LINGEN TESTIMONIAL.

At a Meeting of Professional Friends of Mr. CHARLES LINGEN, of Hereford, held at the residence of J. T. Clover, Esq., 3, Cavendish Place, Cavendish Square, London, on Friday, 18th of September—CHARLES HAWKINS, Esq., of Savile Row, in the Chair—a Discussion having taken place on the action, recently tried, against Mr. Lingen, at Gloucester, for libel, in which a Verdict was given for Defendant, but which verdict is sought to be set aside by an intended motion for a new trial, it was

RESOLVED—"That the Professional brethren of Mr. Lingen are desirous of marking their sense of the propriety and delicacy of his conduct towards the Plaintiff in the late action—Morgan v. Lingen—and their sympathy with him in the trouble and anxiety imposed by that vexatious lawsuit—followed up, as it is, by legal notice to move for a new trial to set aside the verdict of the jury—and that, with a view of giving expression to the sympathy and unabated respect entertained by his medical and private friends for Mr. Lingen, as one who holds a high position in his Profession, and has ever borne a reputation conspicuous for its moral and Christian character—a Committee be now appointed to promote a Testimonial to him."
