* SAFETY & IMMEDIACY
OF RELIEF IN ASTHMA ARE ENSURED BY
FELSOL POWDERS

FELSOL is compounded in powder form to obviate any crushing of tablets before use. The dictum of Hale-White (Materia Medica, 18th edition) that "Tablets . . . are very popular, but are sometimes useless, for they may be so hard and insoluble that they are found in faeces quite unaltered" is too frequently overlooked.

FELSOL contains no narcotic and no morphia. It is safe for use in cardiac cases. FELSOL is absolutely non-cumulative in action.

* The powder form and special method of manufacture are the essentials of immediacy of relief with FELSOL in ASTHMA.

Why ANDREWS is the Ideal Tonic Laxative

Andrews is a pleasant tasting, effervescent aperient with tonic properties, and is a valuable aid to Inner Cleanliness.

Andrews is beneficial in most digestive disorders, feverish conditions, the ailments of children, and in pregnancy and lactation. Its use may be discontinued without reaction when the need for it ceases.

Andrews justifies the description of "Ideal Tonic Laxative" because:—

FIRST . . Patients like taking Andrews, because its brisk effervescence is immediately refreshing and stimulating, it sweetens the mouth and helps to clean the tongue.

NEXT . . Andrews allays gastric discomfort, heartburn and nausea by diminishing the stomach's acidity and relieving flatulence.

THEN . . Andrews increases bile flow, relieves hepatic congestion, and improves digestion. It is partly absorbed from the intestine as alkali, and therefore helps to correct acidity in the blood and to stimulate kidney function.

FINALLY . . Acting by osmosis, Andrews clears the bowels gently and entirely without irritation.

New . . and Overwhelming Evidence that STAPHYLOCOCCI are COMMON PATHOGENS

When this war began the importance of streptococci as infecting agents in man was both widely established and universally recognised.

But few medical practitioners acknowledged that staphylococci might be of equal importance.

To-day, despite the difficulties of keeping pace with advances in applied bacteriology in war time, there continues to accumulate incontrovertible evidence of the importance of staphylococci in the pathology of a number of conditions met with in medical practice.

NEW FACTS ABOUT STAPHYLOCOCCI JUSTIFY THE INTRODUCTION OF A NEW ANTISEPTIC

Notes on the conditions referred to are given below: and it is suggested that these are a complete justification for the introduction of the new antiseptic, O-SYL. For, in order adequately to deal with these conditions, it is now appreciated that an antiseptic should be available which is capable of equal bactericidal activity against staphylococci as it is against streptococci. The efficiency of O-Syl against staphylococci has been indicated by announcements published in this journal during the past few months. (Reprints of these announcements are available to members of the profession on request.) Further, O-Syl provides a safety factor in use which is not present in antiseptics developed during the period when the only consideration was the killing effect on streptococci.

THE EVIDENCE

1 IMPETIGO CONTAGIOSA. Bigger and Hodgson (1) have shown that 97% of their cultures yielded Staphylococci (mostly Staph. pyogenes) and only 32% streptococci (pyogenes). Moreover whilst staphylococci were present without streptococci in 67% of cultures, in only 2% were streptococci present without staphylococci. In unopened vesicles all cultures yielded only staphylococci (aureus). Sheehan and Ferguson (2) during an independent survey agreed closely with these findings and in addition showed that impetigo was reproduced with similar frequency when human skin was inoculated with staphylococcus aureus as with fluid obtained from the lesions of spontaneous impetigo.

2 BULLOUS IMPETIGO NEONATORUM. Benians and his co-workers (3) describe an epidemic of this condition due to staphylococci and suggest that statistics convey a suggestion that staphylococcal infections have become of greater frequency during the past two years.

3 STAPHYLOCOCCI IN THE NURSERY. Recent work has emphasised the importance of staphylococcus aureus in nursery infections in which they give rise to Breast abscesses in the Mothers and pemphigus in the Babies. There is, moreover, evidence that in some epidemics of conjunctivitis in the babies the condition is also due to the same organisms (4, 5, 6).

The GAS INDUSTRY is helping the MEDICAL PROFESSION

One of the greatest medical developments of the century has been the discovery of the bacteria-killing properties of coal-tar. As a result, the medical profession has at its service a new group of drugs, the sulphonamides, which have effected many dramatic cures. And this is only the beginning. We do not yet know what other new weapons against disease coal-tar may give us.

While it might be an exaggeration to say that drugs such as these would never have existed but for the Gas Industry, it is certain that the making of gas accelerated their discovery. For coal-tar is one of the largest by-products of gas-making; and the modern development of the Gas Industry's by-product activities has afforded greater opportunities for research in this field.

The by-products of gas-making are also the source of many other substances. Such medical necessities as anæsthetics, antiseptics, salicylic acid, liquefied ice crystals for surgical work, naphthalene for preserving biological specimens, and simple everyday remedies like aspirin and ephedrine owe their origin to the gasworks. Synthetic Vitamins B<sub>1</sub> and K are now being produced from the organic chemicals extracted from coal in the process of gas-making.

In these ways, then, as well as the more obvious one of providing smokeless fuels — gas and coke — the Gas Industry is rendering service to human health.

For Gastric or Duodenal Ulcer

IN view of the increasing adoption of intensive alkaline medication for gastric and duodenal ulceration, the selection of a suitable antacid agent is a matter of considerable importance to the general practitioner.

"Alocol" allows of antacid therapy in a particularly effective, safe and reliable form, and replaces with advantage mixtures composed of sodium bicarbonate, magnesium, bismuth, etc. It does not determine any unpleasant secondary reactions, even when taken in strong doses and over a long period of time. The powerful antacid effect of "Alocol" is more mechanical than chemical in nature. It acts by adsorbing excess of hydrochloric acid, thus facilitating its elimination. It promptly relieves pain, and being non-absorbable is free from toxic sequelae.

★ "WHAT DID YOU THINK THEN?"

asked a friend of Professor Röntgen when he heard of the puzzling phenomena which led Röntgen to investigate X-rays. "I didn't think—I experimented," he replied. He certainly opened an extensive field of enquiry. In the perfecting of X-ray film alone the volume of research has been considerable.

Ensign X-ray films incorporate all the most recent improvements in X-ray emulsions, and radiographs on Ensign X-ray films exhibit the qualities of definition, clarity and contrast in the highest attainable degree with modern technique and processing.

The range of films available includes Ensign Speed (Standard) X-ray film, Ensign Rados X-ray film, and also the new Ensign Cresta X-ray film which allows the TIME OF EXPOSURE TO BE REDUCED BY APPROXIMATELY ONE HALF or the kV employed to be materially reduced, as compared with Standard X-ray film, with no loss whatever of definition, clarity and contrast. Cresta is designed for use with intensifying screens, and can be relied upon to produce radiographs of the greatest diagnostic value with minimum exposures. If occasion requires, Cresta can also be used for direct radiography. The introduction of this new Ensign Cresta X-ray film, at a time when it is necessary to prolong the life of tubes, will be widely welcomed by radiologists.

AN INVITATION—The services of the Ensign technical department are available to deal with enquiries regarding the new Ensign "Cresta" X-ray film and other Ensign X-ray films. Radiologists are invited to communicate with Austin Edwards, Ltd., Ensign Film Works, Warwick. (Manufacturers of X-ray film for 30 years.)

NEW 'CRUDE' LIVER EXTRACT

Glaxo Laboratories have introduced 'Plexan', a comprehensive liver extract, as companion to 'Examen'.

'PLEXAN' supplies the anti-pernicious anaemia factor, and also those less well-defined constituents of liver so important for some macrocytic anaemias, and is a rich source of the vitamin B group constituents of liver. Undesirable protein and histamine-like substances are removed.

Clinical trials over two years confirm the value of 'Plexan' for many macrocytic anaemias e.g. those associated with 'intestinal inefficiency' (fistulae, ulceration, resection, sprue, the steatorrhoeas), and also for complicated resistant pernicious anaemia.

Dosage: 2-4 cc. daily for initial response; then at less frequent intervals depending on progress.

'EXAMEN' is a highly refined concentrate of the anti-pernicious anaemia factor which, in small widely spaced doses, painless on injection, has so well established itself in the straightforward case of pernicious anaemia.

Both 'Examen' and 'Plexan' are tested clinically in classical pernicious anaemia. The mode of administration is by intramuscular injection.

MERSALYL B.D.H.

The Standard Mercurial Diuretic

A mercurial preparation is essential for the efficient and rapid induction of diuresis.

Mersalyl (described in the Addendum 1936 to the B.P. 1932) is accepted as the standard mercurial diuretic. In common with all potent drugs, it has some toxic properties but these are of little significance as compared with the benefits associated with its controlled use. A few cases of idiosyncrasy have been reported but, as has been stated (Lancet, May 8th, 1943, p. 576), 'The occurrence of a few unfortunate reactions is not an indication to withhold the drug but rather to use care in administering it'.

Mersalyl is indicated principally for the treatment of ascites and œdema of cardiac and cardio-renal origin and ascites due to hepatic cirrhosis.

Mersalyl is normally administered by injection for which purpose it is available as Mersalyl B.D.H. in ampoules. For supplementary treatment in prolonging the diuresis induced by an injection Mersalyl B.D.H. is available in tablets for oral administration and in suppositories for rectal use.

VITAMIN B<sub>6</sub>

(PYRIDOXINE)

Biological experiments with pure vitamin B<sub>6</sub> have proved useful in various syndromes. Improvement has been recorded in certain cases of idiopathic epilepsy, in amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, and in hypertrophic muscular dystrophy. Decreased stiffness and rigidity have followed its use in non-postencephalitic parkinsonism.

The particular deficiency symptoms which have responded to vitamin B<sub>6</sub> administration are extreme nervousness, insomnia, irritability, cramping abdominal pain, muscular weakness and rigidity with difficulty in walking.

Bemax is probably the richest of all dietary sources of vitamin B<sub>6</sub> and its regular use should therefore be of real benefit to patients showing groups of the above symptoms and signs.

Pure vitamin B<sub>6</sub> (Pyridoxine) is available in 10 mg. Tablets and 50 mg. Ampoules.

Origin of a 'household word'

WRIGHT'S LIQUOR CARBONIS DETERGENS

By the preparation of Liquor Carbonis Detergens 80 years ago, the powerful antiseptic and antipruritic agents in Coal Tar were isolated for the first time from the residuary content of irritants and non-therapeutic substances. Publicly commended by an impressive succession of notable authorities, Liquor Carbonis Detergens soon provided the basis for a toilet soap that has been a household word for generations. Discouraging germs, Wright's Coal Tar Soap produces a generous lather, specially soothing and very thorough in its cleansing.

Milk Sensitivity

It is tragic that in a number of the allergic conditions in infancy one has hitherto been compelled to omit milk altogether from the diet. The entire omission of milk—an infant's natural food—is extremely difficult on account of its high food value, particularly with reference to its calcium and phosphorus content. The substitution of "synthetic milks" is unsatisfactory, and infants generally refuse them.

Allergilac now solves the problem by altering the essential milk in such a way that the allergy producing principles are no longer effective.

In Allergilac the greater part of the offending lactalbumen has been removed, the casein has been denaturised and the milk acidified with lactic acid.

Raising the Metabolic Rate

THREE METHODS:

1. The injection of thyroxin intravenously.
2. The oral administration of thyroid or other compounds of the nitrophenol group.
3. The prescription of foods such as broths, soups, and meat extracts.

Since the first two methods involve interference with the normal mechanism of the body, practitioners usually prefer to treat depressed metabolism by the third method.

It will, therefore, be of interest to them to know that Brand's Essence is outstandingly effective in stimulating the metabolic rate.

After the ingestion of Brand's Essence there is a sharp increase in the heat output, reaching a peak at the end of half an hour, and still appreciable six hours later.

Whenever there is a need to stimulate the metabolic rate, Brand's Essence may be prescribed with confidence. It will be found palatable when other foods are distasteful. It is of special convenience in cases in which the patient cannot tolerate sufficient protein.

For Sick Room Hygiene

With increasing restrictions on supply, the practitioner will want to recommend an antiseptic which he has found to be efficient, and which, at the same time, he knows is readily available.

Milton Antiseptic as a general sterilising agent has stood the test of time, and, despite present-day shortages, is still available in any quantity.

For the general sterilisation of china, glassware, feeding bottles and non-metallic instruments use Milton Antiseptic in the proportion of 3 teaspoonsful to a pint of cold water. Articles sterilised in this solution should be left to dry without further rinsing.

For Sterilising the New Waterproof Dressings

The new alternative materials for Jaconet, Battiste and Oiled Silk, now approved as waterproof dressings, must not be subjected to steam or heat sterilisation. Organic solvents and phenolic substances likewise have a deleterious action.

Milton Antiseptic is in no way harmful to these materials and is recommended as the sterilising agent.

Efficient sterilisation is obtained when the waterproof dressings are left for five minutes in a solution prepared by adding four ounces of 'Milton' to thirty-six ounces of cold water.

PYREX
REGD TRADE MARK. BRAND.
SCIENTIFIC GLASSWARE
solves a vital need!

PYREX Brand Scientific Glassware is supplied only through Laboratory Furnishers, but illustrated catalogue and two free copies of our Chemist's Notebook will be sent direct on application to us.

The main feature of importance in glassware for scientific experiments and pharmaceutical practice is that of reliability, both as regards its resistance to acids, and its immunity from sudden changes of heat and cold.

Because of its extremely low coefficient of expansion (0.000032), PYREX Brand Glassware can be made with heavier walls than ordinary glass, thus giving greater mechanical strength, and affording protection against breakage through constant rough and hurried handling.

PYREX Brand Scientific Glassware provides greater scope of operation in all dispensary and laboratory work and in every way justifies its higher first cost.

Ask for PYREX Brand and see that you get it!

Power to Destroy

Less dramatic... but no less destructive than the deadliest weapons of war... are the common pathogenic bacteria. Fortunately, Medicine has in Tincture Metaphen an agent of defence whose potency has been repeatedly — and impressively — demonstrated. Two investigators recently tested Tincture Metaphen against fifteen other antiseptic agents.* They found that, on the oral mucosa, Tincture Metaphen reduced bacteria count 95 to 100 per cent within five minutes; had a duration of action of two hours — about 200% longer than for any other antiseptic tested; and caused only a slight irritation in some cases, none in the others. Tincture Metaphen is supplied in 1, 4, 16 and 80 fluid ounce bottles. Abbott Laboratories (England) Limited, Wadsworth Road, Perivale, Middlesex.
