Nulacin for continuous, maintained gastric anacidity

IT has long been recognized that the most rapid relief of the pain and discomfort of peptic ulcer and most rapid healing of the lesion are achieved when a continuous state of gastric anacidity is maintained.

Heretofore, such a state has only been possible with hospitalization and severe discomfort to the patient. Now, NULACIN offers all the advantages of continuous drip therapy without the attendant inconveniences.

NULACIN accomplishes this desirable aim simply and effectively. A NULACIN tablet placed between the cheek and the gum dissolves slowly and releases its contained medicaments at a rate which achieves the effect of intragastric milk-alkali drip therapy. By maintaining a prolonged influence NULACIN accomplishes its acid-neutralizing effect with considerably less antacid than would be required by any other method employing oral administration.

INDICATIONS: NULACIN tablets are indicated whenever acid neutralization of the gastric contents is required; in active and quiescent peptic ulcer, gastritis, gastric hyperacidity.

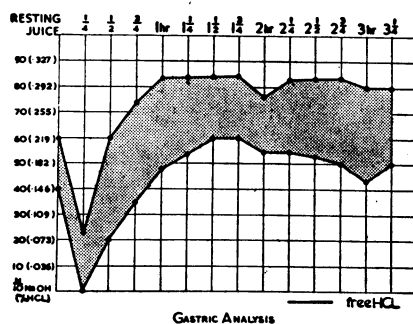

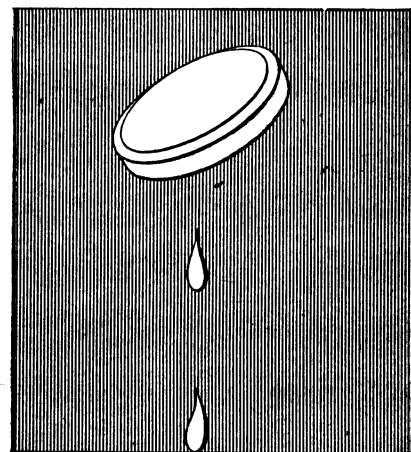

Dosage

Beginning half-an-hour after food a NULACIN tablet should be placed in the mouth between the cheek and the gum and allowed to dissolve.

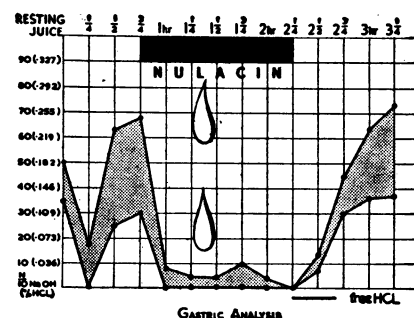

During the stage of ulcer activity up to three tablets an hour may be required. During quiescent periods, for prophylaxis in peptic ulcer and for the relief of discomfort due to gastric hyperacidity, the dose of NULACIN is one or two tablets between meals.

NULACIN tablets are not advertised to the public and have no B.P. equivalent. May be prescribed on E.C.10. The dispensing unit of 25 tablets is free of purchase tax. (Price to pharmacists . . . 2/-.) Also available in tubes of 12.

Superimposed gruel fractional test-meal curves of five cases of duodenal ulcer.

Same patients as in Fig. 1, two days later, showing the striking neutralizing effect of sucking Nulacin tablets (3 an hour). Note the return of acidity when Nulacin is discontinued.

RESULTS OF REPEATED ORAL DOSES
300,000 U. PENICILLIN

In a comparative study of three liquid oral penicillin preparations, published in Antibiotics and Chemotherapy (June 1953, 3, 593-9), the authors concluded:

'It would, therefore, appear as a result of this comparative study that orally administered N,N'dibenzylethylenediamine dipenicillin G affords blood serum concentrations of no significantly longer duration or greater magnitude than are obtained with either potassium or procaine penicillins. The peak serum concentrations are significantly higher for procaine and potassium penicillin under the conditions of this study.'

Poroplast embodies 2 important new developments

1 Poroplast contains no rubber, no solvents, and is entirely free from the irritating resins usually embodied in elastic adhesive bandages . . . therefore obviating many problems of skin irritation and offering greatly increased plaster toleration even on the most sensitive skins.

2 It is porous over its whole surface, even where two layers overlap . . . allowing for ventilation and for natural evaporation.

The range of Poroplast's therapeutic use is vastly wider than that of the conventional type of elastic adhesive bandage. Its special advantages, and the improved results it achieves, in the treatment of varicose veins and ulcers especially, receive steadily mounting medical confirmation. In all cases where an elastic adhesive bandage must be used for long periods, the use of Poroplast makes all the difference.

A new and logical therapy for Rheumatic conditions

Water-soluble esters of salicylic, p-aminobenzoic and nicotinic acids, that readily pass the skin barrier

The local treatment of rheumatic conditions has hitherto presented certain difficulties; drugs which penetrated the skin often caused intense irritation and their use was of doubtful value.

Transvasin, a new preparation developed by Hamol S. A., our Swiss associates, and now available for prescription in this country, contains esters of salicylic, p-aminobenzoic and nicotinic acids. These esters, being both water- and fat-soluble, readily pass the skin barrier in therapeutic quantities without causing irritation, and enable an adequate concentration of the drugs to be built up where they are needed.

Transvasin not only induces vasodilation of the skin with a superficial erythema but also brings about a deep hyperaemia of the underlying tissues.

Nicotinic acid ethyl-ester	2%

Transvasin is available in 1 oz. tubes at 4/-, which are obtainable on form E.C.10, and is not advertised to the public.

SODIUM

THE NEW MERCURIAL DIURETIC FOR SUBCUTANEOUS INJECTION

'Thiomerin' differs from other mercurial diuretics in that the mercury is in combination with an organic group plus another compound—sodium thioglycollate, which has a marked detoxicating action on the mercury. The volume of urine excreted is mainly determined by the size and frequency of the injections. Intravenous injections merely speed up the process by a few hours but have no effect on the final weight loss. 'Thiomerin' diuresis induced by subcutaneous injection (0.5 to 2 cc) is gentle, slower in onset but equal in output to that of any other mercurial, however administered. The patient benefits, both from a painless injection and because less frequent bladder emptying, especially at night, permits much-needed rest and imposes less strain.

'Thiomerin' is indicated in Cardiac Oedema (peripheral or pulmonary)
Nephritic Oedema Ascites of Liver Disease
Carefully selected cases of Subacute and Chronic Nephritis.
 PACKING—'Thiomerin' is supplied in vials of 1.4 G, to which the addition of 10 cc. Water for Injection, B.P. will provide a solution containing the equivalent of 40 mg. Mercury per cc.

Notes on Clinical uses of Ribena

No. 2 In Rheumatic Disorders

 That ascorbic acid deficiency is present in many cases of acute and chronic rheumatism and rheumatoid arthritis has been shown by various authorities.

Recent work indicating a relationship between the adrenal cortex hormones (cortisone, etc.) and Vitamin C suggests an explanation for the beneficial results obtained from the clinical use of the vitamin in these disorders.

It is physiologically sound, therefore, to prescribe Ribena—a rich source of natural Vitamin C—as an adjunct to the conventional therapy of rheumatism.

Please send for free sample of RIBENA

THIS PLASTIC NAILBRUSH CAN BE BOILED

There has long been a demand from the medical profession for a plastic nailbrush that can be sterilized by boiling.

For the first time a nailbrush has now been made with a handle of nylon which enables the brush to be adequately sterilized by moist heat without damage. The tufts are of lively, hard-wearing Flextron, and an extra row of these tufts down the middle of the brush gives reinforcement where most needed.

All-nylon boilable Grippy nailbrushes are thus eminently suitable for the use of Doctors, Surgeons, Nurses, Midwives, etc. In case of any difficulty, these brushes may be obtained directly from Addis Limited. In the majority of recent papers on digitalis action, the drug described was Digoxin.

Digoxin is selected for clinical research in cardiology because it is a pure glycoside of constant composition, is very rapid in action, and its rate of elimination is slow enough to allow adequate maintenance therapy.

Digoxin rarely produces local gastric effects.

BILIARY SUPPORT

In diseases of the biliary tract uncomplicated with acute hepatitis, in functional hepatic insufficiency and in chronic passive congestion of the liver, the physician seeks first a cholagogue cholaretic to give biliary support.

The bile salts of Veracolate* cholagogue evacuant are in the proportion in which they occur in fresh bile and help to keep the natural bile thin and free flowing. Upon absorption, these bile salts act as cholaretics and facilitate biliary drainage.

*One old country cure for whooping cough calls not for medicine, but for an opportune meeting.
It demands that the parent shall walk till he or she meets a one-eyed man on a piebald horse, then return home, when the child will be found cured.*

HAPPILY, we now have available more certain and scientific methods of securing whooping cough protection. As long ago as 1946, Glaxo produced a vaccine that was observed, in M.R.C. trials, to give 70 per cent protection. Since then, Glaxo research has brought many improvements to pertussis vaccines . . . has brought, too, more precise methods of gauging their potential performance in the field. Results suggest, indeed, that Suspended Whooping Cough Vaccine Glaxo markedly lessens the striking power of this childhood enemy.

PLEASANTLY FLAVOURED ELIXIR

The association of methyltestosterone and ethinylœstradiol in Mepilin produces a more complete response in the treatment of menopausal disorders than can be obtained by the use of œstrogens alone.

The presence of methyltestosterone enables a reduction in œstrogen dosage to be made; thus undesirable side effects such as breast turgidity and pelvic congestion are avoided and the risk of withdrawal bleeding is reduced. An increased feeling of confidence and well-being is produced which is both mental and physical.

*Each teaspoonful (4 ml.) of Mepilin Elixir and each Mepilin Tablet

Easily Administered

Where there is a suspected deficiency of the vitamins of the B₂ group, Marmite yeast extract is often recommended as it is easily administered and can be included in the normal diet in many different ways.

Its use in special diets is also often advocated, particularly in those diets where the nutrients normally supplying the B vitamins are deficient.

Marmite supplies riboflavin (1.5 mg. per oz.), nicotinic acid (16.5 mg. per oz.), folic acid, pantothenic acid, pyridoxin, biotin, choline, inositol and p-aminobenzoic acid together in a natural form, which many authorities consider to be an advantage.

In hypochromic anaemia of pregnancy 'Fergon'—a specially prepared tablet form of ferrous gluconate—is an advance on current iron therapy. Ordinary iron preparations produce digestive disturbances; the patient may 'skip' doses and so recovery is delayed. 'Fergon', on the other hand, does not interfere with gastro-intestinal function so that there is no vomiting, constipation or diarrhoea. Maximum therapeutic effect is assured because absorption and haemoglobin response are not reduced by gastro-intestinal upsets. Apart from anaemia of pregnancy, 'Fergon' is well suited for the treatment of anaemia in children and other iron deficiency anaemias.

The basic N.H.S. price of one week's treatment is 1/2d.

THE TOILET SOAP

2% HEXACHLOROPHENE

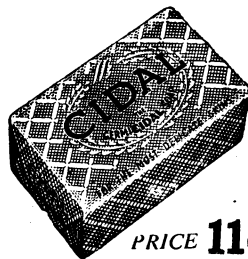

Because CIDAL soap contains Hexachlorophene (G-11) it has remarkable germicidal properties which help it to purify the skin as no ordinary toilet soap can do.

CIDAL attacks bacteria that settle in pores and folds of skin, and forms an anti-bacteria barrier which gives protection between washes. By destroying the bacteria that ferment perspiration, CIDAL eliminates unpleasant body odours at source.

CIDAL is useful in treating all skin ailments where soap and water are part of the therapy. Regular use helps to reduce the incidence of cellulitis and folliculitis, and prevents secondary infections of minor cuts and abrasions.

CIDAL CREAM SHAMPOO also contains Hexachlorophene and shares CIDAL soap's germicidal powers. It protects hair follicles against infection by staphylococci and is helpful in treating dandruff.

'... There must be something I can do ...'

Here is a task that never ends—the care of child-victims of callousness or thoughtlessness. The trained, experienced workers of the N.S.P.C.C. devote their lives to it, always ready with the help and advice that so often restores the family life on which the child depends. And you can help too. The National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children is entirely dependent on voluntary contributions—it urgently needs your assistance, in order to continue to bring happiness to those who want it most.
