BRAND'S ESSENCE is a first-class protein of animal origin. Being partly hydrolyzed, it is capable of easy ingestion, digestion and absorption. It is extremely palatable, and may be taken either as a jelly or as a liquid. It helps to support convalescence and assists in restoring a positive nitrogen balance.

The major indications for the administration of Brand's Essence are loss of appetite during fatigue, acute infections, and dysphagia or digestive disturbances due to organic or bacterial lesions of the mouth, oesophagus and alimentary tract, and after surgical procedures.

The addition of Brand's Essence to low residue and weight-reducing diets is especially appreciated by the patient.

Allergy Relief

Greater convenience and the economy of fewer doses—plus excellent allergy control and a low incidence of side-effects—are reasons why more and more allergy patients are being introduced to DI-PARALENE. Clinical reports attesting to the superiority of DI-PARALENE are many and may be summarized as follows:

Good Patient Acceptance—In one study, for example, 69 per cent of the patients reported DI-PARALENE afforded equal or better clinical results than other antihistamine agents which they had been using.

High Degree of Clinical Efficiency—Clinical studies have established that no other antihistamine agent has a wider range of usefulness or affords better clinical results.

Low Incidence of Side-effects—Most investigators have reported low incidence of side-effects and the majority have felt that side-effects are less frequent following use of DI-PARALENE than following the use of other antihistamine agents.

DI-PARALENE, with a piperazine base, is outstanding for the prolonged relief afforded by a single dose, ranging from 8 to 24 hours and sometimes longer. The initial adult dose is 50 mg. 3 times daily, and in most cases this may soon be reduced to one or two doses daily.

Remember DI-PARALENE for prolonged relief with few side-effects. 50 mg. Filmtabs are available in bottles of 25, 100 & 500. Why not try DI-PARALENE on your difficult cases.

LIL-LETS

the new vaginal tampon without applicator

A tampon which has been successfully marketed on the Continent during the last five years has now become widely accepted in this country under the name LIL-LETS.

Following extensive clinical trials, LIL-LETS have won the support of leading gynaecological opinion. Samples will be sent to medical practitioners on request.

LIL-LETS have these main advantages:

LIL-LETS need no applicator. By inserting the tampon with the fingers, the risk of bruising is eliminated.

LIL-LETS assist personal hygiene. At 1/6 for 10 they are so much cheaper than other leading tampons that women will be encouraged to change them often. They are easily carried about and easily disposed of.

LIL-LETS are highly absorbent. They absorb almost ten times their own weight in moisture and swell sideways, not lengthways. They are, therefore, really safe.

LIL-LETS are individually wrapped. Each tampon is sealed in a transparent cover. There is no risk of soiling or infection when it is carried loose.

(British Medical Journal, 1955, 1, 386).

Some fall in the haemoglobin level during pregnancy is usual, but investigation has shown that low haemoglobin levels are both undesirable and unnecessary. Results suggest that patients whose haemoglobin levels are below 90% at the beginning of pregnancy are iron deficient. Neo-Ferrum provides iron in the form of colloidal ferric hydroxide. It is pleasant to take, does not stain the teeth or cause gastro-intestinal upset. Each teaspoonful (or two tablets) contains 0.4g. (6 gr.) iron, equivalent to 2g. soft-tissue rheumatism

The esters in Transvasin, a new preparation developed by Hamol S.A., our Swiss associates, readily pass the skin barrier in therapeutic quantities and enable an effective concentration of the drugs to be built up where they are needed. Transvasin not only induces vaso-dilation of the skin with a superficial erythema, but also brings about a deep hyperaemia of the underlying tissues. It is non-irritant, and can be safely used on delicate skins.

It is now being widely prescribed, with successful clinical results. Since a very small quantity is sufficient for each application, the cost of treatment is extremely low.

As more and more doctors are adopting the use of DIAMOX Acetazolamide in the control of cardiac oedema, evidence is rapidly accumulating to show how satisfactorily the early expectations of the drug are being fulfilled. Preference for this new approach to diuresis by the oral administration of DIAMOX is based on the safety and simplicity of the therapy and the rapidity and efficiency of its results. A single morning dose produces copious diuresis lasting 6—12 hours. Encouraging results have also been obtained in glaucoma with DIAMOX which inhibits the secretion of aqueous humour and, by so doing, decreases intraocular pressure. DIAMOX is neither a mercurial nor xanthine derivative.

Aftermath-

Asthenia and Psychasthenia

Precise diagnosis, specific therapy promptly applied, rapid and satisfactory response . . . a desirable sequence of events in the management of any acute infection.

Yet, before the case can be considered as finally closed, the question of dealing with the aftermath—physical and mental asthenia—must be resolved.

Post-infective debility connotes a legacy of high nitrogen loss which plays an important role in the causation of the varied subjective manifestations covered by the general term, asthenia. Since, too, only very small amounts of protein are stored in the body, the advisability of ensuring a particularly high intake of essential amino-acids during convalescence is obvious.

Sanatogen is the restorative tonic nutrient of choice. Sanatogen is a protein complex rich in the essential amino-acids with 5% of glycerophosphate.

The protein moiety, apart from its high nutrient value, has an intrinsic tonic effect on the depleted tissues and plays a part in the production of antibodies, in the formation of haemoglobin and in preserving the integrity of the liver. This tonic effect is, moreover, augmented by the glycerophosphates, long accepted as an efficient nerve and general tonic.

For over fifty years Sanatogen has been used successfully for physical and mental debility after acute infections or major operations. It has also produced excellent results as an adjunct to simple psychotherapy in the protean psychosomatic manifestations which make up such an important part of general practice.

A Superior Buffered Analgesic

'Alasil' TABLETS—the improved form of salicylate medication—provide the efficient analgesia expected from their content of aspirin. Their superior acceptability derives from their content of a reliable buffer which minimizes the tendency to gastric irritation sometimes caused by the use of aspirin alone.

Advantages

'Alasil' is an advanced sedative and antipyretic; it does not tend to induce gastric irritation; because of its high tolerability, it may be used for long-term administration even to those with sensitive stomachs, and to children.

Composition

'Alasil' Tablets contain the recognized antacid corrective, 'Alocol' (Colloidal Aluminium Hydroxide), which permits their sedative principle, acetylsalicylic acid, to exert its action with minimal risk of side-effects.

Indications

Symptomatic pain generally; rheumatism, fibrositis, lumbago, headache, dysmenorrhoea; dental pain.

80% Less Engine Wear

with new BP Special Energol

'VISCO-STATIC' MOTOR OIL

It guards against the dangerous 5 minutes every time you start

MOTORISTS ALL OVER BRITAIN are talking about the wonderful new motor oil — BP Special Energol 'VISCO-STATIC'. It saves 80% of engine wear. This has been proved by the new radio-active wear detector which actually measures wear while the engine is running. BP Special Energol also cuts petrol consumption by up to 12%, and gives you easier starting than you have ever known. These are claims no car owner can ignore. What is so different about this new oil? How does it work? Here are the answers.

The Dangerous 5 Minutes

For 5 minutes after every cold start any engine lubricated with conventional oil suffers more wear than in about 6 hours steady running. The reason is that conventional oils are too thick when cold to give immediate lubrication and a full flow of oil to the cylinders. So the engine runs virtually dry just when it needs oil most of all.

BP Special Energol prevents this heavy starting wear in two ways. First, it flows so easily when cold that it gives full oil circulation the moment the engine starts. Second, it guards against corrosion while the engine is not running.

Amazing new property

Instantaneous oil circulation with BP Special Energol is the result of an amazing new property. This oil is as thin when cold as the thinnest winter oil you can buy. Yet it is as thick when hot as are the grades normally recommended for summer use, at the same temperature.

Here at last is an oil that not only lubricates completely in freezing cold but also gives complete protection in summer heat and hard running conditions. This is why BP Special Energol reduces engine wear by 80%.

This new oil is for use all the year round in all 4-stroke engines in good condition for which an oil from S.A.E. 10W to S.A.E. 40 is recommended. Now there is no need to change your grade of oil with change of season.

Saves up to 12% on petrol

Because BP Special Energol reduces oil drag when the engine is warming up, you will find you need less choke. The reduction in oil drag and use of the choke will cut your petrol consumption. Saving can be as high as 12% in start and stop runs in towns. Even on average running you can expect at least 5% saving. This saving alone more than repays the extra cost of BP Special Energol.

Striking improvement in starting

The first thing you notice when you change to BP Special Energol is a striking improvement in starting from cold. Once again it's because this new oil flows easily when cold. The engine springs to life immediately and runs as if it were already warmed up. Performance is noticeably livelier during the warming up period. And of course your battery is under less strain.

London to Leeds EVERY TIME YOU START

In the first 5 minutes after starting from cold any engine lubricated with conventional oil suffers more wear than in about 6 hours steady running — that is, more wear than on a non-stop run from London to Leeds! This is because conventional oil is too thick to reach vital parts at the top of the cylinder bores. Result — cylinder walls and piston rings are virtually dry and suffer severe wear. But BP Special Energol flows freely even in extreme cold. It gives full oil circulation from the moment the engine starts.

Only for engines in good condition

BP Special Energol is only for engines in good condition. If yours is worn and shortly in need of overhaul you will do best to use the recommended grade of normal BP Energol. If in any doubt ask your garage manager.

How to change to BP Special Energol

Because BP Special Energol is a completely different kind of oil be sure to make a complete changeover. Do not top up your existing oil with BP Special Energol. Drain and refill with the new oil, run for 500 miles, then drain and refill again. From then on the oil should be changed at the normal change periods recommended for your engine.

Ask for BP Special Energol at garages where you see the BP shield. This oil is coloured red for easy identification and sold only in sealed packages.

When you recommend a varied diet for baby based on Heinz Strained Foods, you are recommending a diet which can easily be followed by even the busiest mothers. And baby will benefit not only from the nourishment of these foods, but also from accustoming his palate to a variety of flavours at an early age.

And another point is this. It is often impossible for a mother — particularly if she lives in a town — to make foods as nourishing as Heinz. Heinz have the advantage of buying farm-fresh fruits and vegetables and also of having cooking and straining equipment that keeps the maximum amount of goodness in the foods.

For a FREE booklet giving the exact nutrient values of all 19 varieties of Heinz Strained Foods, please write to Dept. 1P, H. J. Heinz Company Ltd., London, N.W.10.

He wouldn't dream of neglecting his patients . . .

The anxious mother can confidently expect to hear the doctor's 'rat-tat-tat': he will never let his little patient down, and will meticulously follow her progress until she is cured.

But even doctors have human failings, and this one is guilty of a certain amount of neglect where his tyres are concerned: in fact, he rarely gives them a thought until he needs a new one—and then he usually leaves the choice to someone else. A pity this, when all he need say is 'Fit John Bull', and be assured of so many more miles of really safe and trouble-free motoring.

HER MAJESTY'S OVERSEAS CIVIL SERVICE

Vacancies exist for

for general duties in the Medical Department of Kenya. A vacancy also exists for a Medical Officer interested in parasitology. Successful candidates may be posted to any station in Kenya. During the earlier years of service an officer will be expected to carry out general medical and surgical duties, including a varying amount of public health administration. In most stations, even if remote from the larger towns, it is possible for an officer to maintain interest in any particular branch of medicine or surgery to which he is attracted. As far as possible the interests of an officer are considered when postings are made. The work of every medical officer is based on a hospital which may vary in size and facilities from a small district hospital meeting the needs of a comparatively primitive community to a large and modern provincial hospital. Appointments can be made on a permanent basis with pension (non-contributory) at age of 55, or on short-term contract with gratuity payable on satisfactory completion of service. Salary ranges from £1,116 to £1,836 a year; starting point is determined by experience, and four extra increments are given to successful candidates possessing the M.R.C.P., D.P.H., or other approved higher qualifications. Temporary cost-of-living allowance at the rate of 10 per cent of salary is also payable, subject to a maximum of £162 a year, making gross emoluments of £1,228 to £1,998 a year. Permanent Medical Officers are eligible to be considered at any time for promotion to super-scale posts in Kenya and other territories in medical administration or, if they possess higher qualifications and suitable experience, in specialist posts. Quarters are generally available at rental of 10 per cent of salary. Free passages in both directions for officer and wife, and up to cost of one adult fare for children. Taxation at local rates. Annual local leave permissible, and generous home leave granted after each tour of from 40 to 48 months. Education facilities are available.
