TO CORRESPONDENTS.

. All letters and communications for the JOURNAL, to be addressed to the EDITOR, 37, Great Queen St., Lincoln's Inn Fields, W.C.

CORRESPONDENTS, who wish notice to be taken of their communications, should authenticate them with their names—of course, not necessarily for publication.

A CORRESPONDENT writes:—"I am 35 years of age, and have been in the medical profession all my life, but have never yet had an opportunity of obtaining a diploma. My friends are very anxious that I should graduate now; and I wish to know whether I can obtain a degree without going through the tedious formula of three years attendance on lectures. I may say that I am well up in practical surgery and midwifery."
