would be wise to avoid the administration of Benoral to patients known to be hypersensitive to aspirin. Sids Effects Overall tolerance is excellent. Minor gastric disturbances (nausea, constipation, indigestion or heartburn) have occurred from time to time and drowsiness, and rashes have also been reported. The high blood levels of salicylate obtained with Benoral may give rise to dizziness, tinnitus and deafness. Precautions Benoral should be given with caution to patients with impaired renal or hepatic function. Because salicylate occurs as a metabolic product of benorylate, the prothrombin time of patients undergoing combined treatment with anti-coagulants should be carefully monitored. Because it produces high blood levels of paracetamol and salicylate it is advisable to instruct patients receiving large doses of Benoral to discontinue taking analgesics containing aspirin, phenacetin or paracetamol. Benoral is a new agent and should be used with caution in pregnancy. As with other anti-inflammatory agents, Benoral should be used with caution in patients with a history of peptic ulcer. Presentation Plastic bottles containing 300ml and 150ml. These light-weight containers which incorporate a measuring beaker have been specially designed to facilitate manipulation by patients whose hands are affected by rheumatoid arthritis. Basic N.H.S. Cost 300ml £3.43. 150ml £1.73. One day's treatment (5ml b.d.), 11p. Benoral is a registered trade mark.

Bread should have a place on every table

	Quantity per oz. of bread	Contribution of bread to average daily diet*
Protein	2.2 g	17.0%
Iron	0.51 mg	17.7%
Calcium	26.0 mg	13.4%
Niacin	0.48 mg	13.7%
Thiamine	0.05 mg	22.1%
Energy value	69 kcal	14.4%

Figures from 1972 National Food Survey

Our daily bread is often underestimated as an essential source of goodness and nourishment.

In the average national diet (according to the 1972 National Food Survey), bread plays a key part, providing over one-sixth of a person's daily protein and iron intake; over one-fifth of the daily thiamine; and around one-seventh of the daily calcium, niacin and energy value.

This means, of course, that the importance of including bread in one's diet should never be underestimated. To cut out bread, even when slimming, may produce an unsatisfactory diet. For health's sake, it's worth recommending bread in every diet.

Penny for penny, bread provides nearly three times as much protein as white fish or beef, and significantly more protein than cheese. Which makes our daily bread one of the best food bargains in the world.

When bronchitis causes concern

In acute-on-chronic bronchitis and other severe chest infections, you can be more certain of first-time success when you prescribe Magnapen.

Magnapen's greater certainty means that the patient is more likely to respond quickly, minimising the damage to lung tissue. And Magnapen can save you the time which you might otherwise have to spend on repeat visits, second consultations or night calls to patients who may fail to respond to other antibiotics.

Magnapen destroys virtually all the bacteria met in general practice. So you can rely on Magnapen even when there are no laboratory reports to guide you.

UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA
Perth

CO-ORDINATOR
Of Postgraduate Studies at the Royal Perth Hospital
(Senior Lecturer or Associate Professor)

The University of Western Australia invites applications for appointment as Co-ordinator of Postgraduate Studies at the Royal Perth Hospital. The appointee will hold status as Senior Lecturer or Associate Professor, and will be a member of the clinical academic staff of the appropriate University Department at the Hospital. These include Departments of Medicine, Surgery and Psychiatry.

The Royal Perth Hospital is the major undergraduate teaching hospital of the University of Western Australia. It includes 1,016 acute, convalescent and rehabilitation beds. It is accredited for advanced training by all medical colleges granting postgraduate diplomas.

The duties of the Co-ordinator of Postgraduate Studies at the Hospital are expected to occupy up to half the working time of the appointee. They include organisation and supervision of the continuing education programme for junior and senior resident medical officers, and acting for the Hospital Postgraduate Committee in other graduate activities. This Committee is responsible for supervision of advanced training within the Hospital for higher degrees and diplomas in medicine, surgery and other specialties. It is also the organising body for the regular weekly graduate meetings, and the annual graduate seminars of the Hospital group. The appointee will spend the other half of his time on University duties.

The appointee will be responsible for his Hospital duties to the Postgraduate Committee and Medical Superintendent of the Royal Perth Hospital, and for his University duties to the Head of the Department to which he is attached.

Clinical duties will be undertaken within the relevant University Department at the Hospital, depending upon the appointee's specialty and qualifications. These will include management of ward and clinic patients. Some undergraduate teaching will be required. Facilities for laboratory and clinical research are available.

Minimal requirements for appointment are a medical qualification registrable in the State of Western Australia, and a higher degree or diploma such as M.R.A.C.P., F.R.A.C.S. or equivalent. Teaching experience is mandatory and research experience desirable.

The salary ranges are: Senior Lecturer — $A12,268 — $A14,308 p.a.; Associate Professor — $A15,940 p.a. A Senior Lecturer will be entitled to a differential of $A2,500 p.a., and an Associate Professor to one of $A3,000 p.a., for clinical responsibilities. Benefits include superannuation similar to F.S.S.U., fares to Perth for appointee and dependant family, removal allowance, study leave and long service leave and housing loan scheme.

Applications in duplicate stating full personal particulars, qualifications and experience should reach the Staffing Officer, University of Western Australia, Nedlands, Western Australia, 6009, by 13th April, 1974. Candidates should request three referees to write immediately to the Staffing Officer. (24423) 25

An illness or an accident can be costly.
Fortunately, most of us recover and the setback to family finance is only temporary.
But can the same be said of permanent incapacity?
Adequate insurance is the answer for the majority of doctors.

Training in Community Medicine

MIDLANDS AND SOUTH WESTERN INTER-REGIONAL SCHEME

A two-year programme of in-post training is planned to begin in September 1974 to assist doctors to prepare for a career in community medicine and for the Membership examination of the Faculty of Community Medicine of the Royal College of Physicians. It is being offered jointly by the Universities of Birmingham, Bristol, Exeter, Oxford, Reading, Southampton and the Welsh National School of Medicine in collaboration with health service authorities. Each University will contribute instruction in the subjects of its special experience and knowledge.

The Universities will provide a co-ordinated series of two-week modules of academic tuition, amounting to a total of 20 weeks over a period of two years; studies between modules will be supervised by university staff. During the two years doctors will be expected to gain appropriate in-service experience in training posts in health service authorities. For this purpose training posts will be offered in the five Regions with which the universities are associated (West Midlands, Oxford, South Western, Wales and Wessex). Although trainees will be in contract with Regional Health Authorities, the in-service training experience may be provided at various levels within the health services.

The training posts established will be equivalent to registrar in the clinical specialties (salary £2850-£3531): where doctors currently earning higher salaries are appointed it will be at the discretion of Regional Health Authorities to allow protection of salary.

Applications are invited from registered Medical Practitioners who have had at least one year's post-registration experience; they should be addressed to the Regional Administrator of the Regional Health Authority which is the applicant's first choice, but should also indicate any other Regions for which he would wish to be considered. Applications should be received not later than 31st May, 1974.

Applicants should send brief details of age, qualifications, and previous experience, a brief statement of future career intentions, and names and addresses of three referees.

Further details of the course can be obtained from Professor A.G.W. Whitfield, Director, Board of Graduate Studies, The Medical School, Birmingham B15 2TJ, who is the co-ordinator of the scheme.

The addresses of the Regional Health Authorities participating in the scheme are:

SERVICES

16th/5th The Queen's Royal Lancers, currently with squadrons in Hong Kong, England and Cyprus, move as a Regiment to Wolfenbuttel on the edge of the Hartz Mountains near Brunswick in West Germany in October 1974. On moving the Regiment requires a "Surgeon Captain". Salary and terms of service are the same as for the R.A.M.C. with the important difference that our doctor stays with the Regiment, and may not be posted elsewhere by military medical authorities against his or her will!. Duties are those of a G.P. and include running a Regimental Medical Centre and looking after the soldiers of the Regiment and their families. Additionally, the Doctor is the Commanding Officer's adviser on all health matters. Applicants may be married or single and if they ride, ski, sail and/or enjoy conventional sports, so much the better. Interested? Apply to Box 4582 BMJ for an interview. 115

Attention is drawn to the importance of detailed careful consideration to the terms of any contract, especially as terms and conditions of service may differ markedly in different areas. 'Notes on Contracts Overseas' may be obtained on application to the Secretary.

Before any contract is signed it is advisable to obtain full details of remuneration and of terms and conditions of service and information about local conditions. These may often be obtained from the local B.M.A. Branch or affiliated Medical Association whose address may also be obtained on application to the Secretary.

A GENERAL PRACTITIONER is required to join two other G.P.'s in a Group Practice at Taihape, New Zealand. For many years there were three doctors in Taihape, but one left two years ago, and the remaining two have been unable to cope with the work. The Group Practice rooms are situated in the hospital grounds, so X-ray services etc. are readily available. Taihape has a Maternity Hospital (12 bed) and a 50 bed General Hospital. These are both staffed by the local G.P.'s and the combination of the hospital with the Group Practice makes a very efficient working unit. The incoming doctor must be prepared to attend to Maternity Cases. Taihape is a small town in the centre of the North Island. It is only a short distance from the summer relaxation area at Lake Taupo, and winter skiing on Mt. Ruapehu, as well as being reasonably close to two major cities. Contact: Mr G. L. Batchelor P. O. This is what we call practising medicine.

A career in Naval medicine can be a rewarding experience. Opportunities to specialise abound. And perhaps above all else, there is an immense satisfaction to be gained from the wide variety of work you will be involved in.

At sea, for instance, you could be anywhere from the Mediterranean to the Pacific Ocean. Looking after the health and well being of the company of a modern warship.

And though you could spend as long as the first eighteen months of your five year Short Service Commission on board different ships, you need have no fear of losing contact with mainstream medicine. For no matter where you are, you will be kept informed of current medical opinion.

After this, the choice is yours. Post graduate medical training and a career in the clinical disciplines at one of our naval district general hospitals. Haslar or Plymouth, for instance, with their wide spectrum of clinical material drawn from naval personnel, their dependants and the local civilian population as well. There are also naval hospitals in Malta, Gibraltar and Mauritius, with opportunities for exchange appointments elsewhere.

Or you might prefer occupational medicine in our research orientated naval dockyards. Aviation medicine with its accent on rotary wing support of the Fleet. And for those with an administrative turn of mind, community medicine.

Royal Naval expertise in maritime medicine is recognised world wide and research into underwater medicine, nuclear medicine and the closed submarine environment is centred at the Institute of Naval Medicine at Alverstoke.

Naval general practice in well staffed and equipped medical centres extend as far afield as Hong Kong and Singapore. And new training schemes are now under way in the United Kingdom.

Should you be moved or sent abroad at any time, all expenses will be paid by us. We will help you with accommodation (at very reasonable rents) and provide allowances for the education of your children, if you have a family.

If you enter the Royal Navy immediately after registration you will be given the rank of Surgeon Lieutenant and a salary of £4,099, rising to £4,249 after four years.

On the other hand, if you are older (up to the age of forty) and more experienced, we can offer you a number of opportunities in general practice and the specialities. And, depending on your post-registration experience, you could enter as a Surgeon Lieutenant Commander at a salary of £5,161, rising to £5,658.

Then, at the end of your five year Short Service Commission you could leave with a tax free gratuity of £3,000.

But if it is mutually agreeable, you could apply for a Full Career Commission or a 16 year pensionable commission. The choice is yours.

In the meantime if you would like further information, write giving details of your age and qualifications to Surgeon Commander L.C. Banks, R.N., (724BU5) Department of the Medical Director General (Naval), Empress State Building, Fulham, London SW6.

Opportunities for Experienced Doctors to specialise in Psychiatry

As a Medical Officer in the Prison Medical Service you are responsible for the general medical care of the inmates of the establishment — borstal, prison or remand centre — to which you are attached. Current vacancies are at HM Prisons, Briston, Canterbury, Durham, Grendon, Leeds, Parkhurst, Wakefield, Winchester, and Holloway or Wormwood Scrubs.

In making medical and psychiatric assessments for the Department and the Courts, assistance is available from psychologists, social workers and pharmacists at most establishments. Surgical and psycho-therapeutic units employing part-time specialists are established at selected centres and use is made of the facilities available in NHS hospitals for consultations and special investigations. The general hygiene and dietary requirements of the establishment are also your concern.

These posts provide a unique opportunity to research into mental and physical disorders.

Candidates must be fully registered as medical practitioners in the U.K. and possess good all-round medical and surgical experience. A knowledge of psychological medicine is desirable, and a D.P.M. is an advantage.

Starting salary within the scale £5,332 — £6,968 (plus £111 environment allowance) according to qualifications and experience. Promotion prospects. Non-contributory pension scheme. Rented accommodation may be available.

For full details and an application form (to be returned by 5th April, 1974) write to Civil Service Commission, Alencon Link, Basingstoke, Hants. RG21 1JB, or telephone Basingstoke 29222, Ext. 500 or London 01-839 1992 (24 hour answering service), quoting S(D)/630/1.

'Stemetil' at work
Anxiety poses special problems in those who work.
Because anxiety, by blunting mental faculties, producing physical symptoms, or both, always impairs the capacity to work.
Because treatment, if it is the wrong kind, may easily do the same.

DALMANE

Getting to sleep

Arch. gen. Psychiat., 1970, 23, 226

Patients asleep in less than half the time

Clinical trials[1–3] have shown that Dalmane cuts sleep latency – the time taken to get to sleep – by half. In one study[3] Dalmane reduced the average sleep latency in a group of insomniacs from 36·2 minutes to 13·9 minutes.

Staying asleep

Arch. gen. Psychiat., 1970, 23, 226

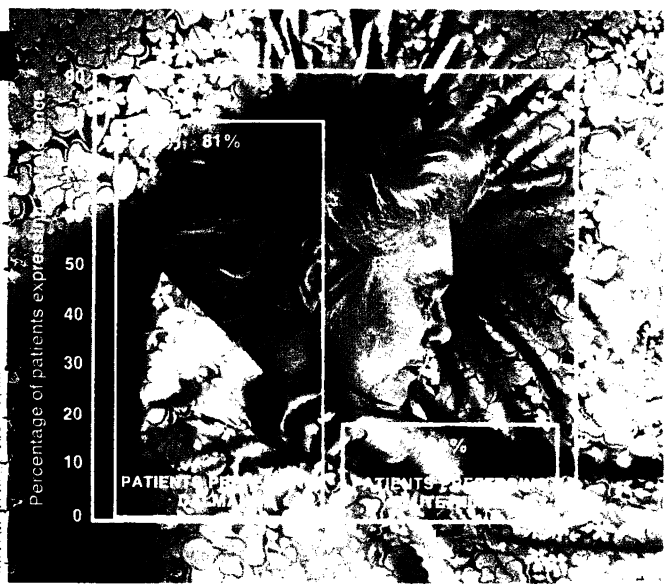

Average sleep of more than 8 hours

Dalmane increased the duration of sleep to – in one published study[3] – an average of 8 hours 11·7 minutes in patients who had previously suffered from insomnia. Dalmane also reduces the number of nocturnal awakenings[1,4] and the actual length of time spent awake during the night – from an average of 52·8 minutes to 24·3 minutes in one trial[4].

a new and powerful treatment for insomnia

Patient Preference

Preferred by a greater number of patients[5] – low incidence of side-effects

In one trial in which Dalmane was compared with glutethimide, of those patients who expressed a preference 81 per cent did so in favour of Dalmane, whilst only 19 per cent preferred glutethimide. This high level of patient preference is due to the ability of Dalmane to produce sound sleep with a low incidence of side-effects. Dalmane has been shown to produce less hangover than glutethimide in another trial[6], than a barbiturate[7], and, in one trial even a placebo – 9 cases with Dalmane, 25 with placebo[8].

Safety

A non-barbiturate treatment for insomnia with a wide margin of safety

Dalmane has an extremely high mean lethal dose in mice and rats[9], thus suggesting that overdosage would be unlikely to present undue problems of management or threat to life. Human toxicity studies[10] in which healthy men were given large doses of Dalmane for some time confirmed that it is well tolerated and produces no unwanted systemic effects.

Any similarity between Burinex and other diuretics is purely beneficial

(and so are the differences.)

Different in Chemistry

Burinex* is a new chemical entity, being derived from metanilamide; it is quite distinct from any available diuretic. Despite careful search by such techniques as autoradiography, it has not been possible to detect any metabolite in the human.

Different in Pharmacology

Burinex differs in pharmacological potency, with a dose about one-fortieth that of any other short-acting diuretic. After oral administration, diuresis normally begins at 30 minutes – "peaks" at 90 minutes and is largely complete within three hours.

Beneficial in Effect

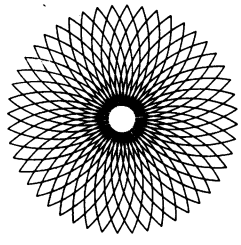

Burinex has been shown to be of value in clinical practice, not only for the seriously ill patient where a rapid diuresis is required but also for maintenance, where the predictable effect can be utilised to fit the patient's domestic circumstances and work routine. During long term treatment Burinex has proved to be very well tolerated.

Beneficial in Price

The price of Burinex is significantly less than any comparable diuretic. The long term use of Burinex would therefore represent a considerable saving in cost.
