says
OLD HETHERS

Yes, why indeed? You would think people in charge of invalids wouldn't want to make work. But so many do just that when they make barley water the old-fashioned way—with pearl barley. Introduce them to my way—with Robinson's 'patent' Barley. They'll bless you for it. It's as easy as making cocoa! Cheap too! a 1/7½d. pack makes forty-eight pints.

Is she suitable for oral diabetic treatment?

Many diabetic patients have now been stabilised on Rastinon tablets and inevitably other diabetics are wondering if they, too, can look forward to "treatment without injections." It has been estimated that about a quarter of all diabetics at present taking insulin in one clinic in Great Britain could be well controlled on Rastinon instead. (Lancet, 1957, 2, 125)

SELECTION AND STABILISATION

The suitability of a patient can readily be determined in the diabetic clinic where selection and stabilisation are easily carried out. For those patients found to be suitable, Rastinon tablets provide a safe and effective form of therapy. No cases of proven dys-haemopoiesis or other serious side-effects due to the drug have been reported.

A SIMPLE AND ECONOMICAL TREATMENT

From 1 to 3 tablets a day are normally all that is required in suitable patients to replace the insulin. The usual regime of urine examination and dietary control remains necessary. The basic cost to the National Health Service of a week's treatment is on average between 3/6d. and 5/3d.

PACKS

Bottles of 100 and 500 tablets. Each tablet contains 0.5G of N-Butyl-N'-toluene-p-sulphonylurea (tolbutamide). Fuller information on selection and stabilisation of patients, and references to the published work, on request. Rastinon tablets are made in England and are available in U.K. exclusively from:

A NEW SKELETAL MUSCLE RELAXANT

ROBAXIN[®]

(METHOCARBAMOL)

ROBAXIN, a unique chemical formulation, synthesized in the Robins Research Laboratories and subjected to intensive clinical study for over five years, presents the physician with an entirely new agent for the relaxation of skeletal muscle.

By means of specific action on the internuncial neurons of the spinal chord, ROBAXIN provides sustained repression of the multisynaptic reflexes without demonstrable effect on the monosynaptic reflexes.

ROBAXIN is highly potent, long acting and the clinical evidence shows a low incidence of side effects. In ordinary dosage it does not reduce normal muscle strength or reflex activity.

INDICATIONS

Acute back pain due to muscle spasm secondary to sprain, trauma or nerve irritation. Muscle spasm secondary to disc lesions and post-operative orthopaedic procedures. Bursitis, Torticollis and related conditions.

SUPPLIED as tablets (white, scored) each 0.5 G. in bottles of 50. Prescribable on N.H.S. form E.C.10.

Poliomyelitis-

...an effective pattern of protection

The increasing use of inoculation against Poliomyelitis does not dispense with the necessity for using other proved methods of prevention.

On the contrary—such methods should be more widely and more thoroughly applied.

'In Poliomyelitis epidemics, where a large proportion of the virus hosts are symptomless carriers—a vigorous health education programme.... directed at raising the standards of personal hygiene.... coupled with measures to raise individual resistance to Poliomyelitis virus infection by strengthening active immunity, offers best hope of success.'

For inactivating Poliomyelitis virus, 'Oxidising agents seem to be the most active chemical disinfectants.'

'An oxidising agent of great potency is Domestos which, when used at concentration of from $\frac{1}{4}$ to 2 ozs per gallon, provides a level of available chlorine in the range 150 to 1,200 parts per million—sufficient to inactivate the Poliomyelitis virus.'

A pattern of protection against Polio is assured by using DOMESTOS, which 'destroys Poliomyelitis virus—

(a) For Lavatories. Overnight contact will destroy heavy soiling and give a free residual chlorine content which will inactivate virus contaminants. The exterior of the bowl and the seat which frequently come into contact with the hands of children, should always be washed with a DOMESTOS solution.

(b) For the disinfection and cleaning of dishes, floors, kitchen surfaces, sinks, etc.

(c) For safeguarding against the infection of food by bluebottles, flies, vermin.

(d) For the disinfection of yards, paths, etc.

(e) For the disinfection and cleaning of clogged drains.

There's more to Neobacrin than meets the eye—or the skin, for that matter. Its two antibiotic components—neomycin and bacitracin—not only exert a highly effective bactericidal action against most gram-positive and gram-negative bacteria; they have practically no sensitizing potential and negligible irritant properties. Moreover, resistant strains have not been reported to occur with neomycin or bacitracin applied locally. Telling reasons, these, for letting Neobacrin take care of those common infections of the eye and skin.

Spencer

IS the support of choice

Spencer Supports are therapeutically effective as treatment aid in convalescent and chronic poliomyelitis, especially where there is involvement of trunk and abdominal muscles. The patient pictured at left is a typical example. This female child is shown 16 months following acute poliomyelitis. Note residual paralysis of abdominal muscles, scoliosis, and marked lordosis. Treatment for this patient included Spencer Spinal Support (as shown) to help maintain and correct body alignment and to help prevent further development of deformity. A Spencer abdominal Spring Pad* was incorporated in the support to aid respiration and to compensate for paralysed abdominal muscles.

Spencer is the support of choice because: each Spencer Support is individually designed, cut, and made according to the medical indications for each patient.

'Merbentyl' exerts a double action in relieving the pain of gastro-intestinal and genito-urinary spasm. It has an anti-cholinergic action and a direct relaxing action on smooth muscle similar to that of papaverine.

'Merbentyl' achieves its effect without any side effects, avoiding the discomfort of blurred vision or dry mouth. It has been calculated that two tablets exert an antispasmodic effect equivalent to that produced by 64 minims of tincture of belladonna.

DOSAGE

Two tablets or two teaspoonsful of syrup (20 mg.) three times a day. Occasionally a fourth dose is indicated at bedtime. In less severe cases 10 mg. three times a day will suffice. MASTER PLAN against migraine

The prescribing of 'Migril' makes possible at last a planned attack upon the three predominant symptoms of migraine. Ergotamine is present at strength in 'Migril' for its specific effect upon the characteristic headache and ocular disturbances. Caffeine is present too, since it acts as a synergist to ergotamine. Frequently, however, ergotamine tends to evoke nausea and vomiting on its own account and can therefore worsen these aspects of the condition. For this reason, the potent, rapidly acting anti-emetic cyclizine is also included in 'Migril'—to overcome any tendency to nausea or vomiting, whether caused by the ergotamine or by the condition itself. And so successfully does cyclizine achieve this aim that truly effective oral doses of ergotamine can today be given—by means of 'Migril'.

AFFECTED

On 18th August, 1958, Glaxo Laboratories Ltd., again made substantial reductions in the prices of CORTELAN, EF-CORTELAN, PREDNELAN, DELTA-CORTELAN and PREDASIN. Altogether 49 separate packs were affected by the reductions, full details of which have been sent to hospitals and other users of our products.

Downwards — this is always the trend of Glaxo prices. Since they were introduced to our list some years ago, no single Glaxo antibiotic or corticoid product has been increased in price. Instead, as production has mounted, many products have been consistently reduced in price. This is primarily the result of a forward looking research and manufacturing programme that utilises all modern means to provide you with the finest, most up-to-date drugs at the lowest possible prices.
