Hastings Memorial Fund.—At the recent meeting of the British Medical Association, held at Chester, it was resolved to raise a special fund to be called, in memory of Sir Charles Hastings, "The Hastings Memorial Fund," the produce of which shall be devoted to provide, and supplement with a sum of money, the "Hastings Medal," which shall be awarded for distinguished labours in medical science to any member of the profession in any country. Gentlemen desirous of contributing, whether members of the Association or not, are requested to forward their donations to the Treasurer, Dr. FALCONER, of Bath, or to the Secretary,

T. WATKIN WILLIAMS, General Secretary.

Royal College of Physicians

OF LONDON.—FIRST PART OF THE PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATION FOR THE LICENCE. The next Examination of Students who have completed two years of Professional Study at a recognised Medical School will commence on Tuesday, December 4th.

SECOND PART OF THE PROFESSIONAL EXAMINATION.
—An Examination of Gentlemen who are eligible for admission to the Second Examination for the Licence will commence on Tuesday, December 11th.

Registered Medical Practitioners, qualified before January 1861, are admitted to Examination under special Bye-Law.

Candidates are required to give fourteen days notice in writing to the Registrar of the College, with whom all Certificates and Testimonials required by the Bye-Laws are to be left at the same time.

Pall Mall East, 1866. H. A. PITMAN, M.D., Registrar.

Epsom College Exhibitions.—

Notice is hereby given that a Committee of Council of the ROYAL MEDICAL BENEVOLENT COLLEGE will meet at the Office of the College in Soho Square, on Friday, the 23rd of November inst., to receive applications for the admission to the College of boys between the age of eight and fourteen, as Exhibitors, at the reduced terms of £30 per annum. Such boys must, by the 2nd Bye-Law of the College, be "sons of some of the less fortunate members of the medical profession".

The parents of Candidates must make a confidential statement as to their income, the number of their children, and their means of educating them. Forms for the purpose will be furnished on application at the office, and must be returned filled up by the morning of the 23rd inst., at latest. The Committee will make a list of the Candidates whom they consider to be eligible, and the Exhibitors will be selected from that list according to the result of a Competitive Examination, to be held on a fixed day in December. The successful Competitors will be admitted on the opening of the College in January.

All particulars may be obtained from the Secretary at the Office.

By order of the Council,

ROBERT FREEMAN, Secretary.
