NOW a new form of an effective antibiotic

Filmtab*

Stearate

(ERYTHROMYCIN STEARATE, ABBOTT)

NOW... FASTER AND MORE ASSURABLE Now ERYTHROCOIN provides excellent drug protection from gastric secretions with the new Filmtab* marketed only by Abbott—plus a special buffer system. Result: Because the need for an enteric coating is diminished, the drug is more rapidly absorbed.

NOW... REACHES BLOOD LEVELS Because of the swift absorption, high blood concentrations of ERYTHROCOIN are reached within 2 hours. (Enteric-coated erythromycin affords little or no blood level at 2 hours.) Peak level is reached at 4 hours, with significant concentrations for 8 hours.

LESS TOXICITY ERYTHROCOIN is less likely to alter normal intestinal flora than most other widely-used antibiotics. Gastrointestinal disturbances are rare, with no serious side effects reported.

SPECIFIC AGAINST STAPHYLOCOCCI ERYTHROCOIN Stearate is highly effective against staphylococci. Especially recommended when the infecting organism is staphylococcus—because of the high incidence of staphylococci resistant to penicillin and other antibiotics. Advantageous, too, when patients are allergic to other antibiotics. ERYTHROCOIN Stearate (100 and 500 mg.) are available in bottles of 25 and 100 Filmtabs*.

FOR CHILDREN: Pediatric ERYTHROCOIN Stearate Oral Suspension. Tasty, stable, ready-mixed, in 60 cc. (2 fl. oz.) bottles, 100 mg. per 5 cc. teaspoonful.

announcing

Achro

the true broad

A new and outstandingly successful antibiotic—ACHROMYCIN Tetracycline—is now available for use in Great Britain and overseas countries. Developed by the Lederle research team, ACHROMYCIN is outstanding in many respects. Its stability and solubility surpass those of any broad-spectrum antibiotic in current use. Moreover, no case has yet been reported of the development of bacterial resistance to ACHROMYCIN.

The antibacterial range of ACHROMYCIN is as great as that of any known antibiotic. Yet this new drug shows a remarkable freedom from undesirable side-effects.

Prominent among the many indications for ACHROMYCIN are beta haemolytic streptococcal infections, E. coli infections, meningococcal, staphylococcal, pneumococcal and gonococcal infections; acute bronchitis, bronchiolitis and certain mixed infections. Recommended basic adult dosage is 1 Gm. daily in divided doses—by mouth or injection.

Modern surgery insists . . .

Every operation is an adventure and modern surgery insists that the measurable hazards shall be reduced to a minimum. When the theatre sister hands a Swann Morton scalpel to the surgeon, four things are certain—handle and blade are precisely fitted and balanced one with the other, and the blade is true to shape, it is perfectly tempered and it has a smooth, even keenness. These scalpels are produced in Sheffield by a small highly trained team of enthusiasts. Demand, the world over, grows each year.

FERROMYN

(Ferrous Succinate)

A NEW ORGANIC IRON TABLET

the latest and most significant advance towards ideal oral iron therapy

FERROMYN is an original and logical approach to the problem of iron absorption and utilisation in the treatment of hypochromic anæmias and brings oral iron therapy a step nearer the ideal.

This new iron preparation presents Ferrous Succinate, a bivalent iron salt prepared from succinic acid, which, together with glycine is essential for the synthesis in the red bone marrow of a porphyrin (haem) containing iron.*

Normal Hb. and serum iron levels were demonstrated over an average period of 24 days treatment with a group of hypochromic anæmia patients with an average initial haemoglobin of 60%.

The controlled clinical trials with Ferromyn show an iron utilisation factor of 42% as compared with 14% Ferrous Sulphate and 28% Ferrous Gluconate.

This response was obtained with the low total average dosage of 2,604 mgm. available iron.

In comparison, the controlled group treated with Ferrous Sulphate required 42 days with an average dosage of 7,568 mgm. available iron to reach the same Hb. and serum-iron value.

AMOUNT OF AVAILABLE IRON ADMINISTERED	PREPARATION	IRON UTILISATION COEFFICIENT
2600 mgm 	FERROMYN	 42%
3180 mgm 	FERROUS GLUCONATE	 28%

NOW AN ACCEPTED TREATMENT . . .

Transvasin

Contains skin-penetrating esters of salicylic, nicotinic, and p-aminobenzoic acids. It brings real relief to deep-seated muscular rheumatism by simple inunction.

TRANSVASIN, a new preparation developed by Hamol S.A., our Swiss associates, and now available for prescription in this country, contains polar esters of salicylic, p-aminobenzoic and nicotinic acids. These esters readily pass the skin barrier in therapeutic quantities and enable an effective concentration of the drugs to be built up where they are needed. Transvasin not only induces vasodilation of the skin with a superficial erythema, but also brings about a deep hyperaemia of the underlying tissues. It is non-irritant, and can be safely used on the skin.

It is now being widely prescribed, with highly successful results. There is evidence, also, that since a very small quantity is sufficient for each application, the cost of treatment is extremely low.

Nicotinic acid ethyl-ester	2%
Nicotinic acid n-hexyl-ester	2%

In the treatment of unproductive cough in children and adults the advantages of ETHNINE lie in its effectiveness with low toxicity, and its freedom from side-effects such as constipation and digestive upset.

For children, ETHNINE is indicated whenever a cough sedative is considered advisable particularly in the treatment of whooping cough, irritation of the upper respiratory tract, and the cough associated with enlarged tonsils and adenoids before surgical measures are taken.

The sedative action of ETHNINE is particularly useful when it is desired to ensure a restful night's sleep uninterrupted by paroxysms of coughing.

*The potent anticholinergic agent
for Gastric Hypermotility*

The proven value of "Pro-Banthine" lies in its high potency as an anticholinergic agent inhibiting transmission of neural stimuli at autonomic ganglia and parasympathetic myoneural junctions. By such inhibition "Pro-Banthine" reduces gastro-duodenal hypermotility, which is one of the causes of ulcer pain, and it is in striking confirmation of this that dosage with "Pro-Banthine" dramatically results in relief of pain.

A perfect source of Vitamin C

RIBENA (Syrupus Ribis Nigri B.P.C.)

HIGH CONCENTRATION OF VITAMIN C—REMARKABLE STABILITY

Four characteristics of Ribena make it
a perfect source of Vitamin C:

- 1 It contains a high concentration of Vitamin C—and it is very stable.
- 2 The vitamin is in its natural state. *
- 3 Ribena is very well tolerated even by sensitive stomachs. It is completely free from all cellular structure. It is suitable for infants almost from birth, for peptic ulcer cases, and for women suffering from "morning sickness"; they can take it when almost everything else increases discomfort.
- 4 In addition to its therapeutic values, it is delicious in its own right as sweet blackcurrant syrup.

* Following reports of unsatisfactory response to the therapeutic use of synthetic ascorbic acid in peptic ulcer cases, controlled tests using Ribena were instituted at various large British hospitals, with striking results. Clinical experience has also shown that in ulcerative gingivitis, the routine use of Ribena as an adjunct to local therapy has given more satisfactory results than that of the synthetic vitamin. The superiority is presumably due to the presence of other factors of the Vitamin C complex, possibly the Vitamin P, as well as mineral elements.

Therapeutic uses

Ribena is recommended for all conditions requiring Vitamin C implementation: namely, as a natural and rapid restorative from fatigue; for increasing resistance to local infection and colds; for expectant and nursing mothers; for infants from birth; for children and adolescents; in many dental conditions; in peptic ulcer cases; in fractures and wounds; in blood dyscrasias and hæmorrhagic states; in infections and fevers; and in many skin disorders.

Reports for doctors overseas

The makers of Ribena co-operated extensively with the Ministries of Food and Health during the war, a co-operation which still goes on to some extent even now. The Royal Forest Factory has attached to it a series of very fine laboratories where research into fruit juices and vitamins is conducted to an academic level, under the direction of an expert, lately in charge of the Fruit Products Section of the University of Bristol Agricultural Research Station. Reports of much of the work done are available, on application, to doctors and scientists overseas. These are likely to be of particular interest now that Ribena is being extensively exported.

Send for further information. A booklet entitled "Blackcurrant Juice in Modern Therapy: Natural Vitamin C" will be forwarded to you with pleasure; also details of a number of controlled tests made on the use of Vitamin C, if you will write to:—

for successful peptic ulcer therapy

Superimposed gruel fractional test-meal curves of five cases of duodenal ulcer

Same patients as in Fig. 1, two days later, showing the striking neutralizing effect of sucking Nulacin tablets (3 an hour). Note the return of acidity when Nulacin is discontinued.

is available throughout the British Commonwealth, in the U.S.A. and many other countries. It is known as Nulacin in Canada and Sweden.

NEUTRALIZATION of gastric hyperacidity has long been acknowledged as the first requirement of successful peptic ulcer therapy. In the past it has only been possible to achieve this with milk-alkali drip therapy under hospital conditions.

Now NULACIN provides all the advantages of milk-alkali drip therapy without the discomfort of a tube and without inconvenience to the patient.

INDICATIONS

NULACIN tablets are indicated whenever neutralization of the gastric contents is required: in active and quiescent peptic ulcer, gastritis, gastric hyperacidity.

Beginning half-an-hour after food, a NULACIN tablet should be placed in the mouth and allowed to dissolve slowly. During the stage of ulcer activity, up to three tablets an hour may be required. For follow-up treatment, the suggested dosage is one or two tablets between meals.

NULACIN tablets are not advertised to the public and have no B.P. equivalent. May be prescribed on E.C.10. The dispensing pack of 25 tablets is free of Purchase Tax. (Price to pharmacists is 2/-). Also Available in tubes of 12.

NULACIN tablets are prepared from whole milk combined with dextrins and maltose, and incorporate Magnesium Trisilicate 3.5 grs.; Magnesium Oxide 2.0 grs.; Calcium Carbonate 2.0 grs.; Magnesium Carbonate 0.5 grs.; Ol. Menth. Pip. q.s.

Sol maximum remedior

These words of the Elder Pliny are no less true to-day than they were 2,000 years ago. The value of sunlight as a prophylactic, as well as an aid to recovery, was well known in classical times, but the physician wishing to prescribe this sovereign remedy was at the mercy of a capricious climate. The modern physician can administer ultra-violet radiation with scientific accuracy, and repeat the dose as often as required, thanks to apparatus made available to him by Hanovia Limited.

Ultra-violet radiation is a powerful weapon against skin diseases, rheumatic ailments and general debility. Our booklet, "The Dynamic Key to Recovery," outlines its physiological effects.
