Clinical Lectures on Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS delivered at University College Hospital.

By SIR HENRY THOMPSON, Surgeon-Extraordinary to H.M. the King of the Belgians, Professor of Clinical Surgery, and Surgeon to University College Hospital.

These Lectures originally appeared in "The Lancet" in a somewhat condensed form, but are now presented without abridgment from the corrected shorthand notes of the reporter.

"Short, clear, and practical; full of the matured experiences of an able surgeon, whose life is constantly devoted to the subject. These Lectures are calculated to be eminently useful."—Dublin Quarterly Journal.

"We can confidently recommend this small, unpretending work to all, whether student or practitioners, who have sense enough to take a hint, though conveyed in simple language, and unadorned by any sort of scientific or pseudo-scientific jargon."—Edin. Med. Jour.

"The conversational style of instruction, which is retained in these printed Lectures, gives the work an attractiveness which a systematic treatise can never possess."—Medical Times.

"Well worthy of being carefully read by all who take any interest whatever in the subject."—Glasgow Med. Jour.
"It is brilliant, practical, and interesting!"—The Practitioner.
