'Tried and trusted' is indeed an apt epithet for the Silver Salts. Over the years, they have been prescribed with confidence in a broad range of nasal infections... and this trust has been well founded, for recent research has proved beyond doubt that these salts exert their antiseptic action without damage to the ciliated mucous membrane. ARGOTONE Nasal Drops present silver vitellin in company with ephedrine hydrochloride, and thus serve a dual purpose: they disinfect and decongest the nasal passages. They reduce the swollen mucous membranes and restore permeability to the nasal sinuses. There is a wide scope for ARGOTONE Nasal Drops in the coming months of "peak infection."

tailor-made to neutralise only the EXCESS acid

Styrior is polyaminostyrene, an 'ion exchange' resin chemically tailored to act selectively. Styrior combines with excess acid to form an inactive complex. When the complex passes into the alkalinity of the intestine, the acid is neutralised. Styrior is excreted chemically unchanged.

Styrior is a new antacid in which the neutralising activity ceases automatically as soon as the stomach's acid level is lowered to normal. Styrior does not over-neutralise, and does not incur any risk of after-effects. Insoluble, non-irritant, non-toxic, safely given in any dosage for any length of time, Styrior brings nothing but relief.

Anaemia of Pregnancy

CREWE
CHESHIRE*FERROMYN (Ferrous Succinate)

Until recently the fall in haemoglobin during pregnancy has been regarded as a natural phenomenon due to haemodilution and foetal iron requirements, particularly in the latter stages of pregnancy, which may give rise to an iron deficiency state in the new born.

That this so-called "physiological anaemia" of pregnancy, attributed to the rise in blood volume of 18% to 23%, can be circumvented by the administration of iron has been ably demonstrated*. The choice of a readily assimilable iron preparation as a source of supplementary iron in pregnancy is highly important, in that it should be well tolerated by the expectant mother throughout the whole period of gestation.

In a recent controlled clinical trial of 150 cases suffering from iron deficiency, 52 were anaemias of pregnancy. All these cases were treated with the new organic iron FERROMYN - Ferrous Succinate, 1 tablet t.d.s. A notable feature of this clinical evaluation was the complete lack of alimentary upset and the immediate satisfactory response that was obtained.

Although FERROMYN (Ferrous Succinate) has been shown to be of particular value in treating anaemia of pregnancy, the trial clearly shows that it is equally efficacious in the treatment of a wide field of hypochromic states.

The mean daily Hb increase obtained throughout the whole series was 1.2%.

FERROMYN is available for prescription in four forms: FERROMYN Tablets and Elixir; FERROMYN 'B' Tablets and Elixir which incorporate the vitamin 'B' factors.

A New Approach to the Treatment of Coughs:

How CETAMIUM in New Vick Cough Syrup increases the effectiveness of known and tried medicaments

Nature and Action of Cetamium

Cetamium is a quaternary ammonium salt known chemically as cetylpyridinium chloride. It is best known as a compound with high bactericidal activity, but its other important property of lowering surface tension is of special interest in a cough syrup.

Reduced Surface Tension Aids Penetration of Oral Mucosa

The surface tension of Vick Cough Syrup is approximately 43 dynes per square centimetre as compared with that of distilled water, which is 72. This enables the syrup to penetrate into the crypts and crevices of the oral mucosa which water alone, or a normal syrup, will simply bridge over.

More Effective Action of Accepted Medicaments

The inclusion of Cetamium with time-tested, clinically proven expectorants—ammonium chloride, sodium citrate and glycerine—produces a syrup which brings these medicaments into contact with a more extensive area of the throat membranes than they normally reach, thus bringing more relief to irritated tissues where inflammation or infection may exist.

Active Ingredients

Cetamium	0.025%
Ammon. Chlorid.	1.00%
Sod. Cit.	4.00%
Acid Cit.	0.25%
Glycer.	3.75%

Suitable for Children: No Narcotic

Vick Cetamium Cough Syrup contains no narcotics or habit forming drugs. This fact, plus its delicious flavour, makes it particularly suitable for children.

No Nausea

There is evidence to suggest that Cetamium slightly accelerates stomach emptying action. It will be found that the tendency of syrupy expectorant mixtures to induce nausea, particularly in children, is virtually absent. Nor are there any other side effects.

Free Samples will be sent on request to:

DALMAS LIMITED, LEICESTER & LONDON. Established 1823

An accepted combination in the chemotherapy of tuberculosis is P.A.S. together with isoniazid or streptomycin. Either combination, according to a recent Medical Research Council report (1), is very effective and helps to delay the appearance of resistant strains. P.A.S. has, however, the disadvantage of being poorly tolerated; many patients would welcome an alternative. Therapas, first synthesized in our laboratories in 1951, was introduced as an alternative to P.A.S. to which it is converted in the body (2). Preliminary trials have shown that Therapas may be effective in delaying the emergence of resistant strains to isoniazid or streptomycin, when used together with either of these drugs, and also that it has a therapeutic action per se. It gives satisfactory clinical and radiological results in the treatment of pulmonary tuberculosis (3, 4) and of genito-urinary tuberculosis (5). Since it has a sweet, not unpleasant, taste it is usually much preferred by the patient.

What does the National Formulary say?

In the notes for prescribers the National Formulary 1955 comments on Sulphadimidine B.P. ('Sulphamezathine') as follows :-

the choice of a Chemotherapeutic Agent

"Sulphonamides have as advantages a relatively wide range of activity, the oral route of administration, comparative cheapness and, if sulphadimidine is used, a relative freedom from toxic effects especially in short term treatment."

The National Formulary 1955, p.28.

on Sulphonamide
Mixtures

"Such mixtures are preferable to most of the sulphonamides in common use although it is doubtful if they have any advantage over sulphadimidine."

The National Formulary 1955, p.41.

on Sulphadimidine itself

"Sulphadimidine is very active, but probably less so than sulphanilamide or sulphadiazine. It is easy to produce high blood concentrations by six-hourly administration and toxic effects are rare. Both it and its acetyl derivative are relatively soluble even in acid urine. It is probably the best sulphonamide for routine use."

The National Formulary 1955, p.41.

Sulphadimidine was discovered in the laboratories of I.C.I. and for more than ten years has been marketed by Imperial Chemical (Pharmaceuticals) Ltd. under the name 'Sulphamezathine'.

Note: Our product, prescribed as 'Sulphamezathine' Tablets, is supplied at the Drug Tariff price for Tab. Sulphadimidin. B.P. 'Sulphamezathine' remains the cheapest of the 'safe' sulphonamides now commonly available.

Elastoplast Bandaging Technique

in the treatment of

Leg Ulcers

Firm compression and support is the primary aim in the treatment of leg ulcers with the Elastoplast bandage.

METHOD

Having first applied vertical strips of Elastoplast to all aspects of the leg, covering it from ankle to knee, a bandage* is firmly applied from the webs of the toes to just below the knee, taking the turns from within outwards. Turns should overlap one another by at least half the width of the bandage—even a two-thirds overlap in the lower third of the leg where extra support is most needed.

RESULT Firm elastic support promotes healing of the ulcer by expelling oedema, assisting the pumping and massaging effects of muscular contraction, and by compressing dilated veins. Careful bandaging is essential in order to achieve the best results.

* 3 inches x 3 yards is the normal size for bandaging purposes. Elastoplast elastic adhesive bandages (Porous) B.P.C. are also made in 2, 2½ and 4 inch widths. Prescribable on Form E.C.10.

Treatment of the Streptococcal Throat

'PONDETS' Penicillin are a new and ingenious vehicle for local oral penicillin therapy that combine the striking advantages of extreme palatability with prolonged action. Each 'Pondet' contains 5,000 international units of crystalline potassium penicillin-G in a delicious hard, fruit, toffee-like base that completely masks the bitter taste of penicillin.

Because of the nature of their hard base, 'Pondets' dissolve slowly and uniformly, supplying an uninterrupted high concentration of penicillin to infected areas of the oro-pharyngeal mucosa.

INDICATED in minor superficial oral infections due to penicillin sensitive organisms ranging from the 'Streptococcal Throat' to the less common Vincent's infection and recommended for routine prophylactic use following Tonsillectomy.

Individually wrapped in bottles of 20.

Children accept 'Pondets' as readily as a sweet, and they are particularly useful in controlling throat infections in juvenile communities.

for infant feeding—

Carnation Milk

The growing volume of clinical evidence, pointing to the unusual adaptability of unsweetened Evaporated Milk in infant feeding, suggests the presentation of this synopsis, for the convenience of physicians who may wish to keep in touch with this important development.

WHAT IT IS

1. Unsweetened Evaporated Milk is pure whole milk from tuberculin tested dairy herds. It is concentrated to approximately double richness by the evaporation of water and has nothing added except natural Vitamin D₃.
2. It is not to be confused with sweetened condensed milk, which contains about 40% of added cane sugar.
3. Unsweetened Evaporated Milk is standardised to meet the strict Government requirements of 31% minimum total solids, of which not less than 9% must be butterfat.
4. Carnation is of a known nutritional value. It is easily reconstituted to milk of ordinary richness by the addition of water. The consistency never varies.

HOW IT SERVES

1. The natural reaction of the proteins to heat results in a granular curd similar to that of breast milk. Digestibility is therefore suitably ensured for all infants. Attenuation of the whey fractions greatly benefits those infants sensitive to milk proteins.
2. Carnation is a simple full cream milk, homogenized to present butterfat in a form tolerated by most infants. The globules, 2 microns in diameter, are permanently dispersed, and form a fine emulsion when water is added. Prematures and other fat intolerant infants usually take Carnation very satisfactorily.
3. Each fluid ounce of Carnation Milk provides not less than 33 i.u.'s of Vitamin D₃. Clinical survey proves this quantity adequate for prophylactic purposes. Carnation Milk is a superior source of vital calcium, phosphorus and nitrogen.
4. Carnation Milk is universally obtainable, simple to use and SAFEST in inexperienced hands because of guaranteed sterility.

Carnation Feeding Charts and reprints of clinical investigations are available to the medical profession from: Medical Department, General Milk Products Ltd., Candlewick House, 116/126, Cannon Street, London, E.C.4.

A new route for salicylate therapy

Algesal balm has only one active principle, the newly-synthesised compound, diethylamine salicylate, which differs from other salicylates in that it is not a counter-irritant nor a rubefacient.

Diethylamine salicylate has been shown to penetrate the skin in significant quantities and this discovery has opened up a new route for salicylate therapy.

The site of action of salicylates taken by mouth is still not known for certain and some authorities suggest that it may be peripheral, at the site of the pain¹. Percutaneous salicylate therapy thus has immense possibilities, and Algesal is proving to be a most valuable remedy for the relief of local tissue pain by inunction.

The indications for Algesal fall naturally into four groups: rheumatism, closed inflammatory conditions, pain following trauma of different kinds, and certain painful conditions of unknown aetiology — e.g., chilblains and idiopathic night cramps.

Algesal is a non-staining white cream with a pleasant smell of lavender. It contains 10% diethylamine salicylate, in a vanishing cream base specially formulated to assist skin penetration.

Samples and literature will gladly be sent on request to the manufacturers, E. G. H. Laboratories Ltd., Peru Street, Adelphi, Salford 3.

A New treatment for Peptic Ulcer complicated by Mental Stress and Anxiety

Because many conditions of peptic ulceration are complicated by mental stress, anxiety and nervousness, the Searle Research Laboratories have combined the anticholinergic properties of "Pro-Banthine" with the sedative properties of phenobarbitone on the central nervous system in tablets containing 15 mg. of each.

Phenobarbitone suppresses parasympathetic stimuli at their origin while "Pro-Banthine" forms a block at the autonomic ganglia and at parasympathetic nerve endings. Thus "Pro-Banthine" with Phenobarbitone is an example of rational therapeutics, promoting calm serenity with speedy relief from ulcer pain.

THE SIXTY, SEVENTY-FIVE AND NINETY

EXTRA COMFORT Rover cars have a fine reputation for driver and passenger comfort. There is now a choice of two styles in the front seating—a bench type seat or, as an optional extra, two individual seats independently adjustable. A distinguished arrival from France —

NORMANDIN COGNAC

LIQUEUR BRANDY

To everyone who appreciates rare quality, the arrival in this country of TRADITION Liqueur Brandy is important news. So named because it is especially blended by E. Normandin et Cie. to suit the traditional English preference for a pale, dry Cognac, TRADITION owes nothing to artifice. It derives its superb clean flavour wholly and solely from grapes grown at Chateaufort, in the heart of the Cognac region, while its delicate amber colour is its natural inheritance from the oaken casks in which the years have mellowed it. Ask your Wine Merchant to tell you more about TRADITION — to be informed about it is to enjoy it all the more.

TRADITION Cognac Liqueur Brandy
Bottles: 57/6 each
Half-Bottles: 29/3 each

FOR A SPLENDID 3-STAR-LOREL

Although TRADITION is not inexpensive, you can with an easy conscience spend on it what you sensibly save on LOREL — an uncommonly excellent pure French Brandy which costs only 37/6 a bottle. Perfect for Brandies-and-sodas.

Therapeutic Heat

The sting of a bee was just one of many ancient methods used to produce local hyperaemia for curative purposes. The principle was sound, though the source of therapeutic heat was perhaps a little difficult to regulate. Today the ideal method of producing hyperaemia is by means of infra-red irradiation. Hanovia "Sollux" Lamps have been used in this form of treatment for over 20 years. Where speedy effective treatment requires a powerful unit, the "Sollux" Model 10 gives outstanding results. It provides the operator with high-powered light or dark sources, and with localizer, intensity regulator and colour filters. Smaller units are available for portable use. Indications and techniques for infra-red treatment are fully described in our illustrated handbook, "Pre-eminent in the Relief of Pain".

are urgently required for general duties, including Hospital and district work in order to maintain existing standards of service to the public and to make possible much needed expansion. The appointments offer scope for the practice of many branches of medicine and surgery and carry a considerable measure of independence and personal responsibility. Arrangements exist for allowing private practice, at the discretion of the Director of Medical Services. Candidates must possess medical qualifications registrable in the United Kingdom and have had at least twelve months' postgraduate hospital experience. There is a permanent career for doctors entering the Sierra Leone Service, but short term contracts are available. Alternative methods of entry are as follows: (a) on three years' probation for permanent and pensionable employment with retiring age of between 45 and 55. Pensions (which are non-contributory) are at the rate of 1/600th of the final pensionable emoluments for each completed month of reckonable services; (b) from the National Health Service. Candidates may resign but retain their superannuation rights up to six years and receive a gratuity (taxable) of 20 per cent of the aggregate of their salary. Salaries, including pensionable expatriation pay, for Officers under (a) and (b) range from £942 to £1,850 a year; or (c) on short term contract (two tours of eighteen to twenty-four months' duration each) with inclusive salaries from £1,068 to £2,000 a year. On completion of contract a gratuity (taxable) is paid at the rate of £37 10s. for each completed period of three months' service (including leave). Starting salaries are determined according to age, qualifications and experience. Opportunities exist for transfer and promotion to posts elsewhere in Her Majesty's Oversea Service outside Sierra Leone. Quarters are normally available, at low rental. Free passages in both directions are provided for officer, wife, and up to two children under the age of 10. Income tax at local rates. Local leave is permissible and generous home leave is granted after each tour of eighteen to twenty-four months' duration. The short tours of service enable frequent visits to be made to children being educated at home. Many officers have their children with them until they reach school age. Availability of Vitamins in Yeast

Deficiencies of single factors of the Vitamin B Group do not occur. Accordingly, even if a deficiency condition appears to result from the lack of an individual factor of the group and it is considered necessary to give intensive treatment with this factor, the entire Vitamin B complex should always be administered concurrently.

It is, however, extremely important, in view of suggestions in recent publications, that the vehicle selected as a source of the entire B Complex does not withhold its vitamin content from the patient.

Human experiments show that the rich, natural vitamin potency of Aluzyme is totally available to the human system.

- Aluzyme is not advertised to the public and may be prescribed on Form E.C.10
