By SIR HENRY THOMPSON,
Surgeon-Extraordinary to H.M. the King of the Belgians, Emeritus Professor of Clinical Surgery, and late Surgeon to University College Hospital.
"Before concluding, we must once more record our admiration of these lectures by Sir Henry Thompson.
They contain, condensed in a very small space, and in a most readable form, all that the practitioner need know of the surgical diseases of the urinary organs."— Med. Chir. Rev., April 1877.
J. & A. CHURCHILL, New Burlington Street.

Hospital.

"The chapter on treatment is unquestionably the best in the book, and may be read with advantage by any physician."—Brit. Med. Jour.

"Dr. Fothergill's remarks on rest, on proper blood nutrition in heart disease, on the treatment of the sequelæ of it, and on the actions of special medicines, all indicate that, in studying the pathology of heart disease, he has earnestly kept in view the best means of mitigating suffering and of prolonging life."—Lancet.
