

Invalid Bovril is a highly concentrated form of Bovril for use in the sick-room. Prepared without seasoning, it provides the maximum concentration in the most easily assimilated form. Many doctors recommend it in cases where the patient needs "building-up" after illness. Perhaps there is a patient of yours who would benefit from a course of Invalid Bovril?

PREGNANT PATIENTS

is available in bottles of 20 and 100 capsules. Original prescriptions should specify no more than 20 capsules since this quantity is usually sufficient for complete control. Dosage: one capsule 30 to 45 minutes before meals in the usual case; may be increased to 2 to 3 capsules in exceptionally severe cases.

Ortho Pharmaceutical Limited

HIGH WYCOMBE • BUCKINGHAMSHIRE • ENGLAND

Makers of Gynaecic Pharmaceuticals

For the 50% of pregnant women who suffer gastric distress, NIDOXITAL provides rapid relief. In almost all patients treated with NIDOXITAL, symptoms disappear within one to three days.*

Nidoxital

is rational therapy

Since the problem is complex, NIDOXITAL provides five effective agents for a full range of therapeutic and prophylactic action:

Benzocaine — to diminish gastric excitability
Nicotinamide — to reduce excessive peristalsis
Pentobarbital sodium — to depress central excitability dl-Methionine — to support normal liver function
Pyridoxine — for fatty acid and protein metabolism, maintenance of nerve function and erythropoiesis. Pyridoxine is reported by many clinicians to have a favourable effect in nausea and vomiting of pregnancy and is a firmly established agent in treatment of this condition.

In urinary-tract infections

Mandelamine

is worth considering FIRST

'Mandelamine' is the first choice for providing urinary antiseptics because:

It rarely, if ever, gives rise to drug-resistance and is effective even against organisms that have become resistant to streptomycin or sulphonamides.

It is quickly effective against most of the organisms commonly found in urinary-tract infections.

'Mandelamine' is safe and well tolerated and is eminently suitable for use in children.

'Mandelamine' therapy is economical and simple—just 3 or 4 tablets three times a day. No fluid regulation or dietary restriction is necessary.

Comparative studies indicate that the effectiveness of 'Mandelamine' is of about the same order as that of the sulphonamides or of streptomycin.

The facts about Glucose

Glucose, a term used to include a substance resulting from the partial hydrolysis of starch, is in practice a general description rather than a precise one. It is applied to medical preparations which contain additives that may not always be wanted and to commercial products of varying degrees of refinement. To identify Glucose in its purest form, and only in this form, the term Dextrose is used.

Dextrose, as found in the blood and tissues, is the sugar into which the body converts all carbohydrates. Requiring neither digestion nor chemical alteration, Dextrose is used by the body as a source of immediate energy.

The Dextrose (pure medicinal Glucose) produced by the Pharmaceutical Division of Corn Products Company Limited is prepared in two convenient forms:—

Dextrosol Powdered Glucose

This contains no additives of any kind. It can be taken in large quantities without causing nausea, and should be prescribed in all cases where a patient needs a source of heat and energy with the least demand on the digestion. Packed in 1 lb. & ½ lb. cartons.

Dextrosol Karo Glucose Syrup

for Infants and Children

An appetising blend of pure Glucose and selected carbohydrates, carefully balanced to provide the ideal sugar addition to the milk diet of artificially-fed infants. Of special value in cases of nutritional disorder. Spread on rusks, bread, etc., it offers an excellent supplementary source of energy for growing children. Packed in 1 lb. tins. A Karo Baby Book is available for the guidance of mothers.

Professional samples of both Dextrosol products will be gladly provided. For further information, doctors are invited to write to the Dextrosol Information Bureau, Wellington House, 125/130 Strand, London, W.C.2.

Doctors, matrons and other hospital authorities have noticed that patients are more comfortable, more relaxed, as soon as they are placed on an Intalok mattress. The reason is shown in the illustration.

The background photograph shows a top-view section of an Intalok mattress. Each fine gauge spring is loosely interlinked with the next, throughout the whole length and breadth. The surface coils yield to first pressure—and as weight increases, many other springs combine to take the weight. The diagram shows what this scientific springing does, under the weight of the patient. The compression varies exactly with the contours of the body. Where weight is heaviest compression is unusually deep. There is no excessive resistance to cause aching or soreness to pressure points. The patient, in any position, is correctly and naturally supported. Thus there is no sagging, less tendency for the body to slip. The patient enjoys an exceptional degree of comfort on Intalok.

Here are other good reasons why hospital authorities are in favour of Intalok mattresses:

- 1 The mattresses can be stoved; in fact they gain by stoving.
- 2 All metal parts are rustless, can be sterilized repeatedly.
- 3 Intalok mattresses have no tufts or piping to collect dust and germs.
- 4 The ticking is easily removable for laundering.
- 5 Existing hair mattresses can be converted to Intalok—the good hair being retained. This cuts costs.
- 6 Every Intalok springing unit is guaranteed for 10 years.

The Hypertension Syndrome

RESPONDS

*A potent alkaloidal fraction of Veratrum viride — biologically standardised for hypotensive activity in mammals—a new active principle not heretofore available, for the treatment of hypertension.*

Veriloid therapy produces not only gratifying objective results — significant and sustained control of elevated arterial tension — but also leads to marked subjective benefit readily detectable by the patient. As the drug takes effect, the so-called hypertension headache is relieved, impaired renal function improves, vision becomes more clear, and the associated muscular weakness is overcome.

These beneficial changes are directly attributable to the peripheral vasodilatation induced by Veriloid and the resultant improved tissue nutrition.

While individualisation of dosage is essential for maximum therapeutic benefit, in the majority of patients a response to Veriloid is usually obtained from the average daily intake of 9 to 15 mg. given in divided dosage 3 times daily. Dosage adjustment to suit the responsiveness of the individual patient can be accomplished in a week or two. Tolerance to Veriloid is not likely to develop, and treatment can be continued indefinitely without deleterious effect.

Veriloid is available on prescription only through all pharmacies in 1 mg. and 2 mg. tablets in bottles of 100 and 500. Literature available on request.

RIKER LABORATORIES LTD.,
29, KIRKEWHITE STREET, NOTTINGHAM.

VERILOID-VP AND VERILOID INTRAVENOUS

Veriloid is also available as Veriloid-VP, containing Veriloid 2 mg. and Phenobarbitone B.P. 15 mg. for administration to patients who find it difficult to tolerate Veriloid alone.

For injection in cases of hypertensive crises, it may be obtained in ampoules containing Veriloid 0.4 mg. per c.c. in 0.25% acetic acid, under the style of Veriloid Intravenous Solution.

For ease of administration in penicillin therapy

'Distaquaine' brand preparations of procaine penicillin G for administration in aqueous suspension are designed to make penicillin therapy more convenient to practitioner and patient. The prolonged effective action of procaine penicillin G makes frequent injections unnecessary. In the majority of infections single daily injections are adequate. 'Distaquaine' brand preparations are easily prepared and administered. There is little or no pain on injection and the equipment is easily cleaned after use.

'DISTAQUAINE' G brand vials of 300,000, 900,000 and 3,000,000 units

'DISTAQUAINE' FORTIFIED brand vials of 400,000 and 1,200,000 units

'PYCAZIDE'

TRADE MARK

ISONIAZID

(ISONICOTINIC ACID HYDRAZIDE)

Clinical trials carried out in Great Britain and the United States confirm experimental evidence that this substance has an anti-tubercular activity of a very high order. Further trials, at present in progress, using isoniazid alone or in combination with other anti-tubercular drugs, are designed to investigate the factors governing the development of resistance to the drug. It seems likely that much of the future clinical work with isoniazid will be concerned with combination therapy.

'PYCAZIDE' is supplied as

TABLETS of 50 mg. packed in containers of 100, 500 and 1,000

AMPOULES Sterile solution containing 50 mg. in 2 ml.

SYRUP (Blackcurrant flavoured). The formulation of this syrup has been devised in order to permit greater flexibility of dosage than is possible with 'Pycazide' tablets. One teaspoonful is approximately equivalent to 20 mg. of Isonicotinic Acid Hydrazide.

The New Diphtheria-Pertussis Prophylactic

The preference shown by many for plain suspended vaccines has brought a further response from Glaxo Laboratories in the form of Suspended Diphtheria-Pertussis Prophylactic Glaxo. Based on more than ten years' extensive research, this combined antigen completely dispenses with a mineral carrier. It can be given subcutaneously or intramuscularly without untoward local or general reaction. Here, then, is a preparation that conforms completely with modern concepts of immunology.

The original Diphtheria-Pertussis Prophylactic Glaxo (adsorbed on aluminium phosphate) is still available and, when required, should be specified. Otherwise the Suspended Prophylactic will be provided.

...AND NEW PACKINGS For added convenience, the preparations listed below are now issued both in "one course" boxes of three 1 cc. ampoules and in "ten-dose" vials.

- Suspended Diphtheria - Pertussis Prophylactic Glaxo: 3 x 1 cc. ampoules; 10 cc. (ten dose) vials.
- Suspended Whooping Cough Vaccine Glaxo: 3 x 1 cc. ampoules; 10 cc. (ten dose) vials.

Adsorbed Diphtheria - Pertussis Prophylactic Glaxo and Adsorbed Whooping Cough Vaccine Glaxo are now available only in 5 cc. vials. Three injections of 0.5 cc. comprise a course.

VARICOSE ULCER of 27 YEARS DURATION HEALED IN 5 MONTHS

The area of this ulcer on a 72-year-old woman was 56 sq. cms.

TREATMENT : Elastoplast applied as follows: no dressing to ulcer. Stirrup from head of fibula along lateral side of leg, under sole and up medial aspect of leg to level of tibial tubercle. Long strip from tibial tubercle along anterior surface to base of toes. Elastoplast applied as continuous circular turns from base of toes to tibial tubercle enclosing heel, each turn overlapping the preceding one by $\frac{2}{3}$ of its width. Two bandages were required and were applied as tightly as possible by hand. Patient instructed to perform normal household duties.

The ulcer was re-dressed at fortnightly intervals, its area steadily reducing until it disappeared after twenty-two weeks.

Elastoplast TRADE MARK elastic · adhesive BANDAGES

Elastoplast Elastic Adhesive Bandages are widely used not only in this country but throughout the world, because they have been found to give the precise degree of compression and grip required for successful treatment of varicose conditions. Elastoplast is an approved dressing for all chronic conditions of the leg. It is also invaluable as a post-operative dressing, as a strapping for compression and support and for many purposes when a comfortable, occlusive dressing or elastic support is required. Full information from the Medical Division, T. J. Smith & Nephew Ltd., Hull.

Elastoplast elastic adhesive bandages are available in widths of 2", 2½", 3", 4" x 5 yards minimum stretched length.

Outside the British Commonwealth, Elastoplast is known as Tensoplast.

Diagram symbolizing competition for "shock-tissue" receptor sites by histamine (H) and an antihistaminic (AH).

Modus operandi...

The clinical use of antihistaminics such as mepyramine maleate and promethazine hydrochloride for the symptomatic relief of allergic and anaphylactic conditions is based on the theory of histamine-release.

According to this concept, allergy is the result of a reaction between the sensitizing substance, the allergen or antigen, and specific antibodies produced by the body. Once the hypersensitive individual has become sensitized, further exposure to the offending substance results in excess release of histamine or a histamine-like compound, which in turn provokes the allergic manifestation. The nature of this response in a particular individual depends on the part or parts of the body acting as "shock-tissues".

The antihistaminics are not believed to prevent the antigen-antibody reaction in the "shock-tissue", nor to destroy the histamine thereby released, but it is thought that in some unknown manner, perhaps by competing for and occupying or blocking the receptor-sites in the "shock-tissues", they prevent tissue damage by histamine.

Ousting Superstition . . .

Ceremonies symbolic of re-birth were frequent in folk medicine. One of the most curious was practised in the Scottish Highlands. Witches there, to cure disease in children, gathered woodbine-branches under the crescent moon in March. These they wove into wreaths, through which they passed the children thrice, head first, as though to give them entry to a new and healthier life.

Such superstitious rituals have long been abandoned. The parent of today entrusts her children's health to the family doctor and the welfare clinic—who, in turn, rely on scientific measures to combat and control disease. In this work of scientific medicine, as in the whole field of modern therapeutics, the fine pharmaceutical and serological products supplied by Burroughs Wellcome & Co. are playing a distinguished part. Prepared to uncompromising standards of excellence and issued only after keen clinical appraisal, these products are prescribed with confidence by doctors throughout the world.

A NEW NAME IN

NUTRITION

G.F.4.

The New Growth Factor for Under-Developed Mal-nourished or Convalescent Children

THE introduction of G.F.4—the newly discovered dietary growth factor—opens a new era in the treatment of children failing to make satisfactory physical progress. A recent, exhaustive test (British Medical Journal 1952, I, 1388) showed that normal, healthy children, on an apparently adequate diet, developed at a far higher rate when given a daily supplement of G.F.4. Thus it would appear that diets today still lack an essential nutritional growth factor. Whenever, then, the clinical picture reveals retarded progress—due to malnutrition, prolonged illness or simple childish aversion to food—G.F.4 is now indicated.

The new growth factor is found in fresh liver and is concentrated by a new and specially designed process that ensures that the active principle is fully retained. This dietary factor must not be confused with vitamin B₁₂ which has been shown not to replace it, nor with the “growth stimulating” by-products of antibiotics. In G.F.4 it is presented as stable, biologically-tested tablets, pleasantly flavoured to appeal to young palates. Suggested dosage is 2 tablets daily. Since the new substance is non-toxic, however, it may be given in any dosage considered necessary.

Descriptive booklet on request to Medical Department

In the tests mentioned above, children given the supplement daily (average dose 1.2 g), gained 20% more in height and 40% more in weight than a similar control group.

Growth Factor Tablets—now available for prescription on form E.C.10.
Each tablet contains 9.2 grains growth-promoting liver concentrate.

For GERIATRIC PATIENTS safe, comfortable, effective HERNIAL SUPPORT

Because each Spencer Support is designed-to-order to meet the patient's individual needs, results are demonstrably superior.

This patient is 75 years of age with a long history of gastric ulcers for which he has had 4 operations over a 20-year period. Following the last operation, performed three months before these photographs were taken, he had a generalized relaxation of the abdominal musculature resulting in a large ventral hernia as shown at left. In spite of his age he wished to continue working. His doctor prescribed a Spencer Support as shown, which was applied about a year ago. Since that time the patient has not missed a day from his full-time job as a plant engineer supervisor. He is in excellent spirits and "swears by his Spencer!"

Prescribe Spencer with confidence for men, women, children—for abdomen, back, breasts. No case is too difficult for Spencer Designers!

Extinguish the flame of Rheumatic Disease

In the first published clinical reports on Butazolidin, these encouraging comments have been made: —

"... as an anodyne in cases of rheumatoid arthritis, Butazolidin is quite exceptionally effective. . . . The number of patients showing objective improvement . . . seems significantly high. . . . Butazolidin does produce a marked degree of symptomatic relief in acute exacerbations of rheumatoid arthritis. Moreover, the drug seems to have some antirheumatic property, which can reduce periarticular swelling, tenderness and oedema."¹

"The relief of pain and stiffness that followed was almost constant and in some instances dramatic. . . . I am using Butazolidin and strongly recommend other people to try it."²

A highly active preparation in a wide range of rheumatic conditions, Butazolidin is effective in acute phases of rheumatic disease and in chronic cases. Diminution of pain and increased freedom of movement are strikingly noticeable, resulting in a marked improvement in the well-being of the patient. The drug is rapidly absorbed and, being slowly excreted, remains in the blood at a therapeutic level for a considerable period. Butazolidin (3, 5-dioxo-1, 2-diphenyl-4-n-butyl-pyrazolidine) may be administered orally or parenterally. The tablets are formulated to disintegrate in the small intestine, thus obviating any risk of irritating the gastric mucosa. Literature is available on request.
