"The cases which have been treated with progesterone number twenty-eight and with a few exceptions fall into the group in which it was undesirable to bring on the menopause because of youth or hope for a family, or both, and in whom one curettage was followed by further profuse bleeding. With one exception the results of therapy have been satisfactory in all cases."

.... Oral progestogen has been quite as satisfactory in the relief of symptoms as true synthetic progesterone."

THE IDEAL LAXATIVE FOR PROLONGED USE

Certain characteristics have won for ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" a very high place in professional regard. Few simple medicines are presented in so attractive a form, and for patients obliged to maintain prolonged use of a laxative ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" provides a highly satisfactory answer.

By the natural process of osmotic diffusion ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" creates healthy intestinal conditions, from which follow gentle regular and complete bowel evacuations.

The morning dose of ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" is universally regarded in a singularly favourable light. It is refreshing, exceedingly pleasant to drink. It is non-irritating, non-toxic, non-habit forming, and free from sweetening agent. Diabetic patients may take it in perfect safety, and, owing to the absence of sulphates, ENO'S "FRUIT SALT" may be confidently prescribed for patients receiving sulphonamide treatment.

ALBUCID SOLUBLE

First-Aid Dressing

THIS preparation provides an efficient means of preventing sepsis in burns and wounds by the immediate application of ALBUCID SOLUBLE. It contains soluble sulphacetamide in effective bacteriostatic concentration (6% w/w). It is neutral and hence non-irritant; further, it is non-toxic and promotes healthy granulation. The water-miscible base, in which it is incorporated, renders the dressing easily removable by swabbing or irrigation if a more thorough surgical toilet should later become necessary. The treatment should then be maintained with—

ALBUCID SOLUBLE Burn and Wound Dressing

THIS preparation is intended for the continued treatment of burns and wounds until complete healing is achieved.

It embodies all the advantages of the First Aid Dressing and contains the same concentration of soluble sulphacetamide. Instead, however, of a water-miscible base, it is incorporated in a neutral ointment base which mechanically regulates absorption. Too rapid dispersal of the sulphacetamide is thus avoided and effective control of sepsis is preserved at the site of injury.

"Albucid" is the registered name which distinguishes Sulphacetamide of British Schering manufacture.

We hope our endeavours will result in some lightening of the load on medical and health services.

Natural Vitamin C in Gestation & Lactation

The desirability of supplementing the intake of vitamin C by expectant and nursing mothers is now generally accepted.

As a vehicle for supplying the additional vitamin C, Ribena Blackcurrant Syrup has a number of points of recommendation, viz.:-

- (1) Blackcurrants are one of the richest available natural sources of vitamin C and in Ribena the ascorbic acid is associated with the other factors inherent in the natural vitamin.
- (2) Ribena Blackcurrant Syrup is generally acceptable and well tolerated in diluted form even in cases of impaired digestion.
- (3) Its bland, wine-like flavour is frequently found to meet 'cravings' of pregnancy and to stimulate appetite.

- (4) The gentle laxative action of the fruit juice is a natural corrective of the constipation associated with pregnancy.

The Ministries of Health and Food have allotted to us supplies of blackcurrants and sugar for the production of Ribena, but stocks are reserved for Children, Invalids and Doctors' prescriptions.

All chemists should now be able to obtain Ribena for these special classes.

TEMPARIN brand 3:3' - methylene - bis - (4 - hydroxycoumarin) is a synthetic anti-coagulant which prolongs prothrombin and coagulation times of blood. It is a white, crystalline water-insoluble powder, and is active when given by mouth. Its anti-prothrombic properties suggest its use in the treatment of established thrombosis, in the prevention of post-operative thrombosis and embolism and in other blood circulatory and vascular disturbances.

Chemotherapeutic Agent for Intestinal Infections

COLISTATIN

SUCCINYSULPHATHIAZOLE

A chemotherapeutic agent with specific bacteriostatic action in the intestinal tract.

The drug is remarkably non-toxic on account of its low rate of absorption from the gastrointestinal tract and consequent low concentration in the blood. This property is also responsible for the high local concentrations obtained in the intestine.

This new sulphonamide is very effective in the presence of ulcerative lesions which interfere with the activity of other chemotherapeutic agents.

COLISTATIN brand succinylsulphathiazole is indicated in the treatment of all types of colitis, except those of tuberculous origin; in the pre-operative as well as post-operative treatment of abdominal cases; in ulcerative lesions of the bowels; and in the treatment of bacillary dysentery.

A VERY FINE 'CRUDE' LIVER EXTRACT

● There are certain cases of resistant pernicious anaemia and of other types of macrocytic anaemia that require, in addition to the anti-anaemic factor, other "liver factors" of the vitamin B group. This combination of factors is also essential in macrocytic anaemias of obscure etiology.

'Plexan' contains the combination of factors—the anti-anaemic factor and the

B vitamins of the liver—essential for these anaemias, such as tropical macrocytic anaemia and macrocytic anaemia in sprue and coeliac disease.

Consistent potency and lack of toxicity are checked by clinical and biological tests.

In classical uncomplicated pernicious anaemias, 'Examen'—the highly refined and concentrated liver extract—remains the preparation of choice for efficiency and infrequency of injection.

The ECONOMICS of dietary SUPPLEMENTS

In the all too prevalent cases of multiple dietary deficiencies, it has hitherto been necessary to prescribe simultaneously more than one supplement, e.g., preparations of vitamins A and D, calcium, iron, etc. In a prolonged course of treatment the cost may well prove an obstacle to the faithful observance of the physician's directions.

New . . . and Overwhelming Evidence that STAPHYLOCOCCI are COMMON PATHOGENS

When this war began the importance of streptococci as infecting agents in man was both widely established and universally recognised.

But few medical practitioners acknowledged that staphylococci might be of equal importance.

To-day, despite the difficulties of keeping pace with advances in applied bacteriology in war time, there continues to accumulate incontrovertible evidence of the importance of staphylococci in the pathology of a number of conditions met with in medical practice.

NEW FACTS ABOUT STAPHYLOCOCCI JUSTIFY THE INTRODUCTION OF A NEW ANTISEPTIC

Notes on the conditions referred to are given below: and it is suggested that these are a complete justification for the introduction of the new antiseptic, O-SYL. For, in order adequately to deal with these conditions, it is now appreciated that an antiseptic should be available which is capable of equal bactericidal activity against staphylococci as it is against streptococci. The efficiency of O-Syl against staphylococci has been indicated by announcements published in this journal during the past few months. (Reprints of these announcements are available to members of the profession on request.) Further, O-Syl provides a safety factor in use which is not present in antiseptics developed during the period when the only consideration was the killing effect on streptococci.

THE EVIDENCE

1 IMPETIGO CONTAGIOSA. Bigger and Hodgson (1) have shown that 97% of their cultures yielded Staphylococci (mostly Staph. pyogenes) and only 32% streptococci (pyogenes). Moreover whilst staphylococci were present without streptococci in 67% of cultures, in only 2% were streptococci present without staphylococci. In unopened vesicles all cultures yielded only staphylococci (aureus). Sheehan and Ferguson (2) during an independent survey agreed closely with these findings and in addition showed that impetigo was reproduced with similar frequency when human skin was inoculated with staphylococcus aureus as with fluid obtained from the lesions of spontaneous impetigo.

2 BULLOUS IMPETIGO NEONATORUM. Benians and his co-workers (3) describe an epidemic of this condition due to staphylococci and suggest that statistics convey a suggestion that staphylococcal infections have become of greater frequency during the past two years.

3 STAPHYLOCOCCI IN THE NURSERY. Recent work has emphasised the importance of staphylococcus aureus in nursery infections in which they give rise to Breast abscesses in the Mothers and pemphigus in the Babies. There is, moreover, evidence that in some epidemics of conjunctivitis in the babies the condition is also due to the same organisms (4, 5, 6).

Depressed Metabolism

The use of Brand's Essence in stimulating the metabolic rate

THREE are three methods of stimulating the metabolic rate:—

1. The injection of thyroxin intravenously.
2. The oral administration of thyroid or other compounds of the nitro-phenol group.
3. The prescription of broths, soups, or meat extracts.

It is very seldom, however, that a practitioner wishes to resort to such drastic methods as the first two, as they are liable to involve severe interference with the normal mechanism of the body.

In the third and more acceptable method, it is of importance to know that one preparation is outstandingly effective in raising the metabolic rate. It is Brand's Essence.

After the ingestion of Brand's Essence, there is a sharp increase in the heat output, reaching a peak at the end of half an hour, and still appreciable six hours later.

Brand's Essence will be found of special convenience in those cases in which a patient cannot tolerate sufficient protein.

The HECSON SUPER ELASTIC TRUSS

Where treatment of Hernia by surgical methods is undesirable for any reason, the HECSON super elastic truss can be confidently recommended. The Special Feature of the HECSON Truss is that the perineal or under strap is attached to the top of the pad instead of the lower margin as in the ordinary elastic or old spring truss. Thus it becomes part of the leverage mechanism for increasing the pressure of the pad at its base.

The Original and Standard Emulsion of Petroleum

is made with petroleum specially purified for internal use. It is the original petroleum emulsion — the result of many years of careful research and experiment.

Bronchitis, Sub-Acute and Chronic

There is a vast amount of evidence of the most positive character proving the efficacy of Angier's in sub-acute and chronic bronchitis. It not only relieves the cough, facilitates expectoration and allays inflammation, but it likewise improves nutrition and effectually overcomes the constitutional debility so frequently associated with these cases. Bronchial patients are nearly always pleased with this emulsion, and often comment upon its soothing, "comforting" effects.

Pneumonia and Pleurisy

The administration of Angier's during and after Pneumonia and Pleurisy is strongly recommended by the best authorities for relieving the cough, pulmonary distress, and difficult expectoration. After the attack, when the patient's nutrition and vitality are at the lowest ebb, Angier's is specially indicated because of its reinforcing influence upon the normal processes of digestion, assimilation and nutrition.

In Gastro-Intestinal Disorders

of a catarrhal or ulcerative nature, this emulsion is particularly useful. The minutely divided globules of petroleum reach the intestines unchanged, and mingle freely with intestinal contents. Fermentation is inhibited, irritation and inflammation of the intestinal mucosa rapidly reduced, and elimination of toxic material greatly facilitated.

Bad news . . .

(for little Mary)

The psychiatric character of many gastrointestinal ailments is the obvious reason for their greater prevalence under the strain of war.

At all stages of treatment Benger's Food is of great assistance to the Doctor. By virtue of its enzymic action, always under control, he can vary the degree of pre-digestion in accordance with the patient's power of assimilation and the need for regulated digestive exercise.

Benger's Food sustains the patient without giving his digestion heavy work to do, rests and soothes the stomach and helps to combat the disturbing effects of an overstrained nervous system.
