THIN END OF THE WEDGE FOR FLAT FEET!

The largest single cause of foot trouble in childhood—pronation—could easily become the least. 'Inneraze' shoes provide the complete answer: they apply the wedge principle at its most sensible, built into the shoe itself. This, together with the buttressed heel, gives a corrective support that lasts the life of the shoe, unaffected by wear or repair. And because the wedge cannot be seen 'Inneraze' is practically indistinguishable in wear from any of the first-class shoes made for normal young feet by Start-rite.

How often are these words heard in your surgery?

“DOCTOR, THAT’S JUST A WONDERFUL DIET you’ve given me, but where on earth can I get the protein foods from?...” If you have been shopping with your wife lately you will agree that this is a legitimate question and is, indeed, the root cause of patients failing to keep to a high-protein diet when one has been prescribed for them. It is a needless failure, for a high-protein intake can always be maintained by adding Sanatogen protein tonic to the patient’s diet. Sanatogen is 95% milk protein combined with 5% sodium glycerophosphate, has a specific nutrient and tonic effect and a high rate of utilisation. The protein in Sanatogen contains a higher percentage of amino-acids than any other preparation and supplies all essential amino-acids together, thus permitting tissue regeneration in accordance with the all-or-none dietetic law. Usually taken 3 times a day as a mixed drink in a little water or milk, Sanatogen can also be taken sprinkled on food or mixed in cooked dishes and is easily digested and most rapidly absorbed. Have you considered the use of Sanatogen for your high-protein diets?

The key to the problem

One of the most interesting uses of 'Benzedrine' Tablets is in the treatment of the child who is a problem to his parents, to his teachers, and often to his doctor. The abnormally aggressive, destructive, and unstable child often receives remarkable benefit from the administration of 'Benzedrine' Tablets. Outbursts of aggression become less frequent, ability to concentrate increases, and the improvement in behaviour at home is matched by the improvement in performance at school. 'Benzedrine' Tablets are also of value in that other paediatric problem — enuresis. Given at bedtime, they lighten sleep so that afferent impulses from the bladder no longer fail to waken the patient. Dosage: Children are remarkably tolerant of 'Benzedrine' Tablets. In behaviour disorders of children, 1 to 4 tablets daily. In enuresis, $\frac{1}{2}$ to 5 tablets at bedtime.

The to successful peptic ulcer therapy

WHENEVER continuous neutralization of gastric acidity is required—in active and quiescent peptic ulcer, gastritis, hyperacidity—NULACIN TABLETS are indicated.

The successful clinical behaviour of NULACIN TABLETS is accounted for by their composition and unique manner of use.

Dosage

Beginning half-an-hour after food a NULACIN TABLET should be placed in the mouth between the cheek and the gum and allowed to dissolve.

During the stage of ulcer activity up to three tablets an hour may be required. For follow-up treatment the suggested dosage is one or two tablets between meals.

NULACIN TABLETS are not advertised to the public and there is no B.P. equivalent. NULACIN is supplied in tubes of 25 and 12 tablets. The dispensing pack of 25 tablets is free of Purchase Tax. (Price to Pharmacists . . . 2/-.)

Same patients as in Fig. 1, two days later, showing the striking neutralizing effect of sucking Nulacin tablets (3 an hour). Note the return of acidity when Nulacin is discontinued.

The value of Terramycin in pædiatrics, as in the general field of infective medicine, is due to its very wide antibacterial range, its versatility and ease of administration, the rapidity of its action, and its remarkably low toxicity.

British investigators⁽¹⁾ have stressed the particular value of Terramycin in pædiatric practice, and have drawn attention to the palatability of the pædiatric forms available (Oral Suspension and Oral Drops) and to the absence of toxic reactions.

Terramycin can now be used for all suitable conditions in Hospitals in Great Britain, and a complete range of oral, intravenous and topical dosage forms is available.

A perfect source of Vitamin C

RIBENA (Syrupus Ribis Nigri B.P.C.)

HIGH CONCENTRATION OF VITAMIN C—REMARKABLE STABILITY

Four characteristics of Ribena make it a perfect source of Vitamin C:

- 1 It contains a high concentration of Vitamin C—and it is very stable.
- 2 The vitamin is in its natural state.*
- 3 Ribena is very well tolerated even by sensitive stomachs. It is completely free from all cellular structure. It is suitable for infants almost from birth, for peptic ulcer cases, and for women suffering from "morning sickness"; they can take it when almost everything else increases discomfort.
- 4 In addition to its therapeutic values, it is delicious in its own right as sweet blackcurrant syrup.

* Following reports of unsatisfactory response to the therapeutic use of synthetic ascorbic acid in peptic ulcer cases, controlled tests using Ribena were instituted at various large British hospitals, with striking results.

Clinical experience has also shown that in ulcerative gingivitis, the routine use of Ribena as an adjunct to local therapy has given more satisfactory results than that of the synthetic vitamin.

The superiority is presumably due to the presence of other factors of the Vitamin-C complex, possibly the Vitamin P, as well as mineral elements.

Therapeutic uses

Ribena is recommended for all conditions requiring Vitamin-C implementation: namely, as a natural and rapid restorative from fatigue; for increasing resistance to local infection and colds; for expectant and nursing mothers; for infants from birth; for children and adolescents; in many dental conditions; in peptic ulcer cases; in fractures and wounds; in blood dyscrasias and hæmorrhagic states; in infections and fevers; and in many skin disorders.

Reports for doctors overseas

The makers of Ribena co-operated extensively with the Ministries of Food and Health during the war, a co-operation which still goes on to some extent even now. The Royal Forest Factory has attached to it a series of very fine laboratories where research into fruit juices and vitamins is conducted to an academic level, under the direction of an expert, lately in charge of the Fruit Products Section of the University of Bristol Agricultural Research Station. Reports of much of the work done are available, on application, to doctors and scientists overseas. These are likely to be of particular interest now that Ribena is being extensively exported.

Send for further information. A booklet entitled "Blackcurrant Juice in Modern Therapy: Natural Vitamin C" will be forwarded to you with pleasure; also details of a number of controlled tests made on the use of Vitamin C, if you will write to:—

CIDAL is useful in treating all skin ailments where soap and water are part of the therapy. Regular use helps to reduce the incidence of cellulitis and folliculitis, and prevents secondary infections of minor cuts and abrasions.

Availability of Vitamins in Yeast

Deficiencies of single factors of the Vitamin B Group do not occur. Accordingly, even if a deficiency condition appears to result from the lack of an individual factor of the group and it is considered necessary to give intensive treatment with this factor, the entire Vitamin B complex should always be administered concurrently.

It is, however, extremely important, in view of suggestions in recent publications, that the vehicle selected as a source of the entire B Complex does not withhold its vitamin content from the patient.

Human experiments show that the rich, natural vitamin potency of Aluzyme is totally available to the human system.

“Come now—a Soft Diet can be very appetising!”

As a doctor, you know how many patients still think that a Soft Diet means dull, unappetising meals. Fortunately you can tell them that to-day such a diet can be nutritionally balanced and, what's more, interesting.

Shortages? Preparation problems? These can be conveniently and economically overcome by including in the patient's diet Heinz Strained Meat Broths, Soups, Vegetables and Fruits. There are seventeen varieties,* so there is no question of loss of appetite through monotony.

Heinz Strained Foods are invaluable to a patient on a Soft Diet because they contain no irritating seasonings or spices, and, although coarse fibres are removed, sufficient bulk is retained to safeguard the bowel's function.

Scientific cooking methods conserve the nutritive values of these foods. They are actually more nutritious than similar foods prepared at home. Their inclusion in a Soft Diet is a simple, pleasant way to provide the patient with protein, vitamins and minerals.

For hospital use, these foods are obtainable in 15½-oz. cans from the usual suppliers, or direct from H. J. Heinz Company Ltd., Harlesden, London, N.W.10.

Poroplast embodies 2 important new developments

1 Poroplast contains no rubber, no solvents, and is entirely free from the irritating resins usually embodied in elastic adhesive bandages . . . therefore obviating many problems of skin irritation and offering greatly increased plaster toleration even on the most sensitive skins.

2 It is porous over its whole surface, even where two layers overlap . . . allowing for ventilation and for natural evaporation.

The range of Poroplast's therapeutic use is vastly wider than that of the conventional type of elastic adhesive bandage. Its special advantages, and the improved results it achieves, in the treatment of varicose veins and ulcers especially, receive steadily mounting medical confirmation. In all cases where an elastic adhesive bandage must be used for long periods, the use of Poroplast makes all the difference.
