SYMPOSIUM ON THE MECHANISM OF INFLAMMATION

Edited by GAÉTAN JASMIN and ANDRÉ ROBERT

Approximate Price $8.50.

At the occasion of the XIX International Physiological Congress, held in Montreal, August 31 to September 4, 1953, a round-table discussion was held between an international group comprising some of the most outstanding authorities in the field of inflammation. The formal papers (with many illustrations), as well as the entire informal discussion between these specialists, as registered by the wire-recorder, are presented here in the form of a monograph. It represents an excellent synopsis of the best contemporary opinion concerning inflammation.

'Mysoline', an entirely new anticonvulsant, was introduced in 1952 following publication of the results obtained in long-standing cases of major epilepsy which had resisted treatment with other established drugs. Since that time clinical evaluation in numerous important neurological centres in Great Britain and overseas has amply confirmed the earlier trials. These investigations have all shown that 'Mysoline' possesses a number of notable features—ability to control the grand mal attack, low toxicity and freedom from hypnotic effect. In addition, a beneficial effect on general behaviour, performance and sociability has been observed.

Preliminary studies with 'Mysoline' in psychomotor epilepsy are extremely encouraging, and there is evidence that it may also be of use in petit mal.

'Mysoline' tablets (0.25 gramme) are now available in packings of 100 and 1,000.

“In fact, canned strained foods are more nourishing!”

WHEN DOCTORS AND NURSES advise the early feeding of strained foods, they are often asked if canned strained foods are really as nutritious as those cooked at home.

And mothers are glad to be assured that the answer is definitely ‘Yes.’ In fact, at every stage of preparation, Heinz Strained Foods are actually better than those made under normal home conditions.

First, Heinz choose the most suitable varieties of fruits and vegetables. They supervise their growth from sowing to harvesting and when they reach perfect maturity, take them direct from the fields to the factory. There, they wash, clean, cook and strain them within a few hours. This means that the loss of vitamins which starts as soon as vegetables leave the ground is reduced to the minimum. In their laboratories, Heinz check the quality before the foods are sterilized—and after too, by testing cans from every batch.

How much better this is than the usual home method where vegetables are often days old before they are bought, and cooking in ordinary saucepans with too much water further depletes their store of vitamins.

For a FREE booklet on the nutrient values of Heinz Strained Foods, write to: Dept. 1F, H. J. Heinz Company Ltd., Harlesden, London, N.W.10.

Threadworm TREATMENT

As a result of investigations by workers of the Wellcome Laboratories of Tropical Medicine, 'Antepar' brand Elixir is now offered as a major advance in the treatment of threadworm infestation.

Piperazine hydrate, the active ingredient of 'Antepar', has proved to be far more efficient than any of the traditional oxyuricides and yet to be virtually non-toxic. In clinical trials, its nearest rival in effectiveness, gentian violet, gave a cure rate of 70 per cent, whereas piperazine cleared 97 per cent of all cases treated at the recommended dosage level. No undesirable effects whatever were produced. No special regime of cleanliness was required.

'Antepar' contains 500 mgm. of piperazine hydrate per fluid drachm, and is available in bottles of 4 fl. oz. (6/6d. plus 1/3d. P.T.) and dispensing packs of 20 fl. oz. (24/9d.—exempt P.T.), both prices subject to the usual discount.

Overeating is often an expression of inward uneasiness. Many fat people, despite their outward appearance of joviality, are anxious and unhappy and find in food a solace for their troubles. They try to hide themselves behind a 'wall of fat' and a façade of jolliness.

For this reason, 'Drinamyl' is often helpful in the treatment of many cases of overweight. Given before meals it curbs the appetite and, by relieving the emotional tension that may be at the back of the patient's habit of overeating, helps him to eat less.

Supplied in scored tablets of 1 mg. and 2 mg. Average dose: 9 to 15 mg. divided into three doses at 6 to 8 hourly intervals, preferably after meals.

Veriloid-VP

Scored tablets of Veriloid, 2 mg., with Phenobarbitone, 15 mg. Provides mild sedation, and also enables effective hypotensive doses to be given to patients readily nauseated by Veriloid given alone.

Veriloid Intramuscular & Intravenous Solutions

Produce an immediate and pronounced reduction of blood-pressure and find valuable application in the treatment of acute episodes of hypertension, e.g. malignant hypertension, encephalopathy and eclampsia.

An outstanding feature of the hypotensive action of Veriloid is its central action, which effects vaso-relaxation by impulses transmitted to the arteriolar musculature. Ganglionic function is not disturbed, therefore there is no interference with the postural reflexes essential for normal activity.

Veriloid, a unique preparation of the ester alkaloids of Veratrum viride, is specifically indicated in all grades of essential hypertension. Because it is biologically standardized in dogs, its clinical effect is significant and dependable. If dosage is carefully adjusted, control of blood-pressure throughout the whole day is entirely possible.

A CAREER AT SEA

The Merchant Navy offers good prospects

The large Shipping Companies recruit future Executive Officers for their ocean-going ships from H.M.S. WORCESTER, a Nautical College founded in 1862 by London shipowners. Nearly 7,000 Cadets have passed through the College and received specialized training in addition to a sound general education.

The College is officially recognized by the Ministry of Education and by the Ministry of Transport, the latter accepting the training provided on board the WORCESTER as being the equivalent of one year's sea service.

Cadets are admitted after reaching the age of 13½ and before reaching the age of 16. They leave the College when they are 17 and the period of training depends on the age at entry, with a minimum period of two years. Candidates are required to take the Common Entrance Examination or the WORCESTER Entrance Examination, according to age. They must be medically fit with perfect eyesight.

Fees are £210 per annum including uniform. Several scholarships in reduction of fees are available. The WORCESTER offers an excellent opportunity for boys of good education and character wishing to become Executive Officers in the Merchant Navy—a career providing world travel, good remuneration, and an interesting life.

Illustrated Prospectus containing full information will be forwarded on application to the Secretary,

...purely psychological...

We are sometimes told when we mention the tonic value of routine ultra-violet irradiation, that the effect is "purely psychological." The only answer to such scepticism is that the absorption in the first millimetre of skin of radiation of such high energy-quantum must, by the very laws of photo-chemical activity, result in profound physical consequences worthy of closer consideration.

On the other hand, it is perfectly true that the psychological effects of ultra-violet therapy are very great, but the process is not, however, one of auto-suggestion, because it is through physiological processes that the psychological benefit is obtained. The impact of sunlight, whether natural or artificial, on the human skin, sets into motion a far-reaching series of photo-chemical and physiological reactions, which results in increased circulation, deeper respiration, improved appetite, and deeper sleep. No wonder the patient feels better.

Flexoplast products are manufactured to the highest standards. The woven edge, elastic fabric is unequalled for quality, it gives greater elasticity and when applied lies flat and does not cause a ridge. The Flexoplast Bandage can be called the Economical Bandage — opens to the end — every inch usable — no waste. The Flexoplast Bandage is second to none in quality and better than most. Deferment of recruitment for fully registered "R" practitioners (i.e., fully registered practitioners liable for call-up under the National Service Acts) is granted at the discretion of the Central Medical Recruitment Committee and (in Scotland) the Scottish Central Medical Recruitment Committee. The Committees normally allow a fully registered "R" practitioner to hold a First House Officer post (N.H.S. salary £350 per annum) provided that it commences within three months of the end of his deferment by the Ministry of Labour and National Service as a whole-time medical student; and a Second House Officer post (N.H.S. salary £400 per annum) provided that it is secured before the end of his First House Officer post and commences within one month thereafter.

An "R" practitioner requires the special written permission of the C.M.R.C. or (in Scotland) the Scottish C.M.R.C. to proceed to any further post.

The position of provisionally registered "R" practitioners has been made clear in a notice sent to them by the University Joint Recruiting Boards.

'MEPILIN' for the menopausal patient

HITHERTO AVAILABLE AS TABLETS AND NOW ALSO AS A
PLEASANTLY FLAVOURED ELIXIR

The association of methyltestosterone and ethinylœstradiol in Mepilin produces a more complete response in the treatment of menopausal disorders than can be obtained by the use of œstrogens alone.

The presence of methyltestosterone enables a reduction in œstrogen dosage to be made; thus undesirable side effects such as breast turgidity and pelvic congestion are avoided and the risk of withdrawal bleeding is reduced. An increased feeling of confidence and well-being is produced which is both mental and physical.

Each teaspoonful (4 ml.) of Mepilin Elixir and each Mepilin Tablet contains ethinylœstradiol 0.01 mg. and methyltestosterone 3 mg.
