Why forbid the patient coffee?

Thanks to H-A-G Decaffeinated Coffee
even in cases of Insomnia, Palpitations, Disorders of the Heart and Circulation,
Excitability, Gastritis and Peptic Ulcer, Gallstones, certain Diseases of the Liver
the patient need not forego his favourite beverage.

* THE H-A-G DECAFFEINATING PROCESS.
Swelling the green beans by steam pressure enlarges the pores and exposes the maximum surface to the highly volatile caffeine solvent, not trichlorethylene, which is flushed through the beans, carrying the caffeine with it. The surplus solvent is removed by a final steam flushing. The beans are then roasted in the normal way.

H-A-G coffee is available in 3 forms, Beans, Ground and Instant.

Liberal samples of Ground or Instant will be sent free and post free to any Doctors applying to:
The A.A. Supply Co. Ltd, Dept. BM,

WHAT SECRET POWER DID THEY POSSESS?

Why Were These Men Great?

How does anyone—man or woman—achieve greatness? Is it not by mastery of the powers within ourselves?

Know the mysterious world within you! Attune yourself to the wisdom of the ages! Grasp the inner power of your mind! Learn the secrets of a full and peaceful life!

Benjamin Franklin, statesman and inventor . . . Isaac Newton, discoverer of the Law of Gravitation . . . Francis Bacon, philosopher and scientist . . . like many other learned and great men and women . . . were Rosicrucians. The Rosicrucians (NOT a religious organization) have been in existence for centuries. One of our doctors on night call.

Are you a doctor? Or a student waiting to go to a teaching hospital?

If so, may we ask a few questions?

While you'd obviously prefer to operate in a hospital, could you in an emergency do so on a street corner, possibly under fire?

Remember, you won't be able to call for blood tests, x-rays or second opinions.

We don't want to exaggerate the situation. You'll probably spend far more of your time looking after the general health of the regiment in your own medical centre.

But when the regiment's on active duty so are you, and you could easily find yourself jumping into the back of a Land Rover one night if some of your boys are in trouble.

This leads us to the next question: in these circumstances you might well be responsible for half a dozen soldiers.

To them you won't just be a doctor, you'll be an Officer, and they'll expect you to act like one. Could you cope?

To help you do this, you'll spend a month at Sandhurst.

Your military training.

We don't ask you to leap around assault courses with eager young Infantry Officers. Nor will we expect you to become a crack shot.

But it is essential that you study map-reading and learn how to operate a field radio.

It'll also help if you know how to lead a platoon, possibly on a night exercise (the idea is to give you a taste of the practical problems in giving orders).

But of course, it's your qualification as a doctor that interests us most, and the one we want to make most of. So your next stop will be the RAMC training centre, Aldershot.

Your medical training.

At Aldershot you'll attend lectures and demonstrations to explain the functions of the RAMC and how medical units fit into the Army as a whole.

Then you'll go to the Royal Army Medical College at Millbank.

Here you'll learn about certain medical aspects of cases and conditions that you would not come across in civilian life. Gunshot wounds and burns, for example, and field hygiene, as well as military psychiatry and preventive medicine.

Later, we'll want you to brush-up on tropical medicine since we still have men overseas.

Your first appointment.

You'll work as a general practitioner in a medical centre responsible for the health and welfare of soldiers and their families.

As such, you'll also be the Regiment's Medical Officer and the Colonel's adviser on all health matters affecting the troops.

During this time you could go with a regiment to Northern Ireland and just as easily to Norway on winter exercises.

After a year you'll come to something of a crossroads in your career: what do you want to do next?

It might help if we outline some of the alternatives.

Your post-graduate training.

You could complete a Vocational Training Programme whilst in general practice or take Community Medicine.

Alternatively, you may go for specialist postgraduate training in one of the military hospitals.

Then there are the numerous opportunities for medical research.

Recent projects have covered the study of Q Fever in the Middle East. Investigation of common dyspeptic syndromes in young people.

An enquiry into the causation of renal lithiasis, the treatment of missile injuries and the long-term preservation of blood.

Medical cadets.

Another way to become a doctor in the Army is to join as a student.

If you've completed your pre-clinical studies and have obtained a place at a teaching hospital, you can apply for a medical cadetship.

As a Medical Cadet you'll earn £1,099 a year and get an education grant of £1,095.

One thing we must point out. When you've qualified you must stay with the RAMC for five years from the date of joining.

As a fully registered doctor your starting salary will be £5,997, with a tax free gratuity of £1,500 if you decide to leave after three years, and £3,000 after five years.

Before you make your final decision why not visit one of our medical establishments and talk to some RAMC Officers?

Write to: Brigadier (Retd.) John J. Voller, MRCS, LRCP, FFARCS, Dept. M3, Regimental Headquarters RAMC, Royal Army Medical College, Millbank, London SW1 4RJ.

The Allergic Salute

A sign of perennial rhinitis, the cold that can last for 25 years.

Some children seem to have a permanent cold. They're constantly sniffing and often have a troublesome nocturnal cough. They're always twitching, pressing, wiping or rubbing their nose, usually upwards, causing an accentuated crease in the skin.

They may not be suffering from a cold at all, but from perennial allergic rhinitis.

Now you can prevent it with Lomusol. Lomusol provides an effective prophylactic treatment in metered-dose form. It's easy to carry, simple to use and its safety makes it ideal for long-term treatment.

FISONS - Leaders in Allergy Research

Lomusol

Full prescribing information on Lomusol (Sodium Cromoglycate B.P.) is available from FISONS LIMITED - PHARMACEUTICAL DIVISION, Loughborough, Leics. Alternative presentations for nasal use of a 2% solution of sodium cromoglycate are available as Rynacrom Nasal Spray and Drops.

The Australian Army is a great life for the doctor with a family.

A man like you perhaps.

Australia would be a wonderful place for your family. Its healthy, sunny climate and generous opportunities make it a good place for your children to grow up.

While you enjoy a fulfilling career in the Australian Army.

With us you'll benefit by having every opportunity to develop the skills you've gained to their fullest. Working with the most up-to-date equipment.

Rank on appointment is based on qualifications and previous experience. If your rank on appointment is Captain you'll be paid a minimum salary, from time of appointment in the UK, of £7,875.00 p.a. ($12,560) rising to £9,862.50 p.a. ($15,777) over five years.

You will also receive a service allowance of £593.75 p.a. ($950) and a uniform maintenance allowance of £131.25 p.a. ($210).

Passage for you and your family is of course free and living accommodation or an allowance in lieu is provided in all areas.

As a doctor in the Australian Army, you'll appreciate the extra time you have for family life. So will your family.

A doctor can gain a lot from 5 years in the Royal Navy.

As a qualified doctor, you can join the Royal Navy for 3 or 5 years on a Short Service Commission.

In that time, you'll spend up to a year practising medicine in a Naval ship.

You could have the chance of working and living overseas for a time.

And you'll be able to do your General Professional Training in one of the clinical and medical scientific disciplines at a Naval hospital or an RN establishment.

At sea.

After a short Officers course at the Royal Naval College, Dartmouth, and a basic course in maritime medicine at the Institute of Naval Medicine, Alverstoke, you'll normally go to sea for about 12 months.

You'll be responsible for the medical care of some 250 to 500 men in your ship (and advise the Captain on health and environmental problems).

You won't lose touch with modern medicine, as you can visit local hospitals in ports of call and use the teaching aids provided by your Naval tutor.

Postgraduate training and specialisation.

After your sea-time, career counselling will determine your postgraduate training programme.

There are opportunities for General Professional Training in preparation for a clinical career in general practice, the hospital specialities, or the medical scientific disciplines such as Aviation, Underwater, Submarine and Nuclear Medicine; or in occupational and community medicine.

If you decide to transfer to a 16-year pensionable Commission, or a permanent Commission, you could move on to recognised higher training programmes which include research training and higher training posts in civilian units.

At Alverstoke, the Dean of Naval Medicine co-ordinates postgraduate medical training and research.

Naval hospitals.

The two largest are at Haslar (near Portsmouth) and Plymouth.

They undertake the care of Naval personnel, their families and NHS civilians, providing a broad spectrum of clinical material. Both hospitals are recognised for higher training in the major specialities.

There is a full range of modern, technical equipment, and the nursing and paramedical staff are highly skilled.

There are smaller hospitals in Malta and Gibraltar.

Salary.

If you join us immediately after registration, your salary will be £5,997 as a Surgeon Lieutenant.

You can, however, join at any age up to 39. In that case, your postgraduate experience is taken into account, and you could join as a Surgeon Lieutenant Commander earning £8,015 a year.

If you leave at the end of your 3 year Commission, you'll receive a tax-free gratuity of £1,500, or, after 5 years, £3,000.

If you decide to stay on, you can apply for a 16-year pensionable Commission or a permanent Commission.

The salary structure is based on an analogue computed from the average earnings of general practitioners in the NHS, with an additional X factor. There is extra pay for recognised postgraduate qualifications and Senior Specialist or Consultant status.

If you're posted overseas, you can, of course, take your family with you. There are, too, generous boarding school allowances for your children, starting at £807 for your first child.

For more information, write to Surgeon Commander H.B. Blackstone, MRCS, LRCP, MRCGP, RN, (724FM4), Medical Directorate General (Navy), Ministry of Defence Empress State Building, London SW6 1TR.

Cheshire Area Health Authority Family Practitioner Committee

New Medical Practice Vacancy in the Birchwood District of the Warrington New Town, Cheshire.

A new single-handed medical practice vacancy has been created in the Birchwood district of Warrington New Town. The vacancy will attract an Initial Practice Allowance Type 'D'. Under the terms of the Type 'D' Initial Practice Allowance the guaranteed net income for the first doctor will be a flat rate of £11,030 unrelated to the doctor's previous income and will continue for up to five years from the date of first appointment. Reasonable practice expenses will be met by the Family Practitioner Committee. The Allowance will not cease upon the appointment of a partner but a joint guaranteed net income of £19,515 will then become payable. A Type 'C' Initial Practice Allowance will be payable when a third partner joins the practice and also on the appointment of a fourth doctor. Doctors appointed as first or second doctor on a Type 'D' Allowance may claim removal expenses and may be paid travelling and subsistence expenses for necessary prior visits to the area.

General practitioners who have been qualified doctors for about ten years, two of which have been spent in hospital appointments and five in busy general practice in this country, are invited to apply for this appointment. Applicants should also have extensive maternity experience and should be acceptable for inclusion in the Obstetric List.

The successful applicant will eventually be expected to lead the primary care team of five or six doctors. It is hoped that the successful applicant will be able to take up the appointment in July, the actual date to be agreed following discussions between the Family Practitioner Committee and the successful candidate.

New residents are beginning to move into the area and it is estimated that the Birchwood district will have a population of approximately 10,900 by 1980/81. The population could grow to approximately 20,000 by the early 1990s. The Warrington New Town Development Corporation are making available temporary surgery premises in the form of a Temporary Health Centre pending the erection of a permanent Health Centre in 1979.

Residential accommodation can be made available to the successful applicant if required.

Further information and application forms should be obtained from the Administrator, Cheshire Family Practitioner Committee, 28 Nicholas Street, Chester (Tel. No. Chester 23158-9) and completed applications returned not later than 6th March, 1976. (H10326)

COMMERCIAL APPOINTMENTS

Head of Clinical Research

This is a senior and influential appointment within the UK Research Centre of one of the world's largest and most respected pharmaceutical companies.

It offers an unusual opportunity to make a very direct contribution to the future progress of medicine, through leadership of a team concerned with the discovery and evaluation of new therapeutic agents.

The company is Roche Products Limited, well-known for the quality of its research and for the originality of its contributions to medicine over many years. The company's long-term commitment to the success of its UK research programme is reflected in the substantial expansion of its scientific research strength over the last four years, and in the recent completion of impressive new research buildings.

The post calls for a rare blend of clinical, scientific and organisational skills. It entails leadership and direction of a highly experienced clinical research team and, through this team, the planning and coordination of clinical evaluation studies on prospective new medicines, both in the UK and in certain overseas territories. Also, by membership of key research committees, the Head of Clinical Research will make a significant creative contribution to the various other scientific project groups.

Additional responsibilities include provision of advice on the financing of fundamental clinical research projects in outside Medical Centres, and representation of the company at the highest levels of the Profession, both nationally and internationally.

Suitable candidates will already hold responsible positions in Universities, Hospitals or Industry and have achieved superior standing in their own branch of Medicine.

Our search for this appointment will not be confined to the UK, and applications are particularly welcomed from graduates of British medical schools who are currently working overseas.

The starting remuneration level will be appropriate to that of a consultant with a good merit award, and a car and other important benefits will also be provided.

The post will be based at Roche's UK Research Centre in Welwyn Garden City. The area offers good educational facilities and amenities, together with pleasant countryside for home and family.

Please apply in complete confidence quoting reference ED7, or 'phone if you would like to discuss the position further:

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH

Medical Officer

The National Coal Board's medical contribution to the intensive programme to eliminate pneumoconiosis includes a comprehensive X-Ray Service with Centres in each of the major coalfields. The X-Ray Service has recently been extended to comply with additional responsibilities resulting from the Coal Mines (Respirable Dust) Regulations 1975 and as a result of promotion within the Service there is now a vacancy for a medical officer.

In addition to the clinical and epidemiological aspects of radiography in the coal mining industry, chest X-ray surveys are undertaken for other industries with potential dust hazards such as asbestosis and silicosis. Staff are encouraged to develop original research and to take part in national projects. Close contact with local hospitals and chest clinics is essential.

Applicants should have previous experience in chest diseases and/or radiology. Initial training will be given in Yorkshire and thereafter the successful applicant will be based in South Wales, where experience in general occupational medicine will also be available.

Salary will depend on experience, but initially will be in excess of £7000, with good promotion prospects.

APPOINTMENTS

Applicants for medical appointments are advised to check whether the post advertised is included in the Important Notice and to scrutinize carefully the remuneration and terms of service offered. Any member who is in doubt about these terms in relation to B.M.A. agreements should consult the Secretary of the Association.

Advertisers are reminded that the Race Relations Board insists that no descriptive term implying racial, national, or ethnic characteristics may be used in any advertisement. Further, readers are advised not to apply for any appointment which discriminates between applicants on grounds of creed or unreasonably on grounds of sex.

HOSPITAL APPOINTMENTS

Applicants should state names, address, age, nationality, and qualifications, and enclose (unless otherwise specified) one copy of each of three recent testimonials, with a short statement of experience and appointments held. Applications should be sent at once if no closing date is given: Canvassing disqualifies (Statutory Instrument, 1974, No. 361).

All National Health Service hospital appointments are in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Service of Hospital Medical Staff.

Further details concerning standards of residential accommodation, telephone charges, removal allowances, study leave and other matters should be obtained from the Hospital Secretary; or by B.M.A. members from the Secretary, British Medical Association.

In particular, they will find full details of facilities provided in most hospitals in the United Kingdom in the current edition of the Hospital Gazetteer. If such details are not included members are advised to consult the Secretary of the B.M.A.

Applicants requiring hospital married accommodation are strongly advised to obtain, prior to interview, clarification in writing from the employing authority as to whether such accommodation will be available on appointment.

No advertisement may stipulate that a non-resident must live less than 10 miles from a hospital. Advertisements for post-registration house officers, senior house officers and registrars should state clearly whether the post is resident, i.e. compulsorily resident.

In all advertisements grade should be clearly indicated. Normally a consultant vacancy must be advertised as (a) part-time with the number of sessions clearly stated, or (b) whole-time with the option of maximum part-time.

In the view of the BMA, an advertiser should not insist on possession of English higher qualifications in preference to Scottish or Irish qualifications (or vice versa).

WEST MIDLANDS TRAINING SCHEME IN PATHOLOGY

WHOLE-TIME REGISTRAR IN MEDICAL MICROBIOLOGY
to the above scheme. When finance becomes available, a new scheme will embrace all registrar appointments in the West Midlands Area with six posts in medical microbiology, nine in haematology, nine in histopathology and three in chemical pathology. Trainees will be able to spend three years at registrar level, one of these in a teaching and two in non-teaching hospitals. There are opportunities to gain experience in more than one discipline of pathology if this is desired. Advisory groups of consultants and academic staff will supervise closely training in each discipline. There is a two year half-day release course for the Primary examination for membership of the Royal College of Pathologists which covers all disciplines. Regular seminars are held for those who are working for the Final examination of the College.

Chances of promotion to the Senior Registrar level in the West Midlands are excellent. There are six posts in microbiology. All posts rotate between teaching and non-teaching hospitals. Applicants will normally be expected to have spent a year as senior house officer either in pathology or in an appropriate clinical discipline; those without such experience will be considered for appointment at senior house officer level. Further information available from Dr. P. P. Brown, Consultant Bacteriologist, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, (021 472 1311) or Dr. I. A. Harper, New Cross Hospital, Wolverhampton (732255 Ext. 2190).

ZAMBIA

A superb location

— particularly for broadening professional and management skills with a 3-year contract. This land-locked central African state, larger than France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Switzerland combined, has a congenial, equable climate and a wealth of fascinating scenery. Although mainly a broad plateau, Zambia also has spectacular mountains, dense forest, penetrating rivers and vast lakes as well as huge wildlife reserves. Large cities and towns containing all the usual modern facilities are linked by excellent road and rail services. Extensive natural resources, copper particularly, have provided the firm economic base for dramatic post-independence progress. Wide-ranging, expanding industries and substantial agriculture, which includes both crops and dairy farming, ensure the long-term continuation of Zambia's prosperity.

Sinequan^{*}

brand of doxepin *Trade Mark greater effect in depression/anxiety ...less effect on the cardiovascular system

Sinequan is less likely than either imipramine or amitriptyline to cause cardiac conduction defects, both at therapeutic doses and in overdoses.¹

Unlike amitriptyline and imipramine, Sinequan at the normal clinical dosage can be given with guanethidine and related compounds without blocking the anti-hypertensive effect.²

Unlike the benzodiazepine tranquillisers, Sinequan will not pose the problems of euphoria and dependence. Only one case of euphoria was observed in 1,706 patients receiving Sinequan for up to 22 months.²

Unlike the phenothiazines, Sinequan has no tendency to cause opacities of the lens or cornea after long-term usage.²

Sinequan will not normally exert any appreciable effect on blood pressure or pulse rate. This holds true even in the elderly who often have exaggerated adverse reactions to psychotropic drugs.²
