PSYCHOTHERAPY CLINIC

The Clinic is administered by an independent charitable Trust. It offers therapy under medical direction to those whose needs cannot be met by materialist psychology, who cannot be given immediate attention at N.H.S. clinics, and who cannot afford high private fees. (A fee of one guinea per hour's session is charged.)

The Clinic also offers opportunities for post-graduate studies in psychotherapy. These take the form of research into all aspects of illness and healing, and mental health education.

RASTINON

THE
ORAL TREATMENT OF DIABETES

An advance in the therapy of diabetes

Rastinon tablets, developed by Farbwerke Hoechst AG., of Frankfurt/M., under the research No. D860, have now an established place in the therapy of diabetes mellitus. The large volume of clinical work and the number of papers published, reflect the world-wide interest in Rastinon. This work clearly shows that for the suitable patient Rastinon tablets provide a form of therapy which is Simple, safe, effective and economical

Rastinon is not a "sulphonamide drug," has no anti-bacterial action and does not produce crystalluria. No cases of dyshaemopoiesis or other serious side-effects have been reported among the many thousands of patients satisfactorily controlled for more than two years.

The suitability of a patient for treatment with Rastinon tablets is readily assessed in the diabetic clinic and once stabilised no difficulties have been experienced in controlling the patient. An acute intercurrent infection may necessitate a temporary return to insulin therapy.

DOSAGE

Once stabilised, from one to three tablets a day are normally all that is required to replace the insulin with its concomitant syringe, needles, swabs, and often nursing assistance as well. During the period of stabilisation it has been found that generally from four to eight tablets on the first day, three to six on the second and three to five on the third are sufficient.

The daily amount should be divided into two or three doses and taken during or after meals with a little fluid. Higher doses are not usually more effective and are not recommended as they may occasionally cause hypoglycaemic reactions. The normal regime of urine examination and dietary control remains necessary.

To lessen the possibility of the patient taking a tablet other than Rastinon in error, each tablet is engraved with the name Rastinon and the trade mark of the originators.

PACKS

Bottles of 100 and 500 tablets—each tablet contains 0.5 G. N-Butyl-N'-toluene-p-sulphonylurea (tolbutamide). The basic cost to the N.H.S. of a week's treatment is on average between 3/6d. and 5/3d.

Anticholine drugs

"... in the United States the preparation which is by far the most widely prescribed is "donnatal"; a mixture of the naturally occurring substances atropine, hyoscine, and hyoscyamine."

British Medical Journal, 1958, 1, 882

As recently annotated in the B.M.J., Donnatal contains natural belladonna alkaloids, atropine, hyoscine and hyoscyamine, with added phenobarbitone. In the United States it is, as quoted, "the most widely prescribed preparation" where spasmolysis with non-toxic sedation is indicated. Since the original introduction of Donnatal some years ago, a wealth of clinical evidence has been steadily accumulating, testifying to the remarkable success of this unique formulation in the treatment of a wide range of gastro-intestinal, genito-urinary and other disorders where the control of spasm is called for.

Each Donnatal Tablet contains :

Hyoscyamine Sulphate	0.1037 mg.
Atropine Sulphate	0.0194 mg.
Hyoscine hydrobromide	0.0065 mg.
Phenobarbitone ($\frac{1}{4}$ gr.)	16.2 mg.

The oral diuretic agent which also possesses hypotensive properties.

'SALURIC', already universally accepted as the only oral diuretic as effective as mersalyl, possesses the unique and additional property of hypotensive activity. Frequently it may be possible to control blood pressure with 'SALURIC' alone or with the addition of only a sedative or mild hypotensive agent. But when ganglion blocking agents are required in addition, the dosage and administration of these is greatly simplified.

LONGER LIFE FOR HYPERTENSIVES

'INVERSINE' and 'SALURIC' concurrently, provide; Smaller dosage of 'INVERSINE' • Smoother control of blood pressure • Freedom from, or diminution in, side-effects usually associated with ganglion blockade.

How supplied:

Do you subdue bacteria—
OR KILL THEM?

Undoubtedly the best way to eradicate bacteria is to kill them. And undoubtedly the best antibiotics to achieve this end, in the great majority of infections, are penicillin and streptomycin. These are combined in Crystamycin.

Crystamycin is bactericidal. Therefore it does not, as the bacteriostatic broad-spectrum antibiotics do, merely inhibit the multiplication of micro-organisms—it stops them dead in their tracks, destroying them swiftly, relentlessly and safely. Therapy with Crystamycin is short and decisive... and low in cost into the bargain.

STANDARDIZED SENNA

— in obstetric practice

Extract from a letter in the BRITISH MEDICAL JOURNAL,

December 14th, 1957, p.1438

“‘Liquid paraffin interferes with absorption from the gut of carotene and vitamins A and D’ (1) The pregnant woman is filled full of vitamin tablets yet so often is prescribed liquid paraffin.”

“For three years, apart from advice on diet, I have found it unnecessary to prescribe any other laxative than standardized senna (‘senokot’), about which the articles (2) already referred to were enthusiastic. The pregnant woman, so difficult to please because of nausea, has a choice with regard to this preparation of chocolate granules or tablets. And she can go on taking it nightly without ill effect.”

UNIQUE FAT STORAGE

Most of the advantages of 'TACE' are derived from its storage in body fat. Pharmacological evidence has been provided by articles published^{1,2}, and from results demonstrated by radio-autographs. Abundant clinical confirmation is also available.

No other oestrogen at present available has this property. Because 'TACE' is stored in body fat no sudden drop in oestrogen blood level occurs. The oestrogenic effect persists for up to 3 months after administration ceases.

High doses are unnecessary, since 'TACE' is metabolized by the liver to a more potent oestrogenic compound.

1. Amer. J. Obst. Gynec. (1952) 63:1361.
2. Proc. Soc. exp. Biol. (1953) 84:491.

DOSE: 2 capsules daily for one month.

PACKS: 'TACE' is available as green capsules, each containing 12 mgm. chlorotrianisene dissolved in oil: Bottles containing 60 to 300 capsules. The basic N.H.S. costs are 18/4d. and 73/-.

Feeling of Well Being

The feeling of well being, so important to the patient, is characteristic of 'TACE' therapy.

Smooth Prolonged Action with Fewer Side Effects

Fat storage results in a steady release of oestrogen, providing a smooth action which persists for some time after administration has ceased.

Low Incidence of Withdrawal Bleeding

Owing to the gradual release of the fat stored 'TACE', no fluctuations occur in blood oestrogen levels. Withdrawal bleeding consequently is greatly diminished.

Simplicity of Dosage

'TACE' is given on a fixed dosage scheme. Higher dosage does not produce greater fat storage.

'TACE' is a registered trade mark of the Wm. S. Merrell Co., London. Distributed in Great Britain and Irish Republic by a haemokinetic agent

VASCULIT

for increased peripheral blood flow

Recently introduced to the Medical Profession in this country, Vasculit is a haemokinetic agent which produces a marked increase in peripheral blood flow. This is accompanied by an increase in cardiac efficiency associated with an increase in stroke output. The heart rate remains unchanged.

In therapeutic dosage, the action of Vasculit is immediate and free from the common and often intense side-effects associated with conventional treatment of deficient peripheral blood flow. Clinical investigations reveal no significant fall in blood pressure and no extra systoles or other arrhythmias have been observed. Apart from its therapeutic effects, Vasculit is reported to create a subjective feeling of well-being.

Vasculit is available both in drop and tablet form. This permits precise and flexible dosage to suit the varying needs of individual patients.

Good results have been obtained with Vasculit in the treatment of many vasomotor disorders, delayed union of fractures, in traumatic osteoporosis and in bedsores¹. It has also been used with benefit in post-thrombotic conditions² and has received numerous favourable reports as a valuable adjuvant in the treatment of indolent ulcers of the leg³. Headaches and cerebral symptoms associated with essential hypertension and arteriosclerosis have been promptly relieved⁴.

Nutrition after gastrectomy

Nutritional disturbances are among the sequelae of gastrectomy. Absence of the intrinsic factor causes the primary Addisonian anaemia which follows total excision; this necessitates specific replacement therapy with vitamin B₁₂. The incidence of pernicious anaemia in patients after partial gastrectomy does not appear to be greater than among the general population, but deficiencies of other B vitamins may occur postoperatively. An increased intake of the vitamin B complex is therefore advisable.

Marmite yeast extract is a palatable source of every known factor of the vitamin B complex and has been widely recommended in all conditions in which vitamin B deficiencies may develop. Its pleasant taste and the variety of appetising ways in which it can be incorporated in the diet ensure easy administration.

Gentle Reminder

Even the healthiest person suffers occasionally from alimentary disorders. If the trouble is of a minor nature - brought on, perhaps, by unwise diet - Andrews may well be the answer.

Andrews neutralizes stomach acids, stimulates bile flow. It assists elimination by introducing liquid into the bowel by osmosis. Used judiciously as a corrective to a faulty diet, Andrews encourages the body to perform its normal functions in a perfectly natural and gentle way.

Poliomyelitis-

...an effective pattern of protection

The increasing use of inoculation against Poliomyelitis does not dispense with the necessity for using other proved methods of prevention.

On the contrary—such methods should be more widely and more thoroughly applied.

'In Poliomyelitis epidemics, where a large proportion of the virus hosts are symptomless carriers—a vigorous health education programme.... directed at raising the standards of personal hygiene.... coupled with measures to raise individual resistance to Poliomyelitis virus infection by strengthening active immunity, offers best hope of success.'¹

For inactivating Poliomyelitis virus, 'Oxidising agents seem to be the most active chemical disinfectants.'²

'An oxidising agent of great potency is Domestos which, when used at concentration of from $\frac{1}{4}$ to 2 ozs per gallon, provides a level of available chlorine in the range 150 to 1,200 parts per million—sufficient to inactivate the Poliomyelitis virus.'³

A pattern of protection against Polio is assured by using DOMESTOS, which destroys Poliomyelitis virus—

(a) For Lavatories. Overnight contact will destroy heavy soiling and give a free residual chlorine content which will inactivate virus contaminants. The exterior of the bowl and the seat which frequently come into contact with the hands of children, should always be washed with a DOMESTOS solution.

(b) For the disinfection and cleaning of dishes, floors, kitchen surfaces, sinks, etc.

(c) For safeguarding against the infection of food by bluebottles, flies, vermin.

(d) For the disinfection of yards, paths, etc.

(e) For the disinfection and cleaning of clogged drains.

relief for every phase of the cough

This tasty combination of expectorant, bronchodilator and sedatives provides excellent therapy for coughs associated with acute or chronic respiratory infections and coughs associated with allergy and asthma. The increased iodide content quickly increases secretions, thus liquefying thick, bronchial mucus. This makes breathing easier and helps avoid conditions which might favour pathogenic invasions. The broncho-dilating action of ephedrine reduces the spasm of the bronchial tree, while Nembutal provides just enough sedation to lend a calming effect. These, plus codeine which depresses the cough reflex, combine to give patients prompt relief.

Seriously, don't you think the Vauxhall designers had us doctors in mind when they planned the Victor?

Consider, now . . . A doctor needs a car with modern lines — it's part of his persona — but he doesn't want a big one. He must have an immensely reliable car, for obvious reasons. He must be able to move fast, and easily, without tiring himself . . . and hop in and out quickly. He wants a really useful luggage boot. He wants, above all, a car that doesn't cost too much, to own or to drive.

Get your Vauxhall dealer to let you have a trial run. You'll be impressed. (And remember, Vauxhall Square Deal Service is the best and cheapest in the country.)

APPOINTMENTS

Applicants should state name, address, age, nationality, qualifications, and enclose (unless otherwise specified) one copy each of 3 recent ★ testimonials with short statement of experience and appointments held.

Applications should be sent at once if no closing date is given.

House Officers should submit a separate application for each post for which they apply.

Canvassing in any form will disqualify.

★ SERVICE MEMBERS may have difficulty in supplying recent testimonials, but this should not deter them from applying.

A fully registered medical practitioner who is liable for National Service must obtain deferment of recruitment in writing from the Central Medical Recruitment Committee or (in Scotland) the Scottish Central Medical Recruitment Committee before accepting any civilian appointment.

The position of provisionally registered medical practitioners who are liable for National Service has been made clear in a notice sent to them by the Ministry of Labour and National Service.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH New South Wales, Australia Institute of Clinical Pathology

Applications are invited from medical graduates, before October 29, 1958, for the three executive positions in the Institute of Clinical Pathology now being established within the organization of the Department of Public Health of New South Wales. These positions are:

DIRECTOR BIOCHEMIST BACTERIOLOGIST

The Institute of Clinical Pathology is being founded to provide a comprehensive pathological service to State Hospitals under the control of the Department of Public Health; to augment pathological services now available to the Public Hospitals system of the State and the practising medical profession; to function as a centre for chronic and geriatric diseases; and to provide postgraduate training in pathology.

The Institute is now under construction and is located within the grounds of the Lidcombe State Hospital about 10 miles from Sydney. When completed the Institute will be the largest of its type in Australia, and will be fully equipped to cover all aspects of clinical pathology.

The Director will have sole administrative and professional control of the Institute, subject to the Director-General of Public Health on matters of general and administrative policy.

The Biochemist and Bacteriologist will be in charge of their various sections of the Institute, being responsible to the Director for the efficient performance and conduct of these sections.

The qualifications and salaries for these positions are:

(a) Director.

The Director must possess a postgraduate degree or Diploma in Pathology or equivalent qualifications, with additional experience in histopathology. In addition, he must be of senior status in the profession, and previous experience in the control of a pathological unit or a section or department of pathology is essential. He should be capable of initiating and supervising research projects. These projects are subject to the approval of the Director-General of Public Health. The salary is £A.3,150, and a modern unfurnished residence will be available at a nominal rental.

(b) Biochemist.

Applicants should be well qualified in this branch of pathology, and should possess a postgraduate degree or Diploma in Pathology, or have equivalent qualifications. Previous experience in research and in the control of a biochemical laboratory would be an advantage. The salary is £A.2,750.

(c) Bacteriologist.

Applicants should be well qualified in this branch of pathology, and previous experience in the control of a bacteriological laboratory is desirable. Other things being equal, preference will be given to applicants who have specialized in virology and who would be prepared to establish a virology laboratory in the Institute. The salary is £A.2,750.

Housing, other than temporary accommodation on arrival in Sydney, will not be supplied for the Biochemist or Bacteriologist. For all three positions first-class fares to Sydney, Australia, will be provided for the successful applicants and their children under 18 years of age, subject to a guarantee of a minimum period of service of three years.

Copies only of testimonials are to be submitted on application, and each applicant is required to nominate two referees to whom reference may be made. Applicants from outside New South Wales should also forward a recent photograph.

Application forms and a brochure setting out in detail the role of the Institute in respect to State medical services, and providing also detailed plans of the Institute, and terms and conditions of service are available on application to the Agent-General for New South Wales, 56/57, Strand, London, W.C.2, or the Secretary, Public Service Board, 19, O'Connell Street, Sydney, Australia. THE PROBLEM

To obtain high blood levels of theophylline easily

THE SOLUTION

Oral 'Theodrox'

THE RESULT

A full Therapeutic response

For oral aminophylline therapy to be fully effective it is necessary to give a dose sufficient to produce high blood theophylline levels. However, because of gastric irritation vomiting often results. Alternative therapy with enteric coated tablets or suppositories is unreliable, and parenteral aminophylline is inconvenient.

The combination of dried aluminium hydroxide gel and aminophylline in 'Theodrox' ensures full therapeutic response with the minimum of gastric upset. Reproducible blood levels comparable with those obtained from intramuscular injection can be obtained.

Recent work^{1,2} has shown that synthetic derivatives of theophylline are mostly unsatisfactory and all are more expensive.

Each 'Theodrox' tablet contains 3 grains aminophylline and 4 grains dried aluminium hydroxide gel.

'Theodrox' is also available combined with $\frac{1}{8}$ grain phenobarbitone where a degree of sedation is also required.

DOSAGE . . .

ASTHMA:— two tablets, repeated in 2-3 hours if necessary to control paroxysm and dyspnoea. For prophylaxis, one tablet 4 times daily.

DIURETIC:— two tablets initially, then one or two tablets three times daily.

ANGINA PECTORIS:— four to eight tablets daily. In suitable cases 'Theodrox' with Phenobarbitone tablets can replace some or all of the 'Theodrox'.

PACKS:— Bottles of 25, 100 and 1,000 tablets.

'Theodrox' (Brit. Pat. 727831) is a registered Trade Mark of
