A NEW APPROACH TO WOUND HEALING

The use of STABILIZED TRYPSIN in the treatment of

WOUNDS

ABRASIONS

BURNS

ULCERS etc.

IT HAS LONG BEEN KNOWN that the proteolytic enzyme Trypsin could resolve necrotic tissue and was in theory an ideal physiological agent for the treatment of infected wounds. Its instability has, however, until recently precluded its use for this purpose. Lloyd-Hamol of London and Zurich have now succeeded in producing a cream, Biotrase, in which trypsin remains physiologically active for over a year.

Biotrase also contains two new anti-septic agents, both of which are active against a wide range of gram-positive and gram-negative pathogenic organisms.

Biotrase digests purulent matter and leaves a clean granulating surface. It does not attack vital tissues.

Indications for use

Biotrase may be used wherever there is an infected—or potentially infected—breach of surface of the skin. Common conditions for its use include the following: Wounds, second and third degree burns; infected and necrotic skin conditions, including pyodermias; boils and carbuncles (following incision); all types of ulcers. Biotrase has been found most useful in the treatment of varicose ulcers, providing these are not surrounded with avas-cular tissue and not of long duration.

Biotrase can be prescribed on Form E.C.10.

Biotrase is in 35 gram tubes at a basic N.H.S. price of 3/9d.

Biotrase contains: Trypsin pur. 0.16%; Calcium N-Hydroxymethylglutamate 5.00%; 2.2'-Thiobis-(4,6-dichlorophenol) 0.50% in Polyethylene glycol.

Extensive tests show that Hypon has the power not only to relieve pain but to do so very rapidly. Constipation, so often encountered following the administration of codeine is effectively counteracted by the addition of phenolphthalein. Caffeine offsets the depressing effects of aspirin and phenacetin. Hypon is invaluable where prolonged administration is called for (chronic rheumatic conditions for instance). as an alternative to the conventional many-tailed bandage

When frequent dressings are necessary, the following method of applying Elastoplast may be used as a substitute for an abdominal many-tailed bandage.

Six pieces, each about 12 inches in length, are prepared from a 3-inch wide Elastoplast bandage. Tapes are attached as illustrated (Fig. 1), and the completed pieces applied to the body from each side (Fig. 2). The tapes are tied over the dressing covering the wound (Fig. 3). The bandage may be applied by one person without disturbing the patient. It is easily made, provides adequate support and will remain firmly in position.

The above method is comfortable in use as the patient does not have to wear perineal stirrups to keep the bandage in place, or to lie on a bandage which may become "rucked-up" — disadvantages associated with the flannelette type of many-tailed bandage.

provides milk-alkali drip therapy without a tube

Maintains continuous control of gastric acidity

Until a few years ago, maintained continuous control of gastric acidity was impossible without hospitalization and discomfort to the patient.

Then a unique treatment in the form of Nulacin tablets was evolved to achieve this desirable state—simply, effectively and without attendant disadvantages. In the ensuing period Nulacin therapy has been amply tried and proved by numerous clinical studies and by therapeutic use in many countries.

A Nulacin tablet placed in the mouth between the cheek and the gum dissolves slowly and releases its contained medicaments at a rate that gives continuous neutralization of the acid gastric juice. Nulacin accomplishes this without any danger of causing alkalosis or other side-effects. The results are comparable with those of intragastric milk-alkali drip therapy.

INDICATIONS: NULACIN tablets are indicated whenever neutralization of the acid gastric contents is required: in active and quiescent peptic ulcer, gastritis and other conditions of gastric hyperacidity.

Dosage: Beginning half-an-hour after food, a Nulacin tablet should be placed in the mouth between the cheek and the gum and allowed to dissolve.

During the stage of ulcer activity, up to three tablets an hour may be required. During quiescent periods, for prophylaxis in peptic ulcer and for the relief of discomfort due to gastric hyperacidity, the dose of Nulacin is one or two tablets between meals.

NULACIN tablets are not advertised to the public and have no B.P. equivalent. They may be prescribed on E.C.10. The dispensing unit of 25 tablets is free of purchase tax. (Basic price to N.H.S. . . . 2/-). Also available in tubes of 12.

NULACIN tablets are prepared from whole milk combined with dextrans and maltose, and incorporate magnesium trisilicate 3.5 grs.; magnesium oxide 2.0 grs.; calcium carbonate 2.0 grs.; magnesium carbonate 0.5 grs.; Ol. Menth. Pip. q.s.

GASTRIC ANALYSIS Superimposed gruel fractional test-meal curves of five cases of duodenal ulcer.

GASTRIC ANALYSIS Same patients as in Fig. 1, two days later, showing the striking neutralizing effect of sucking Nulacin tablets (3 an hour). Note the return of acidity when Nulacin is discontinued.

'Merbentyl' effectively reduces the hypermotility of the gastro-intestinal tract

1. 'Merbentyl' has a twofold action. It is an anticholinergic and it also exerts a direct relaxing action on the smooth muscle of the gastro-intestinal tract similar to that exerted by papaverine.
2. 'Merbentyl' is virtually free from the side effects associated with the older antispasmodics, such as belladonna, and is more effective.
3. 'Merbentyl' is available in tablet form, each tablet containing 10 mgm. dicyclomine hydrochloride, or as a pleasantly flavoured syrup containing 10 mgm. in each 5 c.c. Both forms are available combined with phenobarbitone.

'Merbentyl' may safely be given to young children. Infantile colic responds dramatically to its administration.

Nervous indigestion, the bane of the elderly, responds very satisfactorily to 'Merbentyl' therapy.

In the treatment of peptic ulceration the administration of an antispasmodic together with antacids has become virtually routine. For this condition a special preparation 'Kolantyl' has been formulated.

(See separate literature)

DOSAGE Two tablets or two teaspoonsful of syrup three times a day.

BUFFERED THEOPHYLLINE FOR THE PROPHYLAXIS & TREATMENT OF ASTHMA

'ENGLATE' combines theophylline sodium with glycine, which acts as a powerful buffer against gastric hydrochloric acid and thus reduces the precipitation of theophylline. Theophylline sodium glycinate causes less gastrointestinal disturbances than other xanthine compounds and can therefore be prescribed in larger doses to obtain maximum theophylline activity.

'ENGLATE' syrup is specially recommended for children up to 12 years in preference to tablets.

Dr. M. A. Lassrich, Prof. Dr. R. Prévôt, and Prof. Dr. K. H. Schäfer. Translation provided by James T. Case, M.D., D.M.R.E.(Cambridge)

THIS IMPRESSIVE VOLUME has been designed to serve as an important extension of the standard texts in the field; an up-to-date source which brings together the latest advances and shows how to use them for more accurate diagnosis. The illustrations, carefully chosen from extensive clinical material, are superb reproductions of the highest quality, showing a richness of detail rarely encountered in book form. In conjunction, numerous explanatory schematic drawings and legends provide all the essential clinical and roentgenologic data that is necessary, and the introductory remarks for each chapter fully explain the technical details involved. Bone Diseases in Medical Practice

I. Snapper, M.D.

WITH THIS NEW VOLUME, the often-mentioned need for a practical and up-to-date treatise on bone diseases is fulfilled. The author has one major objective: to present this subject as it can be used in daily practice, emphasizing that in many skeletal diseases a clear-cut diagnosis can be made, usually pointing the way to specific and remarkably rewarding therapy. Since quality and fine detail of x-ray reproduction is so essential for presenting the diagnostic points of bone diseases, special processes for finer reproduction and printing have been used especially for this book. Thus it will be of direct interest not only to the bone specialist and general physician, but to the radiologist as well. (To be published this month, 230 pp., 149 illus., 105s.)

How Free is Air?

To the asthmatic, it can be a dear and painful commodity indeed. To the asthmatic, resumption of free breathing is more welcome—and far more vital—than free flight to imprisoned birds. Knowing as you do how individual is every case of asthma; how for each of these patients must be found one specific treatment which suits him best—though it may be quite wrong for the next; you will welcome the news that the list of asthma medicaments prescribable under the N. H. S. has been augmented—and with so eminently useful an addition as Brovon.

Brovon Asthma Inhalant contains:

Treatment of DIABETES MELLITUS without injections

Rastinon «Hoechst» tablets provide an oral treatment for certain diabetic patients.

EFFECTIVE A number of patients on small regular doses of insulin have been found to be suitable for treatment with Rastinon «Hoechst» tablets. Clinical work throughout the world has shown that approximately a quarter of all diabetics can be stabilized on Rastinon «Hoechst» tablets. A few of the more recent references to the literature are given opposite.

SAFE The selection and stabilization of diabetic patients should be carried out under strict medical supervision. For those patients found to be suitable, Rastinon «Hoechst» tablets provide a safe form of therapy and many have now been on oral treatment for two years. No cases of proven dyshaemopoiesis or other serious side-effects due to the drug have been reported.

SIMPLE From 2 to 4 tablets a day are normally all that is required to replace the insulin with its concomitant syringe, needles, swabs, and often nursing assistance as well. The normal regime of urine examination and dietary control remains necessary.

Packs: bottles of 100 and 500 tablets.

The basic price to the National Health Service as dispensed from a 500 tablet bottle is 2.97d per tablet and the total cost to the National Health Service, with all allowances, is less than 4d per tablet.

Each tablet contains 0.5 G. of N-Butyl-N¹-toluene-p-sulphonylurea; (Tolbutamide).
