*The Medical Management of Gastro-
Duodenal
Ulceration*

... all duodenal ulcer patients experienced symptomatic relief and of these ten claimed relief after 1 day; four after 2 days; and two after 3 days.

... two patients with a gastric ulcer experienced relief of symptoms 2 to 3 days after starting therapy whilst the patients who did not improve had large eroding ulcers and were later operated upon.

... x-rays were taken 10 and 20 days after the patients' admission. Those receiving TABNET showed evidence of healing 10 days after commencing treatment. After 20 days the radiological appearances showed that the ulcers had healed in all cases except the two referred to above.

... in addition to these control cases twenty ambulatory patients received TABNET therapy and became symptom free within a short period.

AGAINST MALNUTRITION

'VIMALTOL', a delicious, nourishing vitamin preparation, has achieved wide popularity as a supplementary food item against malnutrition in infants, children and adults. It can be used with advantage whenever nutritional levels are unsatisfactory. It can also be usefully employed when vitamin intake is insufficient, for example, due to distaste for natural vitamin-bearing fruits and other foods.

'Vimaltol' is a quality product from the 'Ovaltine' Research Laboratories. Its balanced formula, which includes special malt extract, high vitamin potency yeast, halibut liver oil and iron, has been developed in the light of recent findings of dietetic science. 'Vimaltol' actively assists in growth and development and helps to raise resistance against the onset of infection.

For these reasons, it is widely prescribed for the young because of their higher metabolic requirements. It is highly palatable, readily assimilable and quickly available.

in anti-anaemia therapy

One is naturally loth to change an established method of treatment for another—unless it offers real and practical advantages. So it says much for Cytamen—vitamin B₁₂—that it is being used increasingly in the treatment of pernicious anaemia. Certainly the Cytamen advantages are real enough. Injections are small in bulk, more economical and do not lead to sensitisation. Each dose, moreover, is an exact weight of the active principle and thus exerts a constant physiological effect.

in nutritional therapy

In the care of convalescents and weakly children, conventional tonics are sometimes of little or no benefit. The patient, it seems, requires some other restorative. Often the answer is vitamin B₁₂. Sharpened appetite, improvement in well-being and notable weight gains have all been observed following doses of oral B₁₂. Glaxo present oral B₁₂ as Cytacón. Two forms are available—sugar-coated tablets, and a fruit-flavoured liquid for teaspoon doses.

Offers all the advantages of drip therapy without the inconveniences

Superimposed gruel fractional test-meal curve of five cases of duodenal ulcer.

Same patients as in Fig. 1, two days later, showing the striking neutralizing effect of sucking Nulacin tablets (3 an hour). Note the return of acidity when Nulacin is discontinued.

A maintained continuous state of gastric anacidity has heretofore been impossible without hospitalization and discomfort to the patient.

Now, NULACIN achieves this desirable state simply, effectively and without attendant disadvantages. A NULACIN tablet placed in the mouth and allowed to dissolve slowly, releases its contained medicaments at a rate that gives continuous neutralization of the acid gastric juice. NULACIN accomplishes this with considerably less antacid than is required by any other method of oral administration. The results are comparable with those of intragastric milk-alkali drip therapy.

INDICATIONS

NULACIN tablets are indicated whenever acid neutralization of the gastric contents is required: in active and quiescent peptic ulcer, gastritis, gastric hyperacidity.

Dosage: Beginning half-an-hour after food a NULACIN tablet should be placed in the mouth and allowed to dissolve slowly.

During the stage of ulcer activity up to three tablets an hour may be required. During quiescent periods, for prophylaxis in peptic ulcer and for the relief of discomfort due to gastric hyperacidity, the dose of NULACIN is one or two tablets between meals.

NULACIN tablets are not advertised to the public and have no B.P. equivalent. May be prescribed on E.C.10. The dispensing unit of 25 tablets is free of purchase tax. (Price to pharmacists...2/-.) Also available in tubes of 12.

EFFECTIVE ORAL AMINOPHYLLINE

THEODROX

" These charts show the increase in gastric tolerance following the oral administration of Aminophylline with aluminium hydroxide (Theodrox) compared with that of plain aminophylline.

THEODROX provides a dependable method of oral administration of aminophylline in doses large enough to produce blood levels comparable with those following injection.

Previous investigations have shown that good response is obtained from aminophylline only if a certain concentration of the active component, theophylline, is attained in the blood. Because gastric irritation prevents giving oral doses large enough to produce this necessary blood level, the only dependable way of obtaining this end has been to resort to parenteral aminophylline.

Now there is clinical proof that when aminophylline is combined with a specially prepared aluminium hydroxide, the stumbling block of gastric irritation can be virtually eliminated, and massive oral doses can be tolerated to produce consistent blood levels comparable to those obtained by parenteral administration. (1) (2).

Theodrox is supplied in containers of 25, 100 and 1,000 tablets, each tablet containing Aminophylline, B.P. 3 gr. and Dried Aluminium Hydroxide Gel, B.P.C., 4 gr.

Theodrox is also available as Theodrox with Phenobarbitone, each tablet containing in addition $\frac{1}{2}$ gr. of Phenobarbitone B.P.

'PENIDURAL' is the new ready-for-use fluid oral penicillin, containing 300,000 units to each large teaspoonful (5 c.c.). It will retain its full potency in aqueous suspension for eighteen months at room temperature, and is thus ideal for treatment both in hospital and home.

Editorial of the British Medical Journal, dated

"A standard dose of 300,000 units of 'Penidural' was given, and after a single dose a therapeutic blood concentration was invariably found after 3 hours. When the dose was repeated at six-hour intervals a cumulative effect was observed, with continuous maintenance of a therapeutic concentration".

The introduction of this pleasantly flavoured liquid penicillin banishes the need for any tedious mixing. The patient merely has to pour out the specified dose.

For IRON DEFICIENCY ANAEMIAS

Iron without irritation

In hypochromic anaemia of pregnancy 'Fergon'—a specially prepared tablet form of ferrous gluconate—is an advance on current iron therapy. Ordinary iron preparations produce digestive disturbances; the patient may 'skip' doses and so recovery is delayed. 'Fergon', on the other hand, does not interfere with gastro-intestinal function so that there is no vomiting, constipation or diarrhoea. Maximum therapeutic effect is assured because absorption and haemoglobin response are not reduced by gastro-intestinal upsets. Apart from anaemia of pregnancy, 'Fergon' is well suited for the treatment of anaemia in children and other iron deficiency anaemias.

A perfect source of Vitamin C

RIBENA (Syrupus Ribis Nigri B.P.C.)

HIGH CONCENTRATION OF VITAMIN C—REMARKABLE STABILITY

Four characteristics of Ribena make it a perfect source of Vitamin C:

- 1 It contains a high concentration of Vitamin C—and it is very stable.
- 2 The vitamin is in its natural state.*
- 3 Ribena is very well tolerated even by sensitive stomachs. It is completely free from all cellular structure. It is suitable for infants almost from birth, for peptic ulcer cases, and for women suffering from “morning sickness”; they can take it when almost everything else increases discomfort.
- 4 In addition to its therapeutic values, it is delicious in its own right as sweet blackcurrant syrup.

* Following reports of unsatisfactory response to the therapeutic use of synthetic ascorbic acid in peptic ulcer cases, controlled tests using Ribena were instituted at various large British hospitals, with striking results.

Clinical experience has also shown that in ulcerative gingivitis, the routine use of Ribena as an adjunct to local therapy has given more satisfactory results than that of the synthetic vitamin.

The superiority is presumably due to the presence of other factors of the Vitamin-C complex, possibly the Vitamin P, as well as mineral elements.

Therapeutic uses

Ribena is recommended for all conditions requiring Vitamin-C implementation: namely, as a natural and rapid restorative from fatigue; for increasing resistance to local infection and colds; for expectant and nursing mothers; for infants from birth; for children and adolescents; in many dental conditions; in peptic ulcer cases; in fractures and wounds; in blood dyscrasias and hæmorrhagic states; in infections and fevers; and in many skin disorders.

Reports for doctors overseas

The makers of Ribena co-operated extensively with the Ministries of Food and Health during the war, a co-operation which still goes on to some extent even now. The Royal Forest Factory has attached to it a series of very fine laboratories where research into fruit juices and vitamins is conducted to an academic level, under the direction of an expert, lately in charge of the Fruit Products Section of the University of Bristol Agricultural Research Station. Reports of much of the work done are available, on application, to doctors and scientists overseas. These are likely to be of particular interest now that Ribena is being extensively exported.

Send for further information. A booklet entitled “Blackcurrant Juice in Modern Therapy: Natural Vitamin C” will be forwarded to you with pleasure; also details of a number of controlled tests made on the use of Vitamin C, if you will write to:—

“DOCTOR, THAT’S JUST A WONDERFUL DIET you’ve given me, but where on earth can I get the protein foods from?...” If you have been shopping with your wife lately you will agree that this is a legitimate question and is, indeed, the root cause of patients failing to keep to a high-protein diet when one has been prescribed for them. It is a needless failure, for a high-protein intake can always be maintained by adding Sanatogen protein tonic to the patient’s diet. Sanatogen is 95% milk protein combined with 5% sodium glycerophosphate, has a specific nutrient and tonic effect and a high rate of utilisation. The protein in Sanatogen contains a higher percentage of amino-acids than any other preparation and supplies all essential amino-acids together, thus permitting tissue regeneration in accordance with the all-or-none dietetic law. Usually taken 3 times a day as a mixed drink in a little water or milk, Sanatogen can also be taken sprinkled on food or mixed in cooked dishes and is easily digested and most rapidly absorbed. Have you considered the use of Sanatogen for your high-protein diets?

TAB. CODEIN. Co. B.P., or CODIS?

The manufacturers of 'Solprin' direct your attention to 'Codis' for all those conditions for which Tab. Codein. Co. B.P. would have been prescribed. Codis possesses marked advantages. The 'aspirin' in Codis is soluble, as in 'Solprin.'

Placed in water, a Codis tablet provides, in a few seconds, a solution of calcium aspirin and codeine phosphate with phenacetin in fine suspension. The chance of irritation of the gastric mucosa is minimised because there are no undissolved particles of aspirin.

Other notable advantages of Codis, arising from the inclusion of aspirin in a stable and soluble form, are greater ease of administration and far less likelihood of intolerance by the patient. Being in solution, the aspirin is immediately available.

COMPOSITION Each Codis tablet weighs 11.45 grs., and contains:—Acid. Acetyl-salicyl. B.P. 4 grs., Phenacet. B.P. 4 grs., Codein. Phosph. B.P. 0.125 grs., Calc. Carb. B.P. 1.2 grs., Acid. Cit. B.P. (Exsic.) 0.4 grs.

A New Approach to the Treatment of Coughs:

How CETAMIUM in New Vick Cough Syrup increases the effectiveness of known and tried medicaments

Nature and Action of Cetamium

Cetamium is a quaternary ammonium salt known chemically as cetylpyridinium chloride. It is best known as a compound with high bactericidal activity, but its other important property of lowering surface tension is of special interest in a cough syrup.

Reduced Surface Tension Aids Penetration of Oral Mucosa

The surface tension of Vick Cough Syrup is approximately 43 dynes per square centimetre as compared with that of distilled water, which is 72. This enables the syrup to penetrate into the crypts and crevices of the oral mucosa which water alone, or a normal syrup, will simply bridge over.

More Effective Action of Accepted Medicaments

The inclusion of Cetamium with time-tested, clinically proven expectorants—ammonium chloride, sodium citrate and glycerine—produces a syrup which brings these medicaments into contact with a more extensive area of the throat membranes than they normally reach, thus bringing more relief to irritated tissues where inflammation or infection may exist.

Active Ingredients

Cetamium	0.025%
Ammon. Chlorid.	1.00%
Sod. Cit.	4.00%
Acid Cit.	0.25%
Glycer.	3.75%

Suitable for Children: No Narcotic

Vick Cetamium Cough Syrup contains no narcotics or habit forming drugs. This fact, plus its delicious flavour, makes it particularly suitable for children.

No Nausea

There is evidence to suggest that Cetamium slightly accelerates stomach emptying action. It will be found that the tendency of syrupy expectorant mixtures to induce nausea, particularly in children, is virtually absent. Nor are there any other side effects.

Free Samples will be sent on request to:

VICK CETAMIUM COUGH SYRUP

A new and logical therapy for Rheumatic conditions

Water-soluble esters of salicylic, p-aminobenzoic and nicotinic acids, that readily pass the skin barrier

The local treatment of rheumatic conditions has hitherto presented certain difficulties; drugs which penetrated the skin often caused intense irritation and their use was of doubtful value.

Transvasin, a new preparation developed by Hamol S. A., our Swiss associates, and now available for prescription in this country, contains esters of salicylic, p-aminobenzoic and nicotinic acids. These esters, being both water- and fat-soluble, readily pass the skin barrier in therapeutic quantities without causing irritation, and enable an adequate concentration of the drugs to be built up where they are needed. Transvasin not only induces vasodilation of the skin with a superficial erythema but also brings about a deep hyperaemia of the underlying tissues.

Salicylic acid tetrahydro-

Nicotinic acid ethyl-ester	2%

FORM OF ORAL PENICILLIN

'Dibencil' Oral Suspension contains the newly developed salt of penicillin, N:N'-dibenzylethylenediamine dipenicillin G, which is practically insoluble and when administered in adequate dosage, produces effective and prolonged blood levels. It is particularly suitable for oral penicillin therapy on account of its stability and freedom from the taste of penicillin.

'Dibencil' Oral Suspension contains 300,000 units of penicillin in one large teaspoonful (5 c.c.) and is a pleasantly flavoured preparation ready for use. The Suspension is suitable for both hospital and general practice, it is well-tolerated and is readily accepted by adults and children of all ages.

● Efficacy

'Dibencil' Oral Suspension produces clinically effective blood levels.

● Convenience

'Dibencil' Oral Suspension requires no preliminary preparation and is ready for use.

● Stability

'Dibencil' Oral Suspension retains its potency at ordinary room temperatures not exceeding 77°F. (25°C.) for at least 18 months. Full potency is thus ensured during use.

Deferment of recruitment for fully registered "R" practitioners (i.e., fully registered practitioners liable for call-up under the National Service Acts) is granted at the discretion of the Central Medical Recruitment Committee and (in Scotland) the Scottish Central Medical Recruitment Committee. The Committees normally allow a fully registered "R" practitioner to hold a First House Officer post (N.H.S. salary £350 per annum) provided that it commences within three months of the end of his deferment by the Ministry of Labour and National Service as a whole-time medical student; and a Second House Officer post (N.H.S. salary £400 per annum) provided that it is secured before the end of his First House Officer post and commences within one month thereafter.

An "R" practitioner requires the special written permission of the C.M.R.C. or (in Scotland) the Scottish C.M.R.C. to proceed to any further post.

The position of provisionally registered "R" practitioners has been made clear in a notice sent to them by the University Joint Recruiting Boards.

Availability of Vitamins in Yeast

Deficiencies of single factors of the Vitamin B Group do not occur. Accordingly, even if a deficiency condition appears to result from the lack of an individual factor of the group and it is considered necessary to give intensive treatment with this factor, the entire Vitamin B complex should always be administered concurrently.

It is, however, extremely important, in view of suggestions in recent publications, that the vehicle selected as a source of the entire B Complex does not withhold its vitamin content from the patient.

Human experiments show that the rich, natural vitamin potency of Aluzyme is totally available to the human system.

- Aluzyme is not advertised to the public and may be prescribed on Form E.C.10
