by

STALLWORTHY, WALKER, MALLESON,
JACKSON

"Such a book as this has long been needed"

—LANCET

The first of this part book covers thoroughly the investigation and treatment of infertility, surveys the sexual difficulties that may cause childlessness, the prevention of repeated miscarriage, the clinical significance of the Rhesus factor and the difficult psychological and ethical problems involved in artificial insemination by donated semen. The second part deals with contraception and, besides much useful information on various methods, this section contains valuable and sensible chapters on occlusive caps, the "safe" period, genital prognosis and eugenic sterilisation.

"THE PRACTITIONER has never been merely a journal of general practice: that is taking the narrow specialist view which is doing so much harm in medicine to-day. It is a journal for practitioners of medicine—whether general practitioners or consultants—and if it is to subserve this function it must not only be able to present the advances in medicine which it is the duty of consultants to propagate for the benefit of general practitioners, it must also present the consultant with the accumulated wisdom of the general practitioners of the country."

BASIC PATHOLOGY AND MORBID HISTOLOGY

By D. B. CATER, M.A., M.D., F.R.C.S.

6½×9½ in. 338 pp. 264 illustrations, including 20 fully coloured plates.
42s., post 1s. 2d.

This book is designed to help the student who has just begun the study of Pathology and finds the subject difficult. Based upon the first-year course in Pathology, it is intended to help the student through the initial difficulties and strives to graft on to the student's knowledge of Physiology sufficient clinical information to make Pathology live.

The book is illustrated with camera lucida drawings in colour and in black and white and in many cases the drawings have been grouped together for ease of comparison and to facilitate correlation of clinical and pathological data. All drawings are annotated. Diagrams have been introduced to shorten and simplify the text and to provide condensed information to which the student can refer when revising for the final examination.

Restoration of normal acidity is important in preventing recurrence of vaginal infection.
Recurrence is especially marked in tricho-for restoring normal acidity. It is simply antibiotic prices

brought down again by

GLAXO

Glaxo antibiotic preparations are once more reduced in price. This is the eleventh time since June 1946 that Glaxo penicillin prices have been lowered . . . the fifth reduction in Glaxo streptomycin prices since November 1949.

Among the products that will now place still lighter burden upon the nation's drug bill are CRYSTAPEN for injection—most widely used of all forms of Glaxo penicillin—and DIMYCIN, the new combined streptomycin-dihydrostreptomycin injection. Full details of the revised prices, which take effect on 31st August, are being sent to doctors throughout the British Isles.

On 31st August, too, the price of GLUCODIN—the original glucose and vitamin D preparation, will be reduced.

NULACIN

for the control of gastric acidity

*The key to successful
Peptic Ulcer Therapy*

THE composition and unique manner of use account for the successful clinical behaviour of NULACIN.

NULACIN TABLETS are indicated whenever continuous acid neutralization of the gastric contents is required:— in active and quiescent peptic ulcer, gastritis, gastric hyperacidity.

DOSAGE

Beginning half-an-hour after food a NULACIN TABLET should be placed in the mouth between the cheek and the gum and allowed to dissolve.

During the stage of ulcer activity up to three tablets an hour may be required. For follow-up treatment the suggested dosage is one or two tablets between meals.

NULACIN TABLETS are not advertised to the public and there is no B.P. equivalent. NULACIN is supplied in tubes of 25 and 12 tablets. The dispensing pack of 25 tablets is free of Purchase Tax.

Superimposed gruel fractional test-meal curves of five cases of duodenal ulcer.

Same patients as in Fig. 1, two days later, showing the striking neutralizing effect of sucking Nulacin tablets (3 an hour). Note the return of acidity when Nulacin is discontinued.

Where untilled soil tells of malaria

While world population mounts, food production lags behind. Yet crops could be abundantly increased in many areas if malaria were effectively controlled. Encouraging reports on 'Daraprim' suggest that this new drug can play a major part in eradicating the disease. Highly potent, tasteless, virtually non-toxic, 'Daraprim' has proved an excellent suppressant in a weekly dosage of 25 mgm. It is issued as compressed products of 25 mgm., in packs of 6, 30 and 1000.

IMPROVED PRESENTATION

FOR IRON DEFICIENCY ANÆMIAS, ferrous sulphate is universally accepted as the most efficient compound for oral administration. The improved method of presentation in 'Plastules' ensures maximum absorption and utilisation. The tasteless, easy-to-swallow capsules rapidly disintegrate and the ferrous sulphate in a semi-solid condition is quickly absorbed, with avoidance of gastric irritation. The addition of Folic Acid stimulates production of erythrocytes, and the dried yeast increases appetite and reinforces the action of the iron.

'Plastules' are available in four varieties—

Each capsule contains:

Plain: Exsiccated Ferrous Sulphate 5 gr., Dried Yeast $\frac{1}{2}$ gr.

With Hog Stomach: Exsiccated Ferrous Sulphate $2\frac{1}{2}$ gr., Dried Yeast $\frac{1}{2}$ gr., Desiccated Hog Stomach 1.47 gr.

With Liver Extract: Exsiccated Ferrous Sulphate $2\frac{1}{2}$ gr., Dried Yeast $\frac{1}{2}$ gr., Extract of 52 gr. of fresh liver.

With Folic Acid: Exsiccated Ferrous Sulphate $2\frac{1}{2}$ gr., Dried Yeast $\frac{1}{2}$ gr., Folic Yeast 1 mg., Extract of 26 $\frac{1}{2}$ gr. of fresh liver.

So universal is the use of Penicillin that a reduction in its price is of major importance in the economics of prescribing. Continuing improvements in methods of manufacture permit us, once again and for the second time this year, to reduce the price of penicillin (including 'Distaquaine' products). Streptomycin and dihydrostreptomycin (and preparations thereof) are also reduced in price.

Full details of all the new prices are available on request from us, from our Distributors, and from your local pharmacist. The prices quoted above are those to the public.

The Problem

Insect bites and stings

With the summer months comes an increased demand for a suitable preparation to relieve the painful and often alarming effects of insect bites and stings. The answer — 'Phenergan' Cream — a rapidly-acting agent for topical application to the affected areas.

'Phenergan' Cream is now manufactured to a modified formula. It combines the potent long-acting antihistaminic and local analgesic properties of promethazine with the antiseptic activity of its new constituent, dibromopropamide. This latter property makes 'Phenergan' Cream particularly valuable for the prevention of infection.

'DORMUPAX', a strong hypnotic agent whose high efficacy derives primarily from its inclusion of calcium n-butyl-allyl-barbiturate, provides per tablet—

Calcium n-butyl-allyl-barbiturate. . . . 3.75 grains
Carbromalum B.P.C. 1.5 grains

Advantages:

The therapeutic index of n-butyl-allyl-barbituric acid is superior to that of the majority of commonly used barbituric acid derivatives. It has also been shown that the quotient DE/DL is even more favourable for the calcium salt than for the acid. The molecule of n-butyl-allyl-barbituric acid reaches the sleep centre unchanged. After an average sleep duration of 8 hours, it is completely degraded to an indifferent form.

The efficacy of 'Dormupax' is reinforced by carbromalum, a safe, prompt, medium-strength hypnotic which is free from after-effects. 'DORMUPAX' has been thoroughly investigated in several mental hospitals, with satisfactory results. In senile, motor-restless patients efficacy is good on dosage of half a tablet in the afternoon and one tablet in the evening. After-effects are not observed.

Excited insane patients tolerate 4 tablets daily in a course of 2 to 4 days without deleterious after-effects.

Indications:

Insomnia due to psychic cause or pain—Insomnia, including in circulatory diseases or arteriosclerosis—Spastic vascular states.

Dosage:

When days are warm and long

The lazy heat of a long summer day seems to transmit itself to every living thing. And the human body draws on its own fluids to cool the skin by perspiration. To supply the body's needs the colon claims every ounce of water from the intestinal contents; these become dry and hard. The result is constipation.

To overcome this constipation two factors are needed: a supply of unabsorbable moisture and gentle peristaltic stimulation. Both are provided by Agarol* Emulsion. The mineral oil in Agarol mixes with the intestinal contents to soften the faecal mass. Peristalsis is stimulated by the phenolphthalein that Agarol contains.

For summer constipation or whenever normal bowel function is deranged, Agarol can be confidently prescribed as a gentle, effective and reliable treatment.

PACKING. In bottles containing 6 and 14 fluid oz.; also available in bottles of 14 fluid oz. and 80 fluid oz. for dispensing only, free of Purchase Tax when prescribed either privately or on the N.H.S.

The manufacturers of DETTOL submit
 the following facts to your attention

Wide mention in medical literature has made Dettol a textbook antiseptic. Wide clinical use has attested the efficiency of Dettol in literally millions of cases which range from minor accident to major operation.

Efficiency	Dettol is an efficient antiseptic which, moreover, retains a high degree of efficiency in the presence of organic matter.	Gram-positive and Gram-negative micro-organisms. Under standard conditions of test a dilution of 1 in 200 kills Staph. aureus in 10 minutes ; a one in 500 dilution kills Strept. pyogenes in 10 minutes.
Toleration	Dettol is well tolerated on the skin and tissues in high concentrations. Moreover, its non-toxicity offers a high degree of safety to doctor, nurse and patient.	Dettol is not incompatible with soap, traces of which need not be removed before application. Compatibility
Strength	The fact that Dettol is well tolerated by the tissues permits dilutions to be recommended for clinical purposes which provide a margin of safety even when a reasonable amount of organic material is present.	Dettol is non-poisonous, safe, pleasant and economical in use. It has an agreeable smell. Pleasantness
Activity	Dettol is active against both	Bacteriological data and the literature of Dettol are available on request. Dettol is packed in 2 and 5 gallon, Purchase-Tax-free Dispensing containers. Data

Where combined action Succeeds

From apparent defeat, many a contest is won by combined action. The joint administration of penicillin and the sulphonamides frequently establishes successful therapy, when the oral administration of the antibiotic or chemotherapeutic agent alone has been ineffective.

Sulpenin, containing penicillin, sulphadiazine and sulphamerazine in balanced dosage is a convenient means of applying combined therapy in the treatment of many infections due to susceptible micro-organisms. By utilising the synergistic action known to exist between penicillin and the sulphonamides, the antibacterial range is increased, the likelihood of kidney damage is lessened and the tendency for the bacteria to develop mutant strains resistant to one or other of the component drugs is reduced.

ADVERTISING AND THE DOCTOR

Advertising is a means of giving out important information quickly. As such it serves a very useful role in medicine.

No doctor has the time to read every paragraph in all the medical magazines in order to keep up with every development in treatments and medicines. Yet he doesn't want to miss anything worth while.

The manufacturer who has some new development can tell doctors about it quickly and clearly. He advertises it in a prominent space not once but several times in different publications, giving every doctor a good chance of learning the facts at once.

Take one small example:

Elastoplast Porous Adhesive Bandages were recently developed to overcome skin reaction to occlusion by adhesive bandages, especially in the treatment of varicose conditions. Literally within a few days of the completion of clinical trials, every doctor in the country was informed by Smith & Nephew's advertising of this new advance in the manufacture of elastic adhesive bandages.

T. J. SMITH & NEPHEW LTD HULL ENGLAND

Outside the British Commonwealth Elastoplast is known as Tensoplast.

Aspirin tolerance

Difficulties attending the administration of aspirin in large doses over prolonged periods are now largely overcome.

Heavy aspirin dosage is possible without the development of gastric and systemic disturbances when the analgesic is given in the form of Solprin tablets, which provide calcium aspirin unassociated with decomposition products, in palatable solution.

Both aspirin and calcium aspirin, as generally prepared, have chemical and physical disadvantages. Aspirin is acid and sparingly soluble: calcium aspirin is unstable and unpalatable. 'Solprin' overcomes the disadvantages—combining the advantages—of both. 'Solprin' is substantially neutral. It does not decompose during manufacture or storage. Like aspirin it is analgesic, sedative, antipyretic and anti-rheumatic: like pure calcium aspirin it is soluble and bland.

In all but cases of extreme hypersensitivity, extensive clinical trials with 'Solprin' show just such gratifying results as might be expected of so remarkable a combination of properties. Upon the importance of such results there is no need to insist.

An Effective Antacid of established value

Immediate neutralization of gastric acid, yet unaccompanied by the disadvantages arising from carbonate medication, clearly indicates the clinical superiority of 'Milk of Magnesia'* as a therapeutic antacid. Non-systemic in action, 'Milk of Magnesia' may confidently be prescribed in a wide variety of conditions associated with gastric acid disturbance — from the mild case of dyspepsia to the acute ulcer stage — where intensive alkaline treatment is essential.

'Milk of Magnesia' reacts with the acids of the stomach to form a neutral laxative salt which promotes gentle but effective elimination.

THE CAMP-VARCO PELVIC TRACTION BELT

Pelvic Traction in Low Back Injuries

EXTENSIVE research into the design of Surgical Supports has been made by the S. H. CAMP Organization over the past thirty years. Their latest development is the CAMP-VARCO Traction Belt for use in the treatment of low-back injuries. It has been applied with good results in cases of herniation of the nucleus pulposus in the lumbar intervertebral spaces. It is also used for the relief of minor fractures of the lumbar and sacral vertebral appendages and of the pelvis, and in spondylolisthesis.

This pelvic traction system is designed to avoid the complications of thrombophlebitis, swollen ankles and knees, and the risk of dermatitis which can result from ordinary skin traction.

The apparatus is easy to apply, the fitting being similar to that of any other sacro-iliac or back support. It is constructed on the principle of a body belt to which are attached two adjustable traction straps; these are attached to a spreader board from which is suspended the appropriate weight.

The traction operates through the sacro-iliac region and along the spine and avoids the hip, knee and ankle joints; one of the advantages of the pelvic traction system is that the patient has full movement of the lower limbs.

The method is extremely simple and can if required be used at home under medical direction. It is well-tolerated by the patient and makes for greater comfort and easier nursing attention.

SAVE YOUR SIGHT—BY BETTER LIGHT

Doctors, of all people, should have perfect eyesight, and should therefore avoid all types of artificial lighting which may cause eyestrain, especially those involving glare and shadows.

The accompanying illustration of a Harley Street surgeon's consulting room shows how perfectly a room can be lighted with glareless, shadowless and evenly diffused light, and how economically this can be done, there being only one fitting and only one lamp in it.

Whenever you wish for really good lighting, remember that is what G.V.D. stands for and therefore call us in to advise you.

Whatever type of lighting is wanted, whether it be laylights, cornice lighting, wall brackets, pendants, standards, pelmet or niche lights, G.V.D. can carry it out in the most efficient, effective and economical manner.

We never use fluorescent tubes, but only the ordinary tungsten filament lamp, and as all artificial light is more or less harmful, we never recommend higher intensities than are absolutely necessary, nor do we try to turn your room into an electricity fittings showroom.

The G.V.D. SYSTEM is applicable to every type and size of room and building and is eminently suitable for surgeries, consulting rooms, waiting rooms, offices, hospitals, lecture halls, libraries, or the home, in fact wherever good yet economical lighting is required.

Bloodless revolution

The introduction of 'Dextraven' has made available for the first time a dextran solution with controlled optimal molecular content which has been referred to as "narrow fraction dextran." It produces rapid elevation and prolonged maintenance of blood volume and normally ensures that over 50% of the dextran administered remains in the circulation after 24 hours—a longer period than has been possible with any previous blood volume restorer. 'Dextraven' is the preparation of choice for the restoration of blood volume. The British Encyclopædia of Medical Practice (Medical Progress, 1952) states: "There is little doubt that the narrow fraction dextran will revolutionise supportive therapy, and may be regarded as one of the major advances of the year."—Truly a bloodless revolution.
