MEDICAL TRANSFER & PROFESSIONAL AGENCY,
50, Lincoln's-inn-fields, W.C.

Mr. J. Baxter Langley, M.R.C.S.

(KING'S COLL.), begs to inform the members of the Medical Profession that he has undertaken the Medical Transfer and General Professional Agency business, till recently carried on by the late Mr. Bowmer.

Mr. Langley devotes his prompt personal attention to the negotiations entrusted to him, and treats confidentially and with care all matters relating to professional business. The strictest reserve will be practised in all the preliminary arrangements, and no expense incurred (except in special cases) unless a negotiation be completed.

The General Partnership and Commercial Agency business till recently conducted by him at his City offices, and his experience in the management of large commercial undertakings, combined with his professional acquirements, enable Mr. Langley to guarantee that all matters of business placed in his hands will be carried out without delay, and with an equitable regard to the interests of all the parties concerned.

Mr. Langley can refer to the Professors of his College, Members of Parliament, Clergy, Merchants, Bankers, and others, as a guarantee of his integrity and honour in all negotiations entrusted to him.

Full information as to terms, etc., sent free on application.
Office Hours, from 11 to 4; Saturdays from 11 to 2.

British Medical Journal.—

Office, 37, GREAT QUEEN STREET, LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS, LONDON, W.C. Published every Saturday.

THE BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL is transmitted direct from the Office to between two and three thousand Members of the British Medical Association in all parts of the United Kingdom, among whom are the Medical Officers of most Hospitals and Dispensaries, and the majority of the leading members of the profession. It is also taken in by many Libraries and Medical Societies. As a medium for immediate communication with the medical profession, it offers excellent facilities to advertisers of books, drugs, instruments, situations, etc.

Advertisements ought to be delivered at the Office on or before the Thursday preceding publication; and, if not paid for at the time, should be accompanied by a respectable reference.

Post-Office Orders are to be made payable at the Western Central District Office, High Holborn, to THOMAS JOHN HONEYMAN (the Publisher), 37, Great Queen Street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, W.C.
