TO CORRESPONDENTS

. All letters and communications for the JOURNAL, to be addressed to the EDITOR, 37, Great Queen St., Lincoln's Inn Fields, W.C.

CORRESPONDENTS, who wish notice to be taken of their communications, should authenticate them with their names—of course, not necessarily for publication.

ERRATUM.—In Dr. Fleming's paper published in the JOURNAL for October 1st, line 2, of paragraph 2, for "inches", read "yards".

MR. CARTER.—The quotation was taken from the Journal of British Ophthalmology, which, we find, interpolated into Mr. Carter's lines the words: "Editor and his crew". What Mr. Carter wrote was—"The Journal will fight for its life, like a rat in a corner, and will only be overcome by persevering and concerted action on the part of those who, like myself, regard it as a mere nuisance, devoted to the expression of unworthy sentiments, in illiterate and unwarrentable language." We still, however, ask if this is model language current amongst gentlemen?

A NEW QUARTERLY JOURNAL appears this October—The Journal of British Ophthalmology, edited by Mr. Jabez Hogg. It promises to be in an especial manner the exponent of the English school of eye surgery. It contains articles on Iridectomy and Section of the Ciliary Muscle; on Cancer of the Eyeball, by Dr. Nottingham; Reports of Ophthalmic Cases, by Mr. Hancock, by Mr. H. Wilson, by Dr. Graseman, and by Dr. Garstang. Mr. Watson writes on the Physiological Aspect of Certain Diseases of the Eye; Mr. J. Hogg on the Value of Belladonna in Iritis; etc.

GRIFFIN TESTIMONIAL FUND.—SIR: The following subscriptions have been further received on behalf of the above Fund:—T. H. Fenn, Esq. (Sudbury), 10s. 6d.; J. D. Bicknell, Esq. (Coventry), £1 1; Dr. H.
